Annual Security Report

2015 Annual Security Report

The Grand Canyon University Department of Public Safety publishes this report to inform the community about campus security policies, initiatives to prevent and respond to crime and emergencies as well as the occurrence of crime on campus. This report complies with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Crime Statistics Act and uses information maintained by Public Safety, information provided by other university offices such as Student Engagement, Residence Life and other campus security authorities as well as information provided by local law enforcement agencies surrounding the campus. Each of these offices provides updated policy information and crime data.

This report provides statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus buildings or property owned, leased or controlled by Grand Canyon University. This report also includes institutional policies concerning campus security, such as policies regarding sexual assault as well as alcohol and other drugs.

The university distributes a notice of the availability of this Annual Security and Fire Safety Report by Oct. 1 of each year to every member of the university community. Anyone, including prospective students and employees, may obtain a paper copy of this report by contacting Public Safety at 602-639-8100.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Grand Canyon University's Department of Public Safety understands the concerns students and staff have with regard to their safety. Our goal is to provide a safe and secure environment.

To ensure that students, staff and their possessions are protected as much as possible, we have developed a policy and set of procedures with maximum safety in mind. These include, but are not limited to the following:

- Parking privileges and vehicle decals
- Controlled access points for campus

This system also includes an intentional awareness program that helps students, faculty and staff recognize a situation or incident and provides them with the education and tools to take the proper steps. For the Department of Public Safety, a safe campus is our main goal. Following and obeying all security policies will help to ensure that GCU stays safe for everyone. For assistance, please call 602-639-8100. Please be sure to give your name, location and destination. Our main office is located in Camelback Hall. Public Safety protects and serves the GCU community 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Incident Reporting System

If you witness, or are aware of, a potential risk to another student, faculty or staff member, you may file a report through our online TIPS reporting tool.

Parents, students, faculty and staff may use this system to report a range of incidents such as: bullying, vandalism, suspicious activity, academic cheating or possession of an illegal substance. The appropriate university department will investigate all reports. Your information will remain confidential and you have the option to submit the form anonymously.

If you have an emergency, please dial 911 for immediate assistance.

Parking Privileges and Vehicle Decals

GCU students, faculty and staff are required to have a parking permit to park on campus. Parking permits can be purchased online or by visiting the Campus Operations office located in the Colter Office Complex. Students who have registered for handicapped parking permits online will not receive them until they have supplied acceptable medical documentation supporting a request for accommodations through the Disability Office.

All parking permits must be displayed in the lower portion of the driver's side windshield when parking on campus. Failure to display a permit could result in your vehicle being cited, wheel-locked or impounded.

Vehicle Problems

Public Safety may assist by starting or pushing vehicles, providing air or water for your vehicle and other reasonable assistance required to aid a temporarily stranded motorist.

Safety Escort Program

Public Safety will provide an officer safety escort by request. We will also make available mobile transports for those who have medical emergencies/injuries or disabilities. To schedule a safety escort, please call 602-639-8100 and give your name, location and destination.

2015 Annual Security Report

Emergency Blue Light Phones

Public Safety continuously monitors blue light emergency phones and elevator emergency telephones. Each phone is direct-dial, one-button, push-to-talk. When activated, the blue light phones also display a flashing light on the phone's pole. Officers respond to all activations of phones in this system without exceptions. Use these phones to report safety concerns such as suspicious incidents, persons or emergencies only.

Wellness Check

As part of GCU's goal to keep students safe and ensure their wellbeing, staff and faculty can utilize a specific process to report concerns about a specific student. If any staff or faculty member identifies that a student has expressed thoughts or threats to harm themselves or others, we encourage the staff or faculty member to contact wellnesscheck@gcu.edu. The Department of Public Safety will attempt to intervene and provide appropriate guidance to ensure the student's wellbeing.

R.A.V.E. Emergency Text Notifications

Sign up today for GCU's text notification system. If you want to receive text notifications, you will need to log in to enter or verify your cell phone number and provider. Otherwise, you will be notified of emergency situations only via email. Your cell phone provider may charge a per-text message fee for the delivery of emergency notifications to your phone.

ID Cards

All GCU students and staff are responsible for obtaining a GCU ID card. Your ID is required to be carried at all times when on campus and will grant access to campus facilities. The GCU Department of Public Safety has the right to request your ID at any time.

