INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

The Administration Building faces toward Camelback Road and is the central one of the three block buildings on Administration Avenue.

Office hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, except for office holidays: Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, the afternoon of Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, the afternoon of New Year's Eve Day, and July 4.

Visitors are always welcome on the campus. If one anticipates a visit to the campus when offices are closed, arrangements can be made by writing to the Director of Public Relations. If a visit cannot be anticipated far enough in advance, a telephone call will often find someone at the switchboard to arrange a visit. Telephone: YE 7-4734.
Foreword

It is the general purpose of Grand Canyon College to offer four years of college work in an environment that is genuinely Christian. It is the purpose of the Board of Trustees, the administration, and every faculty member of the College to attract capable, ambitious, well-balanced young people who can profit by a college education and who desire to enter the various fields of human endeavor: teaching, business, law, medicine, nursing, the ministry, and other church related vocations.

Summer Sessions

In the summer session, the College offers a number of courses in each department. For information, write to the Dean of the College.

APPRENTICE TEACHING DURING THE SUMMER SESSION

Apprentice teaching schedules are to be arranged individually in advance with the Director of Teacher Training.

Students who have degrees or who have 90 or more hours of college work and who have had teaching experience, may enroll for 6 hours of elementary apprentice teaching. Prerequisite: 8 hours of Education, including Elementary Education 343 (Language Arts), and Elementary Education 353 (Elementary Curriculum and Techniques). Students may earn up to 6 hours in this course.

Apprentice teaching, second session, on demand.

ADMISSION TO THE SUMMER SESSION

Previously enrolled students in good standing are admitted as at any other time.

Prospective freshmen should file with the Registrar a complete official transcript of high school record.

Undergraduate students coming from other universities and colleges for only the Summer Session must present to the Registrar evidence that they are in good standing. Those who wish to continue in the fall semester must renew their applications and file complete transcripts of record from each institution previously attended.

Apprentice teachers should file a complete transcript and a health certificate.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING COURSE LOAD

The maximum number of hours to be allowed during a summer term is six semester hours, unless one of the courses is a four hour course.

HOUSING

For information regarding dormitory reservations, write to the Registrar.

EXPENSES

Tuition for the summer session will be $15.00 per semester hour. Room rent in the dormitory for each five weeks period will be $40.00; board $60.00.

(These rates are effective for 1963 only. Rates for 1964 will be published in the 1964 Summer Bulletin.)
Admission

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

The College is coeducational, interracial, and open to all students regardless of religious convictions.

An applicant must be at least 16 years of age.

An applicant must furnish satisfactory evidence of good moral character and, if transferring from another institution of higher learning, must furnish a certificate of honorable dismissal. If the records of the previous institution indicate dismissal for any reason, a statement of conditions under which the student could be readmitted must be submitted.

METHODS OF ADMISSION

By Certification: Graduates of accredited high schools, who satisfy other requirements, are admitted to the College upon receipt of an official transcript sent directly by the Principal or Superintendent of the high school. All freshmen will be required to take the ACT test prior to admission.

By Individual Approval and Examination: Veterans over 18 years of age and other students who are above 21 years of age and/or who show evidence of maturity and ability to do college work may be accepted on approval. In order to determine whether such students have the necessary background to do college work, a battery of tests will be given.

Students who have not graduated from high school will be required to take tests administered by the College. The student's program of studies in Grand Canyon College will be conditioned by the results of the examination. Students who are found to need remedial courses will be expected to take such courses at the first opportunity.

Students should check the catalog for the dates of the entrance examinations.

PRELIMINARY ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

High school graduates applying for admission to the College must secure registration forms from the office of the Registrar. A notice of acceptance will be granted when the applicant completes his file of forms in the Registrar's Office.

Before the notice of acceptance can be issued, the applicant must file, in the Registrar's Office, the following records:

1. A transcript of his high school record, including a statement of rank of the applicant in his graduating class. The responsibility for having the transcript mailed to the Registrar's Office rests with the student who makes application for admission.

2. A Health Certificate from his physician, on a form which the student will request from the Registrar's office.
CATALOG OF

3. A formal application from the student upon a form furnished by the College (page 13).
4. A matriculation fee of $10.00.
5. A room reservation fee of $10.00 and application for dormitory residence (dormitory residents only).
6. Two recent photographs (snapshots are not acceptable). The date of photograph must be indicated.
7. Three personal references, on forms to be provided by the College.

HIGH SCHOOL UNITS REQUIRED FOR ADMISSION

For regular admission to the freshman class a student must be a graduate of an accredited high school, and he must rank above the lowest quarter of his graduating class. His units presented must include:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subjects</th>
<th>Units</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>English</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mathematics</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social Studies (one in history)</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Science (laboratory course)</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Electives</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A high school graduate who ranks in the lowest quarter of his graduating class is not eligible for regular admission, but may enroll in the College on academic probation for the first semester. Probation may be removed by maintaining a "C" average in all work taken during the first semester, and provided that the student takes a course load of at least 12 hours. Freshmen must remove their probationary status in one year if they are to re-enroll without permission of the Admissions and Academic Regulations Committee.

REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO TRANSFER STUDENTS

A student transferring from another college must file all forms required under Preliminary Entrance Requirements (see preceding page), with the exception of his high school transcript.

Before enrolling, a student transferring from another college must have on file in the Registrar's office a transcript of all credits from the institution last attended. A student may not disregard his record at any institution of higher learning in which he has previously been enrolled. Transcripts received through the hands of students are not acceptable as a basis for admission. It is the responsibility of the student to request that his transcripts be mailed to the Registrar.

Before enrolling, a transfer student classified as a senior must also file an Application for Graduation (see page 63).

Transfer students who do not present the required high school units from an accredited high school can be admitted only on the basis of excellent work transferred, and on condition that a "C" average be maintained during the first two semesters at Grand Canyon College.

(may be satisfied with 3 units of English, plus one unit in foreign language or in speech)

GRAND CANYON COLLEGE will accept credits from other recognized liberal arts colleges and from universities if the work to be transferred is not of a too highly specialized nature.

A Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services will be used in evaluating work submitted as a result of service in the Armed Forces.

Credit will not be given for any course transferred if the grade in that course is lower than a "C" or its equivalent. Quality points are not transferable. A course completed in another institution with a grade of "D" may be counted as a prerequisite for another course only upon approval of the instructor concerned.

A maximum of twenty-five semester hours of extension work and/or correspondence work will be accepted from other institutions.

A maximum of sixty-four hours of credit will be accepted from a junior college. The College will not recognize credits earned in a junior college after the student has completed sixty-four hours of college work.

Transfer students who do not have a "C" average in college work already completed are admitted under probation. They must maintain a "C" average during the first semester in Grand Canyon College while taking at least twelve semester hours of work. Probation must be removed during the first semester in order to re-enroll without permission of the Admissions and Academic Regulations Committee.

A student who has been asked to withdraw from another college because of poor scholarship or any other reason can be accepted only upon the following conditions:

(a) That the period of dismissal set by the former institution must have elapsed, and a statement of conditions under which he could be readmitted must be submitted.

(b) That, during his first semester, he shall, upon recommendation of the Admissions and Academic Regulations Committee, be required to withdraw, if withdrawal appears to be in the best interest of the student, and/or the College.

FOREIGN STUDENT ADVISER

In cooperation with the National Association of Foreign Student Advisers, Professor Wang has been designated as Foreign Student Adviser at Grand Canyon College. Foreign students interested in enrolling should communicate with Mr. Shih Ming Wang, Grand Canyon College, P. O. Box 11097, Phoenix 17, Arizona.

LOCATION

The College is located in Phoenix, Arizona, the capital city of the state. It is near the geographical center of the state and is a thriving industrial and agricultural city, with a population of more than 475,000 in the metropolitan area. Phoenix can boast of being in the proximity of more scenic and historical places of interest than probably any other city in the nation, most notable of which are the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, the Petrified Forest, Montezuma Castle, Oak Creek and Walnut Canyons, and Superstition Mountain.

Phoenix takes great pride in the enviable reputation she enjoys as one of the notable winter resorts of America. Many thousands of people come to Phoenix to spend the winter months in the Valley of the Sun, "Where Summer Spends the Winter."

Modern, hard-surfaced highways lead to Phoenix. It is easily accessible over transcontinental U. S. Highways 60, 70, 80, 66, and by way of 89A through scenic Oak Creek Canyon.

The Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, and Rock Island Railroads make Phoenix easily accessible by train. The Greyhound and Southern Trailways Bus Lines operate many schedules daily to and from Phoenix.

The American, Apache, Bonanza, Frontier, Trans-World, and Western Airlines make it possible for one to arrive at or leave Phoenix almost any hour of the day.

CONTROL

The College is owned and operated by the Arizona Southern Baptist Convention.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The first definite steps toward founding Grand Canyon College were taken at the annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Arizona in November, 1946. On March 4, 1947, college trustees who had been selected by the Executive Board of the Convention chose Prescott as the site for the new college and Grand Canyon College as its name. The College was chartered on August 1, 1949; it first opened its doors for instruction with the fall semester, 1949.

The first four presidents of the college, Dr. Willis J. Ray, Mr. Leroy Smith, Dr. B. O. Herring, and Dr. Loyed R. Simmons, worked successfully toward the establishment of the College; its removal to Phoenix in September of 1951 and erection of the first permanent buildings on an 80-acre campus on West Camelback Road; and the securing of additional land, with plans for more buildings to accommodate the steadily increasing student body.

Dr. E. N. Patterson became president of the College on September 1, 1959, to face the challenge inherent in administration of this rapidly growing institution.
GENERAL PURPOSE

The purpose of Grand Canyon College is to offer four year college work leading to the bachelor's degree in an environment that is genuinely Christian. Working toward this purpose, the board of trustees, the administration, and the faculty strive to attract capable, ambitious, and well-balanced young people who can profit by a college education in this environment and who are activated by ideals of service in the various fields of human endeavor.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

To attain the general purpose stated above, Grand Canyon College seeks to develop competent, properly balanced individual students—spiritually, mentally, socially, morally, physically, and aesthetically.

1. Grand Canyon College stresses an appreciation of spiritual realities of God's natural universe and laws, of God's institutions, and of God's plan and purpose in each individual life.

2. It endeavors to help the student use his mind in effective analysis, in accurate constructive thinking, in proper evaluation of evidence, in distinction of truth from error, and in developing creative scholarship.

