MISSION STATEMENT

Grand Canyon University is a student focused institution that provides an academically challenging education in a Christian community for students from diverse backgrounds who live in a constantly changing world.

PURPOSE STATEMENT

As a private Christian Liberal Arts institution of higher education, Grand Canyon University is student focused. The University environment promotes student development intellectually, spiritually, socially, and physically. Further, it encourages exploration of leadership, vocational, and interpersonal skills. Grand Canyon University is committed to developing lifelong learners and helps all of its students reach their full potential.

Grand Canyon University offers an academically challenging curriculum at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. With its undergraduate curriculum founded on a strong core of liberal arts and sciences, Grand Canyon University provides both traditional and innovative programs that will lead today’s students to think critically, solve problems, communicate effectively, and acquire an understanding and appreciation of their own and other cultures and times. Grand Canyon University also provides graduate, professional, and continuing studies programs designed to meet the needs of students who have identified career or personal objectives requiring an advanced or specialized course of study ranging from one class to an entire degree.

Grand Canyon University is a Christian community which values the integration of faith into learning and contemporary living. The institution helps students to develop values basic for spiritual fulfillment, wholesome personal growth, and service to the larger community. The institution also serves the larger community by reaching out to meet the needs of those who wish to complete a degree or pursue graduate or professional coursework through its off-campus and distance-learning programs.

In valuing the uniqueness of each individual, Grand Canyon University welcomes students of diverse backgrounds from across the United States and around the world regardless of sex, religion, age, race, physical handicap, or national origin.

FOUNDATIONAL STATEMENT

Grand Canyon University prepares students to live, learn, and remain relevant to options in a changing world. Its programs are based upon the following assumptions:

1. Students enter higher education with individual worldviews. The essence of a strong educational program encourages inquiry and an exploration of conflicting views with fairness and integrity.
2. Students have individual goals and abilities. Some students anticipate acquiring broad, generalized competencies, while others wish to prepare for specialized professional careers or advanced study. Part of the educational process is to assist students in selecting goals that best suit their abilities.

3. Education is an active process; students are expected to participate in all phases. Active participation increases the likelihood that students will develop the joy of learning and appreciate the intrinsic value of lifelong learning habits which are essential in today's rapidly changing society. This process of developing lifelong learning habits allows changes in vocational direction as interests and commitments change or as situations demand.

4. Higher education includes both exposure to the wide range of human knowledge and endeavors as well as exploration of at least one field of study. The foundation provided by the breadth of a Christian liberal arts education encourages the integration of diverse life experiences. The selection of a particular major allows students the opportunity to learn how to acquire new knowledge through in-depth study and research.

5. The University’s full-time faculty and staff have a professed personal relationship with Jesus Christ. They have a faith orientation congruent with the mission of the University and live out their faith in service to the student, University, and global community.

6. Faculty who teach at Grand Canyon University continue their own professional growth through scholarly activity, frequently involving students in their endeavors.

7. The educational experience promotes consistent and personal evaluation that leads to maturity. Some of the most significant personal growth occurs through student interaction with faculty and staff who serve as mentors and role models for students.

HISTORICAL SKETCH
Grand Canyon College was born in the wake of World War II — the realization of a dream long held dear by the tiny congregations of Southern Baptists that called the Arizona mission frontier their home.

Determined to quench the postwar thirst for education with Living Water, as well as a strong drought of academics, the Baptist General Convention of Arizona in the fall of 1946 voted to organize a college. A few months later, the Convention selected the first trustees for the school, who soon secured an abandoned armory building in Prescott, Arizona as Grand Canyon’s first campus.

The College was chartered on August 1, 1949, and set sail a few weeks later with 16 faculty and approximately 100 students, many of them veterans.

Two years later, the College moved to Phoenix, putting down roots and putting up its first permanent buildings on a 90 acre tract in west Phoenix. Grand Canyon was fully accredited in 1968, by the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education, North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, 30 North LaSalle Street, Suite 2400, Chicago, Illinois 60602-2504, (312) 263-0456, (800) 621-7440.

The College was first considered primarily a school for preachers, but that reputation expanded rapidly. Grand Canyon University became famous early on for its teacher education program, and soon developed outstanding programs in the sciences, nursing, business, music, and the arts while maintaining its excellence in Christian studies.

During the planning for the change in institutional organization and status from “Grand Canyon College” to “Grand Canyon University,” the institution identified several landmark events which had been and would be pivotal during this transition. These included, but were not limited to, the organization of programs and departments into multiple colleges, the offering of graduate degree programs, the formation of the Grand Canyon University Foundation which coordinates the fundraising activities of the University, and the generosity of several individuals who pledged or gave unrestricted gifts valued at one million dollars or more to launch the University into the next decade and century.

The Grand Canyon University Foundation was formed in 1983 and subsequently received several gifts of more than one million dollars which led to the following individuals being named as University Founders:

Drs. Jerry and Sarah Smithey
Dr. and Mrs. Gary and Donna Torhjelm
Dr. Huddy Bell
Dr. Joni Hegel
Dr. C.J. Smith

In May of 1984, the College trustees voted to prepare for transition to university status on the school's 40th anniversary in 1989.

The following persons have served as President of Grand Canyon College and University:
- Willis J. Ray, 1949-50

- B.O. Herring, 1952-54

Grand Canyon University, as a private Christian university, selects its instructional staff to fulfill its mission, with an emphasis being placed upon character, academic competence, teaching ability, and willingness to support the institution's mission and programs. The University, under the direction of its Board of Trustees, makes decisions regarding retention and promotion of its faculty based on the areas described above and the faculty member's evident congruence with the philosophy and direction of the institution. Evidences of character include dynamic Christian living, active participation in and financial support of church affairs, maintenance of high standards of accomplishment for themselves and their students, and punctuality and dependability in meeting their responsibilities. Evidences of academic competence include acquiring advanced degrees, contributing to their fields of specialization, and displaying professional habits of study and research. Teaching ability is determined by a process which includes student, peer, and administrative evaluations. The Faculty Handbook outlines the faculty evaluation process in detail.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association of Grand Canyon University was organized in the spring of 1953, when the first four-year class graduated. The constitution, adopted in 1955, provides for membership of graduates and those former students who have completed a minimum of 32 semester hours in residence.

University Publications

The Grand Canyon University Catalog is published by the University. Class Bulletins are published for the Fall and Spring semesters and the Summer sessions.

Canyon Crossroads is published by the University for the purpose of presenting the activities of alumni, faculty, staff members, and students; improvements and additions to the campus; and other items of interest to schools, libraries, churches, alumni, parents of students, and other friends of the University.

Student Handbook/University Calendar published annually by the Office of Student Life and provides information, rules, policies, procedures, and a monthly calendar of campus events.

Every attempt is made to provide accurate and complete information at the time of each publication's printing. However, the University may change the requirements, programs, courses, and policies/procedures at its sole discretion. (The University has no right to change policies/procedures of another organization for which it is merely acting as an agent.)

University Seal

When the Grand Canyon College seal was adopted in 1950, two of its major components were the cross and the cactus. The saguaro cactus rises from its desert setting to signify the intellectual opportunity for Grand Canyon University students, counteracting the arid mental state of uneducated man. The cross stands prominently on the horizon as a guide for spiritual enlightenment. Between the outer circle representing the earth and the inner circle representing the wheel of progress, the name of the University and its location are inscribed. The use of the seal is permitted only with approval of the President of the University.
University Mascot

The University mascot is the antelope. Antelope are native to the region surrounding Prescott, Arizona, near the college's first campus. The mascot reminds us of our heritage, and humble beginnings.

General Information
Grand Canyon University operates on a rolling admission system. This means that applicants generally receive an admission decision within two weeks after all required documents are on file in the Office of Admission. Applications are accepted according to the following schedule:

If you plan to enter . . . then apply . . .
Fall semester September 1 - August 15
Spring semester August 1 - January 1
Summer session August 1 - May 1

If prospective students are in high school, they may apply for admission the summer preceding their senior year, after they have successfully completed six semesters of high school work. If they wish to transfer from another college or university, they should apply at the beginning of their final semester of attendance there. In any case, it is to their advantage to apply as early as possible. Applications for financial aid and housing cannot be completely processed, and transcripts will not be evaluated, until prospective students have applied for admission.

Undergraduate students may seek admission to the University under the following categories:
New Freshmen or Transfer — students who wish to enter Grand Canyon University after completing high school or who plan to transfer from another college or university;
Homeschooler — Students who have been homeschooled and possess the equivalent of a high school diploma;
Early Admission Program — exceptional students who wish to begin college while still in high school;
Unclassified — non-degree-bound students planning to enroll in courses for personal enrichment or to meet other specific needs;
Re-Admit — students previously enrolled at Grand Canyon University who have not maintained continuous attendance.

Admission requirements and application procedures for students in each category are outlined below.

International students should refer to the section entitled “International Student Admission” for specific policies and procedures which apply to them.

Important: Prospective students should be aware that acceptance for admission to Grand Canyon University does not guarantee admission to particular programs within the University. They should refer to the catalog sections describing programs in which they are interested to determine if there are specific entrance requirements for those programs in addition to the general University admission requirements.

Early Admission

A high school student with an outstanding academic record may apply for early admission to Grand Canyon University with the permission of his or her high school principal or counselor. Such a student may begin taking courses at the University during the summer preceding his or her senior year. Credit earned in this way may later be applied toward a degree program at Grand Canyon University, provided the student graduates from high school, applies and is accepted for regular admission to the University, and has not used the courses to fulfill any high school graduation requirements.

Applications for Early Admission will be evaluated on an individual basis.

2. HOMESCHOoled STUDENT

   1. Have a GPA for all academic subjects of at least a 3.00 on a 4.00 scale, or

3. TRANSFER OR RE-ADMIT STUDENT

Students with at least 24 semester hours of completed transferable credit in academic subjects must have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.00 on a 4.00 scale to be accepted to the University. Students with less than 24 hours are subject to the same requirements as listed for freshman applicants, and must submit an official high school transcript and either ACT or SAT scores in addition to official transcripts from all colleges and/or universities attended.

If students have completed at least 24 hours of acceptable credit from a regionally accredited college or university, they do not need to submit their high school transcripts or GED scores (see the section entitled “Evaluation of Transfer Credit” for the definition of acceptable credit). However, if they plan to participate in varsity athletics, they must submit either their high school transcripts or GED certificate and scores regardless of the number of hours of credit they have completed at the collegiate level.

The Colleges of Business, Education, and Nursing require a higher GPA for admission to their particular programs. A student desiring to be admitted into these colleges should review the appropriate college section of the catalog for further details.

Students who have been asked to withdraw from another college due to poor scholarship or any other reason are considered for acceptance only if the period of suspension set by the former school has elapsed or the college from which the student was asked to withdraw reinstates him or her.

Transfer students who have not graduated from high school or do not possess a GED will not be admissible to Grand Canyon University until they have completed a program of at least two years in length (48 transferable credit hours) from a regionally accredited college or university that is acceptable for full credit towards a bachelor's degree.

4. GRADUATE STUDENT

In addition to baccalaureate degrees, Grand Canyon University also offers master's degrees in the following areas: Master of Business Administration, Master of Arts in Teaching, Master of Arts in Education, and Master of Education. For admission requirements for the Master of Business Administration see The College of Business (page 40). For the Master of Arts in Teaching, Master of Arts in Education, and Master of Education see The College of Education (page 64).

Standards for Admission with Specification

If a student does not meet the qualifications for admission, he or she may be accepted to the University under Admission with Specification. A student being considered for Admission with Specification may be asked to submit additional information such as personal references and a letter explaining academic history. They may need to also schedule an interview with an Admission Counselor to help clarify academic goals and help the University make an informed decision.

Acceptance under this plan will be accompanied by an individualized program of study to increase the student's potential for success at Grand Canyon University. For example, Admission with Specification may require a student to limit the first semester's course work to 12 credit hours, meet regularly with an advisor, take courses designed to develop competency in areas where improvement is needed, and participate in a cohort program.

After the student has completed one semester full-time at Grand Canyon University, his or her academic records will be reviewed. If the student has earned at least 12 hours and achieved a GPA of 2.00 or better, the specification will be removed. If not, the student will have one more semester with specification to demonstrate his or her ability to be successful in the academic program. At the end of the latter semester, the student may be refused continued enrollment if the above criteria remain unmet.

Standards for Unclassified Students

Applications for Admission as an unclassified student will be evaluated on an individual basis. At such time as the student decides to apply for regular admission, the standards for the appropriate classification would apply.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

New Freshmen

In order to be considered for admission as a freshman, prospective students will need to remit the following:

1. A completed and signed Application for Admission.

   Prospective students must complete and sign the Application for Admission. It is important that they provide all the information requested. Incomplete applications may be returned.

immunization is available, then two MMRs not less than 30 days apart will be required. Health History forms are available from both the Office of Admission and the University Health Center. Completed forms should be returned to the Office of Admission at least two weeks before registration.

Direct Transfer Plan

Students who complete a transfer-oriented Associate of Arts degree at a regionally accredited community college are considered to have fulfilled the University's Liberal Arts Foundation requirements, with the exception of the six hours of Christian Studies. The Associate of Arts degree must include at least six hours of college-level composition.

The same is true of the Arizona General Education Curriculum (AGEC) from Arizona's public community colleges when it is certified as a block on the student's official transcript.

Exceptions to the Direct Transfer Plan are as follows:

Education — students planning to seek teacher certification must fulfill the liberal arts requirements listed under the College of Education section of this catalog;

Business — students planning to complete a degree program in the College of Business must complete the specified liberal arts requirements listed in the College of Business section of this catalog;

Nursing — the Associate of Arts (Applied Science) in Nursing will be accepted under the Direct Transfer Plan if the student pursues a degree in nursing.

Continuing Studies — the Associate of Arts (Applied Science) will be accepted under the Direct Transfer Plan if the student pursues a degree in Public Safety Administration.

Only the Associate of Arts programs specifically designed to prepare students for transfer to a four-year college or university are acceptable for the Direct Transfer Plan. Associate of Arts degrees in Applied Sciences, General Studies, a specialized field, or any other "terminal" program (with the exception of the Associate of Arts degree in nursing and the Associate of Arts degree (Applied Science) for students pursuing a degree in Public Safety Administration) are not acceptable.

Unclassified Students

Unclassified or non-degree bound students who plan to enroll part-time at Grand Canyon University may accumulate a total of 11 hours credit; at that point, all records required for regular admission to the University must be submitted.

To be considered for admission as an Unclassified Student, the following must be provided:

1. A completed and signed Application for Admission.

All prospective students must complete and sign the Application for Admission. It is important that they provide all the required information requested. Incomplete applications may be returned.