Security and Access to Campus Facilities

On-campus student housing facilities are secured and require a key or key card for entrance. After hours, classrooms and other campus facilities also require a key card or must be opened by Public Safety. GCU is a gated community and Public Safety officers are posted at guard stations at each entry to campus.

Facilities are maintained to ensure safety and security. Students and employees are encouraged to report any security or maintenance needs to Public Safety at 602-639-8100. During regular business hours, the Facilities Department will be notified to ensure that all maintenance requests are resolved in a timely manner. If after hours, Public Safety will immediately address any security needs and report maintenance to Facilities on a daily basis.

Visitor Access

Anyone who brings a guest to GCU is responsible for making relevant university policies and regulations known to them and must accept the responsibility for their conduct during their visit.

Lost and Found

Lost and Found is located in The Grove Garage (in the Public Safety Office, Bldg. 80).

Open Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. To inquire about lost items that may have been turned in please call 602-639-6367.

Zero Tolerance Policy

GCU has a zero tolerance policy as it relates to violations of university policies and the law. Students, faculty and staff found violating the law will be subject to the limits of the law and university policy.

Fire Safety and Education for College Students

For an outline of risk factors and school and student responsibilities for fire safety, read the FEMA Campus Fire Safety brochure here.

Working Relationship with Local, State and Federal Law Enforcement Agencies

The Public Safety officers maintain a cooperative relationship with the City of Phoenix Police, Maricopa County Sheriff's Department and surrounding police agencies. As they are not deputized, Public Safety officers have the ability to arrest or detain as a private citizen's arrest.

2015 Annual Security Report

REPORTING CRIMES AND OTHER EMERGENCIES

The university has a number of ways for campus community members and visitors to report crimes, serious incidents and other emergencies to appropriate university officials. Regardless of how and where you decide to report these incidents, it is critical for the safety of the entire university community that you immediately report all incidents so that Public Safety can investigate the situation and determine if follow-up actions are required, including issuing a crime alert or emergency notification.

Voluntary, Confidential Reporting

If crimes are never reported, little can be done to help other members of the community from also being victims. We encourage university community members to report crimes promptly and to participate in and support crime prevention efforts. The university community will be much safer when all community members participate in safety and security initiatives.

If you are the victim of a crime or want to report a crime you are aware of, but do not want to pursue action within the university or criminal justice system, we ask that you consider filing a voluntary, confidential report. Depending upon the circumstances of the crime you are reporting, you may be able file a report while maintaining your confidentiality. The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep your personally identifying information confidential, while taking steps to ensure your safety and the safety of others. The confidential reports allow the university to compile accurate records on the number and types of incidents occurring on campus. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report. In limited circumstances, the department may not be able to ensure confidentiality and will inform you in those cases.

Anyone may call Public Safety at 602-639-8100 to report concerning information. Callers may remain anonymous.

Reporting to Public Safety

We encourage all members of the university community to report all crimes and other emergencies to Public Safety in a timely manner. Public Safety has a dispatch center that is available by phone at 602-639-8100 or in person between the hours of 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. at Camelback Hall. Although many resources are available, Public Safety should be notified of any crime, whether or not an investigation continues, to ensure the university can assess any and all security concerns and inform the community if there is a significant threat to the university community.

Reporting to Other Campus Security Authorities

While the university encourages all campus community members to promptly report all crimes and other emergencies directly by calling 911 or Public Safety at 602-639-8100, we also recognize that some may prefer to report to other individuals or university offices. The Clery Act recognizes certain university officials and offices as campus security authorities (CSA). The act defines these individuals as “officials of an institution who have significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including but not limited to student housing, student discipline and campus judicial proceedings. An official is defined as any person who has the authority and the duty to take action or respond to particular issues on behalf of the institution.”

While the university has identified a number of CSAs at the university, we officially designate the following offices as places where campus community members should report crimes:

Department of Public Safety
The Grove Garage, Building 80
602-639-8100

OFFICE OF VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
Academic Affairs Office
602-639-6389

OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS
602-639-6647

Pastoral and Professional Counselors

According to the Clery Act, pastoral and professional counselors who are appropriately credentialed and hired by Grand Canyon University in a counseling role are not considered campus security authorities when they are acting in the counseling role. As a matter of policy, the university encourages pastoral and professional counselors to notify those whom they are counseling of the voluntary, confidential reporting options available to them.