3. Within the objective of social training it aims to instill proper evaluation of social values and to develop the attitudes of courtesy, enjoyment, and poise in association with people. It also seeks to instuct its students in the American way of life—our heritage of democracy, our traditional concern for human dignity and freedom—and to encourage them to make a contribution to the community through the community service activities.

4. Through moral training the college strives to develop in its students habits of clean living, clean speech, temperance, personal decency—to develop a sense of responsibility for doing high-grade, honest work and a proper regard for the rights and feelings of others.

5. In its physical training it aims to foster habits of healthful living, physical strength, and the enjoyment of participation in a variety of recreational activities.

6. It seeks to help each student to come to a better understanding and appreciation of aesthetic values and of man's efforts toward self-expression in the creative arts.

The curriculum of the college is set up to further its purpose of developing Christian leadership and thinking in all phases of man's activities throughout the world. At all times the fact is stressed that a liberal education is offered in a church-related school; and at the same time the student is offered a limited number of vocational subjects such as business and education.

FACULTY

The instructional staff is selected with these objectives in mind, emphasizing being placed upon character, scholarship, personality, and teaching ability. Evidences of character on the part of the staff include dynamic Christian living, regular and faithful church attendance, financial support of local and denominational institutions, active participation in church affairs, as well as maintenance of high standards of work and accomplishment for themselves and for their students equal to that of other recognized colleges and universities. Evidences of scholarship include the attainment of higher degrees earned, contributions in their fields of specialization, and habits of study and research. Teaching ability is largely judged by what the teacher's students know about a subject and by their interest and success in pursuing further study. Evidences of personality include exemplary habits, a sense of humor, self-control, humility, friendliness, sympathetic understanding, fair-mindedness, neatness in appearance, and punctuality and dependability in meeting all responsibilities in the College.

STUDENTS

The type of students attracted to the campus will largely determine the success in achieving these goals and objectives. The students needed and desired are (1) those with capacity, personality, and background to do acceptable work; (2) those moved by ambitions of service to God and to man.

ACCREDITATION

The College has been admitted to candidacy for membership in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The College is fully accredited by the University of Arizona, and credits are accepted on a basis of complete equality with those earned at other institutions. Graduates who have high academic records find no barriers to entering graduate schools.

The Arizona State Board of Education has given formal approval of the work done at the College for the certification of elementary teachers, for the renewal of certificates, and for the undergraduate training of high school teachers.

The College is approved by the Veterans Administration for education of veterans under Chapters 31, 33, and 35, Title 38, of the United States Code.

By authorization from the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the Department of Justice, non-immigrant alien students may now enter the College by establishing their eligibility in the usual academic way and furnishing evidence of financial ability to support themselves while in college.

The College is a member of the Association of Southern Baptist Colleges and of the Council for the Advancement of Small Colleges.

THE CAMPUS

Located in the northwest suburbs of Phoenix and surrounded on all sides by new homes, the college campus contains 160 acres. The religion building and music building are stuccoed frame. Other buildings of the original campus are of low-roofed cottage style pumice block construction. They include three classroom buildings; an administration building; a faculty office building; a cafeteria; Kaibab Hall for men and Bright Angel Hall for women. A Student Center and pavilion, secured largely through the efforts of the students, also houses the bookstore. Grouped around a quadrangle landscaped with flowers and fast-growing Arizona shrubs and trees, all the buildings afford a view of the familiar and beautiful mountains surrounding the Valley of the Sun. While modest and unpretentious, the campus is comfortable and provides an attractive setting for the years of college living.

A campus development committee is in process of laying out the next unit of the campus to be developed. In connection with this program of more permanent and larger buildings, a gymnasium-auditorium and the Fleming Library were constructed in 1957. A new women's dormitory and health center were completed and ready for use in September, 1960. A new classroom building is ready for occupancy. The new classroom building is completely air-conditioned and contains four classrooms that will accommodate seventy-five students each; two classrooms for forty students each; two conference rooms for approximately twenty students each; and six offices for faculty.

THE FLEMING LIBRARY

An addition to the Fleming Library completed in 1963 provides for much improved study facilities as well as greatly enlarging the capacity of the building. The new arrangement will make all the periodicals as well as the books immediately available to the users.

The College collection contains approximately 26,000 books and bound periodicals. Approximately 300 magazines and journals are received currently. Careful attention is being given to developing a collection that will adequately serve the needs of both students and faculty.

Students and faculty have access to numerous libraries within the City of Phoenix, including the State Capitol Library. The 402,740 volumes in the Capitol Library include 41,322 volumes of Arizona (the largest collection in existence); the federal government Serials; Patent Gazettes; departmental decisions; reports; bulletins; complete state documents and records; state, county, and municipal records on microfilm; periodicals; and 6,590 bound volumes of newspapers.

During the years, the College has received numerous gifts of books and money from friends, alumni, and faculty members. Some valuable gifts have also been received from other libraries.
A battery of additional educational and vocational tests is available to students who request them, for a fee of $5.00. This service includes a vocational inventory, special aptitude tests, and general psychological examinations.

THE COUNSELING PROGRAM

The counseling program is not a vocational guidance program but is planned to promote life adjustment and to increase the student's receptivity to the total college experience. This program is under the supervision of the Committee on Counseling, composed of the Director of Counseling, the Academic Dean, the Deans of Men and Women, and the Dormitory Directors. The program includes all students, and members of both the faculty and staff serve as counselors.

During each semester there are several group conferences, when each counselor meets with his small group of students. Topics suggested for discussion in the group conferences are distributed to both counselors and students for their study prior to the conference dates.

TEACHER TRAINING AND PLACEMENT

The College offers teacher training on the elementary and high school levels. The apprentice teaching program is made possible by contract agreement with various public and private accredited schools in Arizona. All requirements for the elementary certificate may be met by majoring in the Elementary Education curriculum for a B.S. degree. After earning a B.A. or B.S. degree at this or any other college, candidates for the secondary certificate must secure a master's degree or complete 30 hours of work in a graduate school. The Arizona State Board of Education does, however, issue a pre-secondary certificate while teachers complete requirements for the secondary certificate. This certificate requires 6 hours of graduate work beyond a bachelor's degree.

A placement bureau is maintained without cost to graduates. A complete follow-up program for a period of five years is anticipated by the Teacher Placement Bureau.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association of Grand Canyon College was organized in the spring of 1953 as the first four-year class was graduating. The constitution, adopted at the annual Homecoming meeting in January, 1955, provides for membership of graduates and those ex-students who have completed a minimum of 12 semester hours in residence. Only graduates may hold regular elective offices. The association's official bulletin, Antelopes About, appears quarterly during the school year.

COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS

The Grand Canyon College Catalog is the official publication authorized by the Board of Trustees, approved by the Administration and Faculty. It sets forth the policies, courses of study, academic requirements, rules, and regulations for the student body.

The Canyon Highways is a bimonthly bulletin published by the College for the purpose of presenting the activities of staff and students, improvements and additions to the campus, and other items of interest to schools, churches, libraries, alumni, parents of students, and all other friends of the institution. A request to be placed on the mailing list will assure regular receipt of this publication.

FUNDAMENTAL REGULATIONS

FIRST: All students registered in Grand Canyon College are expected to conduct themselves as ladies and gentlemen at all times and to obey the rules set up by the school, the laws of the City of Phoenix, of the State of Arizona, and of the United States.

SECOND: Students are not permitted to give entertainment during the college session, either on the campus or in the city, in the name of the school or any department or any organization of it, without the consent of the President, Dean, or Sponsor.

THIRD: Students representing the College in public performances must have a "C" average in approximately two-thirds of their work, eligibility to be determined at the end of each semester. (See rule on Eligibility for Activities, p. 45.)

FOURTH: To be eligible for election to any office the student must meet the following requirements concerning grades: (1) He must not be on academic probation. (2) If, during the preceding semester, he took fifteen semester hours or less, he must have received a grade of "C" in at least nine hours; if he took sixteen semester hours or more, he must have received a grade of "C" in at least ten hours. (3) He may not have a deficiency of more than ten quality points. (4) He must not be an entering student on academic probation. Eligibility is to be determined on the basis of semester grades.

FIFTH: No new club or society may be formed unless the faculty approves the design of such organization, the rules by which it proposes to be governed, and the hours of meeting. The faculty reserves the right to limit or disband any such organization.

SIXTH: Students are expected to be quiet and orderly in the residence halls or buildings and thoughtful of the rights of others. Each hall is governed by a Dormitory Director, and Council representing the hall.

SEVENTH: While the administration and faculty cannot assume full responsibility for students boarding off the campus, it reserves the right to make such regulations at any time as may seem advisable. The violation of the regulations on the part of a student may deprive him of the privileges of the College.

EIGHTH: All extracurricular activities which take students away from classes must first be approved by the Dean of Students.

NINTH: All students are expected to attend chapel exercises regularly. (See p. 48, Chapel Attendance rule.)

DORMITORY OCCUPANCY

The date for opening of dormitories for the fall semester is published in each year's calendar.

During Christmas holidays the dormitories and cafeteria will be closed. During other recesses the cafeteria will be closed.
DISCIPLINE

The Discipline Committee is charged with the administration of discipline. This committee has authority to rule in any case of irregular student conduct.

Any student who--secretly marries while enrolled in Grand Canyon College will be suspended. Any student under twenty-one years of age who marries while enrolled in Grand Canyon College without the consent of parents or guardian will be suspended. The Discipline Committee of the Faculty will assess appropriate penalty for violation of this regulation.

No property belonging to the school or to other students is to be altered or removed without special permission. Any loss, damage, or breakage of school property will be charged to the student responsible for same.

Gambling, the use of profane language, and the drinking of intoxicating liquors are entirely forbidden on or off the campus.

Smoking will not be permitted on the campus except in living quarters.

NOTE: It sometimes happens that a student's presence in a residence hall is inimical to the best interests of the hall, and yet specific charges are difficult or embarrassing to make. Sometimes it is an accumulation of minor things, which, taken separately, appear trivial. Sometimes the charges may be too serious to be openly preferred. In all such cases, the interests of the hall as a home and sometimes the interests of the individual himself demand that he change his residence. Therefore, the school in assigning rooms hereby explicitly reserves the right to cancel the reservation, either before or while the student occupies the room, without preferring any specific charge whatever. Only in such cases is room rent refunded. Students may petition for a student's removal without stating charges or having their names known to any persons except the President or Dean and the hall director.

All unmarried women students must reside in the dormitories, unless they live with their parents, or unless they have permission from the College to live with immediate relatives. Any exceptions to this rule must be applied for in writing and approved by the College before the student making the request is permitted to register. This same rule applies to all unmarried men students under twenty-one years of age, and all unmarried men twenty-one years of age or older must have permission to live off-campus before they are permitted to register.