2. A non-refundable application processing fee.

The processing fee should accompany the application. Any Application for Admission received without an application processing fee will not be considered until the fee is received.

In addition, to complete the admission file after students have been accepted for admission, they must provide:

3. A Health History form, accompanied by verification of current Measles, Mumps, and Rubella (MMR) immunization.

If born on or after January 1, 1957, students must present documented evidence of immunization against or immunity to measles and rubella before they will be allowed to register for classes. University policy requires either a doctor's statement, a blood titre showing immunity, or a copy of a health department card as proof of immunization. Measles information must include two measles (MMRs) records — one at 15 months of age and one after age five. If no proof of immunization is available, then two MMRs not less than 30 days apart will be required. Health History forms are available from both the Office of Admission and the University Health Center. Completed forms should be returned to the Office of Admission at least two weeks before registration.

A student's Health History and immunization records are official admission documents, and must be received before a student is allowed to register. Please submit all Health History forms to the Office of Admission. Permanent Health History forms will be placed on file at the Grand Canyon University Health Center.
4. Enrollment Deposit.

A $100 enrollment deposit is required of all new students upon written notice of their acceptance and is credited toward the first semester’s tuition. This deposit is non-refundable after July 1 for the Fall semester, November 1 for the Spring semester, and May 1 for Summer sessions. Upon receipt of the enrollment deposit, students will be eligible for pre-registration opportunities and their enrollment status will be reported to the relevant University departments to facilitate planning for housing, orientation, and class scheduling.

Readmit

A student who has not maintained continuous attendance (consecutive semesters excluding Summer sessions) at Grand Canyon University can be considered for re-admission by providing the following:

1. A completed and signed Readmission Application.

A Readmission Application form may be obtained from the Office of Admission. It is important that prospective students provide all the information requested. Incomplete applications may be returned.

2. Official transcript(s).

Official transcript(s) of all work undertaken at other institutions since leaving the University must be on file in the Office of Admission before readmission can be approved. A student who has not been enrolled in the University for a period of one year or longer must provide the following:

3. An updated Health History form.

An updated Health History form is required and is available from both the Office of Admission and the University Health Center. Completed forms should be returned to the Office of Admission at least two weeks before registration.

Additionally, students who withdrew for medical reasons must obtain a doctor’s written approval before re-entering the University.

See the “Graduation Requirements” section of the catalog for information pertaining to choice of catalog.

POST-BACCALAUREATE ADMISSION

Second Degree Students

Students wishing to obtain a second bachelor’s degree from Grand Canyon University can be considered for admission by providing the following:

1. A completed and signed Application for Admission.

All prospective students must complete and sign the Application for Admission. It is important that they provide all the information requested. Incomplete applications may be returned.

2. A non-refundable application processing fee.

The processing fee should accompany the application. Any Application for Admission received without an application processing fee will not be considered until the fee is received.

3. Official transcript(s).

Prospective students will need to request official transcripts from all colleges or universities they have attended; applicants are not permitted to disregard their records of enrollment at other institutions. These records must be mailed directly from the issuing school to our Office of Admission. Transcripts mailed or hand-carried by applicants are unacceptable unless they are delivered in a sealed envelope from the issuing institution.

If prospective students have completed academic courses at an institution outside of the United States, they must have the work evaluated by an approved evaluation service selected by the University (see the section entitled “Evaluation of Transfer Credit”).

Although applicants may be preliminarily accepted for admission on the basis of incomplete records, final records are required in order to complete the admission file. Second degree students currently enrolled at another institution must submit a final transcript upon completion of all courses in progress.

In addition, to complete your admission file after you have been accepted for admission, you must provide:

4. A Health History form, accompanied by verification of current Measles, Mumps, and Rubella (MMR) immunization.

If born on or after January 1, 1957, students must present documented evidence of immunization against or immunity to measles and rubella before they will be allowed to register for classes. University policy requires either a doctor’s statement, a blood titre showing immunity, or a copy of a health department card as proof of immunization. Measles information must include two measles (MMRs) records—one at 15 months of age and one after age five. If no proof of immunization is available, then two MM Rs not less than 30 days apart will be required. Health History forms are available from both the Office of Admission and the University Health Center. Completed forms should be returned to the Office of Admission at least two weeks before registration.

A student’s Health History and immunization records are official admission documents, and must be received before a student is allowed to register. Please submit all Health History forms to the Office of Admission. Permanent Health History forms will be placed on file at the Grand Canyon University Health Center.

Please refer to the catalog section entitled “Graduation Requirements” for more information regarding second degree requirements.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADMISSION

General Information

An international student is defined as any student attending Grand Canyon University on a student visa issued by the United States government. The Center for International Education houses both the international advisor and the international admissions counselor. Requests for information or application forms should be addressed to:

Center for International Education
Grand Canyon University
3300 W. Camelback Road
Phoenix, AZ 85017-3030
USA

International students attending the University on student visas are required to be enrolled in at least 12 hours per semester in undergraduate programs or the University’s American Language program. International students pursuing master’s degrees must be enrolled in at least nine hours per semester. All international students must carry health insurance; a moderately-priced student policy is available through the University’s Center for International Education. International students will be required to purchase the University policy when they register for classes, unless they have proof of valid insurance coverage in the United States.

Application for campus housing is a separate procedure from admission. If prospective students plan to live on campus, they should contact:

Director of Residence Life
Grand Canyon University
PO. Box 11097
Phoenix, AZ 85061-3030
USA

International students may seek admission to the University under the following categories:
1. Pursuit of Degree

This category is for students who desire to pursue a bachelor’s or master’s degree and meet the minimum qualifications for admission to the University, including a minimum TOEFL score of 500 written or 173 on the computer version, for undergraduate, and 550 written or 213 on the computer version for graduates.

2. American Language Program

This category is for students desiring to study in the United States who have not attained the required TOEFL score of 500 written or 173 on the computer version.

After satisfactory completion of the American Language Program (ALP), students may receive a recommendation from the ALP faculty to have their TOEFL score requirement waived for Grand Canyon University admission.

Application procedures and admission requirements for students in each category are outlined below.

International Student Application Procedures

Pursuit of Degree

In order to be considered for admission, international students must submit the following to the Center for International Education:

1. An International Student Application for Admission.

All prospective international students must complete and sign the International Student Application for Admission. It is important that they provide all the information requested. Incomplete applications may be returned. Application deadlines are:

Fall semester (August) entry - July 1, or Spring semester (January) entry - November 15

It is to prospective students’ advantage to complete the admission process well in advance of the deadline.

2. Official transcript(s)

a. Secondary School - All international students must have completed a secondary school program that is equivalent to the 12th grade (high school) in the United States. An official transcript of students’ secondary school work, written in English, must be sent directly from the school to the Center for International Education. In some cases, students may be asked to send their secondary school transcript to an approved evaluation service; they will be notified by the Center for International Education if this is necessary. Hand-carried copies of transcripts are not acceptable. If students have finished at least 24 semester hours of college-level work at a United States school and have a GPA of at least 2.00 on a 4.00 scale, they do not need to submit their secondary school transcripts.

b. College and or University - Official transcripts of students’ college or university work, written in English, must be sent directly from the college or university to the Center for International Education. Hand-carried copies of transcripts are not acceptable.

In order to accurately and consistently evaluate foreign credentials, Grand Canyon University requires all international college or university transcripts to be evaluated by an approved evaluation service selected by the University. Obtaining an evaluation is an additional step to awarding college or university credit from foreign transcripts. The fee for evaluation is the student’s responsibility. Brochures describing in detail the approved evaluation services and the fees incurred are available in the Center for International Education or the Office of the Registrar.

The evaluation report is advisory in nature and in no way limits Grand Canyon University from making its own decisions. Grand Canyon University will not award any transfer credit from foreign credentials without an evaluation from an approved evaluation service. Grand Canyon University requires that all international college or university transcripts be evaluated within the student’s first semester in attendance.

3. TOEFL score report

If a prospective student’s native language is not English, his/her official score reports for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) must be sent directly to the Center for International Education from the testing center. A student must present a score of at least 500 written or 173 on the computer version to be considered for admission as an undergraduate. In order to be considered for admission into the College of Business, Samaritan College of Nursing, College of Education undergraduate teaching degree, or College of Education graduate teaching degree a student must present a TOEFL score of at least 550 written or 213 on the computer version. To be considered for admission into the Teaching English as a Second Language (TSEL), or College of Business graduate programs, the student must present a TOEFL score of at least 575 written or 233 on the computer version. This requirement may be satisfied by a recommendation from the American Language Program faculty at Grand Canyon University, upon successful completion of the American Language Program. This requirement cannot be satisfied through experience in English programs at other schools. For information on TOEFL testing dates and locations in any country, write to:

TOEFL
PO Box 899
Princeton, New Jersey 08540
USA

4. ACT and SAT scores

Grand Canyon University does not require scores from these tests for international students, however the NCAA requires scores for international students who plan to participate in the athletic programs.

5. Personal References

At least two personal references are required before prospective students can be considered for admission. A prospective student should select two people unrelated to him or her who are qualified to evaluate the student’s academic potential and character. At least one should be a teacher or official of the student’s school. These letters of reference should be mailed directly to the Center for International Education.

After all the above documents are received by the Center for International Education, applications will be reviewed and prospective students will be notified of their status.

If accepted for admission to Grand Canyon University, students will need to provide the following to the Center for International Education before their Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) can be issued.

6. Financial Guarantee

Most international students at Grand Canyon University receive no financial assistance from the University. Therefore, international applicants must furnish evidence of full financial support while in the United States. The cost of attending the University and living in Phoenix is currently estimated at $18,000 (US dollars) per year, or $15,500 (US dollars) if a student goes home for the summer. Students must provide documented evidence that they have sufficient funds to meet these expenses. A Financial Guarantee form or a letter on letterhead completed and signed by an officer of a known bank, must be submitted to the Center for International Education.

7. A Health History form, accompanied by verification of two (2) Measles, Mumps, and Rubella (MMR) immunizations.

Students must provide a completed Health History form and documented evidence of immunization against or immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella before they will be allowed to register for classes. University policy requires either a doctor’s statement, a blood titre showing immunity, or a copy of a health department card as proof of immunization. MMR records must include proof of two immunizations - one at 15 months of age and one after age five. If no proof of immunization is available, then two MMRs not less than 30 days apart will be required. Health History forms are available from both the Center for International Education and the University Health Center. Completed forms should be returned to the Center for International Education at least two weeks before registration.

A student's Health History and immunization records are official admission documents, and must be received before a student is allowed to register. Please submit all Health History forms to the Center for International Education. Permanent Health History forms will be placed on file at the Grand Canyon University Health Center.

8. Confirmation Deposit.

As a final confirmation of intent to attend Grand Canyon University, students are required to make a $5,000 (US dollars) deposit which will be applied to their first semester's expenses. The deposit may be paid by check or money order, or students may telex the funds; the following is the information necessary to wire a deposit:

National Bank of Arizona
GCU - International Account
335 North Wilmot Road
Tucson, Arizona 85711, USA
ABA# 122105320
Branch# 100
Account# 0140000455
Reference Student's Name

If a student is unable to attend Grand Canyon University, his or her deposit may be refunded upon request and upon the return of his or her I-20, if one was issued.

When all of the above items (1-8) have been received, the Center for International Education will issue an I-20 to the student.

AMERICAN LANGUAGE PROGRAM

Grand Canyon University offers an innovative program designated for students desiring to study in the United States and who have not attained a TOEFL score of at least 500 written or 173 on the computer version. The program, called American Language Program (ALP) is designed to assist students with learning English, cultural adjustment, and skills other than English which are necessary for success in the university environment. Students who do not plan to complete a full academic program may enroll in ALP.

At the end of each semester, students will be evaluated in English proficiency and a determination will be made on their readiness to enroll in courses for academic credit. Grand Canyon University may choose to waive the TOEFL requirement for students who receive a recommendation from the ALP faculty after successful completion of the ALP. This recommendation will satisfy Grand Canyon University's TOEFL requirements only and cannot be used as an English skill endorsement for another school. At the discretion of the Center for International Education, some students are allowed to simultaneously enroll in ALP and academic courses.

To apply, students should complete steps 1-8 under "Pursuit of Degree." They should indicate that they wish to enroll in the ALP.

For more information about the University's ALP, contact:

Center for International Education
Grand Canyon University
3300 W. Camelback Road
Phoenix, AZ 85017-3030, USA
Phone: (602) 589-2898
Fax: (602) 841-8771

NOTE: Acceptance into the ALP does not guarantee acceptance into a degree program.

EVALUATION OF TRANSFER CREDIT

All students accepted to Grand Canyon University with prior college or university course credit will receive an official transfer credit evaluation from the Office of the Registrar showing how the courses they completed at each previous school will transfer. Evaluations will include the total number of credits accepted, as well as a course-by-course breakdown indicating how each class may be applied toward the University's graduation requirements. Courses may be accepted as upper or lower division general electives, upper or lower division major or minor electives, or as directly equivalent to a particular course offered at the University.

If the Office of the Registrar is unable to determine specific applicability for the acceptable course, general elective credit will be granted. It is then the student's responsibility to provide additional documentation if he or she wishes to receive specific credit for the course.

If a student disagrees with the way credit was awarded on the evaluation, he or she may appeal to the faculty of the department or college in which credit is desired. The evaluation may be adjusted upon receipt of written instructions signed by the department chairperson (and dean, if applicable)

The following guidelines are used in determining acceptability of courses:

The University generally accepts courses from regionally accredited colleges and universities provided the work is of a highly specialized nature and a grade of "C" or better was earned. Transfer Credit Practices of Designated Educational Institutions, published by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, is used as a general guide in determining acceptability. Courses in which "D" grades were earned may be used in some cases to meet general studies requirements, or as a prerequisite for another course with the approval of the instructor. However, no course with a grade below "C" will count toward the required number of hours for graduation.

In order to accurately and consistently evaluate foreign credentials, Grand Canyon University requires all international college or university transcripts to be evaluated by an approved evaluation service selected by the University. Obtaining an evaluation is an additional step to awarding college or university credit from foreign transcripts. The fee for evaluation is the student's responsibility. Brochures describing in detail the approved evaluation services and the fees incurred are available in the Center for International Education and the Office of the Registrar.

The evaluation report is advisory in nature and in no way limits Grand Canyon University from making its own decisions. Grand Canyon University will not award any transfer credit from foreign credentials without an evaluation from an approved evaluation service.