2015 Annual Security Report

TIMELY WARNING REPORTS AND CRIME ALERTS

In an effort to provide timely notice to the campus community in the event of a Clery Act crime that may pose a serious or ongoing threat to members of the community, Public Safety issues crime alerts if the crime occurred within the university's geographical area, patrol jurisdiction or areas known to be frequented by the university community. The university's Public Safety Department will generally issue crime alerts for the following crimes: arson, aggravated assault, criminal homicide, robbery, burglary, sex assaults and hate crimes. Public Safety will post these warnings through a variety of ways, including, but not limited to text, emails and media. The university also has the ability to send text message alerts to those who register their cell phone numbers. Text messaging can be a very effective way to send important information to the campus community.

The purpose of these crime alerts is notify the campus community of the incident and to provide information that may enable the community to take steps to protect themselves from similar incidents. Public Safety will issue crime alerts whenever the following criteria are met: (1) a crime is committed, (2) the perpetrator has not been apprehended and (3) there is a substantial risk to the physical safety of other members of the campus community because of this crime. Some incidents which may be cause for a crime alert include, but are not limited to: (1) a Clery Act crime is reported to any campus security authority or the local police or (2) the university determines that the incident represents an ongoing threat to the campus community.

The university will take action to immediately notify the campus community upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation occurring on campus involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees. The university's Public Safety Department will issue a notice for emergencies including, but not limited to, armed intruders, bomb threats, fire and terrorist incidents. Information for incidents will be released once the situation is determined to be serious or continuing. All reports will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will use the same notification steps as timely warnings.

Additionally, Public Safety may, in some circumstances, issue crime alerts when there is a pattern of crimes against persons or property. At Grand Canyon University, the director of Public Safety or designee will generally make the determination, in consultation with other university offices, if a crime alert is required. However, in emergency situations, any supervisor may authorize a crime alert. For incidents involving off-campus crimes, the university may issue a crime alert if the crime occurred in a location used and frequented by the university population.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Emergency Management at Grand Canyon University

The Office of Emergency Management is responsible for the Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan (CEMP). This plan is designed to be an all-hazards disaster response and emergency management plan that complies with FEMA guidelines for higher education, including planning, mitigation, response and recovery actions.

In the case of fire or other emergency requiring the evacuation of a student housing facility, Public Safety and/or a Residence Life staff member who verifies the emergency will notify 911 of the nature of the emergency. Once 911 has been notified, Public Safety will contact the dean of students and director of Residence Life as well as call the resident director on-call phone number. Public Safety will secure the critical building by evacuating residents and guests to the designated evacuation area.

Drills, Exercises, and Training

Grand Canyon University understands the importance of training, drills and exercises in maintaining and planning for an incident. To ensure that university personnel and community first responders are aware of their duties and responsibilities outlined in the Campus Emergency Management Plan, the Office of Emergency Management executes the following training, drill and exercise actions.

1. Training and exercise efforts in accordance with the Homeland Security Exercise and Evaluation Program
2. Drills conducted at least once per semester
3. Exercises occur at least once per school year
4. Records maintained by the Office of Emergency Management

All students are required to participate in drills. GCU encourages all students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others.

Missing Student Notification

If a member of the university community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing is missing, he or she should immediately notify Residence Life at 602-639-6244 during business hours or Public Safety at 602-639-8100 after business hours. Public Safety will generate a missing person report and initiate an investigation.

In addition to registering a general emergency contact, students residing in on-campus housing have the option to identify confidentially an individual to be contacted by Public Safety in the event the student is determined to be missing for more than 24 hours. If a student has identified such an individual, Public Safety will notify that individual no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. A student who wishes to identify a confidential contact can do so through Public Safety. A student's confidential contact information will be accessible only by authorized campus officials and law enforcement in the course of the investigation.

After investigating a missing person report, should Public Safety determine that the student has been missing for 24 hours, they will notify the Phoenix Police Department and the student's emergency contact no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. If the missing student is under the age of 18 and is not an emancipated individual, Public Safety will immediately notify the student's parent or legal guardian.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE

Grand Canyon University will impose sanctions (consistent with local, state and federal law) upon all faculty, staff and students who violate the standards of conduct for drug and alcohol abuse. Such sanctions may include required completion (at the faculty, staff members or students own expense) of an appropriate rehabilitation program chosen by the university and referral for prosecution, probation, suspension or expulsion of students and suspension or termination of faculty and staff members.