All off-campus places of residence, for men or women students, must be approved by the College.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

Emphasis is placed not only upon the training of the body and the mind, but also upon the development of the moral and religious nature. In chapel exercises, in class rooms, and in every relation where the occasion arises, it is in accord with the policy of the College that emphasis be given to the value of Christian living. Students are encouraged to join a local church of their own faith and belief and to attend the services regularly.

Organizations which provide opportunity for religious activity are:

First: The B.S.U. (Baptist Student Union) Council, which has general concern for religious activities of the school.

Second: The Ann Hasselton Y.W.A. (Young Woman's Auxiliary), which meets every other week.

Third: Life Service Group is open to all students who wish to do personal work on the campus, through our churches, and on the mission field. This group meets twice each month.

Fourth: Ministerial Association. The College seeks to be a congenial home for young men who are preparing themselves for the gospel ministry. The Ministerial Association meets once each month for the purpose of discussing problems pertaining to the work of the ministry.

Fifth: Wives of Christian Workers consists of the wives of students preparing for full-time Christian service. This organization proposes to encourage the members to study God's word, to establish Christian homes, and to prepare for better life service.

The students conduct prayer meetings regularly in their halls. Vesper services are held, and a centrally located prayer room is available for private devotions.

A Spiritual Emphasis Week is conducted each year at some time during the regular session; and other periods of religious emphasis are observed, such as Religious Focus Week. Continuous emphasis upon Christian growth is maintained.

STUDENT MARRIAGES

The College stresses a Christian approach to all areas of life, including marriage and family living. In order that a foundation for this type of marriage can be laid, the College believes that adequate period of pre-marital preparation is necessary. The College does not encourage students to enter into marriage during the academic year since such marriages tend to create problems which concern both the student and the College. Students contemplating marriage during their college career are requested to counsel with members of the College staff. (See page 32 under Discipline.)

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Intramural Athletic Activities

During the spring months in particular, a program of intramural sports is carried on in such activities as volleyball, tennis, horseshoes, badminton, softball, ping pong, etc., for both men and women.

Student Council

The membership of the Student Council is composed of a man and a woman representative from each of the four classes and six officers elected by the student body at large—President, Administrative Vice President, Activities Vice President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary,
Treasurer. The purpose of the Council is to provide a means of mediation for any problem that may arise from the student body and to be a nucleus for planning sports, contests, or other events that will help build the morale of the student body. The Council meets once each week.

Clubs

Alpha Psi Omega—A national honorary dramatic fraternity to recognize and reward all phases of student participation in college play production.

Foreign Language Club—For those interested in the languages and cultural contributions of other racial groups.

International Relations Club—Aims to promote better race relations at home, better international relations, a sense of citizenship responsibility, and to stimulate study of world-wide social, economic, and political problems. Regular membership is open to all interested students. The club has local, national, and international affiliation.

Pterian Club—A popular literary and social club attracting students interested in dramatics and literature. Membership is open to all students majoring or minoring in English.

Student National Education Association—A nationally affiliated organization for students who plan to enter the teaching profession.

Varsity Club—Composed of students who have lettered in sports. Serves as a social club and strives to promote more interest in athletics on the campus.

The Radio Hobby Club, open to all campus personnel, operates amateur station W7/JZ to train its members in radio fundamentals that will enable them to qualify for the amateur radio operator's license.

Women's Recreation Association seeks to provide a varied program of physical and social activities for every woman student.

Canyon Commerce Club. The purpose of the club is to inform the business student of the methods, opportunities, and the challenges of business.

The Forensic Club. The purpose of the Forensic Club is to promote and encourage student participation in all types of public speaking on both the intra-mural and the inter-collegiate levels.

Educational Student Tours

An educational tour, which students may take at cost, is arranged for each Fall and each Spring semester.

The Fall tour to the northern part of Arizona includes such points of interest as Prescott with the first state capitol and the old Governor's Mansion (now a museum), a ghost city of Jerome, Oak Creek Canyon, Walnut Canyon Cliff Dwellings, Montezuma Castle, Sunset Crater and ice caves, Snow Bowl on San Francisco Peaks, and the Grand Canyon.

GRAND CANYON COLLEGE

The Spring tour takes the student southward to Casa Grande Ruins, old Tucson, Tumacacori National Monument, Tombstone with its famed Boothill Cemetery and other sites made famous by the rip-roarin' Gold Rush days, Chiricahua Mountains, open pit mines at Bisbee, Sonora Desert museum, and Nogales.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Canyon Trails is the college yearbook, published annually by a student staff. Each holder of activity tickets for the two semesters is entitled to a free copy.

Canyon Echoes, the weekly campus publication, reflects the ambitions, achievements, joys and hardships of student life. It offers a splendid and frequently used vehicle for student expression and training in citizenship.

The Antelope, student handbook published and revised at intervals by the Student Council, makes available to every student detailed information concerning rules and procedures for approved student activities.

Shadows, a literary journal published by students of the advanced composition classes, contains short stories, verse, essays, and criticism contributed by the students.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

Medical and hospitalization insurance is available at a nominal cost of $9.50 per semester.

The College retains the services of a physician on a part-time basis. He is assisted by a graduate nurse employed by the College.

Students will be examined at such times and in such manner as may be deemed necessary by the College.

Athletes must be approved by the College physician before being permitted to participate in major sports. Examinations will be repeated periodically during the time of such participation.

All appointments with the College physician must be made through the College nurse. A student who wishes to retain a physician other than the College physician is personally responsible for the expense incurred thereby.

Chronic or congenital illness and illness contracted before entering college are not the responsibility of the college.

Students with acute contagious or childhood illness may not remain on campus. It is their responsibility to find other accommodations.

Students who have had to withdraw from college for medical reasons will be required to furnish a satisfactory health certificate before being permitted to re-enter.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Physical Education

A physical education program is correlated with the health program of the College. Four semester hours of credit in physical education are required of all students as well as three hours in health content subjects.

The physical education activity courses should be taken in the freshman and sophomore years, but for transfer students and others who have postponed this training it must be made up before graduation.

The College employs competent physical education instructors and a coach for major sports.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Grand Canyon College believes in training the body as well as the mind and soul. Perhaps nothing encourages an interest in physical exercise more than college athletics. While it usually happens that those who are on the team are already developed and therefore do not need the intercollegiate contests for their own physical growth, most of them were originally aroused to an interest in the development of their bodies either by practicing in games or by watching the games of others.

In order that our collegiate teams may be a credit to the institution and that it will be a compliment to a student to be a member of the team, the College has adopted the following rules:

1. None but bona fide students of this institution shall be allowed to participate in intercollegiate or interscholastic contests. By “bona fide” student is meant any student
   (a) Who is carrying a regular course of study of not fewer than twelve hours and who was enrolled at or near the first of the term in which he plays; and
   (b) Who has at least a “C” average in approximately two-thirds of his work, as set forth in the rule on “Eligibility for Activities,” Page 45.

2. A member of the faculty shall accompany all teams when away from the College.

3. All funds shall pass through the books of the College office and all checks be signed by the Business Manager. The President shall approve all contracts or orders involving money.

CHANGE OF CLASSES

A change in classes may not be made without the written consent of the Professor or Professors concerned and the Dean; and the permit must bear the Business Manager's stamp. Any student who makes a class change without a change card properly filled in and filed with the Registrar before the close of the registration period shall not receive credit for the work of the course in question. Tuition may be remitted when changes are made upon the recommendation of the Dean or President, or if necessitated by any changes made in the program by the Dean. Tuition is remitted only upon the approval of the President or Dean.

A student may not enroll for a new course after the last date to enroll for credit as shown in the academic calendar.

DROPPING OF CLASSES

A student may not drop a course after the end of the tenth week without receiving a grade of "F," except in case of unusual reasons, which will be evaluated by the Dean. Notice of intent to withdraw in case of illness should be filed as soon as possible after the student becomes ill.

Any student who officially withdraws from school at any time during a semester will be given the grade of WP or WF, depending on his standing in each course at the time of his withdrawal.

A student who discontinues a course at any time without filing a "drop" card, or without officially withdrawing from the College, will be given a grade of "F" in the course.

A failure may be removed only by re-enrolling for the course and repeating it in class. P, indicating incomplete work or absence from examination by excuse, must be removed within the next semester; otherwise the incomplete grade becomes F.
A student may be permitted to repeat a course to raise a grade of "D," only upon recommendation of the Department concerned. The last grade earned will be considered the grade of record, as applied toward credit for graduation.

For graduation a student must present a minimum of 128 semester hours of credit and at least one quality point for each hour earned at Grand Canyon College. Even when more than 128 hours are presented, the number of quality points must at least equal the number of hours earned at Grand Canyon College. It is not enough to have the required number of credits; they must be of a standard quality. Besides an over-all "C" average, a student must have a 1.5 average in his major with no grade below "C" in an upper division course in his major. Candidates for secondary certificates must have a "B" average in their teaching major.

In calculating a student's grade point average in his major, work transferred in his major will be evaluated on the same basis as work taken at Grand Canyon College.

SCHOLARSHIP SUPERVISION AND SUSPENSION

The faculty regulation regarding academic deficiency is designed to provide close supervision of the program of study and progress of students who fall below an average grade of "C," which is required for graduation. Each student whose cumulative average falls below the grade of "C" is informed of his status at the end of the semester and of the consequences of continued academic deficiency, and is given such advice and help as fits his individual case.

Any student, other than a freshman who has completed only one semester, who received a grade below "C" on any work taken the preceding semester may be asked to apply for permission to continue as a student at Grand Canyon College. The application should contain an explanation, if any, for the unsatisfactory or postponed grades, and a statement outlining what the student intends to do to improve his scholarship.

A student whose cumulative academic average work taken in Grand Canyon College drops below "C", will be placed on academic probation, which is continued until the "C" average is regained. If a student on probation fails to earn a "C" average in any semester, he is subject to suspension, and he may re-enroll only upon permission of the Admissions and Academic Regulations Committee. A freshman entering from the lower quarter of his graduating class in high school enters on probation. A freshman so admitted may take two semesters in which to attain a "C" average. Transfer students with less than a "C" average in work already completed are admitted on probation and must remove their probationary status in one semester if they are to re-enroll without permission of the Admissions and Academic Regulations Committee. (P. 11).