The University will recognize a maximum of 64 hours credit from regionally accredited community or junior colleges. Credit will be granted only for courses with grades of "C" or better, and all credit will be considered lower division. See the section entitled "Direct Transfer Plan" for additional information regarding the acceptability of associate degrees earned at community colleges.

Credit earned at colleges and universities which are not regionally accredited will not be accepted.

A Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services is used as a resource in evaluating credit earned while serving in the armed forces. Four hours of physical education credit will be awarded upon submission of the DD-214. Other credit will be granted only for work in liberal arts areas. No technical credit will be accepted, and all work will be considered lower division. Credit will not be awarded if the student has earned 64 or more college credits prior to completion of the military training program.

A maximum of 16 hours technical credit earned at a regionally accredited college or university will be accepted as general elective credit toward graduation.

With the exception of the College of Continuing Studies, the University does not recognize credit awarded by other institutions of higher education for "life experiences." In addition, the University will not grant credit for independent studies, orientation programs, cooperative work study, or similar courses taken at other schools. The University reserves the right to require students to validate certain credits by testing, if necessary.

The University will accept a combined total of no more than 64 hours of community college credit, technical credit, military service credit, and/or credit by examination.

To request an exception to any of the above policies, students must appeal to the Academic Affairs Committee. Petitions are available from the Office of the Registrar.

11
The University's College of Continuing Studies offers some programs whose policies vary from those listed above. Please contact that college for details.

Advanced Placement (AP) and College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Many students who come to Grand Canyon University have achieved college-level mastery of certain subjects through advanced high school programs or by other means not generally recognized for college credit. For this reason, the University actively participates in the Advanced Placement (AP) and College Level Examination Program (CLEP) of the College Entrance Examination Board. Upon receipt of official score reports for these examinations, up to 30 semester hours of college credit may be awarded as indicated by the following tables.

Certain restrictions apply to these programs. Students are limited to a combined total of 30 semester hours for credit by examination, extension, and correspondence, including not more than 12 hours by correspondence. CLEP and AP credit will only be given when it does not duplicate credit previously earned and is not for a course more elementary than one for which the student has earned college credit. CLEP credit will be given only for examinations completed after July, 1965. The University does not recognize credit earned by testing after a student has completed 64 or more hours of college-level work.

Transfer students who received credit by examination at a previous college must submit an official score report to Grand Canyon University's Office of Admission for evaluation. AP and CLEP credit does not automatically transfer from one school to another.

All award policies listed below were up to date when this catalog was printed, but are subject to re-evaluation and change without notice.

Additional AP and CLEP examinations are currently being evaluated. If you wish to pursue AP or CLEP credit in an area not listed below, please contact the Office of the Registrar for score requirements and credit evaluations.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Preface
The financial information presented in this catalog was current when published. Many of the policies, interest rates, limitations, etc. are set by organizations (private or governmental) which may change them after this catalog is printed. We regret any confusion this may cause and strongly urge students to confirm all such information with the University's Office of Financial Aid and/or Business Office before making financial decisions or commitments.

Student Expenses
The regular school year is composed of a Fall semester and a Spring semester. Summer is composed of several sessions typically between three and six weeks in length.

The expenses of the student are due and payable at the beginning of each semester or session and must be paid with the University's Business Office before the student's registration is official. The University allows for payment of expenses on a deferred payment plan through an outside billing agency. Terms and additional information are available in the University's Business Office. Failure to comply with the stated policies of the University's Business Office may result in an administrative withdrawal from classes. If the student is intending to rely on financial aid for payment on their account, then application for financial aid must be made at least two months in advance of need. The University also honors most major credit cards.

Failure to pay your charges does not cancel your registration or your responsibility for tuition and fee charges. Non attendance does not cancel your registration or your responsibility for tuition and fee charges. Students may not receive transcripts until all accounts are satisfied in the University's Business Office, at the discretion of the University.

The University reserves the right to change all fees and charges, without notice.

Validine
The University uses a debit card system known as Validine to enable students to purchase meals, textbooks, and other items. The card serves as the student identification card and contains the student's photo to deter unauthorized use. The University's Business Office encodes a dollar amount on each student's card based on the student's requirements or as required to have. Residence hall students, for instance, are required to purchase one of two meal plan options which allows the University to fulfill its obligations to provide adequate and balanced nutrition to residents lacking cooking facilities. Other students may request that their Validine card be credited with a certain amount (known as 'Lopes Cash') to enable them to conveniently purchase food and beverages on campus. Validine is also available for use in the AV lab.

Whether required or requested, the amount is charged to the student's account at the University's Business Office and must be paid for under the same guidelines as tuition, fees, or housing (i.e., financial aid, cash, check, credit card, or through an outside billing agency). This amount is then reflected as a credit on the Validine card. When the student purchases a meal, a textbook, etc., the cost of the item is deducted from the balance available on the card.

Validine Policies
Board Plans are required for dorm residents and are optional for apartment and commuter students. There are two meal plans available: 14 and 21 meals per week (2 and 3 meals per day). There are no refund for unused meals. Board plans are valid only during the semester in which they are purchased.

Lopes Cash may be purchased in the University's Business Office for use in the snack bar or cafeteria. Lopes Cash purchased in $25.00 increments is offered at a 10% discount (e.g., $25.00 worth of Lopes Cash will cost $22.50). Any unused amount will remain on the card and can be used or credited to the student's accounts in a future semester.

Bookstore credit may be purchased in the University's Business Office. Students may be allowed to charge bookstore purchases to their student account (subject to Business Office approval) if they are receiving Financial Aid or are making payments through the outside billing agency. Any unused amount will remain on the card and can be used or credited to the student's accounts in a future semester.

Room and Board
A student living in the residence halls is charged room and board at the time of registration. The residence halls and dining hall are closed during Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, Spring Break, and between the close of the Spring semester and the opening of the Fall semester. Individual meals may be purchased for cash at the cafeteria or snack bar by commuting students, apartment residents, faculty, staff, and guests.

Tuition, Fees, and Housing
Tuition and fee information may be found in the current semester/session Bulletin. Current housing fee information may be obtained from the Director of Housing.

Special Class Fees
Certain University classes require payment of fees or deposits for materials, breakage, and/or rental. Refer to the current semester/session Bulletin for class fees.

Mandatory Student Health Insurance
All undergraduate students taking 12 hours or more are required to carry health and accident insurance. Students will be charged for the University-sponsored student health insurance at registration. The University-sponsored plan provides in and out patient coverage, up to the limit (see current brochure for limit), of reasonable and customary charges. Insurance brochures are available in the Business Office.

A student with comparable health insurance, including coverage for acute and follow-up health care in the Phoenix area, may apply to waive the student plan. (An insurance policy with "emergency only" care in Phoenix is not considered comparable insurance.) Waiver forms are available in the Business Office. When submitting a waiver student must attach front and back copies of their insurance cards and return them to the Business Office by the posted term deadline. An approved insurance waiver is valid for the academic year. A new waiver and a copy of insurance card is due each academic year. All waivers are subject to verification and approval.

The University cannot cancel student health insurance or international insurance later than the waiver deadline.

Information concerning coverage for additional family members may be obtained from the Campus Health Services.

Those students taking less than 12 credit hours, College of Continuing Studies students, off-site students, and graduate students are exempt from this University requirement, but may choose to enroll in the student health insurance. The enrollment deadline is the same as the waiver deadline.
International Student Insurance: Students with F-1 status will be enrolled in the University-sponsored international health insurance. See the Center for International Education for coverage information.

REFUND POLICIES

Add/Drop
If the student is dropping and adding courses of equivalent semester hours simultaneously, there will be no tuition penalty. A drop fee will be charged to the student.

Tuition refund for dropping a course is subject to the Refund Schedule listed in the class Bulletin for the semester or session involved and is calculated on the date the completed Drop form is received in the Office of the Registrar. A drop fee will be charged to the student.

Complete Withdrawal
Students who completely withdraw from the University must submit a completed withdrawal form to the Office of the Registrar. This form is available in the Office of the Registrar. Tuition refund is subject to the Refund Schedule and is calculated on the date the completed withdrawal form is received in the Office of the Registrar. A complete withdrawal fee will be charged to the student. The University does not automatically withdraw students for non-attendance. Students are responsible for non-refundable charges based on the tuition refund schedule listed in the class Bulletin for the semester or session involved.

Students who reside in campus housing and completely withdraw from the University must properly check out of their residence hall room or apartment with University Housing personnel. Failure to properly check out will result in forfeiture of the refundable portion of the campus housing deposit. Both residence halls and apartment accounts will be prorated from the date the proper check out is filed.

Appeals
In the event that a student must withdraw from the University because of sickness or unavoidable cause, he or she may appeal the refund amount to the University Business Office. Appeal forms may be obtained from the University Business Office. The student is required to provide additional documentation to support the appeal (e.g., doctor’s verification of illness). Appeals cannot be considered until the completed withdrawal form is submitted to the Office of the Registrar. Students may also appeal for a dropped course according to the same criteria.

Refunds and Fees

Federal Policy for the Return of Title IV Financial Aid
Any financial aid recipient who withdraws from all classes is subject to a Federal Return of Title IV Aid Calculation. This calculation determines the amount of Federal aid that the student and the school are eligible to retain and the amount that must be returned to the student's lender or the Federal government. Title IV financial aid includes: Subsidized and Unsubsidized Stafford loans, Perkins loans, Federal Plus loans, Pell grants, and FSEOG.

The Office of Financial Aid regularly runs reports that identify students who have completed withdrawn from classes. Official withdrawal occurs when the student completes a withdrawal form and submits it to the Office of the Registrar.
The date of withdrawal for students who officially withdraw is the date that the student submits their withdrawal form to the Office of the Registrar. In the case of the student that does not officially withdraw, there are two categories. First, if the school determines that a student did not begin the withdrawal process or otherwise notify the school of the intent to withdraw due to illness, accident, grievous personal loss, or other circumstances beyond the student's control, the withdrawal date is the date the school determines from its consideration of circumstances beyond a student's control. The second category of unofficial withdrawals encompasses all other withdrawals where official notification is not provided to the school. For these withdrawals, commonly known as “drop-outs,” the withdrawal date is the midpoint of the payment period or period of enrollment, as applicable.

The Federal calculation for the return of Title IV aid follows these regulations:
- In the case of withdrawal before the first day of classes, 100% of the student's Title IV aid must be returned.
- In the case of withdrawal prior to the 60% point in the semester, the Office of Financial Aid will calculate the percentage of the semester actually completed by the student. That percentage will be applied to the student's Title IV aid and will be considered "earned" aid. The student may retain any earned aid. For example: if the semester is 100 days long and the student attends class for 45 days, they have completed 45% of the semester and, therefore, have "earned" 45% of any Title IV aid that was awarded them. In this instance, 55% of the student's aid would be returned to the Federal Government or to the student's lender.
- If the withdrawal occurs at or after the 60% point in the semester, 100% of the student's Title IV aid is considered "earned." The University will retain 100% of its institutional costs for the semester and the student may retain any remainder.

FINANCIAL AID

The primary purpose of student financial aid is to provide resources to students who otherwise would be unable to pursue postsecondary education. The primary responsibility for meeting University costs lies with the student and his or her family. The University attempts to assist only when the family is unable to meet the full cost of attendance. Additionally, the University makes an effort to provide scholarships and awards to students based on outstanding performance. For clarification purposes, the terms "scholarships" and "grants-in-aid" will be used when achievement and/or merit are the primary consideration in determining eligibility.

Eligibility

To receive financial assistance, an undergraduate student must be enrolled in a degree granting course of study, be in good standing and making satisfactory academic progress (as defined later in this catalog), must be able to meet the general eligibility criteria explained on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, and must not be in default or delinquent on any loan plan with the University, state, or federal government. Also, he or she must not owe a refund on grants previously received under the Pell Grant, the Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, or the State Student Incentive Grant.

Application Process
The University uses the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This form may be obtained from the Office of Financial Aid, other financial aid offices, or most high schools. The University does not require any of the supplemental forms processed by the College Scholarship Service (CSS) or American College Testing (ACT) for which there is a fee charged.

Students will need to allow four to six weeks for processing on any of the listed application processes. Mid-year transfer students should also submit a Financial Aid Transcript (FAT) from each college or university attended regardless of whether or not financial aid was received.

Preference/Deadline Dates
Rather than operating under strict deadlines, the Office of Financial Aid makes an effort to provide funds to students as long as funds are available. However, there are important dates to keep in mind.
Applications for financial aid should be submitted as soon as possible after January 1 prior to the term of enrollment. All loan applications must be processed for the current semester by the Monday following mid-term examination week.

Applications for financial aid will be processed on a “first come, first served” basis. Students whose financial aid file is delayed run an increased risk of receiving a reduced award.

Additionally, only students who have applied for admission to Grand Canyon University and have been accepted will be issued a financial aid award.

All financial aid (excluding Pell grants and Stafford loans) has limited funding. Students, new and returning, are strongly encouraged to turn in initial renewal applications as soon as possible after January 1.

Determination of Financial Aid
After the Office of Financial Aid has received the appropriate forms listed above, the student’s financial need and the types of awards for which he or she qualifies will be determined from the information obtained.

Financial need is the difference between the cost of attending the University and the resources available to the student.

Thus, Financial Need (FN) equals Cost of Attendance (CA) minus Parental Contribution (PC) and Student Contribution (SC).

FN = CA − (PC + SC)

All students normally will be expected to contribute toward their cost of education from summer earnings and from employment during the academic year. The Office of Financial Aid will make every effort to meet the financial need of each student. Financial Aid Counselors are available to discuss the student’s contribution, family contribution, or any other questions that may arise.

Please be aware of the fact that any changes made to any of the answers on your federal form will most likely change your federal aid award.

Changes made at the point of verification may also change your federal aid award.

Award Procedures
For financial aid programs in which need is the factor in determining eligibility, the Federal Pell Grant is considered first. If a student’s need is not fulfilled with the Pell, the Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG) is considered.

A student who is eligible for Federal Work Study (FWS) will be notified of potential eligibility. The student is also sent instructions on how to find a FWS position. The FWS awards will be made once a job has been obtained, as long as funds are available. When gift aid funds have been depleted, loans will be the source used to fill the remaining need. All packaging of financial aid is on a “first come, first served” basis.

Financial Aid and Academic Load Undergraduate students must be enrolled in at least 12 credit hours to be considered full-time students and receive full financial aid benefits.
Graduate students must be enrolled in at least nine credit hours to be considered full-time students and receive full financial aid benefits.
Undergraduate students enrolled part-time may be eligible for a prorated portion of their financial aid. Some undergraduate programs require at least six hours and all graduate programs require at least six hours to receive federal aid. Scholarship recipients must be enrolled full-time at Grand Canyon University. Courses taken at other colleges do not count as enrollment at Grand Canyon University for financial aid/scholarship purposes.