More information about alcohol and drugs and the risks they pose to health is available in the Campus Health & Wellness Center. Outside counseling services and support groups are available. The following is a partial list of these resources:

Alcoholics Anonymous: 602-264-1341 Al-Anon and Alateen Information: 602-249-1257 Alcohol and Drug Abuse Hotline: 888-207-9770 Alcohol and Drug Abuse: 602-285-1064 Crossroads (Drug and Alcohol Recovery): 602-279-2585 Teen Challenge: 602-271-4081

GCU'S Commitment to Title IX

At Grand Canyon University, we are committed to maintaining an academic environment that is free from gender or sexual discrimination and where members of the GCU community can fully access and benefit from the university's programs and activities.

Title IX prohibits sexual discrimination in educational programs that receive federal funding.

Here's what you need to know about Title IX:

- Gender or sex-based discrimination comes in a variety of forms including:
 - Sexual harassment
 - Sexual misconduct
 - Sexual assault
 - Relationship violence
 - Sexual exploitation
- Sexual harassment, including sexual assault, is banned by Title IX.
 - Did You Know? Sexual harassment creates a hostile environment when it interferes with or limits a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program.
- If a school knows about sexual harassment, Title IX requires the school to take immediate action to eliminate the harassment and prevent its recurrence.
 - Did You Know? Even if you file a police report, GCU is independently required to investigate the assault.
- Sexual assault is a physical act done against a person's will.
 - Did You Know? Sexual assault includes situations in which a person is incapable of giving consent due to drug or alcohol use.
 - Did You Know? One in five women is the victim of completed or attempted sexual assault while in college.
- All incidents of sexual misconduct should be immediately reported.
 - Did You Know? GCU employees, except those who are legally required to keep confidentiality, are mandated to report information related to gender-based sexual harassment and sexual misconduct.
- Title IX applies to students, faculty, staff and campus guests.
 - Did You Know? Title IX may extend to incidents that occur in off-campus settings, including trips, events at another location or off-campus parties.

2015 Annual Security Report

For the purposes of this policy, prohibited sex discrimination includes harassment, sexual misconduct and other misconduct offenses when sex or gender is the foundation. Information concerning these behaviors and the consequences for violations are addressed in the Gender-Based and Sexual Misconduct Policy.

The university will not retaliate against a person making a complaint of discrimination or harassment and will not knowingly permit retaliation to occur. Guidance concerning means and methods of reporting, criminal reporting, confidentiality and anonymous reporting are found in the Grievance Procedures section of the Gender-Based and Sexual Misconduct Policy.

GCU'S RESPONSE TO SEXUAL AND GENDER VIOLENCE

Personal Safety

Theft, disorderly conduct and alcohol-related offenses are very common on university campuses. However, they don't stand alone. Despite law enforcement's efforts, serious crimes do occur on campuses. It is important to report any suspicious incidents to police and always remain alert and vigilant.

One of the more serious crimes that too often goes unreported is sexual assault. Often, sexual assault is difficult for victims to report for a number of very complex reasons. We provide the following information to assist those who may have been victims of sexual assault or who have a friend who has been sexually assaulted.

There are many guidelines to help you be more alert and aware of a situation to prevent such serious crimes, including:

- Know your surroundings
- Be alert
- Call for help
- Report any suspicious activity/persons immediately

Sex Offense Policy, Procedure and Programs

If you are a victim of sexual assault, your first priority should be to get to a place of safety and obtain the necessary medical treatment. Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation. Report the incident in a timely manner. Any student, employee or visitor who is the victim of a forcible or non-forcible sex offense should contact Public Safety at 602-639-8100 or the Phoenix Police Department by calling 911 (8-911 from a campus phone).

Any student or employee who reports to the institution that they have been a victim of one of these crimes will be provided with a written explanation of the student or employee's rights and options.

If requested, Public Safety will assist the person in reporting to the proper law enforcement agencies. Filing a police report will not obligate a victim to prosecute, nor will it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from officers. Filing a police report will:

- Ensure that a victim of sexual assault receives the necessary medical treatment and tests, at no expense to the victim
- Provide an opportunity for collection of evidence helpful in prosecution, which cannot be obtained later

Victims of a sexual crime should make every effort to save anything that might contain the perpetrator's DNA. Therefore, a victim should not:

- Take a bath or shower
- Use the restroom
- Change clothes
- Comb hair
- Clean up the crime scene
- Move anything the offender may have touched

Counseling for mental health or other student services is available for crisis victims at the GCU Campus Health & Wellness Center. If requested, after an alleged sex offense, a change in the academic and living situations will be provided when reasonably available.