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Students who have attended Grand Canyon College for at least four semesters (not including summer sessions) as bona fide students and have made an average of 2.40 or above quality points for each hour of credit on work taken at Grand Canyon College graduate as honor students. If the average is 2.40-2.59, graduation will be with distinction; if the average is 2.60-2.79, graduation will be with high distinction; if the average is 2.80-3.00, graduation will be with highest distinction.

NUMBERING OF COURSES

The courses in the different departments are numbered from 100 to 499. Courses from 100 to 199 are Freshman courses. Courses from 200 to 299 are Sophomore courses. Courses from 300 to 399 are Junior courses. Courses from 400 to 499 are Senior courses.

LOSS OF CREDIT

Any student leaving a required freshman course until the senior year shall receive one hour less credit per course for the delayed work, except for a required course in physical education activity.

A senior taking a freshman level elective course will be required to earn a minimum grade of "B" in order to receive full credit in the course; otherwise the credit will be reduced one hour.

ABSENCES FROM CAMPUS AND CITY

The Dean of Women or the Dean of Students may restrict absences from the campus and city of students whose scholastic standing is in question. Absences of residents in the dormitories are further restricted by policies of the halls concerned.

ELIGIBILITY FOR ACTIVITIES

To be eligible to represent the College in extracurricular public performance a student must meet the following requirements regarding grades: If, during the preceding semester, he took 15 hours or less, he must have a grade of "C" in at least 9 hours; if he is taking 16 hours or more he must have a grade of "C" in at least 10 hours; he may not have a deficiency of more than 10 quality points. Eligibility is to be determined at end of each semester. (See page 39, Intercollegiate Athletics, 1a.)

"Extracurricular public performance" in this regulation is defined as follows: (1) Performances on the campus to which the public is explicitly invited, and (2) All off-campus performances in which the students participate by arrangement made by a member of the faculty or staff of the College.

This rule does not apply to ministerial students in regard to their preaching in churches. They are not considered as representing the College, but the particular denomination to which they belong.

Any freshman or transfer student entering on academic probation is ineligible to hold office in any student organization until his probationary status is removed.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Most students will be regularly classified, as follows:

(1) A student will be classified as a freshman who enters without condition, and who is carrying at least twelve hours of freshman work.

(2) A student will be classified as a sophomore who has at least 30 semester hours of college work to his credit and 30 quality points.

(3) A student will be classified as a junior who has at least 60 semester hours to his credit and 60 quality points.

(4) A student will be classified as a senior who has at least 90 semester hours and one quality point for each hour and is not notably deficient in spelling, reading, and English grammar. (See p. 63, English Usage.)

Unclassified students—those students who have not met the entrance requirements.

Special students—those students who are eligible to do college work but are not working toward a degree.

Auditors—those students who are enrolled in regular courses for no credit.

SELECTION OF MAJOR AND MINOR SUBJECTS

Not later than the beginning of his junior year each student must choose the department in which he wishes to major. He must then consult the head of that department regularly thereafter in selecting the courses of study to be pursued. A change of major must be approved by the two major professors concerned, the Dean, and Registrar.

CORRESPONDENCE AND EXTENSION WORK

At the present time, extension courses are offered only in the Department of Religion, in cooperation with the Seminary Extension Department of the Southern Baptist Convention. These courses, on the college level and taught by instructors approved for college teaching, carry equivalent credit to other courses offered in the Department of Religion.

Correspondence work is not offered by the College.

Record of all correspondence and extension work transferred from another institution must be filed with the Registrar prior to enrollment in the final semester before graduation. Any such work done at any time by a student while enrolled in Grand Canyon College must have the express approval of the College, in order for such work to be acceptable.

GRAND CANYON COLLEGE

EVENING CLASSES

Based upon the demand, numerous courses are offered in the evening primarily for the benefit of townspeople who wish to take college courses but are unable to attend classes during the day.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING COURSE LOAD

Boarding students will not be allowed to carry fewer than twelve semester hours of work, except upon the advice of the College Physician or by special consent of the Dean.

Freshmen may not normally register for more than sixteen hours during the first semester. A student may not register for more than seventeen hours unless during the preceding semester he made an average of "B" or above. The maximum number of hours for any student is normally eighteen. The maximum number of hours to be allowed during a summer term is six semester hours, unless one of the courses is a four hour course. Otherwise, special permission must be obtained from the Dean or Academic Regulations Committee.

Carrying a normal course load in a college is considered to be a full-time job. For this reason the following rules have been adopted for the protection of students who find it necessary to earn part or all of their college expenses:

1. Students who have employment other than school work may not at any time take over sixteen hours.

2. Students working 30 hours per week or doing full time work of any kind who are not making an average of "C" at the end of the first four weeks will be requested to reduce their course load in proportion to their grade deficiency.

MAXIMUM NUMBER OF HOURS IN A SUBJECT

A regular student will not be allowed to take more than forty-two semester hours for credit in any one subject.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING CLASS ATTENDANCE

1. Students are expected to be regular and punctual in class attendance. The student alone assumes responsibility for all absences. Instructors will permit students to make up tests and other work when the absence was entirely unavoidable or authorized by the Dean of Students.

2. To secure permission to make up work missed by absence, the student must clear any absence within one week after his return to class in the manner prescribed by his instructor.

3. Regular and punctual attendance will be considered in assigning grades. If a student is absent for any reason, authorized or unauthorized, more than four times the number of times the class meets per week, he will be given a grade of "F" for the course, regardless of the quality of his work in other respects. The instructor will notify the Registrar's Office in writing so that the necessary drop forms may be initiated.
4. Absences on days immediately preceding or immediately following holidays must be authorized by the Dean of Students, all such absences to be recorded as double absences.

5. Class attendance records will be effective as of the first day of class meetings in each semester.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

All students taking nine or more semester hours of daytime work must attend chapel. If absences from chapel exceed four times the number of chapel meetings per week, the student shall be penalized one-half semester hour's credit; he shall be penalized another one-half semester hour's credit for each additional four chapel absences.

EXPENSES

The regular school year is composed of two semesters. Each semester is 18 weeks in length. Summer school sessions are called terms.

The expenses of a student are due and payable at the beginning of each semester or term and must be paid or satisfactory arrangements concerning them made with the Business Manager before the student can enroll in any class. A student may make a note for a portion of his account, on which interest will be charged at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of the note.

STUDENTS HAVING UNPAID BILLS AT THE END OF THE SEMESTER OR TERM WILL NOT BE ADMITTED TO THE FINAL EXAMINATIONS UNTIL SATISFACTORY ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE. A number of loan funds are available to needy students. See the loan fund section under "Student Assistance." Arrangements for loans should be made at least two weeks before the semester ends.

There will be a $2.00 late payment penalty for each day that the Business Office issues a permit for the student to take examinations because accounts are not cleared by the student. Permits to take examinations will be issued at the discretion of the Business Manager.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to change all fees and charges from time to time if necessary.

This deposit will remain in effect as long as the student plans to continue his studies and will be subject to charge for property loss or damage; breakage or violation of rules in any laboratory, department, or the library; for loss of keys; and for other miscellaneous charges. Each semester the breakage deposit will be restored to the $10 balance if a charge has been made against the deposit during the previous semester. Upon completion or termination of the student's course of study written application may be made for refund.

Room and Board
Room rent will be $150.00 per semester, which will be charged at the time the student registers. ROOM RENT IS NOT REFUNDABLE AFTER ONE WEEK FROM THE FIRST DAY OF CLASSES. Linens, towels, blankets, and pillows must be furnished by the student.

Room rent will be charged at the rate of $1.25 per day for those students staying in the dormitories other than when the school is officially in session. These charges will apply during the Christmas holidays, between the spring and beginning of the first summer term, and between the end of the summer term and the opening of the fall semester.

Students will be billed for their board at the time they register. The student may purchase either a five-day or a seven-day meal ticket. There will be a $2.00 fee for changing the meal ticket after registration. There will be no refund for students missing meals from time to time or while on college-sponsored tours. Board prices are set realizing that students will miss meals occasionally. The cafeteria will be closed during the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter vacation periods.

Board costs are as follows:
Five-day meal ticket, per semester ............. $160.00
Seven-day meal ticket, per semester ........... 190.00 individual meals may be purchased for cash at the cafeteria by off-campus students, college staff, and quests at a rate to be determined.

Summary of Minimum Expense for One Semester for Boarding Students
Dormitory room .................................... $150.00
Meals in the cafeteria, seven-day meal ticket 190.00
Tuition (16 hours) ................................ 300.00
Books and supplies (estimate) ................. 30.00
Student services fee ............................ 25.00
Medical and Hospitalization Insurance ........ 9.50
Total expense for one semester ................. $724.50
Breakage deposit (first semester only — refundable) 10.00
Total expense for new students ................. $734.50

Refunds
If a student is forced to withdraw from school because of sickness or other unavoidable causes, approved by the administration, charge will be based on the scale listed below beginning with the first day of classes.
IN ORDER TO GET A REFUND, THE STUDENT MUST MAKE AN OFFICIAL WITHDRAWAL AT THE TIME HE IS LEAVING SCHOOL. Proper forms for withdrawal may be picked up at the Registrar's office. Refunds will not be made by the Business Office until the Registrar's office gives the Business Office an official notice of withdrawal. Refunds are effective the date the student notifies the Registrar's office of his withdrawal.

Attendance of one week or less $25.00
Attendance between one and two weeks 10% of total tuition
Attendance between two and three weeks 20% of total tuition
Attendance between three and four weeks 40% of total tuition
Attendance between four and five weeks 60% of total tuition
Attendance between five and ten weeks 70% of total tuition
After ten weeks 100% of total tuition
Fees are not refundable after the first week.

The minimum charge for any student dropping out will be $10.00 regardless of whether the student has attended classes or not. Minimum charge for dropping from the Evening School will be $5.00. After the fifth week, refunds will be made for complete withdrawal but not for dropping individual courses.

Room rent will be charged on the basis of $1.25 a day for the portion of a month in which a student withdraws from school, but charges are not to exceed the regular monthly charge. Meals will be charged on a proportional basis for the portion of a month in which a student withdraws. The day of withdrawal will be counted as one full day.

All refunds due students for any reason whatsoever will be forfeited unless called for on or before June 30 of the college year in which they are due. Should June 30 fall on Sunday or on a day when the Business Office is closed, the refund will be made on the next business day.

ORGANIZATION FUNDS

All student organizations are required to deposit their funds with the college Business Manager. The College disburses funds when requested by the sponsor of the organization and the president or treasurer.

