

Canyon Educational Participant

A Grand Canyon University Educational Alliance

What are the Benefits of Being an Out-of-State CEP Participant?

GRAND CANYON STATE UNIVERSITY GRANT.* CEP high school students (grades 9-12) who are accepted to attend Grand Canyon University will receive a $250 GCU grant. The grant is divided into $125 for the fall and spring semesters as long as the student maintains the minimum GPA requirements.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR STAFF. Exclusive 10% scholarship for CEP faculty, staff and governing board members on tuition for undergraduate, graduate or doctoral degree programs at GCU.

CONTINUING EDUCATION/SINGLE COURSE SCHOLARSHIP. Exclusive 10% scholarship for CEP faculty, staff and governing board members on individual courses from GCU's degree programs, along with a portfolio of six-week online continuing education classes.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR SPOUSES. Exclusive 5% scholarship for spouses of CEP participant faculty, staff and governing board members, providing savings toward tuition and fees for online undergraduate, graduate or doctoral degree programs at GCU.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR PARENTS. Exclusive 5% scholarship for CEP parents on tuition for undergraduate or graduate degree programs through the GCU College of Education or a doctoral degree related to the field of education.

COHORTS. CEP participants may request that cohorts be developed for continuing education, individual courses and/or degree programs online or at an approved CEP site or regionally approved GCU site.

DUAL ENROLLMENT. CEP participant schools will have access to online dual enrollment courses for their high school students, offering them an opportunity to reduce the time to complete a bachelor's degree from four years to three. This could reduce college costs by up to 25%.

TODAYSLEARN. CEP participants will receive access to GCU's Today'sLearn services. Available Today'sLearn opportunities include: Speakers Bureau (motivational speaking and lectures), Professional Development (instruction based on specific subject matter and customized to address specific needs) and Coaching, Mentoring and Consultation (individualized assistance in areas requested).

STUDENT TEACHING/PRACTICUM PRIORITY PLACEMENT. CEP participants requesting student teaching/practicum placements of GCU teacher candidates receive priority.

ONLINE JOB BOARD. CEP participants have access to the GCU Online Job Board to post employment opportunities and search for applicants.

EVENT DISCOUNTS. CEP participants receive priority communication about events on GCU's campus, including discounted ticket opportunities.

GET THE REAL COLLEGE EXPERIENCE. Discover GCU provides an opportunity for high school juniors and seniors to experience GCU campus life and stay overnight in a residence hall with other prospective GCU students. Additionally, GCU staff members are available to visit your campus to share information about college and career readiness.

There is no cost to your school or organization to become a Canyon Educational Participant.