Brochures and other handouts related to awareness and prevention of physical or sexual violence are located in the lobby of the Public Safety office.

Information to prevent sexual violence may be located at rainn.org.

Outside counseling and a description of educational programs to promote the awareness of rape, acquaintance rape and other forcible and non-forcible sex offenses may be obtained at the following locations:

Disciplinary Actions in Sexual Assault Incidents

The university's disciplinary proceedings for cases involving sexual misconduct are detailed in the Student Handbook. The university's student conduct process is designed to afford a complainant and the accused a fair, prompt and appropriate resolution process.

All complaints will typically be investigated and resolved within 60 calendar days of receiving the complaint. In criminal cases, the process of gathering evidence by law enforcement agencies may delay the timeframe for investigating the complaint. Any person with a perceived conflict of interest may not be a part of the fact-finding or the decision-making process.

If the accused individual accepts the behavior findings, in whole, a hearing board member appointed by the Title IX Coordinator will institute penalties. If the accused rejects the findings in part or totally, the issue is forwarded to the university's Code of Conduct committee for a formal hearing which should be scheduled within 21 calendar days. Each party is provided with a copy of the investigative report and any information that will be used at the hearing. An equal opportunity will be provided for both parties to present witnesses and other evidence at the hearing. The university will use a preponderance of evidence standard when determining whether the behavior has occurred. Where the preponderance of evidence supports the findings against the accused individual, the Code of Conduct committee will institute penalties for the infractions. Notification of the decision will be provided to both parties within three business days after the hearing has been completed.

Parties will have three business days to appeal the decision made during the hearing. All appeals must be made in writing, providing additional documentation for consideration. The institution's procedures for appealing the results will be provided in writing to the accuser and accused.

Disciplinary proceedings regarding alleged sexual offenses, when the accused is found responsible, may result in expulsion, suspension for a period of time, probation, an official warning or any combination thereof. A person may also be criminally prosecuted for their actions.

Sex Offender Registration

In accordance with the Campus Crimes Prevention Act of 2000, which amends the Jacob Wetterling Crimes Against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Registration Act of 1974 and the Jean Clery Act and the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the GCU Department of Public Safety is providing URL links to identify sex offenders on or near campus, or anywhere in the United States:

Visit sexoffender.com or nsopw.gov/Core/Portal.aspx. You may search by city, county or zip code.

SAFETY PROGRAMS

GCU sponsors at least one annual safety event and one sexual assault awareness and prevention training. These trainings should be conducted during a time and at a location to maximize participation from all students, faculty and staff. A common theme of our safety events is developing members' awareness of their responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others. We focus on increasing security alertness and crime prevention education. Please contact the CSA for information on where and when these education events will occur.

The annual safety event varies by campus and may include CPR, AED (automated external defibrillator), crime prevention, self-defense and protection and local police or fire department demonstrations. See your CSA for information about upcoming security awareness and crime prevention programs.

In addition to coordinating these safety events, the CSA makes a good faith effort to inform new and existing personnel of security reporting procedures. Staff members who have regular interaction with the campus community are informed that students may approach them with crime-related incidents that need to be reported quickly to the CSA.

Our Commitment to Addressing Sexual Assault/Rape

The university does not tolerate sexual misconduct or abuse, such as sexual assault, rape or any other forms of nonconsensual sexual activity. Sexual misconduct in any form violates the Student Code of Conduct policies and may violate federal and state laws. Violations of this policy are subject to disciplinary sanctions through the Office of Student Conduct and/or those outlined in applicable university policies (please refer to Academic Affairs Policy 001 GENDER-BASED and SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY AND GRIEVANCE).

Daily Crime and Fire Log

Public Safety maintains a daily crime log and fire log of all incidents reported to them. Public Safety publishes an activity log every day, which is available to members of the press and public. This log identifies the type, locations and time of each criminal incident reported to Public Safety. Upon request, a copy of any maintained daily crime log and fire log will be made available for viewing, within 48 hours of notice.

2015 Annual Security Report