STUDENT ASSISTANCE

Part-time Work

Every effort will be made to assist students in obtaining part-time employment. Under ordinary circumstances, those who plan to earn their way should have enough money to carry them through the first semester. Money earned while working on campus will be applied toward payment of the student's account. If the student's account with the college is current, his earnings will be paid to him in cash or they may be applied to current semester's expenses or to expenses of future semesters.

A large number of jobs are available for both men and women students. Campus jobs include secretarial, switchboard, custodial, cafeteria helpers, laboratory assistants, yard work, maintenance, library assistants, accompanists for the Music Department, and dormitory assistants. Campus jobs pay from 75c to $1.00 an hour. In addition to campus jobs, there are many off-campus jobs available. Contact the Dean of Students in regard to off-campus jobs.

Loans

The College is eager to assist worthy students. The following loan funds are administered by the College: information concerning loans may be obtained from the Business Manager. Loan applications should be made at least two weeks in advance of need. All loans exceeding $25 require a co-signer regardless of whether the student is 21 years of age or not.

Adair Loan Fund. Made available by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Adair Phoenix, Arizona. Restricted to freshmen.

Anonymous Loan Fund. An anonymous contributor established this fund for loans to be made to ministerial students in need.

Lt. Stephen A. Beck Student Loan Fund. For senior students who have maintained at least a "C" average every semester while attending Grand Canyon College.

Orville Briscoe Memorial Student Loan Fund. This loan fund is for junior or senior ministerial students with at least a "C" average in their work. The student may borrow up to $250 per semester and the loan may be repaid starting four months after he ceases to be a full-time student at Grand Canyon College. After payments begin the student has 36 months to pay off the loan. This loan fund was made available by Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Gladden.

The Katherine Brooks Loan Fund. This fund was established by Mr. and Mrs. Troy E. Brooks. Its purpose is to assist worthy young ladies in the junior and senior classes who need help financially to enable them to complete their college work.

J.W. Caperton Foundation Student Loan Fund. This loan fund was made available by Mr. J. W. Caperton of Tunicia, Mississippi, for ministerial students. This is a revolving loan fund for students preparing for the ministry who need access to loan funds from time to time.

Peter H. Ethington Memorial Student Loan Fund. These funds are provided by members of the Ethington family. Available to all students.

First Baptist Church, Ajo, Arizona, Student Loan Fund. This loan fund is available for students who have spent one year of training at Grand Canyon College and are preparing for full-time Christian service. The loan may be repaid starting one year after the loan is made; the first year of the loan is interest free. After the first year the note will bear 6 per cent interest per annum.

Bessie Fleming Student Loan Fund. Funds were provided by Dr. and Mrs. William Fleming of Fort Worth, Texas. Available to all students.

National Defense Student Loan Fund. This fund was established in 1958 by the federal government. These funds are available for needy students in any field of study although the Act specifies that "in the selection of students to receive loans . . . special consideration shall be given to (a) students with a superior academic background who express a desire to teach in elementary or secondary schools, and (b) students whose academic background indicates a superior capacity and preparation in science, mathematics, engineering, or a modern foreign language. Funds may be paid back beginning one year after the student ceases to be a full-time student. The loan may be paid back over a ten-year period.

Navajo Loan Fund. For the education of worthy Navajo Indian students. (Or other students when not needed for Navajo students). Made available by Mr. Leo Berndt, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Student Loan Fund. A small revolving fund made available by members of the faculty for emergency needs. Open to any approved student for a maximum of $25.

L. B. and Mabel Vaughn Student Loan Fund. This fund was established by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Vaughn to make funds available for worthy students or to prospective students of Grand Canyon College in need thereof for their entrance into, and their maintenance, while attending Grand Canyon College.

United Student Aid Funds. This is a private, non-profit service corporation which endorses low-cost, long-term loans made by local banks to needy college students. USA Funds serves as an intermediary between the student's public-spirited hometown bank (which makes the loan at cost or below) and the student's college (which underwrites the loan by depositing funds in the USA Funds reserve). The student must be a sophomore, junior, or senior, and have at least a "C" average in his work in order to get this loan. The loan may be paid back over a three-year period beginning four months after the student ceases to be a full-time student. After payment begins the student has three years to pay back the loan.

Scholarships and Tuition Grants

General Regulations:

1. No student may receive a combination of scholarships or tuition grants administered by the college that will total more than 70% of the cost of tuition, except for the publications tuition grant which are work scholarships.
2. Ministerial tuition grants are available during the regular fall, spring, and summer terms. Scholarships are not available during the summer terms.
3. Grade average requirements for all scholarships are regulated by the Scholarship Committee.

Ministerial Tuition Grants

Tuition grants up to four years are available to ministerial students, wives of ministers, and children of ministers. Ministerial students, ministers' wives, and ministers' children may, when approved, be granted a maximum of the following percentages of tuition:

- Those affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention:
  - Ministers: 40% of tuition
  - Ministers' Wives: 20% of tuition
  - Ministers' children: 16% of tuition

Requirements:

1. The student must meet the college entrance requirements.
2. The tuition grant does not apply to courses that are audited.
3. The student must not use tobacco or alcoholic beverages and must be deserving.
4. A minister must be licensed or ordained before the beginning of a semester for which the grant is made.
5. A minister must take a first minor in Bible or Religion. (He should enroll in one such course each semester until the first minor is completed.)
6. The student must attend monthly meetings of the Ministerial Association unless excused by the Head of the Department of Religion.
7. No college graduate is eligible.
8. Korean veterans may qualify.
9. Male ministers affiliated with the Southern Baptist Conventions are included.
10. Divorced ministers are considered individually.

For further information regarding these grants, write to the Registrar.

Departmental Scholarships

A Departmental Scholarship will be offered in each department that offers a major, in the amount of 35% of tuition.

Requirements:

1. A minimum residence at the college of one semester (12 hours or more).
2. Junior or Senior standing and declaration of major in the department.
3. An overall average of "B" on all work taken in the college and an average of "B" in the department offering the scholarship.

Laura A. Wadsworth Scholarships in Education

Students will be recommended by the Education Department to Mr. and Mrs. Acord of Houston, Texas. Upon their approval, the scholarships will be awarded to Sophomores, Juniors, or Seniors who have demonstrated their academic as well as their activity abilities at Grand Canyon College. Two scholarships will be awarded each year.

Honors Scholarships

A limited number of honors scholarships for 70% of tuition are available to freshmen, during the year following high school graduation, who ranked in the upper 5 per cent of their class in high schools with fewer than 1,000 students and in the upper 10 per cent in larger high schools. These scholarships are renewable for the full four years of college, provided a “B” average is maintained, and provided, further, that the student’s progress in other respects is acceptable. Applicants should write to the Registrar for the necessary forms.

Publications Tuition Grants

Five tuition grants for work on publications are awarded up to the following amounts per year:

1. Editor of Canyon Trails, all of tuition.
2. Business manager of Canyon Trails, all of tuition.
3. Editor of Canyon Echoes, all of tuition.
5. School photographer, all of tuition.

Write to the Registrar for the necessary application forms.

Opdyke Scholarships

Five Opdyke Scholarships in the amount of $150 ($75 each semester) will be awarded. The Opdyke Fund is designated for “the education of mountain people” and is awarded to worthy students who qualify. Write to the Registrar for the necessary application forms.

Special Abilities Scholarships

Athletic:
A limited number of basketball and baseball and/or tennis scholarships for 70% of tuition will be offered. Write to the Registrar for the necessary application forms.

Music:
Fifteen special music scholarships in the amount of 70% of tuition will be awarded per school year. Recipients must meet the entrance requirements of the college, must be available for service at the direction of the college, and must be eligible to represent the College.

Fifteen general music scholarships will be available in the amount of 35% of tuition. The Scholarship Committee regulates conditions of awarding these scholarships. Write to the Registrar for the necessary application forms.

Woman’s Missionary Union Scholarships

Four scholarships of $175 per year will be awarded to Southern Baptist women students who are mission volunteers or are engaged in full time Christian service, who are members of churches affiliated with the Arizona Southern Baptist Convention. For information write to Woman’s Missionary Union, 316 West McDowell Road, Phoenix, Arizona.

Oestreich-Eaton Scholarship for Ministerial Students

An annual scholarship of $100 will be granted to a ministerial student who has maintained at least a “B” average. This scholarship is being granted by Mr. Kermit Oestreich and Mr. Jerry Ray Eaton.

AWARDS

Baptist Book Store Award
The Baptist Book Store awards annually ten dollars worth of books to the ministerial student in the senior class who makes the highest average in his grades and who is recommended by the faculty for the award.

Puckett Award
Dr. J. Niles Puckett will give annually a Thayers Greek Lexicon to the student who makes the highest average in first year Greek and who is recommended by the faculty for the award.

The Pierian Award
The Pierian Club will award, each spring semester, an appropriate gift to the English major, Junior or Senior, who has the highest scholastic average for the year. A minimum of a “B” average must be attained by the recipient.

Wall Street Journal Award
The Wall Street Journal Award is given annually to an outstanding business student recommended by the Business Department and approved by the faculty. The award includes an inscribed medallion to the outstanding business student and a one-year subscription to the Wall Street Journal.

DEGREES OFFERED

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

GENERAL EDUCATION

PRE-PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

SUGGESTED PROGRAMS
Graduation Requirements

DEGREES OFFERED

The College offers curricula leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts and to the Degree of Bachelor of Science.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Number of Hours. The total number of semester hours required for graduation is 128 with a minimum grade average of "C."

English Usage. Every student classified as a Junior by the Registrar’s office will take a test provided by the English Department. In case of failure, the student will retake the test in the following semester. In case of a second failure, the student will be required to enroll in English 110 and successfully complete the course. This requirement includes transfer students and must be met before a student is permitted to graduate.

Transfer students who are upperclassmen must take this qualifying examination at the time of their enrollment and, in case of failure, enroll in English 110.

Upon recommendation of two of his professors, a student may be required at any time to enroll in English 110.

Minimum Residence. A minimum of six semesters of residence in an approved college is required for graduation. Of this, two semesters, consisting of at least 23 semester hours of work, must be done in residence at Grand Canyon College. All work of the semester preceding graduation must be done in Grand Canyon College. Transfer students are required to take in residence at Grand Canyon College at least six upper division semester hours in their major subject and three upper division semester hours in their first minor.

Correspondence and Extension Work. Record of all correspondence and extension work transferred from another institution must be filed with the Registrar prior to enrollment in the final semester before graduation. Any such work done at any time by a student while enrolled in Grand Canyon College must have the express approval of the College, in order for such work to be acceptable.