Keeping the Office of Financial Aid Informed
Students who are receiving financial assistance through the Office of Financial Aid and who receive additional outside assistance must report this fact to the Office of Financial Aid at once. Address changes and changes in the academic course load must also be reported to the Office of Financial Aid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress
All students are required to maintain satisfactory progress toward their educational objectives in order to be eligible for all institutional, federal, and state financial aid. (Athletic Grants-In-Aid will be based on the requirements of the NCAA, as well as this policy.) Satisfactory progress is defined in both qualitative and quantitative terms.

Qualitative: Undergraduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00 for all coursework at Grand Canyon University.
Graduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 for all coursework at Grand Canyon University.

Quantitative: Students receiving financial aid must make positive movement toward their degree. Federal Regulations indicate that the maximum time frame students may take to complete their program is 150% of the published length of the program. Grand Canyon University publishes the required number of credit hours for each program. To determine if students are making satisfactory academic progress quantitatively they can take the required number of hours for their degree, take 150% and make sure they will graduate before they attempt that many credits. For example, assume their degree takes 128 hours to complete. One hundred and fifty percent of 128 is 192 hours. Students must complete their degree in less than 192 attempted hours.
Federal regulations also require that progress be evaluated at the end of each increment. Progress will be evaluated after the Spring semester for all students. Summer school is the beginning of the academic year for purposes of financial aid and will be evaluated along with that academic year. In order to be making satisfactory academic progress at the end of each year, students must earn credit for at least 67% of their attempted courses. Incomplete courses do not count as earned credit, but do count as an attempted course. Withdrawals do not count as earned credits or attempted credits. Repeating courses will count as earned hours toward the maximum hours allowed. Non-credit remedial courses do not count as courses attempted or credits earned.

Transfer and readmitted students must follow the above mentioned satisfactory academic progress. Prior credits will be calculated into the allotted 150%. Transfer credits will not be calculated into the 150%.

Students who fail to maintain satisfactory progress, either qualitative or quantitative, will be placed on probation. While on probation, a student may continue to receive financial assistance. Students on probation must resolve their unsatisfactory academic progress pursuant to the criteria outlined in the notice of probation or they will be put on suspension. However, probation cannot be lifted as it does not stop students from receiving aid. Students on suspension may not receive any financial assistance. To have suspension lifted, students must resolve their unsatisfactory academic progress pursuant to the criteria outlined in the notice of suspension. Students may appeal the determination that they are making satisfactory academic progress to the Office of Financial Aid. Students may also appeal suspension on the basis of extenuating circumstances that prevented them from accomplishing satisfactory academic progress by completing a Financial Aid Appeal Form. The Financial Aid Committee will review all extenuating circumstance appeals on a regular basis.
All students on suspension who rectify the deficiencies outlined in the notice of suspension must inform the Office of Financial Aid. The Office of Financial Aid will review the relevant information and issue a determination.

Students Must:

1. Review and consider all information about the school's program before they enroll.
2. Accurately complete all application forms and return them to the appropriate office/agency on time.
3. Pay special attention to and accurately complete their application for student financial aid. Errors can result in delays in the receipt of financial aid. Intentional misrepresentation of information on application forms for federal financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the US Criminal Code.
4. Return all additional documentation, verification, corrections, and new information requested by either the Financial Aid Officer or the agency to which they submitted their application.
5. Read and understand all forms they are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
6. Accept responsibility for all agreements they sign.
7. Notify the lender of changes in their name, address, or school status if they have a loan.
8. Perform the work that is agreed upon in accepting the University Award Letter.
9. Know and comply with deadlines for application and reapplication for aid.
10. Know and comply with the University's refund procedures.
11. Maintain good standing and satisfactory academic progress.

Funding for all Grand Canyon University scholarships is limited. It is recommended that the Free Application for Federal Financial Aid be completed immediately after January 1 and the Admission Application be completed prior to that date.

Students May Expect to Receive Information on:

1. What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal, state, and institutional financial aid programs.
2. The deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs available.
3. The cost of attending the institution and the University's refund policy.
4. How the University determines their financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, personal and miscellaneous expenses, etc. are considered in their budget.
5. What resources are considered in the calculation of their need.
6. How much of their financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
7. The various programs in their student aid package. If they believe they have been treated unfairly, they may request reconsideration of the award which was made to them.
8. What portion of the financial aid they received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, they have the right to know what the rate is, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time they have to repay the loan, and when repayment begins.
9. How the University determines whether they are making satisfactory progress, and what happens if they are not.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The purpose of the academic scholarship program is to enable undergraduate students to complete their bachelor degrees. It is not intended for second degrees or double majors if it would require additional hours. Most baccalaureate programs at Grand Canyon University require 128 hours to complete. If a student declares a major which requires more than 128 credit hours to complete, then the academic scholarship would apply for the necessary additional hours required to earn the degree. However, the scholarships would not be applicable if a student chooses to change majors necessitating additional courses above the 128 hours required for a degree.

Endowed and academic scholars must enroll in at least 12 credit hours each semester at Grand Canyon University in which the scholarship is used unless the student is graduating and needs fewer than full-time credits to graduate. In this case the scholarship will be prorated for the number of hours required to complete the degree for the last semester of the study only.

Students may not receive more than 50% of their tuition costs in scholarships generated by institutional funds, with the exception of Grants-in-Aid and Scholars 100 scholarships.

If students use the scholarship award to pay for the tuition for a course and then withdraws, the award will be adjusted accordingly. Recipients of any Grand Canyon University scholarship that requires full-time enrollment will lose that scholarship if they drop below full-time enrollment. The scholarship will be revoked for the semester the students drop below full-time status and for all future semesters. Students can appeal any scholarship denials to the Financial Aid Committee by completing a Financial Aid Appeal form.

If students lose an academic scholarship because their GPA falls below the requirement, or their enrollment drops below full-time status, the scholarship may not be regained. If the scholarship was lost due to GPA only, students may qualify for other scholarships. For example, if students lose their eligibility for Top 5% due to GPA, they may be able to qualify for the Top 10%. A Financial Aid Committee Appeal form will need to be completed each year.

Academic Scholarships

A student who has earned any college credits may not qualify for this academic scholarship unless the hours were taken while the student was concurrently enrolled in high school and had the equivalent of a 3.50 GPA in college courses completed. These allowable credit hours would reduce the hours of the scholarship award proportionately. This scholarship is renewable for up to 128 credit hours to complete a bachelor's degree provided:

These scholarship funds are the result of donations made to the University by alumni and friends of the institution. The interest on the accounts is calculated on a yearly basis and awarded to students based on criteria set by the donor. Students who complete the FAFSA and Application for Admission have automatically applied for the scholarships which include demonstrated need as one of the criteria for award. Unless otherwise stipulated, the basic academic requirement for any of these scholarships is a 2.00 cumulative Grand Canyon University GPA. Students may apply for these scholarships by completing their Financial Aid file before all funds are committed. Scholarship recipients will be expected to write a thank you letter to the donor before the funds will be released. ROTC Scholarships

Air Force and Army ROTC scholarships are available to Grand Canyon University students. Scholarships vary in amount with a maximum award providing full tuition as well as an allowance for fees and curriculum-required textbooks. In addition, students may receive a non-taxable $150 allowance each month during the school year while on scholarship status. Students who are not on ROTC scholarship but are enrolled in the last two years of ROTC also receive the $150 allowance. Scholarships are available on a four-, three-, and two-year basis. To qualify for four-year scholarships, students must be US citizens and submit an application prior to December 1 of their senior year of high school. For information contact the Air Force and Army ROTC detachment at Arizona State University or the ROTC office on campus:

- Army ROTC at Grand Canyon University (602) 589-2550, USAF at Arizona State University (480) 965-3181, or Army at Arizona State University (480) 965-3318.

*The scholarship does not cover the housing deposit for on-campus students.

Tribal Scholarships

These scholarships require the student to turn in a Needs Analysis form to the Office of Financial Aid to be processed and sent to the Native American Tribe of the respective student. The tribes also require the student to submit an application for Federal Aid to the Office of Financial Aid. Each tribe has deadlines and Needs Analysis forms must be sent each semester. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that the forms are submitted to the Office of Financial Aid in a timely manner for the process to be completed by the deadline.

Indian Health Service (IHS)

This Native American Scholarship is for applicants in the health care field. An invoice must be sent to the IHS agent each semester with documentation of educational costs.

Off Campus Scholarships

(Which require no Grand Canyon University Assistance)

The Office of Financial Aid has information on outside scholarships available to students through associations, corporations, hospitals, etc. These scholarships require applications to be sent to the appropriate address by the specified deadline.

Grants-In-Aid

The University offers athletic and performance grants-in-aid that are not subject to the 50% cap for scholarships. Students should contact the Athletic Director, the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, or their designee for additional information.

GRANTS

Grants are outright gifts of money and are awarded on the basis of financial need. A student's financial package may include grant money whenever guidelines and funding levels permit.
Federal Pell Grants

Pell Grants are made available to undergraduate students who do not have a bachelor’s degree already. The student’s eligibility is determined by a schedule developed by the Department of Education, Washington, DC. Students who are eligible for a Pell Grant must make satisfactory progress to receive this award. Students may apply for this grant by using the application for Federal Student Aid. Applications must be submitted annually.

Grand Canyon University is in compliance with the standards of the US Department of Education regarding a drug free workplace.

Any student who receives a Pell Grant will be asked to certify that he or she will not engage in the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of a controlled substance during the period covered by the Pell Grant.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG)

The SEOG provides gift aid to undergraduate students who do not have a bachelor's degree. Grants may range from $100 to $1,250 and may not exceed $4,000 per year. The application procedure is described in the “Financial Aid Application Process” section.

Arizona State Grant Program (ASG)

These are grant funds for Arizona residents available from federal, state, and institutional sources to assist deserving students who have financial need. Grants may range upward from $100 to $2,500 per year. The application procedure is described in the “Financial Aid Application Process” section.

STUDENT LOANS

Loans are often part of a financial aid package. They provide Grand Canyon University students with an opportunity to defer part of their educational costs by borrowing now and paying later. Although there is much discussion on the debt burden, the Office of Financial Aid is of the opinion that the loan debt was contracted so the student could invest in him or herself.

Loan Programs

Federal Carl D. Perkins/National Direct Student Loan Program (NSL)

The Federal Perkins Loan provides long term loans for United States citizens and permanent residents. The amounts awarded vary, depending on financial need. No interest is charged, nor is repayment required, while the borrower is enrolled at least one-half time. Nine months after the borrower ceases to be enrolled at least half-time, payments begin at an interest rate of 5%. Loan repayment must be completed within a ten-year period at a minimum repayment rate of $40 per month. Under certain circumstances, a portion of the loan may be canceled for designated public service. To be considered for this loan, a student must file the application for Federal Student Aid. The application procedure is described in the “Financial Aid Application Process” section.

Federal Stafford Loan Program (GSL)

These loans are secured from an off-campus lending agency such as a bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or insurance agency. To be considered for this loan, a student must file an Application for Federal Student Aid.

Both subsidized and unsubsidized loans have the same terms and conditions, except unsubsidized loan borrowers are responsible for interest that accrues during all in-school, grace, and deferment periods.

A student must be enrolled at least half-time in order to be eligible for a Stafford loan.

The interest rate for all borrowers is determined by regulation every July 1. See the Office of Financial Aid for current rates. Repayment begins six months after the borrower ceases to be enrolled at least half-time with monthly payments of not less than $50, but with a maximum repayment time of ten years. Students must meet general eligibility requirements and be enrolled at least half-time. Applications are available from either the student's university or Grand Canyon University's Office of Financial Aid.

PLUS Loans

PLUS Loans are for parent borrowers. This loan provides additional funds for educational expenses and, like the Stafford, is made by a lender such as a bank, credit union, or savings and loan association. The PLUS enables parents to borrow up to the full cost of attendance less any other financial aid for each eligible dependent. This rate may vary from year to year. Call your lender to obtain the current interest rate. PLUS borrowers must begin repayment within 60 days after the loan is disbursed. Before the PLUS Loan can be awarded, a determination must be made to see if the student is eligible for the Stafford. To be considered for the PLUS loan, a student must file an application for Federal Student Aid.

Disbursement of Student Loans

The United States Department of Education requires that there be multiple disbursements of loans. This applies to all loans guaranteed on or after January 1, 1990 for loan periods beginning on or after that date. The loan disbursement dates are dependent upon the receipt date of the loan application dependent upon the receipt date of the loan application and Federal Regulations.

Students Receiving Over-awards

The University will withhold and promptly return to the lender any Stafford disbursement not yet delivered to the student which exceeds the amount of assistance for which the student is eligible, taking into account other financial aid obtained by the student. Instead of returning the entire disbursement, the school may return to the lender only that portion of the disbursement for which the student is ineligible.

Student Employment

Student employment at Grand Canyon University seeks opportunities to provide academic or career oriented jobs, develop life skills, and meet college expenses.

Employment opportunities include Federal Work Study (FWS), Non-Federal Work Study (NFWS), Community Service, and Off Campus Jobs. Positions are posted daily on the northeast outside wall of the Office of Student Life.

Information regarding full-time positions may be obtained at the front desk of the Office of Student Life.

Employment Guides are also available in the Office of Student Life to assist students with employment procedures.

Federal Work Study Programs (FWS)

This program provides part-time employment for United States citizens and permanent residents who have demonstrated financial need on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. The maximum amount a recipient can earn under this program is determined through an evaluation of the FAFSA. General wage policies are established by the University within the guidelines established by the United States Department of Education. Work Study students are paid on an hourly basis and are not eligible for fringe benefits such as holiday, vacation, or sick pay. They are also not eligible for unemployment. The application procedure is described in the “Financial Aid Award Procedures” section. These on-campus positions are limited in number.
Non-Federal Work Study
Non-Federal Work Study positions do not require a financial aid need, nor is it necessary to fill out a financial aid packet in order to obtain these positions. These on-campus positions are limited in number.

Part-Time Jobs Off-Campus
After viewing the job board students must register at the front desk, in the Office of Student Life, to obtain remaining information about available positions.

Approvals
Grand Canyon University is approved for training eligible students in the following government programs: The Department of Education Title IV programs, Veterans Education, Indian Health Service, Vocational Rehabilitation, Tribal Agencies, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

1. Christlikeness
2. Academic success
3. A lifestyle of personal excellence

Calendar/Handbook
The Student Handbook/University Calendar is published annually by the Office of Student Life. It provides information, rules, policies, procedures, and a monthly calendar of campus events. It is the student’s responsibility to become familiar with, and adhere to, the rules, policies, and procedures contained within the Student Handbook.

