

PARTICIPANTS IN LEARNING, LEADING & SERVING

A Grand Canyon University Educational Alliance

What are the Benefits of Being an Out-of-State PLLS Participant?

GRAND CANYON STATE UNIVERSITY GRANT.* PLLS high school students (grades 9-12) who are accepted to attend Grand Canyon University will receive a $250 GCU grant. The grant is divided into $125 for the fall and spring semesters as long as the student maintains the minimum GPA requirements.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR STAFF. Exclusive 10% scholarship for PLLS faculty, staff and governing board members on tuition for undergraduate, graduate or doctoral degree programs at GCU.

CONTINUING EDUCATION/SINGLE COURSE SCHOLARSHIP. Exclusive 10% scholarship for PLLS faculty, staff and governing board members on individual courses from GCU's degree programs, along with a portfolio of six-week online continuing education classes.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR SPOUSES. Exclusive 5% scholarship for spouses of PLLS participant faculty, staff and governing board members, providing savings toward tuition and fees for online undergraduate, graduate or doctoral degree programs at GCU.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR PARENTS. Exclusive 5% scholarship for PLLS parents on tuition for undergraduate or graduate degree programs through the College of Education or a doctoral degree related to the field of education.

COHORTS. PLLS participants may request that cohorts be developed for continuing education, individual courses and/or degree programs online or at an approved PLLS site or regionally approved GCU site.

DUAL ENROLLMENT. PLLS participants will have access to a catalog of online dual enrollment courses for their high school students, offering them an opportunity to reduce the time to complete a bachelor's degree from four years to three. This could reduce college costs by up to 25%.

TODAYSLEARN. PLLS participants will receive access to GCU's Today'sLearn services. Available Today'sLearn opportunities include: Speakers Bureau (motivational speaking and lectures), Professional Development (instruction based on specific subject matter and customized to address specific needs), and Coaching, Mentoring and Consultation (individualized assistance in areas requested).

STUDENT TEACHING/PRACTICUM PRIORITY PLACEMENT. PLLS participants requesting student teaching/practicum placements of GCU teacher candidates receive priority.

ONLINE JOB BOARD. PLLS participants have access to the GCU Online Job Board to post employment opportunities and search for applicants.

EVENT DISCOUNTS. PLLS participants will receive priority communication about events on GCU's campus, including discounted ticket opportunities.

GET THE REAL COLLEGE EXPERIENCE. Discover GCU provides an opportunity for high school juniors and seniors to experience GCU campus life and stay overnight in a residence hall with other prospective GCU students. Additionally, GCU staff members are available to visit your campus to share information about college and career readiness.

There is no cost to your school or district to become a Participant in Learning, Leading and Serving.