Minimum Amount of Language Allowed. No credit for graduation will be given for less than a year of language taken in college, unless the student has as much as two high school credits in the same language.

Application for Graduation. By the end of their junior year candidates for graduation must file application for candidacy for a degree. No student may register as a senior until he has filed this application. Transfer students who enter as seniors must file the application before completing enrollment. Application forms may be obtained at the Office of the Registrar and completed applications must be returned to the Registrar.

Attendance at Commencement Exercises. Graduates are expected to attend public commencement exercises. In extreme cases students may be excused, but only upon written request, which will be presented to the faculty for vote.
GRADUATION UNDER A PARTICULAR CATALOG

Ordinarily a candidate for a degree will meet the requirements as stated in the catalog in force at the time of his matriculation. He may elect to meet the requirements of the catalog for the year of his graduation but in such case he must conform to that catalog only.

CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

The completion of the required 128 semester hours usually requires four years of 30 semester hours each besides Physical Education. Of these the freshman and sophomore years are spent in general or introductory work, comprising courses in widely separated subjects. During the remaining two years, the student may confine his work to comparatively narrow limits. The work for the entire four year course consists of (1) General Education, (2) Major and minor subjects, (3) Electives.

GENERAL EDUCATION

General Education at Grand Canyon College has as its purpose the unifying of the initial college educational experience of every student to form a comprehensive and securely cemented foundation for a fuller and more meaningful life and for future academic pursuits. It seeks to help the student to develop an appreciation and understanding of the various areas of creative endeavor which have contributed to the development of contemporary society and thus enable him to achieve greater social stability and a more secure personal life.

General Education seeks to provide the kinds of learning and experience during the first college years which will enable each student to choose wisely and build carefully the specialized program of studies most appropriate for him. Thus, General Education is primarily concerned with developing an awareness of the significance of various areas of knowledge to the student, their relationship to other areas of human endeavor and achievement, and their influence and potential in today's world.

General Education at Grand Canyon College seeks to help the individual student to apprehend the Christian way of life and to begin to acquire the knowledge, skills, and attitudes essential to a citizen who assumes moral and social responsibilities. It attempts to help the individual student to relate himself properly to the foundation areas listed below, which give meaning to life, and to anticipate richer and more definitive experiences in appropriate areas of specialization.

Degrees Offered

The Bachelor of Arts degree will be granted to majors in Bible, English, History, Music, Religion, Sociology, and Social Studies.

The Bachelor of Science degree will be granted to majors in Biology, Business Administration, Elementary Education, Mathematics, Music Education, and Physical Education.

Majors and Minors

By the beginning of his junior year, each student is required to select one subject to be known as his major in which he shall present at least 30 semester hours. Of these, 12 hours must be of junior-senior rank. The student must have an over-all average of 1.5 in his major courses. No upper division (junior-senior level) course will be acceptable for the major with a grade below "C." Candidates for secondary certificates must have a "B" average in their major. (See page 83.)

The student must also choose two minors in subjects other than his major. His first minor must consist of not fewer than 18 semester hours. Of these, 6 hours must be from courses of junior-senior rank. His second minor must consist of not fewer than 12 semester hours.

Electives

A certain number of electives may be taken from the regular college courses offered in each department, in addition to those which may be required in that particular group.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Students who desire to prepare for a career in law or in some other profession requiring a legal education may take their undergraduate pre-law work at Grand Canyon College.

The requirements for admission to law schools vary from a minimum of three years of pre-legal college work to a college degree. Whenever possible, the pre-law student should select in advance the law school he plans to attend and arrange his course of study to fit particular suggestions and requirements of that school. In any case, a thorough grounding in English, Social Studies, and Economics is recommended; and pre-law students are strongly urged to complete a course in Elementary Accounting.

The legal profession is exacting in its standards of intellectual effort, honesty, and maturity. Basic objectives of pre-legal education should be comprehension and expression in words, critical understanding of human institutions, and creative power in thinking.

Suggested Program for Pre-Medical, Pre-Dental, and Pre-Optometry Students

Most medical colleges require three years of undergraduate work for admission, including as a minimum one year of inorganic chemistry, half year of organic chemistry, one year of general physics, half year of college mathematics, one year of zoology, half year of biology and half year of anatomy, plus foreign language*, and humanities and social studies as electives. All these courses are offered and a proper choice of them in two years will meet a substantial part of the requirement.

*German (or French)
THE ARTS AND SCIENCES CURricula

It is assumed that many of the students who plan to major in one of these subjects will not decide until his junior year what his major and first minor will actually be. The suggestion that the first and second years be devoted almost exclusively to core curriculum requirements is to encourage the student to study in the widest possible variety of fields, in order that he may determine wherein his greatest interest lies. The following suggested program is intended primarily to serve as a guide or check sheet for the student, rather than to limit him in the first two years to the specific courses listed. Every specific course listed is, however, a required course; and the student is warned that he will lose an hour of credit for any required freshman course delayed until the senior year.

Division of Education and Psychology

This Division is oriented toward the general purpose and liberal arts objectives of Grand Canyon College. It emphasizes general education as a foundation for specialized study and contributes toward the realization of a liberal background through its non-technical courses in psychology, health, and physical education. It seeks to acquaint the student with principles and practices of education, health, and physical development in a setting conducive to Christian living, and to provide professional training and supervised experience in education, physical education, and related areas.

Department of Education and Psychology

While the Department of Education and Psychology functions primarily to train public school teachers, courses in the Department are regular college courses and students majoring in other areas may elect to take certain courses upon approval of the Department of Education.

TEACHER TRAINING CURRICULA

The courses in education and psychology are planned and organized to meet the following requirements: (1) Major in Elementary Education; (2) a curriculum for elementary teachers; (3) a curriculum for high school teachers; (4) courses to meet Arizona certification requirements and renewals.

The teacher training program has been extended to include a fifth year of preparation to meet current Arizona certification requirements. The fifth year program of Grand Canyon College has been approved by the State Board of Education.

In order to become a candidate for teacher training, a student must have completed 58 semester hours of college work with an average grade of "C." Students who complete 75 hours before they maintain a "C" average should get a degree before they apply for admission to the Teacher Training Program.

Majors in subject matter fields preparing to teach in high school should have a "C+" average in all subjects before graduation and must have a "B" average in the major field. To qualify for apprentice teaching, students must have passed the English Qualifying Examination (see p. 63). Students with a "C" average or above in all subjects may participate in the fifth year program of teacher preparation at Grand Canyon College.

Grand Canyon College work is approved by the Arizona State Board of Education.

EDUCATION

Education 110. Remedial Education. Emphasis is given on the mechanics of reading involving eye-span, reading rate, attention and comprehension, reading vocabulary, word meaning, sentence meaning, paragraph meaning, and story value. The student is taught to read aloud with the eye-span in advance of oral reading. Tests are given for vision, depth perception, color vision, eye movements, reading rate, and reading comprehension. Frequent use of the dictionary is emphasized and individual remedial instruction is given each student. (Fall)

2 semester hours.

Education 112. Introduction to Education. This orientation course is designed to give the student a view of the whole field of education with emphasis upon its opportunities and requirements as a profession. (Fall and Spring)

2 semester hours.

Education 313. Educational Psychology. This course takes up the general problems of learning, such as native and acquired characteristics, individual differences, motivation as well as the different theories of learning, and their application to the classroom situation. (Fall and Spring)

3 semester hours.

Education 321. Orientation to Apprentice Teaching. The purpose of this course is to acquaint the apprentice teachers with apprentice teaching requirements. Area school administrators and supervisors will be invited to participate in this orientation. Additional instruction from the education faculty will be included. Classes will meet two periods per week during the first nine weeks of the education block. (Fall and Spring)

1 semester hour

Education 363. Audio-Visual Aids. A survey of the field of projected and non-projected aids, with discussions, demonstrations, and laboratory work. (Spring).

3 semester hours.

Education 413. Tests and Measurements (Evaluation of Learning). This course deals with the philosophy of testing, the construction of tests, the actual administration and interpretation of tests. There will be opportunity for examination of sample tests. Students will select either high school or elementary tests for study and do test construction in either field. Prerequisite: Education 112 and Methods. (Fall and Spring)

3 semester hours.

Education 422. History of Education. This is a survey course in the general development of education from ancient times down to the present. The course intends to be more extensive than intensive, and attempts to establish an educational background for students majoring in the field of education. Prerequisite: Education 112. (Fall and Spring)

2 semester hours.
CATALOG OF

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

Elementary Education 328. Apprentice Teaching in the Elementary Grades. Prerequisites: Education 112, Elementary Education 343, and Elementary Education 353. (Fall and Spring). 8 semester hours.

Library Science 373. Children’s Literature and Story Telling. (Same as Elementary Education 373.)
Department of Health and Physical Education

The purpose of required physical education is to maintain the physical vitality of students and to develop interests and activities that will continue beyond school. The work includes conditioning exercises, individual activities, adult sports, etc.

Courses are planned with the following aims: (1) to meet the state requirements of all elementary and high school teachers in this field; (2) to offer a varied program of physical activity which will contribute to the well-being of the students; and (3) to train men and women as physical education directors and coaches.

Upon written recommendation of a medical doctor and approval of the Dean and the Department of Physical Education, equivalent hours in physical education or health education may be substituted for required physical education activity courses. Normally, one of the following three hour courses would satisfy the requirement: Physical Education 213, 323, or 413; or Health Education 213.

Veterans of the armed services may receive up to four hours credit for physical education activity courses, on the basis of military service. In general, one hour's credit for each full ninety days of active service will be allowed. This credit is not granted automatically to veterans; they must comply with instructions of the Registrar's office to establish the credit.

No student who has received credit in physical education for military training will be allowed to receive credit for PE 101, 201, 131, 111, 231, or 241 unless he has a major or a minor in physical education.

Veterans may also receive credit, on the basis of military service, for the health education course required for graduation. This credit will be determined, on request of the student, by evaluation in the Dean's office of service or USAFI records in the same way that any transcript would be evaluated.

Courses in the humanities at Grand Canyon College are designed to acquaint students with the best that men have felt and thought and with the means by which they have expressed these experiences. Attention is also given to the cultural influences which helped produce these attitudes toward life and these efforts toward the realization of knowledge and beauty.

Such an enrichment of mind and emotion can best be gained through first-hand contact with the materials and techniques of thought and expression. For this reason, emphasis is placed upon direct experience with literature, language, art, music, drama, speech, and writing.
Department of English and Speech

The English Department of Grand Canyon College aligns its objectives with the Baptist and Protestant tradition of the harmony of Christian faith and reason. Believing that a wholesome spiritual development is inconsistent with a cultivation of "blind spots," we propose that a thinking Christian should read widely and write with comprehension of the background of his culture.