Health Services
Mandatory Student Health Insurance
To help ensure students will not be left with large medical bills that force them to disrupt their educational goals, all undergraduate students enrolled in 12 or more credit hours are automatically charged for student health insurance at registration. Students enrolled in less than 12 credit hours, graduate students, College of Continuing Studies students and off-site students may voluntarily enroll in the plan.

Students who are currently enrolled in insurance programs that provide acute and continuing care in the Phoenix area may apply for an insurance waiver. Waivers must be completed and returned along with front and back copies of the insurance card to the Business Office by each semester’s deadline date. Students will be notified if their application for a waiver has been accepted or denied.

Features of the current Student Insurance plan include:
- Affordable health insurance
- Easy access to care
- Inpatient and outpatient coverage at usual and customary charges up to the policy maximum
- No pre-existing condition clauses if there is not a 30-day lapse between insurance companies.

Residence Life/Housing
Any student officially admitted to Grand Canyon University is eligible to apply for campus housing. We offer both residence hall and apartment housing.

All unmarried freshman students who are under 20 years of age and who carry 12 credit hours or more are required to live in residence housing. Exceptions are made for those students who live with their parents, guardians, or close relatives. Freshmen are required to live in residence halls and sophomores may apply for the apartments, if space is available. This requirement is subject to change during the Fall of 2002. The residence hall environment is best suited for students under the age of 25. Older students are encouraged to live in the North Rim Student Apartment Complex. Room and board charges for students who reside in a residence hall includes a meal plan of either 21 meals per week or 14 meals per week.

Residence halls are closed during Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Break. The halls are closed from the end of the Spring semester to the beginning of the Fall semester. (Subject to change Summer 2003.) Apartment housing, furnished and unfurnished, is available to students who are 20 years of age or older or of sophomore status. Priority is given to married students, families, and students with a senior or junior classification. Students who reside in the North Rim Student Apartment Complex are required to carry at least 12 credit hours. Roommate selections for the apartments are made by the student, not the University. All utilities, including access to local telephone service and basic cable television, are included in the monthly rent.

A completed application and deposit is required for placement in campus housing. Additional information regarding housing may be obtained by contacting the Housing Office. PO Box 11097, Phoenix, Arizona 85061-3030. 602-589-2560 or 800-800-9776 ext. 2860.

Student Conduct
Grand Canyon University attempts to create an atmosphere conducive to the purposes of a liberal arts education in the Christian tradition. All students who enroll in the University are expected to accept the responsibilities of campus citizenship and to show consideration and respect for the personal freedom and property rights of members of the civic community and the academic community. Students are expected to give primary attention to their college work and to all classes, exercises, and engagements which require their attendance. While some students may not have personal convictions in accord with the University’s standards, rules, policies, and procedures, a person’s enrollment at Grand Canyon University acknowledges that he or she accepts the responsibility for honorable adherence to the same, both on and off campus, while a student at the University. When a student does not meet the University’s general standards of behavior, or comply with its rules, the University may take disciplinary action. Such action may take the form of a reprimand, restriction of certain privileges, suspension, or final dismissal. As a private institution, Grand Canyon University reserves the right to determine who will enter and who will remain on campus. Students should become familiar with, and adhere to, the standards, rules, policies, and procedures contained within the Student Handbook.

Campus and Community Ministries/Chapel
A complete Grand Canyon University education includes experiences that seek to develop the spirit, as well as the mind and body. Chapel attendance is an integral part of this process and is a requirement for graduation.

All students must schedule their classes with a Community of Faith session (chapel) in their schedule plan. The Community of Faith (chapel) requirement should be taken into consideration when planning your work and family schedule. Any graduating senior who is deficient in attendance requirements will have his or her diploma withheld.

Community Service is arranged by the Chapel Coordinator. It is a specific program which has approved sites of service previously designated (this program would be considered in addition to anything in which the student is already involved). Applications are available through the Office of Student Life. Students enrolled for Community Service must complete the application process before receiving approval.

Each student taking nine hours or more is required to attend a minimum of ten chapels per semester. Students enrolled in less than nine hours, evening students, those already possessing degree, and those whose off-campus internships or teaching practicums conflict with the chapel schedule will be placed on exempt status. Questions regarding Community of Faith (chapel) should be directed to the Office of Student Life.

Intercollegiate Athletics

The Intercollegiate Athletics Department of Grand Canyon University seeks to provide intercollegiate athletic participation for students at the University. Recognizing that intercollegiate competition can be a vital component in the total educational experience of a student, the department attempts to operate with the best interests of the physical, educational, and spiritual welfare of those students at heart.

The University offers competition in eight intercollegiate sports, sponsoring four sports each for men and women. Women's teams compete in soccer, volleyball, basketball, and tennis. Men's teams compete in soccer, basketball, baseball, and golf.

All teams compete as members of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) at the Division II level. All programs are also members of the California Collegiate Athletic Association, competing for conference championships with 11 other institutions.

Grants-in-aid are available in all sports. Special academic regulations apply to those interested in competing in intercollegiate athletics. Please contact the Athletic Compliance Office for specific regulations.

Student-athletes, like all students at the University, are expected to abide by the standards, rules, policies, and procedures listed in this catalog and the Student Handbook. Because of their participation on an athletic team, student-athletes may be subject to testing for banned substances as designated by the NCAA. A copy of the athletic department drug testing policy may be obtained by contacting the Intercollegiate Athletic Office.

Food Service

The University dining hall provides meals during the academic year. It is closed during Thanksgiving, Winter Break, Spring Break, and Summer Break.

Students living in the residence halls are required to purchase a University meal plan. Others may buy meals on an individual basis or purchase a meal plan.

Light lunches and refreshments are available in the snack bar located in the Student Center.

Disability Services

Grand Canyon University values all of its students. In order to provide reasonable accommodations for specific needs of students with disabilities, we invite self-declaration of disabilities upon acceptance of admissions. Records are confidential and the information is shared only with those who need to know for accommodation purposes.

It is the student's responsibility to request the exception/modification in writing prior to the date services are expected. To allow the University sufficient time to make appropriate plans, requests should be submitted no later than August 1 for Fall classes, December 1 for Spring classes, and two weeks prior to a Summer session when accommodation is needed. The University will respond in writing.

Requests should be directed to the Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities, Office of Student Life, Grand Canyon University. The University reserves the right to set any documented verification of need. The University cannot provide accommodations that are not requested.

After consulting with the Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities, a student who is dissatisfied with the accommodations provided by the University may make a request for further investigation with the Vice President for Academic Affairs for matters pertaining to the classroom/academic requirements and/ or to the Vice President for Student Life in the area of the physical environment. If the concern is still unresolved, the final appeal should be in written format and addressed to the University Disabilities Coordinator.

Most University activities, services, and programs are accessible to any student with a physical disability. We expect that any student with a physical disability has followed the procedure for disability services outlined in the Student Handbook. In the event that the student did not do so—because the physical accessibility might be reasonably anticipated without a prior request pursuant to that procedure—the student should direct a written request to the Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities, Office of Student Life, as soon as possible. Grand Canyon University will make every good faith attempt to reasonably accommodate students within its Christian learning environment, but reserves the right to request timely documentation and cooperation.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Intramurals

There are various events throughout the school year that have become traditions at Grand Canyon University. In the fall there are many events planned around the New Student Orientation, as well as Spiritual Emphasis Week, Club Rush Week, Harvest Festival, TWIRP, and the Hanging of the Green. During the spring semester, Grand Canyon University has events such as the Staley Lecture Series, Homecoming, Spring Formal, Honors Day, Athletic Awards Banquet, and Oozeball (mud volleyball).

Over 20 student organizations meet regularly. Some are service and donor organizations, some extend the exploration of specific major issues, and some provide social interaction.

Campus Leadership Council (CLC)

The Campus Leadership Council leads the student body in planning and promoting student life activities, programs and services. Meetings are held each Spring to determine council leadership. The Student Body President is elected by the student body. Applications are available in the Office of Student Life.

Publications

Every year, publications are produced by students. These include the campus newspaper (Canyon Echo) and literary journal (Shadow).
GENERAL ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

Preface

This section of the catalog describes many policies related to a student's academic life at Grand Canyon University. The policies are intended to assure the student a high quality education and to reflect that quality to accrediting agencies, state licensing/certifying agencies, individuals and groups who provide scholarships or otherwise support the University, and to potential employers and graduate schools. The University recognizes that there are individual circumstances and situations which may necessitate exceptions to these policies. When the purpose of the policy or regulation is not being defeated, the University will make every reasonable effort to accommodate those exceptional circumstances and provide a process for the student to appeal or request that an exception be granted. Often the appeals process is explained with the policy but in any case where it is not described, the student should ask the Office of the Chief Academic Officer how to proceed. The University has no right to change policies or procedures of another organization for which it is merely acting as an agent.

The student should especially note that incomplete registration, failure to meet payment arrangements, or failure to follow other policies stated in the catalog may result in administrative withdrawal from classes.

Students enrolled in, or considering enrollment in, the University's College of Continuing Studies should be aware that some specific policies are different for that college only. Among the affected policies are those concerning the academic semester hour, course load, reading and conference, correspondence and extension credit, and evaluation of transfer credit. Please see the Dean of the College of Continuing Studies for clarification and details.

Academic Advisement

Every student at Grand Canyon University is assigned to an advisor, usually a faculty member in the major field of study, for the purpose of assisting the student with proper academic planning. However, it is the student's responsibility to become familiar with and adhere to the policies and degree requirements stated within the catalog. Students are encouraged to seek academic counseling regularly throughout their academic career.

An academic checklist, available upon request in the Office of the Registrar, is a record showing the student's coursework completed to date. Students should refer to the "Graduation Requirements" section of this catalog for specific details regarding graduation.

Academic Semester Hour

Grand Canyon University operates on the semester plan, offering two regular semesters of approximately 15 weeks each. Credit is expressed in terms of semester hours. One semester hour normally requires the equivalent of one 50-minute class period per week throughout a semester. Adaptations of this principle are sometimes employed, especially in music, physical education activity, and laboratory courses. Summer session is operated on an accelerated schedule which is in accord with the semester hour principle. Some programs within the College of Continuing Studies also operate on an accelerated schedule.

Class Attendance

1. Students are expected to be regular and punctual in class attendance. The University believes that students themselves are primarily responsible for attendance. Instructors will provide students with written statements of their policies with respect to absences. If students violate the instructor's attendance requirements, the instructor may recommend to the Chief Academic Officer that the student be administratively dropped from the course. If the student is administratively dropped, it will result in a grade of "W." No refunds are made for administrative withdrawals. Students may appeal administrative drops to the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

2. The student must notify the Office of Student Life directly when in absence from class of one week or more is unavoidable. The Office of Student Life will notify instructors upon request. Instructors will permit students to make up tests and other work when the absence was entirely unavoidable (at the instructor's discretion) or authorized by the Chief Academic Officer.

3. To secure permission to make up work missed by an absence, students must account to their instructors in the manner prescribed by their instructors immediately after their return to class.

4. Regular and punctual attendance may be considered in assigning grades.

5. Class attendance records are effective as of the first day of class meetings in each semester. Students who register late are counted absent for each class meeting already missed.

Classification of Courses

Courses are numbered from 100 to 699. The course numbering system is as follows:

100-299 are lower division courses designed for freshman and sophomore students.

Usually a freshman will not be permitted to take a course which bears a number higher than 299 and a sophomore not higher than 399. Certain classes are closed to freshmen who have not had designated prerequisites (consult course description for prerequisite requirement).

300-499 are upper division courses designed for juniors and seniors.

500-699 are graduate level courses.

Classification of Students

Freshmen are those students who have not yet completed 30 semester hours.

Sophomores are those students who have completed from 30 to 59 semester hours.

Juniors are those students who have completed from 60 to 89 semester hours.

Seniors are those students who have completed a minimum of 90 semester hours.

Students are not permitted to graduate at the end of a semester or term which they began with a GPA of less than 2.00. (See page 26 for "General Graduation Requirements.")

Fifth Year Students are those students who have completed a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution and are accepted for a program of specified upper division courses to secure standard teacher certification.

Graduate Students are those students who have completed a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution and have been admitted into the graduate program of study offered by one of the colleges of the University.

Second Degree Students are those students who have completed a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution and are completing the requirements for a second bachelor's degree (see page 30).

Unclassified Students are those students who are not working toward a degree and/or are not included in the above classifications.

Concurrent Enrollment

Undergraduate students may enroll at other institutions while enrolled at Grand Canyon University provided that University policies are not violated, and:

1. The student completes the necessary paperwork in the Office of the Registrar prior to enrollment to ensure progress toward a degree.

2. Total enrollment at all institutions in a given semester does not exceed 18 hours without prior permission from the Academic Appeals Committee.

3. Requests from undergraduate students to the Academic Appeals Committee have the endorsement of the student's advisor.

4. Requests from students in master's degree programs are submitted to the dean of the appropriate college.

Transfer credit may not be accepted if the above guidelines are not followed. Undergraduate students enrolled in less than 12 hours at Grand Canyon University are not under these regulations. Concurrent Enrollment forms and Academic Appeals Committee petitions are available in the Office of the Registrar.

It is strongly recommended that students do not enroll concurrently at a community (junior) college after their sophomore year. Community college courses are designed to be introductory in nature and should be taken during the student's first two years. Postponing them until later usually disrupts the sequence of courses in a major and results in poor grades in the advanced classes. Postponing University Liberal Arts Foundation requirements also leads to poor performance in upper division courses which assume the general background gained from the University Liberal Arts Foundation requirements.

COURSES

Auditing of Courses

Audit examinations are not permitted. A student may wish to audit a course rather than take it for credit in a degree program. The student will receive a grade of "S" (Satisfactory) or "U" (Unsatisfactory) instead of a letter grade.

The student wishing to audit a course typically does so at the time of registration before the beginning of the course. Students may sometimes be allowed to change their registration from credit to audit during the first half of the course but this should be rare and due to unusual or extenuating circumstances. Certain professional programs (e.g., Nursing or Education) offered by the University may restrict the ability of students to audit courses. These programs also reserve the right to treat a mid-course change to audit status within the professional program as if the student had failed the course and require the student to be re-admitted to the program.

Students considering a change to audit status should confer with their academic advisor or the dean of the college which offers their major before finalizing the change with the Office of the Registrar. Students desiring to change their registration status from credit to audit must request this change by filling out the appropriate form (including signatures) in the Office of the Registrar. The instructor should also be notified of the change by the student so that he or she can make the appropriate change in his or her grading standards.