The instruction given in English has three objectives — two of them for every student who shall graduate from Grand Canyon College and the third specifically for those students who possess or develop a major interest in language and literature. The first objective is a command of clear and effective English, spoken and written, in order that the student may assume a position of intelligent leadership in the American community. The second objective is the development of the habit of reading good literature with appreciation and enjoyment so that the student may have the power of thought which comes from a knowledge of the riches accumulated in the literature associated with his own language. The third objective, for the major in English, is a more specific study of skills, habits, and knowledge involved in the first two objectives and the pursuit of these studies to the point of at least a beginning mastery. The student majoring in English should be equipped to write effectively and imaginatively and should have a knowledge of the authors whose works illustrate the development of both the English and American language and literature.

Drama 233. Stagecraft. This course is designed for instruction and practice in set construction, lighting, makeup, costuming, properties, and other specific duties of back stage production. (Each Spring) 3 semester hours.

Department of Foreign Languages

It is the purpose of the Department of Foreign Languages to enlarge the student's horizons and to give him the language tools to actively develop new interests. It is the practice of the department to provide course material and methods of presentation oriented toward the principle that, ideally, there is no cleavage between the appreciation of other cultures and the ability to use reasonably well their spoken and written languages.

Credit for the first semester of a language is granted to students only upon the completion of the second semester's work.

In evaluating high school work in a language, two years may count as the equivalent of three semester hours. The head of the department may determine in which course students should begin their college language. Required language courses should be taken consecutively.

Twelve hours of one language (or equivalent), meets the language requirement for graduation.

French 113. Elementary French. Fundamentals of grammar and pronunciation, conversation and composition, and graded reading. (Fall). 3 semester hours

French 123. Elementary French. A continuation of 113. Prerequisite: French 113 or two years of high school French. (Spring) 3 semester hours

Spanish 223. Intermediate Spanish. A continuation of Spanish 213. (Spring) 3 semester hours.

Department of Music

Any student interested in music, even though not wishing to major in this department, may apply for voice, piano, organ or other subjects offered. Participation in all musical organizations is open to any student enrolled in the College.

Credit for one hour each semester is given for choir, orchestra, or band, but not more than four hours may be counted toward a degree.

Choirs

The Oratorio and Opera Society is an organization formed for the purpose of presenting oratorios and operas each season, rehearsing twice a week. The Messiah is presented in December and an opera or Oratorio in the spring. Membership is open to all students who qualify.

The Choralaires is an organization chosen from the Oratorio and Opera Society, which rehearses twice a week in addition and presents concerts throughout the year in high schools, churches, on the radio and television. The highlight of the year is the annual spring tour. The better choral works of both sacred and secular music are performed.

Student Recitals

At regular intervals informal and formal recitals are given. All applied music students are expected to perform in at least two recitals or workshops during each semester. All applied music students required to attend all student recitals.

A junior recital is required of every prospective graduate as prerequisite to senior work. Junior recitals are given in groups of two or three after completion of prerequisite technical examinations.

A senior recital, individually rendered, is required of every degree candidate in applied music. It must be completed not later than two weeks before commencement. A senior is one who is following the prescribed senior course having completed his senior prerequisites, and who gives evidence of being able to complete his course within the year. Application for senior recital must be made four months before graduation date.

Concert and Radio Work

Groups and individual performers are sent out upon request for church meetings and banquets. Programs are prepared for radio broadcasting, clubs, and various entertainments. Students shall consult with their applied music instructor before participating in any public performance.

Practice

To receive one hour of credit for piano, voice, or organ, the student is required to take one lesson each week and to practice a minimum of one hour daily, six days each week. For two hours' credit both lesson time and practice time are doubled.

Voice students may divide the practice hour into two thirty-minute periods if so recommended by the voice instructor.

General Regulations

All applied music students are encouraged to take advantage of the opportunities offered in Phoenix to attend artist concerts and symphony concerts, and each student for credit is required to attend at least one such concert per semester in his chosen field.

Lessons missed because of the student's negligence will not be made up. Those missed because of illness, or because of the absence of the instructor will be made up at a time suitable to both. Students are expected to notify the instructor of planned absences at least four hours before the scheduled lessons.

Requirements for a major in Music Education, B.A. Degree

To major in music for the B.A. degree a student may choose between three fields of concentration:

Division of Natural Science and Mathematics

This division, as an integral part of the liberal arts foundation of Grand Canyon College, endeavors to provide every student with a broad introduction to science and mathematics at the college level. In this respect, it stresses the spirit and method of science and the concepts and contributions of mathematics, and focuses attention on the social, economic, and political implications of these areas of knowledge and endeavor.

The division also provides appropriate courses for students desiring to specialize in life science, physical science, and mathematics, and seeks to prepare qualified students for teaching, for graduate study, or for professional training in these areas.

BIOLOGY

The courses in biology are offered for the purpose of general culture as well as to lay proper foundations for those desiring to specialize in scientific work, in medicine, or agriculture.

Biology 114a. General Botany. The student is introduced to the basic principles of the science of living matter through a study of the functions of common plants. The laboratory work includes the use of the microscope, preparation of slides, and experiments illustrating plant phenomena. Life cycles of representative species are studied. (Each year)
4 semester hours each

Biology 124a. General Zoology. Basic principles of living matter are emphasized through study of the animal kingdom. Dissections are made of representative specimens. (Each year)
4 semester hours each

Biology 134. General Biology. A study of the basic principles that govern living things and their relationship to man. (Each semester)
4 semester hours

Biology 314. Entomology. Study of life histories, taxonomic work, methods of study, collecting and preserving insects. Students are required to prepare a representative collection. Prerequisite: Biology 124a. (Fall, 1964)
4 semester hours

Biology 323. Genetics and Eugenics. Principles and facts of heredity developed from plants and animals. Principles of race improvement. Prerequisite: Biology 114a and b or 124a and b. (Spring, 1964)
3 semester hours

Biology 324. Systematic Botany. The principles of taxonomy are studied with reference to local flora. Specimens are keyed and added to the Department Herbarium. Prerequisite: Biology 114a and b. (Spring, 1965)
4 semester hours

Biology 334. Microbiology. (Formerly Bacteriology.) Introduction to the principles and applications of Microbiology with a study of general characteristics of microorganisms and their relation to man. Prerequisites: Biology 114b and 124a. (Spring, 1964)
4 semester hours

Biology 344. Introduction to Embryology. An elementary course based on the embryology of the chick, but with some work on a few other animal stages. Prerequisite: Biology 124a, 124b. (Fall, 1963)
4 semester hours

CHEMISTRY

Chemistry 114, 124. General Chemistry. Fundamental principles of chemistry and its relationship to life and society. Designed for both students of general education and students preparing for professions of agriculture, medicine, science teaching, engineering, nursing, home economics, and others. Prerequisite: High School Algebra. (Each year)
4 semester hours each

Chemistry 324. Organic Chemistry. Short Course. This course does not treat the subject of organic chemistry in a systematic way as a year's course in General Organic Chemistry does, but is a simple presentation of its practical application. Basic principles will be stressed, so that the course will not only equip students with some general concepts of Organic Chemistry but it will also meet the requirements for pre-nursing, lab technician, home economics, and industrial arts courses. Prerequisite: Chemistry 124. (Summer, 1964) 4 semester hours

MATHMATICS

All students will take Mathematics 113 as a part of their General Education program. Students who have completed advanced or accelerated courses in mathematics in high school may apply for advanced standing with regard to certain other mathematics courses.

Mathematics 110. Remedial Mathematics. For those students who have inadequate high school mathematical background. (Every spring)
No credit

Mathematics 113. Introduction to College Mathematics. This course will be concerned with the development of the foundations of mathematics and with the implications of mathematical ideas, concepts, and processes in solving problems in daily life. (Each Semester)
3 hours

Mathematics 133. College Algebra. A study made of binomials, complex numbers, and theory of equations. (Each Fall)
3 semester hours

Mathematics 143. Plane Trigonometry. This course includes the construction and measurement of angles, definition of trigonometric functions, inverse functions, and the solution of triangles. (Each Spring)
3 semester hours

Mathematics 211. Slide Rule. The use of slide rule in solving more complicated numerical problems. (Each Fall)
1 semester hour

Mathematics 213. Analytic Geometry. This is an introductory course which presents a study of graphs, curves, straight lines, conic sections, and equations of the second degree. Prerequisite: Mathematics 133. (Each year)
3 semester hours

Mathematics 233. Differential Calculus. This study covers the method of differentiation. Parallel or Prerequisite: Mathematics 213. (Each Fall)
3 semester hours

Mathematics 243. Integral Calculus. This study covers methods of integration, definite integrals, multiple integrals, and the applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 233. (Each Spring)
3 semester hours

Mathematics 253. College Geometry. A course in the technique of construction and procedure of proofs of common geometric figures, particularly adapted to the needs of future high school mathematics teachers. (Each Spring)
3 semester hours

Mathematics 313. Theory of Equations. This course includes the solutions of the cubic and quartic equations, the solution of numerical equations, use of determinants, and a study of symmetric functions. Prerequisite: Mathematics 213. (Fall, 1964)
3 semester hours
Mathematics 323. Differential Equations. This study includes the methods of solution of ordinary differential equations and their application to geometry, mechanics, and physics. Prerequisite: Mathematics 243. (Fall, 1964) 3 semester hours.

Mathematics 333. Analytic Geometry of Space. This course includes a study of planes and lines, transformation of coordinates, types of surfaces, the sphere, and quadric surfaces. Prerequisite: Mathematics 243. (Spring, 1965) 3 semester hours.

Mathematics 363. Introduction to Probability and Statistics (Same as Business Administration 343). Elementary theories of probability, distribution, and testing of statistical hypotheses; practical experience in the application of statistical methods. Prerequisite: Mathematics 113 or 133. (Each Fall) 3 semester hours.

Mathematics 383: Mathematics for Teachers. A study of selected phases of mathematics for secondary schools and of the various techniques and methods employed in teaching courses in mathematics. Prerequisite: Mathematics 243. (Spring, 1965) 3 semester hours.

Mathematics 403. Modern Mathematics for Elementary and Junior High School. (Same as Elementary Education 403) (Spring, 1964) 3 semester hours.