It is the responsibility of the student auditing a course to ascertain from the instructor the expectations regarding the behavior of an auditing student in the course. Students not meeting the instructor's expectations for an "S" grade will be given a "U" grade.

Students may take a course for credit which they have previously taken as an audit course. A student may not change from audit to credit after the last day for registration for credit as listed in the academic calendar of the current University Catalog.

Courses in the College of Continuing Studies are generally not available for audit.

Change of Courses

After changes have been completed and before classes begin, no changes in course schedules are permitted without the signatures of the students’ advisor and the Office of the Registrar. After the semester begins, no changes in course schedules are permitted without the signatures of the professor concerned, the Registrar or the Chief Academic Officer, and the Office of Financial Aid. Tuition may be refunded when changes in class schedules are made upon the recommendation of the Chief Academic Officer. Tuition Refunds are determined by the date the student files a completed withdrawal form with the Office of the Registrar. (See the schedule of refunds beginning on page 14)

A student is not permitted to enroll for credit in a course after the last date to enroll for credit as shown in the Academic Calendar on pages iv-v.

Course Load

An undergraduate student who is enrolled for a minimum of 12 semester hours of credit courses is defined to be full-time during the Fall or Spring semesters. A total of six semester hours of credit courses during the Summer sessions is considered full-time.

A graduate student who is enrolled for a minimum of nine semester hours of credit courses is defined to be full-time during the Fall or Spring semesters.

International students must carry a minimum of 12 semester hours each semester in order to maintain student status required for the F-1 visa. All international students are required to register for UNV 101, University Success, their first semester.

Students may not register for more than 18 hours except upon recommendation of their advisor and permission from the Chief Academic Officer.

Only one course (three credit hours) may be taken during Summer I session. The maximum course load normally allowed during other Summer sessions is six semester hours. If one course is a four-hour course, or if one hour of Physical Education or Applied Music is taken, the student may be permitted to take seven hours.

Carrying a normal course load in college is considered to be a full-time job. For this reason it is suggested that students who have employment other than school work should not take more than 15 hours of college work per semester.

Dropping Courses

A student is not permitted to withdraw from (drop) a course after the last day for dropping (see Academic Calendar) without receiving a grade of "F", except for very extenuating reasons. Evaluation by the Chief Academic Officer is required before permission for late withdrawal can be granted.

A student who discontinues a course at any time without withdrawing officially from it will be given a grade of "F" in the course. Tuition refunds are determined by the date the student files a completed drop form with the Office of the Registrar. Students are responsible for non-refundable charges based on the tuition refund schedule listed in the class Bulletin for the semester or session involved.

Instructions and forms for dropping courses may be obtained at the Office of the Registrar.

Order of Taking Courses

A student is expected to take required courses at the earliest opportunity. The University Liberal Arts Foundation requirements, in particular, are designed to provide a broad liberal arts background for the rest of the student's university experience and should be completed in the freshman and sophomore years. Exceptions to this should be rare and limited to students who transfer from other schools after their sophomore year. A student classified as a senior is not permitted to take an elective a freshman-level course without permission from the faculty advisor and the Dean of the College.

Repeating Courses

A grade of "D" or "F" earned at a Grand Canyon University may be removed from an undergraduate student's GPA only by repeating the course at Grand Canyon University. The last grade earned is considered the grade of record as it pertains to credit toward graduation and the student's cumulative GPA. Both grades are reflected on the transcript. The student should note that graduate schools or other institutions may calculate grades in a different fashion.

A grade of "C-", "D," or "F" earned at Grand Canyon University may be removed from a graduate student's GPA under the same conditions and with the same results as stated above.

This policy does not apply to special topics and independent study courses that have different content from semester to semester.

Once a student has been awarded a degree by the University, he or she may not repeat a course which is a part of that degree for the purpose of changing the grade on the official transcript.

It is the student's responsibility to file a Repeat Form in the Office of the Registrar. This form must be filed at registration or during the semester in which the course is repeated.

Special Course Options

Certain course numbers have been reserved for special study courses which departments of the University wish to approve. These fall into two categories:

Independent Study

Department/College number 499 (undergraduate) or Department/College number 599/699 (graduate) is assigned to these courses. Research, seminars, or readings on a special topic may be selected by the student and the faculty advisor is appropriate. This type of course may be taken for one, two, three or four hours, depending upon the amount of time and work involved and may be repeated for up to four hours to credit at least the number of hours indicated.

Practice

No additional hours beyond those for a credit course may be taken. However, a student may drop a credit course and be advised to take additional work. If the new grade is lower it will be used to compute the GPA. No credit may be taken beyond the maximum allowed for the degree for which the student is registered. A new advisor is recommended for the new work if the student is taking additional courses.

Reading

Any course in which a student received a grade of "F" or "D" or is taking a course for pass/fail credit may be repeated for credit only. The new grade is used to compute the GPA and the number of hours taken for a grade.

Procedure

Student

1. Student must initiate the Repeat Form with the Registrar to add credits.
2. The student must be in good academic standing.
3. The student must be registered for the Repeat Form.
4. The student must attend the class for which credit is required.

Academic

The Registrar must approve the Repeat Form before the student can repeat the course.

Withdrawal

To withdraw from a course, the student must complete the Repeat Form. An official withdrawal from the course will be recorded and will do so for a particular course. The student must file a Withdrawal Form in the Office of the Registrar. The Repeat Form will then be cancelled.

Correcting a Grade

A student who is repeat a course for credit or correspondence purposes.

Credit to Grade

The student must complete the Repeat Form in the Office of the Registrar. Such forms are submitted for approval.
credit per subject area unless specified otherwise in requirements for a major. Independent Study is reserved for junior and senior students with a GPA of at least 3.00, with approval of the dean, department chairperson, and instructor.

Practicum
Numbered 399 in each department/college (except the College of Nursing and the College of Education) for one, two, three, or four hours of credit, the practicum is a supervised practical experience in the student’s major area of interest. A minimum of 45 hours (maximum 60) of practical experience will be scheduled for each semester hour of credit. The experience must be arranged with an agency, organization, or individual that agrees to provide an advisor to work with the faculty advisor in designing and evaluating the student's experience. This course is for junior and senior students with at least a 2.00 GPA and may be taken any semester with approval of the faculty advisor, the dean, and department chairperson. Additional internship numbers are offered in the Master of Arts and Master of Education programs.

Reading and Conference
Any course listed in the catalog may be taken by reading and conference with the instructor, with approval of the dean or department chairperson and the Chief Academic Officer. The student must have a legitimate reason for seeking course credit through reading and conference. Students may not be permitted to receive credit for more than two courses by this method. A minimum GPA of 2.00 is required.

Procedures for Special Study Courses
Students should:
1. Obtain the proper special study form from the Office of the Registrar (the Office of the Registrar keeps the records which indicate whether a student is eligible for a special study).
2. Complete the required special study form in conference with the appropriate instructor or academic advisor.
3. Obtain proper signatures.
4. File completed form with the Office of the Registrar no later than one week after the last day to register for credit for that semester (see Academic Calendar). A student is not officially registered for a special study course until the completed form has been filed with the Office of the Registrar. It is recommended that this procedure be completed prior to registration.

Withdrawing from Courses
To withdraw officially from all courses, a student must secure a Complete Withdrawal Form from the Office of the Registrar and obtain all signatures indicated on the form. A student who officially withdraws from all courses at any time during a semester receives a grade of "W." An unofficial withdrawal results automatically in a grade of "F." The University does not automatically withdraw students for non-attendance. A student withdrawing from some but not all courses must do so before the date specified in the Academic Calendar (see "Dropping Courses," page 23).

Tuition refunds are determined by the date the student files a completed withdrawal form with the Office of the Registrar. Students are responsible for non-refundable charges based on the tuition refund schedule listed in the class Bulletin for the semester or session involved.

Correspondence and Extension Credit
A maximum of 30 hours of credit by examination, extension, and correspondence work, including not more than 12 hours by correspondence, may be allowed for undergraduate graduation. Credit for college-level seminary extension courses may be transferred to Grand Canyon University under certain conditions. Students planning eventual transfer of these courses should secure approval from the Dean of the J. Niles Puckett College of Christian Studies before they enroll in seminary extension courses.

Canyon University must meet all of the criteria for concurrent enrollment.

Eligibility for Activities
Any student may participate in extracurricular activities provided by the University except as restricted by regulations established for campus organizations and intercollegiate activities.

Grade Requirements
For graduation, undergraduate students must present a minimum of 128 semester hours of credit and a GPA of 2.00 for all courses attempted at Grand Canyon University. At least 45 hours must be upper division credit.

Graduate students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.00 for graduation.

The regulation concerning grades on college work taken elsewhere is given on page 11.

Students must also have a "C" average (2.00 GPA) in their majors and may not count toward their major any course with a grade below "C".

Candidates for a secondary teaching certificate must have a minimum GPA of 2.50 in their teaching majors.

In calculating a student’s GPA in the major, work transferred for the major is evaluated on the same basis as work taken at Grand Canyon University.

Administrative Withdrawal
University professors are to provide students with a written attendance policy. If a student fails to comply with a stated attendance policy, the professor may administratively withdraw the student from the course. Students are responsible for all tuition and fees.

Appeal of Grade
A student who feels that a grade has been unfairly awarded may appeal the grade through the procedure described in the Student Handbook.

Audit Grade
Courses taken for no credit (audit) earn a grade of "S" or "U." Audit courses do not earn credit toward graduation, nor do they fulfill requirements for course prerequisites.

Averaging of Grades
For the purpose of computing GPAs, grade points are assigned as follows: "A," four points for each semester hour; "A-," three and seven tenths points; "B+," three and three tenths points; "B," three points; "B-," two and seven tenths points; "C+," two and three tenths points; "C," two points; "D," one point; "F," zero points. Other grades are not included in GPA computation. To calculate the GPA, semester hours for each course are multiplied by the grade points for that grade. The sum of these products is divided by the number of hours which carry “A,” “A−,” “B+,” “B,” “B−,” “C+,” “C,” “D,” and “F” grades. The GPA that appears on a Grand Canyon University transcript is based only upon work taken in residence at Grand Canyon University.

Change of Grade

Final grades normally may be changed only by the instructor of the course. The instructor must submit an official grade change form, a copy of which will be mailed to the student. (If the instructor is no longer at the University, the student should consult with the dean of the college in which the course was offered.)

Credit Grade

Certain courses earn credit toward fulfilling requirements but do not count in GPA computations. These courses are given a grade of “Cr” (credit). This grade is not offered as an option to students; rather, the courses earn only grades of “Cr” or “U.” A grade of “U” earns no credit.

Incomplete Grade

An incomplete grade will be given at the end of the semester or session only when serious, extenuating circumstances prevent a student from completing course requirements before the close of the grading period. The instructor must file a written explanation for assigning an incomplete grade and a statement of what the student must do to complete the course requirements. When a grade of “I” is given, the student must complete all necessary work within the following semester. Incompletes earned in the Fall semester are to be completed by the date set by the instructor and no later than April 15. Incompletes earned in the Spring semester and Summer sessions are to be completed by the date set by the instructor and no later than December 1. (Exceptions may be granted at the request of the instructor when the student is required to attend all class sessions and take the final examination with the current semester’s class.) Failure to complete the required work within the specified time will result in the grade being changed to an “F.” Neither the “I” nor the “F” can be changed to a “W” at a later date.

Withdrawal Grade

The grade of “W” will be given only when a student has officially withdrawn from the course prior to the penalty date as stated in the current semester bulletin. To withdraw officially from a course, a student must obtain necessary forms from the Office of the Registrar, secure all required signatures, and pay any withdrawal (drop) fees in the Business Office. Withdrawals (drops) are considered official as of the date the student files a completed withdrawal form with the Office of the Registrar. Failure to follow these procedures will result in a grade of “F.”

STANDARDS OF ACADEMICS

Academic Honors

Freshman Honor Roll

At the close of each semester, GPAs for freshman students carrying 12 or more semester hours with a minimum of eight semester hours of graded courses are calculated to determine eligibility for this honor. Those freshman students whose semester GPA is 3.00 or above qualify for the Freshman Honor Roll.

Sophomore Honor Roll

At the close of each semester, GPAs for sophomore students carrying 12 or more semester hours with a minimum of eight semester hours of graded courses are calculated to determine eligibility for this honor. Those sophomore students whose semester GPA is 3.25 or above qualify for the Sophomore Honor Roll.

Dean’s List

At the close of each semester, GPAs for all undergraduate students carrying 12 or more semester hours with a minimum of eight semester hours of graded courses are calculated to determine eligibility for this honor. Students whose semester GPA is 3.50 or above qualify for the Dean’s List. (Note: The Dean’s List recognition supersedes Freshman and Sophomore Honor Roll recognitions.) An undergraduate student who qualifies for the Dean’s List during any semester may audit one course within the next calendar year without charge. The audit privilege covers the regular audit fee for any course, regardless of the number of semester hours. It does not cover class fees or any University fees.

Junior Marshals

Special recognition is given to the two juniors with the highest GPA at the end of the Fall semester of their junior year. This honor is restricted to those who have transferred in no more than 12 semester hours.

Ray-Maben Scholars

This recognition represents the highest scholarship honor awarded by Grand Canyon University. Criteria are established by the faculty and the honor is bestowed each year at graduation. The criteria consist of a cumulative and Grand Canyon University GPA of at least 3.90, with no more than 12 transferable semester hours.

Graduation With Honors

Undergraduate students who have earned at least 60 hours at Grand Canyon University may qualify for honors by graduating one of the following GPAs:

- 3.40 to 3.59 may qualify for graduation cum laude;
- 3.60 to 3.79 may qualify for graduation magna cum laude;
- 3.80 to 4.00 may qualify for graduation summa cum laude.

Second degree and graduate students are not eligible for honors. In order to qualify for a specific honor, students must meet or exceed the GPA requirement for that honor both on work done at Grand Canyon University and on all college work attempted. Transfer students may graduate with an honor higher than that to which their GPA at Grand Canyon University would qualify them.

Other Honors

Wall Street Journal Award

The Wall Street Journal Award is given annually to an outstanding business student recommended by the College of Business and approved by the faculty. The award includes an inscribed medallion and a one-year subscription to the Wall Street Journal.

Who’s Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities

The honor recognizes, each year, approximately 15 seniors with outstanding records of campus activities, community service, and academic achievement. Nominees must have a cumulative and Grand Canyon University GPA of at least 3.00 and have attended for at least two semesters as a full-time student. Selections are made by the faculty and student body.

Academic Probation

Undergraduate students whose cumulative GPA on 12 or more hours attempted at Grand Canyon University drops below 2.00 are placed on academic probation.

An undergraduate student on academic or disciplinary probation is not eligible for any grant or scholarship administered by the University or for an office in any student organization. An undergraduate student on probation is not classified as a senior scheduled for graduation (see page 28).

Probationary status is removed when the undergraduate student has a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or above on all work attempted at Grand Canyon University.

Once admitted into the graduate field of study, a graduate student whose cumulative GPA drops below 2.80 is placed on academic probation.

Academic Suspension

An undergraduate student who has undertaken 24 hours in residence at the University will normally be suspended at the end of a semester in which his or her cumulative GPA falls below the following minimum.
1.50 for freshmen and sophomores
1.75 for juniors
2.00 for seniors

A student who has been suspended may apply in writing to the Vice President for Academic Affairs for reinstatement. A student subject to academic suspension for the third time is normally given final dismissal.

A student reinstated after an academic suspension is admitted with specification (see “Admission with Specification,” page 6). Persons thus admitted retain probationary status until they have earned a cumulative GPA of 2.00 at Grand Canyon University.

Once admitted into the graduate field of study, a graduate student will normally be suspended at the end of a semester in which his or her cumulative GPA falls below 2.50. A graduate student admitted into a master's program should contact the relevant college for the procedure to appeal academic suspension.

(Note that the academic standards for receiving financial aid are stricter than the general academic standards in that they require a 2.00 GPA regardless of the student's year in school. See the “Financial Aid” section of this catalog.)

Student Records

Annually, Grand Canyon University informs students of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This act was designed to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their educational records, and to provide guidelines for the removal of inaccurate or misleading data. Students have the right to file complaints with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) office concerning alleged failures by the institution to comply with this act.

Questions concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be referred to the Office of the Registrar.

Curricular Requirements for Graduation

The completion of the required 128 semester hours for the baccalaureate degree usually requires four years of 32 semester hours each. The freshman and sophomore years are usually spent in general introductory courses in diversified liberal arts areas. During the remaining two years, the student may concentrate in the field of major interest. The work for the entire four year program consists of University Liberal Arts Foundation, major and minor subjects, and elective courses.

Course Scheduling and Content

The University attempts to schedule courses with sufficient frequency to allow students to meet graduation requirements within a reasonable amount of time. (For instance, some courses may be offered every other year while others may be offered every Fall or every Spring.) This places the responsibility on the student to plan sufficiently far ahead to take courses when they are offered. The University reserves the right to cancel any scheduled class due to insufficient enrollment or other reasons. When a course cancellation causes scheduling difficulties, the student should consult with his or her academic advisor or the dean of the college which offers the course to obtain an option or options for remedying the situation. The University retains the right to modify class schedules or offering patterns and allows course instructors the freedom within the University's mission to cover course topics as they wish.

A student may elect to take courses from the curriculum offered by each college in addition to the courses which may be required in his or her major area.

An academic advisor will help each student select a combination of major, minor, and elective studies appropriate for that individual. However, it is the ultimate responsibility of students to plan their course of study appropriately.

General Requirements for Graduation

Undergraduate students who have earned at least 90 credit hours must file an Intent to Graduate form with the Office of the Registrar.

Graduate students must file an Intent to Graduate form with the Office of the Registrar at least one semester prior to their anticipated graduation date.

Intent to Graduate forms may be obtained from the Office of the Registrar.

A one-time non-refundable graduation fee must be paid in the Business Office before returning the completed form to the Office of the Registrar. Once the completed Intent to Graduate form has been filed in the Office of the Registrar, an official check of remaining degree requirements will be provided.

Academic Regalia for Commencement

Degree candidates participating in the commencement exercises are required to wear the prescribed academic regalia, which may be obtained through the University Bookstore.

Attendance at Commencement

A candidate for graduation is expected to attend public commencement exercises which are held annually in May. In extreme hardship cases a student may be excused, but only when a written request is approved by the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Graduate students must complete their entire program prior to being permitted attendance at commencement and any of the associated activities until prior approval has been given by the appropriate college dean.
Eligibility to Participate in Commencement

Prospective graduates who have filed an Intent to Graduate form with the Office of the Registrar at least one semester in advance of their anticipated graduation date will be invited to participate in the May Commencement Exercises. Students planning to complete requirements in the Summer sessions must file a written plan with the Office of the Registrar prior to March 15 to account for all outstanding requirements. Once the plan has been approved by the Office of the Registrar, the student may participate in the May Commencement Exercises. Summer graduates with more than 12 hours to complete in the Summer sessions will not be allowed to participate in the May Commencement Exercises unless prior approval has been obtained from the Office of the Registrar and the Academic Affairs Committee.

University Liberal Arts Foundation (ULAF)

Grand Canyon University was founded as a Christian liberal arts college over 50 years ago and proudly maintains that heritage even though the institution has undergone extensive changes over the intervening years. Now a burgeoning University with multiple professional and applied degree programs complementing its traditional liberal arts and sciences curriculum, Grand Canyon University continues to maintain that a core of liberal arts knowledge and the integrative ability potentially inherent in that core remains the best preparation for a productive and satisfying life in today's world. To that end, the University has developed a set of learner goals which, when taken as a whole, are viewed as comprising our expectations for this part of the student's experience at Grand Canyon University. Each learner goal is paired with a course or group of courses in a core area of study and these comprise the University Liberal Arts Foundation. The ULAF, comparable to what is often called "general education" or "general studies" at other institutions, is intended to be the foundation of the student's undergraduate education. The ULAF purposefully allows the student some flexibility and choices in order to make the foundation as relevant as possible to the student's areas of academic interest, but it also is specific enough to ensure that some basic skills and knowledge are a part of the foundation.

Self-Placement in English Classes

Freshman and transfer students have the opportunity to make an important decision which could affect their success in some courses here at Grand Canyon University. They have the choice of enrolling in one of two courses which have proven to be beneficial for students who need to improve their writing skills in order to succeed at meeting college-level communication expectations. Specifically, if their ACT scores are 1 to 18 and/or their SAT verbal are 200 to 389, then the administration strongly recommends that they enroll in UNV 105 (Writing Experience I). If their ACT scores are 19-20 and/or their SAT verbal scores are 390 to 469, then the administration strongly recommends that they enroll in UNV 110 (Writing Experience II). Even if they have already completed ENG 101 and 102 somewhere else, they will likely benefit from taking either of these courses if their test scores fall within these lower ranges. Also, if they have been away from college for a long time, then taking either of these courses will greatly benefit them as a refresher of the basics. See the chart below for complete placement information.

∆ Writing-Intensive course.

 Students should consult the specific section of the catalog describing their college's requirements. Some requirements may differ.

As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successful (three for those students who substitute ENG 103 for ENG 106 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive. The purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is two-fold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines; and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English in structuring, drafting, and revising compositions effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both). At least one of the Writing-Intensive courses may be upper division and from the student's major. Only the courses designated as Writing-Intensive in the catalog descriptions will be counted toward meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing, complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for its effectiveness in the written assignments.

The University has always accepted comparable courses from other regionally accredited institutions which, in the judgment of the faculty, meet the intent of the requirements as specified. The faculty teaching the specific discipline should be consulted when the Office of the Registrar cannot establish whether or not a particular transferred course is substantially similar to the ULAF requirement.

Bachelor Degree Candidates — Suggested Program of Study

The following program of study for a beginning student will meet many of the University Liberal Arts Foundation requirements. Students should adapt the program to meet their specific matriculation plans which they are ultimately responsible. This program emphasizes the importance of choosing a major (and a minor, in most cases) field of study during the first year.

First Semester:

   UNV 101* 2 hrs
   BIB 103 or BIB 113 3 hrs
   ∆ ENG 101 3 hrs
   HIS 103 or HIS 105 3 hrs
   TRE 120/ARCH 100/ or MUS 252 3 hrs
   CIS 180 1 hr
   Elective 1 hr
   16 hrs

Second Semester:

   UNV 304/UNV 305/UNV 306/or BIB 123 3 hrs
   ∆ ENG 102 3 hrs
   ECON/GEOP/PSY/ or SOC elective 3 hrs
   BIO/CHM/ or PHY - lab science (PHY 101 is recommended for students who have not had a physical science course in high school.) 4 hrs
   Elective 1 hr
   16 hrs

*This course is not required as part of the University Liberal Arts Foundation requirements but has been found to be of practical use to most students. UNV 101 is designed to address four major areas of student's development: life management skills, academic skills, and community awareness, and personal and spiritual growth.

∆ Writing-Intensive course.

As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successful (three for those students who substitute ENG 103 for ENG 106 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive.
purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is two-fold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines; and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English in structuring, drafting, and revising compositions effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both). At least one of the Writing-Intensive courses must be upper division and from the student’s major. Only those courses designated as Writing-Intensive in the catalog descriptions will count toward meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing; complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for the effectiveness of the written assignments.

A minimum of 45 hours must be in upper division courses.

A maximum of 21 hours of upper division work in any one academic area will be acceptable toward the degree. (ACC, BUS, ECN, FIN, and MKT are all considered to be in the same academic area.)

A minimum grade of “C” must be made in all upper division courses.

An overall grade of “C” must be maintained.

The student must satisfy the minimum residence requirement of at least 30 hours, 18 of which must be upper division.

Special Conditions

Students who elect this program must sign a statement that they understand the Bachelor of Liberal Studies degree may not be accepted for teacher certification, admission to professional schools, or admission to graduate school.

Major and Minor Subjects

By the beginning of the junior year undergraduate students are required to select one subject area, to be known as their major, in which they must present at least 30 semester hours of acceptable credit. In certain areas of study the number of hours required for a major exceeds 30. In any case, at least 15 hours must be upper division. Students must also have a 2.00 GPA in their major and are not permitted to count in the major any course with a grade below 2.00. A candidate for a secondary teaching certificate must have a 2.50 average or above in the teaching major.

With few exceptions, undergraduate students must also select a different subject area, to be known as the minor, in which they must present 18 hours of acceptable credit. Of these 18 hours, six must be from upper division courses. Students must have a 2.00 GPA in their minor and are not permitted to count in the minor any course with a grade below 2.00. (Effective Fall 2000)

Students who want certification to teach their minor subject area should earn 24 hours in that field. Students should consult the College of Education for details.

A student may elect to complete a second major in lieu of a minor. A student who chooses to complete two majors will earn only one baccalaureate degree. (If two baccalaureate degrees are sought, see "Double Degree" policies.)

No course may count toward hours required for the completion of both major and minor, or both majors if pursuing a second major in lieu of a minor.

Transfer students should consult the paragraph concerning minimum residence (see page 28).

Second Degree

A student who has earned a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university may be granted an additional baccalaureate degree from Grand Canyon University upon completion of the following:

1. Meeting the admission criteria for that degree.
2. Filing an Intent to Graduate form with the Office of the Registrar for the degree sought.
3. Meeting ULAF requirements for Biblical Understanding and Written Communication, all degree prerequisites and requirements, and all other University requirements for the second degree.
4. Selecting a major field not used as a major for the previous degree. (See specific major for number of hours required.)
5. Completing a minimum of 30 additional credit hours in the major area at Grand Canyon University (36 for those who have not met the six-hour requirement in Bible) after the conferral of the previous baccalaureate degree(s).

"NOTE: Second Degree students do not qualify for honors at graduation.

Double Degree

A student wishing to pursue two degrees simultaneously from Grand Canyon University must meet the following requirements:

1. Obtain permission from the Office of the Registrar and the dean(s) of the college(s) under which the degrees are offered.
2. File an Intent to Graduate form with the Office of the Registrar for each degree sought.
3. Meet the ULAF requirements, all degree prerequisites and requirements, and all other University requirements for each degree sought.
4. The two degrees must be different (e.g., B.A. and B.S. or B.S. and B.S.N.). A minor only needs to be completed in one of the two degrees.
5. Complete a minimum of 30 credit hours at Grand Canyon University beyond the requirements for the first degree (e.g., a minimum of 158 credit hours if the requirements for the first degree were completed after 128 hours).
6. Complete the requirements for both degrees before being granted either degree.

"NOTE: Double Degree students may only earn honors on their first degree.

UNIVERSITY SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Preface

While the University is organized into several colleges, there are some academic programs which fall outside the subject matter taught in any of the colleges and other programs which cross over the boundaries of two or more colleges. Some of these programs offer specific courses, others offer services or educational experiences to specific groups of students. Some programs are totally staffed and operated within the University. Others involve relationships with other colleges, universities, organizations, or countries. All are designed to better allow the University to accomplish its mission.
Academic Tutoring

In an effort to offer academic support to any student attending Grand Canyon University, the services of tutors in both writing and mathematics are available in the Academic Support Center (ASC) located in the Fleming Classroom Building. The tutors, both faculty members and students, are trained to provide help in brainstorming, organizing, developing, revising and editing drafts as well as giving assistance in solving mathematical problems. Students having difficulty in their classes should consult with their instructor in conjunction with visiting the ASC. The writing tutors can be valuable resources for those students completing compositions in all subjects, but especially for tasks assigned in Writing-Intensive courses across the disciplines.

Christian Perspectives

For centuries the Christian worldview aided believers in their attempts to understand the environment, their fellow humans, and the social world where they interacted. The increasing secularization of the modern mind has led many Christians to conclude that there is a fundamental conflict between academic pursuits and the Christian faith. Thus, many Christians, isolating themselves from the forces of "modernization," divide the world into two opposing camps: the world of the mind and the world of faith.

Grand Canyon University offers an alternative for the growing Christian. Grand Canyon University wants dedicated Christians to re-engage the intellectual community. It is our contention that faith and the academic disciplines are complementary forces that, when engaged in dialogue, create a deeper faith and a more complete understanding of the universe. If Christians are to be effective in the 21st century, we must find a way to reintegrate our thoughts and commitments into the broader cultural community.

The University offers three courses (UNV 304, UNV 305, UNV 306) as part of its efforts to accomplish this task (See page 36).

Honors Program

The Honors Program is designed for exceptional and academically motivated students. The Grand Canyon University Honors Program provides an integrated learning experience which offers students the challenge to fulfill their intellectual and personal potential in a unique interdisciplinary curriculum.

Team-taught classes creatively combine traditional academic disciplines and encourage students to appreciate how the pieces of their world fit together. The Honors core interdisciplinary courses help students establish vital connections among the various areas of study, while a Senior Project enables students to demonstrate scholarship within their selected major field of study.