Mathematics 423: Introduction to Modern Algebra. This course is designed to acquaint students with the fundamental concepts of logical reasoning and logical structure as employed in mathematics rather than its formal techniques. Some elementary theories of sets, fields, vector spaces, matrices and probability will be introduced. It would be beneficial to all liberal arts students as well as to prospective teachers of mathematics. Prerequisite: Mathematics 213. (Spring, 1965) 3 semester hours.

PHYSICS

Physics 134. Introduction to the Physical Sciences. A coordinating study of the fundamentals of physics, chemistry, meteorology, geology, and astronomy, and of the significance of the physical sciences in today's world. (Each Semester) 4 semester hours.

Physics 203. Introduction to Astronomy. A general introductory nontechnical course in Astronomy. A study of the history of astronomy, the solar system, stars, constellations, and galaxies for the appreciation and understanding of the natural laws of the universe. Prerequisite: Physics 134 or equivalent. (Fall, 1963) 3 semester hours.

Physics 214. General Physics. This course treats the basic principles of general physics including a study of mechanics, heat, and sound. Prerequisite: Mathematics 133, 143, or consent of instructor. (Each Fall) 4 semester hours.

Physics 224. General Physics. This is a continuation of Physics 214 and includes a study of magnetism, electricity, and light. Prerequisite: Physics 214. (Each Spring) 4 semester hours.

Division of Religion and Social Studies

The Division of Religion and Social Studies seeks to relate the student significantly to his social and spiritual areas of life through a study of past and present civilizations.

Department of Religion

Most of the courses in this department are basic courses designed for all college students. They are not professional courses for ministerial students to take the place of studies in a theological seminary or a divinity school. If ministerial students are fairly certain that they will continue their studies in a seminary, it is suggested that they major in such areas as English, history, social studies, or sociology. The courses in this division are intended to give the students an understanding and appreciation of the Bible, to arouse in students a desire for Christian usefulness, and to equip them for leadership in the various activities of the churches.

Bible 113. Old Testament History. An introduction to the Old Testament and a survey of the historical literature. Attention will be given to the institutions, religion, and national life of the Hebrew people. Required for graduation. (Each semester) 3 semester hours.

Bible 273. Pastoral Duties. This will be a study of practical duties and problems of the modern pastor, translating New Testament principles into present day practice. Such matters will be studied as ordination, baptism, Lord’s Supper, marriages, and funerals. Prerequisites: Bible 113, 123. (Fall) 3 semester hours.

Bible 283. Homiletics. A study in the art of preparing and delivering sermons. There will be some actual practice in the delivery of sermons. Some attention will be given to the building and use of a personal library. Prerequisites: Bible 113, 123. (Spring) 3 semester hours.

Bible 323. Evangelism. A study of the principles, message, and methods of evangelism. The principles of the Bible will be applied to all types of evangelism, including personal, church and mass evangelism. Each student is expected to do personal work as a part of this course. Prerequisites: Bible 113, 123. (Spring, 1965) 3 semester hours.

Bible 333. Old Testament Prophets. A study of the occasion, content and interpretation of the writing prophets of the Old Testament, with special emphasis on the Messianic element. Prerequisites: Bible 113, 123. (Spring, 1964) 3 semester hours.

Bible 353. Old Testament Poetry. A study of the poetical books of the Old Testament, with reference to their literary style, occasion, and interpretation. Prerequisites: Bible 113, 123. (Spring, 1965) 3 semester hours.

Bible 373. Christian Doctrines. A systematic study of the great doctrines of the Bible, with special attention given to the doctrines and practices of Baptists. Prerequisites: Bible 113, 123. (Fall) 3 semester hours.

Bible 423. General Epistles and Revelation. This study will deal with the historical background, authorship, and exegetical analysis of the General Epistles (James; I and II Peter; I, II, and III John; Jude; and Hebrews) and Revelation. Prerequisites: Bible 113, 123. (Spring, 1964) 3 semester hours.

GRAND CANYON COLLEGE

NEW TESTAMENT GREEK

The courses listed below are designed first, to confer an early mastery of the essentials of inflection and syntax; second, to resolve the principal difficulties of grammatical analysis; and third, to develop in the student a vigorous and independent interest in the Greek New Testament. Twelve hours of Greek (two years) will meet the language requirement for the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree.

Greek 273. Beginner’s Greek. This course is designed for those who are taking the study of Greek for the first time and others whose preparation does not fit them for entering an advanced class in Greek. It aims to give the fundamentals necessary to the study of the Greek New Testament. This course meets an hour each day, four days a week. Sophomore standing or individual approval is necessary before enrollment in this course. (Fall) 3 semester hours.

Greek 283. Beginner’s Greek. This course is a continuation of Greek 273. A study of Davis’ Grammar will be completed with simple exercises for reading and translation. Special stress will be laid upon the meaning of the cases, the prepositions, and the tenses. This course will meet an hour each day, four days a week. Prerequisite: Greek 273 or its equivalent. (Spring) 3 semester hours.

Greek 373. Advanced Greek Grammar. For second year students of the Greek New Testament. There will be review of forms, syntax, and prose composition. The student is required to translate the First Epistle of John and is given with each lesson demonstration of the significance of verb forms as vital to accurate translation. Prerequisites: Greek 273 and 283, or their equivalent. (Fall) 3 semester hours.

Greek 383. Advanced Greek Grammar. A continuation of 373. The second half of the course will include an exegesis of one short New Testament book designed to help prepare the student for the use of the most effective methods of exegesis of the Greek New Testament. Prerequisite: Greek 373. (Spring) 3 semester hours.
RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Rel. Ed. 213. A Survey of Religious Education. An introductory and survey study of religious education, with emphasis upon the history, philosophy, objectives, techniques, and administration of the educational program of the local church. Some consideration is given to the means of organized cooperation between churches. (Fall, 1964)
3 semester hours.

Rel. Ed. 243. Church Activities. A study of the effective use of non-organizational activities of the church, such as expansion of membership and building, finance, recreation, evangelism, worship, teaching aids, and publicity. (Spring, 1964)
3 semester hours.

Rel. Ed. 263. Church Organizations and Officers. A study of the organizational structure for religious education within the local church, particularly with reference to the Southern Baptist Convention. The major organizations, officers, and committees are studied from a functional point of view. (Spring, 1965)
3 semester hours.

3 semester hours.

Rel. Ed. 333. Psychology of Religion. A study of the psychology of religious experience, with special attention given to conversion, integration of personality, moral guilt, behavior, worship, prayer, and healing. Prerequisite: Psychology 213. (Fall, 1964)
3 semester hours.

Rel. Ed. 363. Audio-Visual Aids. See Education 363 in Department of Education. Credit may be taken in either department. (Spring)
3 semester hours.

Rel. Ed. 463. Comparative Religions. A study of the great representative religions of the world, both ancient and contemporary; and a study of the various religious sects in America. (Fall, 1963) 3 semester hours.

PHILOSOPHY

Philosophy 213. Introduction to Philosophy. This course is a survey of the types of philosophy, the basic problems which man has faced, and the philosophic attempts to solve these problems. (Fall, Spring)
3 semester hours.

Philosophy 463. Comparative Religions. (See Religious Education 463.) (Fall, 1963)
3 semester hours.

Department of Social Studies

History, Political Science, and Sociology are inseparably connected. History is largely the record of the social and political changes and conditions of man. The chief problems before man today, as in all the past, are economic and social. These make up the leading political questions. Therefore every citizen, to vote, talk, or act intelligently, must know something of the great underlying principles of these subjects. This is the purpose of all the courses in this department.

GOVERNMENT

Government 213. Federal Government. An intensive study of the Federal Government of the United States. The purpose of this course is to furnish a guide to American citizenship, as well as to furnish a manual for the various phases of the constitutional system of the United States, including a general study of state and local government. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing. (Fall) 3 semester hours.

Government 233. Arizona History and Government. The first half of the course will concentrate on Arizona history from pre-territorial days to the present, emphasizing economic and social developments as well as political factors. The second half of the semester will be devoted to a study of the structure of Arizona's government at the state, county, and local levels. Each half of the course may be taken separately for 1 1/2 hours each. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing. (Spring) 3 semester hours.

Government 303 a-b. National and Arizona Constitutions. This course meets the requirement for teacher certification and either half may be taken for 1 1/2 semester hours of credit. This course will not fulfill the requirement for majors or minors in the Department of Social Studies except for students in the teacher-training program who minor in Social Studies. 3 semester hours.

Government 323. International Relations. History of international politics, contemporary world power structure, international law and organization. Prerequisite: 6 hours of History or Government. (Spring, 1964, and alternate years) 3 semester hours.

Government 333. Political Thought. Evolution of European and American political doctrines, with emphasis upon the men and the forces producing them. A study of the theories and historical emergence of such concepts as absolutism, natural rights, and democracy. From classical origins through the 18th Century Enlightenment. Prerequisite: 6 hours of History or Government. (Fall, 1964) 3 semester hours.

Government 343. Contemporary Political Thought. A continuation of Government 333, dealing with the men and ideas which have affected government in the 19th and 20th centuries. Special attention is given to American political thought and the study of socialism, communism and fascism in the modern world. Prerequisite: Government 333, or sufficient work in history or philosophy to provide an adequate background. (Spring, 1965) 3 semester hours.

HISTORY

History 113. Western Civilization, to the Renaissance. A course designed to introduce the student to the origin and early development of Western civilization, with emphasis divided between cultural, political, and socioeconomic factors. (Each Fall) 3 semester hours.

History 123. Western Civilization, Renaissance-1900. A continuation of 113. The Renaissance and Reformation as transition to the modern period, and the resultant emergence of national states, set the pattern for Western institutions as they matured. (Each Spring) 3 semester hours.

History 233. The World Since 1900. A continuation of 113, 123. A more detailed study of the swiftly changing tide of events that characterize the revolutionary world of today. Special emphasis is placed on the evolving split between democracy and totalitarianism. (Each Semester beginning Fall, 1964) 3 semester hours.

History 213. American History, the Colonial and Early National Period. European expansion in America; the English colonies, colonial institutions, the American Revolution and Constitution, launching the new government, nationalism and sectionalism, westward expansion, slavery, and the Civil War. (Fall) 3 semester hours.

History 223 American History, the Recent Period. A continuation of History 213 dealing with the problems in the wake of the Civil War, post-war expansion, the Industrial Revolution in America, transition to a world power, domestic and foreign issues of the twentieth century. (Spring) 3 semester hours.

History 313. History of England to 1815. A study of the origin and the development of the English people; their political, social, economic, and cultural institutions. Prerequisite: History 113 and 123. (Spring, 1964) 3 semester hours.