Students will enjoy stimulating exchange and University spirit resulting from class discussions and co-curricular activities. They will explore historic and contemporary issues in ethics, the arts, literature, economics, philosophy, natural sciences, the environment, and other fields with fellow Honors students and professors in a shared experience that fosters group camaraderie and friendship. Students that are interested in the Honors Program may apply through the Director of the Honors Program. Scholars 100 students that apply for admittance into the program receive automatic acceptance.

More information concerning general criteria for selection is available through the Director of the Honors Program.

University Success Program

UNV 101, University Success, is a course designed to address four major areas of a student's development: life management skills, academic skills, campus and community awareness, and personal and spiritual growth. This graded, one-credit class is designed to provide opportunities to develop and strengthen skills necessary to enhance the college experience.

Topics include the values of higher education, programming the mind for success, building interpersonal relationships, making the grade, decoding the professors, finance and time management, degree and career planning, effective communication, confidence and leadership, health and fitness, stress management, keeping faith, and others.

More information concerning this program is available through the Office of Student Life.

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

Grand Canyon University is committed to education which helps citizens expand their worldview and deepen their understanding of the peoples of the world. Study-abroad programs operate under the idea that firsthand knowledge of other peoples and their cultures builds international awareness, creates concern for God's human creation, and contributes to a more just and peaceful world.

Since 1983, approximately 700 of Grand Canyon University's students, faculty, and staff have traveled to over 35 countries to teach, minister, or study. The Center for International Education was established in 1986 to enhance and increase study-abroad programs.

The Center for International Education offers a variety of experiential education programs which examine the problems of cross-cultural communications and the dynamics of demonstrating Christ's love to the world. Academic programs include participating in mission projects, teaching English in Third World countries, studying abroad at foreign universities, or gaining practical experience with international businesses. A unique feature of this program is that it provides participants with opportunities to meet leaders in other countries as well as communicate with the poor and needy of the world. It strives to help students understand the real people of other countries, to re-evaluate their own beliefs, and to affirm the beliefs that are important to them.

Students interested in any international learning must make arrangements through Grand Canyon University's Center for International Education well in advance of the anticipated date of study abroad.

American Language Program (ALP)

The American Language Program (ALP) offers pre-college English preparation courses for international students who have some English training but lack the necessary TOEFL score for entrance into academic programs at Grand Canyon University. The program is designed to assist international students in studying English and acquiring the skills necessary for entrance into a full academic program. The latest method of teaching English are used, including video instruction and computer programs.

Students receive a certificate but do not earn credit toward the degree for this program. Interested international students should contact Grand Canyon University's Center for International Education. The University may choose to waive the TOEFL requirement for students who successfully complete the ALP program.

Study Abroad and International Programs

Study abroad students typically enroll at Grand Canyon University - a "holding" course such as UNV 300 to retain their enrollment eligibility for financial aid. Upon successful completion of the semester the specific credit for the course replaces the holding course. Students are required to affirm with their major advisor how study abroad courses will apply to Grand Canyon University's requirements.

Grand Canyon University Study Abroad Programs

China — Grand Canyon University has relationships in China with the Guangxi Education Commission making all the institutions within the Guangxi Region available to students. In the far northwest, the Xinjiang Agriculture University receives ten students each summer. These students teach English as a Second Language for one month.

Germany — Grand Canyon University's German language study may accompany their instructor to the University of Heidelberg Sprachlabor to enhance their German language training.

Hong Kong — Through an agreement with Hong Kong Baptist University, students may study at that University for a semester. Grand Canyon University "owns" a room in a new dorm built on land left to HKBU when the British left the island. University offers a variety of courses taught in English, as well as Chinese language courses. Hong Kong offers an exciting location for study.

Hungary — Each semester students from Grand Canyon University teach English as a Second Language at Ezeterhazy Karylo Ten Training College. Several of the Hungarian students then come to campus to experience American culture and language.

Israel — Grand Canyon University is a member of a consortium of more than 100 schools that send students to study at the Jerusalem University College, an Evangelical Protestant Christian University.
institution established in 1957 and located in Jerusalem, Israel. The school offers long and short term programs, graduate and undergraduate programs, as well as short-term academic study tours. The institution is dedicated to the study of the geography, culture, history, languages, and etymology of biblical lands as they relate to biblical interpretation and a better understanding of the Middle East.

Lithuania — Teaching English as a Second language is the focus of this summer program in Vilnius, Lithuania.

Mexico — A relationship with the Universidad Kino in Phoenix's sister city of Hermosillo offers students the opportunity to study Spanish or business for a summer, semester, or year. Students may add a service component to this program by working in an orphanage school on the campus of Universidad Kino.

United Kingdom — Business students exchange with students at Staffordshire University in Stoke-on-Trent for a semester or a year.

COUNCIL FOR CHRISTIAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES PROGRAMS

The Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU) offers and coordinates several programs for which Grand Canyon University students who are juniors or seniors and have a GPA of at least 2.75 are eligible to apply. Students who have previously attended these programs have returned to campus to report that these have been life-changing experiences. These programs are all based on the idea of integrating one's personal faith with the experience of learning through life experience in internships or service opportunities. Preference is given to early applicants. Applications may be obtained from the Center for International Education. Final admission to any of the programs is the decision of the CCCU.

The CCCU sets the charges for the programs and bills Grand Canyon University. The student is responsible for the payment of these charges to Grand Canyon University. Most financial aid programs for which a student is otherwise eligible will also be applicable to these programs.

American Studies Program

Founded in 1976, the American Studies Program has served hundreds of students from Coalition member institutions as a "Washington, D.C. campus." ASP uses Washington as a stimulating educational laboratory where students gain hands-on experience with an internship in their chosen field and explore pressing national and international issues in public policy seminars which are issue-oriented, interdisciplinary, and led by ASP faculty and Washington professionals. Internships are tailored to fit the student's talents and aspirations and are available in a wide range of fields. ASP bridges classroom and marketplace, combining Biblical reflection, policy analysis and real world experience. Students are exposed to on-the-job learning that helps them build for their future and gain perspective on the calling of God for their world. They are challenged in a rigorous course of study to discover for themselves the meaning of Christ's Lordship in putting their beliefs into practice. The aim of the program is to help coalition schools prepare their students to live faithfully in contemporary society as followers of Christ. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

China Studies Program

The China Studies Program allows students to engage this large and intriguing country from the inside. While living and experiencing Chinese Civilization firsthand, students participate in seminar courses in the historic, culture, religious, geographical, and economic realities of this strategic populous nation. In addition to the study of standard Chinese, students will assist Chinese students learning English, allowing for one-on-one interaction. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Latin America Studies Program (LASP)

Students of Council member colleges have the opportunity to live and learn in Latin America through the Latin American Studies Program, based in San Jose, Costa Rica. The program seeks to introduce students to as wide a range of Latin American experiences as possible through the study of language, literature, culture, politics, history, economics, ecology, and religion of the region. Living with a Costa Rican family, students experience and become a part of the day-to-day lives of typical Latin Americans. Students also participate in a service opportunity and travel for three weeks to nearby Latin American nations. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Los Angeles Film Studies Center (LAFS)

The Los Angeles Film Studies Center is designed to train students of Council member institutions to serve in various aspects of the film industry, including both professional and Christian integrity. Students live, learn, and work in the Los Angeles area in major studios. The curriculum consists of two required seminars focusing on the role of film in cultures and the relationship of faith to work in this very important industry. In addition, students choose two elective courses from a variety of offerings in film studies. Internships in various segments of the film industry provide students with hands-on experience. The combination of the internships and the seminars allows students to explore the film industry within a Christian context and from a liberal arts perspective. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Oxford Honors Program (OHP)

Honors and other highly qualified students of Council member institutions have the exciting opportunity to study in England through an interdisciplinary semester at Oxford University. The rigorous academic program, aimed at increasing critical thinking skills and scholarship from an integrative Christian perspective, allows participants to choose from a wide variety of tutorial study programs in numerous disciplines, including the arts, religion, history, literature, and philosophy. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Oxford Summer School Program

The summer equivalent of the Oxford Honors Program allows students of Council member institutions to spend a summer term studying at the Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies (CMRS) of Keble College at Oxford University. The program includes a multidisciplinary study of the Renaissance and Reformation through examination of philosophy, art, literature, science, music, politics, and religion of early modern Europe. Students earn 6-9 semester credit hours, which are administered directly to member institutions by CMRS.

Middle East Studies Program (MESI)

The Middle East Studies Program, based in Cairo, Egypt, allows council students to explore and interact with the complex and strategic world of the modern Middle East. The interdisciplinary seminars give students the opportunity to explore the diverse religious, social, cultural, and literary traditions of Middle East people. In addition to seminars, students study the Arabic language and work as volunteers with various organizations in Cairo. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Russian Studies Program (RSP)

RSP students are exposed to the depth and diversity of Russian culture during a semester spent in Russia's three largest cities: Moscow, St. Petersburg, and Nizhni Novgorod. In addition to three seminar courses entitled: History and Sociology of Religion in Russia; Russian Peoples, Cultures and Literature; and Russia In Transition, students receive instruction in the Russian Language, choosing either four or six semester hours of language course work. For those opting for four hours, a semester course entitled International Russian Relations and Business in Russia is available. Students generally earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Summer Institute of Journalism (SIJ)

Council campuses are invited to choose two student journalists to apply for this four-week, all-expenses-paid experience in Washington, D.C. Fifteen students are selected to participate in the Institute, which lasts from mid-May to mid-June. The Institute blends classroom experience with hands-on work and is an excellent opportunity to learn through lectures and panels and with leading journalists who share a strong Christian commitment. Participants also take part in seminars taught by communications professors from Council member institutions, take part in the field trips, and complete workshop projects for local newspapers.
The course provides valuable insight and training in gathering and writing news, editing copy and designing layout. The institute seeks to develop students as Christian journalists – exhibiting both professionalism and legal/ethical integrity. Students generally earn 4 semester hours of credit.

RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING PROGRAMS (ROTC)

Through an agreement with Arizona State University in Tempe, Arizona, students at Grand Canyon University can take classes in ROTC. Students register for the classes at Grand Canyon University and attend the courses at Grand Canyon University or Arizona State University depending on the course(s).

The goal of ROTC classes is to provide a foundation of military knowledge and skills needed by junior officers in the military. Students may take ROTC credit in Military Science (Army) or Aerospace Studies (Air Force).

For further information contact Grand Canyon University at (602) 589-2550, Arizona State University Army ROTC at (480) 965-3318 or Air Force ROTC at (480) 965-3181.

AIR FORCE ROTC

General Qualifications

Men or women entering AFROTC must:

1. Be a citizen of the United States (non-citizens may enroll, but must obtain citizenship prior to commissioning).
2. Be of sound physical condition.
3. Be at least 17 years of age for scholarship appointment or admittance to the Professional Officer Course.

Additionally, scholarship recipients must be able to fulfill commissioning requirements by age 27. If designated for flying training, the student must be able to complete all commissioning requirements prior to age 26.5 years; other categories must be able to complete all commissioning requirements prior to age 30.

Four-Year Program (GMC and POC)

A formal application is not required for students entering the four-year program. A student may enter the program by simply registering for one of the General Military Course (GMC) classes at the same time and in the same manner as other courses. GMC students receive two semester hours of credit for each AES 100 and AES 200 class completed, for a total of eight semester hours. GMC students not on AFROTC scholarships incur no military obligation. Each candidate for commissioning must pass an Air Force aptitude test, a physical fitness test, and a physical examination, and be selected by a board of Air Force Officers. If selected, the student then enrolls in the Professional Officer Course (POC), the last two years of the AFROTC curriculum. Students attend a four-week field training course at an Air Force base, normally between the sophomore and junior year. Upon successful completion of the POC and the college requirements for a degree, the student is commissioned in the US Air Force as a Second Lieutenant. The new officer then enters active duty or may be granted an educational delay to pursue graduate work.

Two-Year Program (POC)

The basic requirement for entry into the two-year program is that the student have two academic years of college work remaining, either at the undergraduate or graduate level. Applicants seeking enrollment in the two-year program must pass an Air Force aptitude and medical examination, and be selected by a board of Air Force officers. After successfully completing a six-week field training course at an Air Force base, the applicant may enroll in the Professional Officer Course in the AFROTC program. Upon completion of the POC and the college requirements for a degree, the student is commissioned.

Qualifications for Admission

Qualifications for Admission to the Professional Officer Course (POC) are:

1. For the four-year student, successfully completing the General Military Course and the four-week field training course.
2. For the two-year application, completing the six-week field training course.
3. Passing the Air Force Officer Qualifying Exam (AFOQT).
4. Passing the Air Force physical examination.
5. Maintaining the minimum GPA required by the University.
6. Maintaining PFT/1.5 Standards.

Pay and Allowance

POC members in their junior and senior years receive $200 per month for a maximum of 20 months of Professional Officer Course attendance. Students are also paid for field training. In addition, uniforms, housing, and meals are provided during field training at no cost to the student. Students are reimbursed for travel to and from field training.

Scholarships

AFROTC offers scholarships annually to outstanding young men and women on a nationwide competitive basis. Scholarships cover for college tuition for resident and nonresident students as well as allowance for books, fees, supplies, and equipment, plus a monthly tax-free allowance of $200. Scholarships are available on a four-, three-, and two-year basis. To qualify for the four or three year scholarship, students must be US citizens and submit an application prior to December 1 of their senior year in high school. Interested students should consult their high school counselors or call AFROTC at Arizona State University for application forms. AFROTC at Arizona State University is eligible for a limited number of three or two-year scholarships. Those interested must apply through the Department of Aerospace Studies. Consideration is given to academic grades, score achieved on the Air Force Officer Qualifying Test, and physical fitness. A board of officers considers an applicant's personality, character, and leadership potential.

ARMY ROTC

Purpose

The Department of Military Science curriculum consists of the basic course (MIS 101, MIS 102, MIS 201, and MIS 202) and the advanced course (MIS 301, MIS 302, MIS 401, and MIS 402). The goal of the professional education curriculum is to prepare students with leadership potential to be commissioned US Army officers. Objectives include developing the following characteristics in the students: leadership, managerial skills; the ability to think creatively; the ability to speak and write effectively; appreciation of the requirements for national security; and an understanding of the nature and functions of the US Army. Upon successful completion of the advanced course and graduation, qualified students receive commissions in the Active US Army (on competitive basis), Army Reserve, or Army National Guard.

General Qualifications

Basic Course

Any student who is enrolled at Grand Canyon University can enter the military science basic classes. It is strongly recommended that the student be in good physical shape because some of the curriculum requires physical exertion.

Advanced Course

Any student who is enrolled at Grand Canyon University may enter the military science advanced course. However, to be competitive, students must meet the following requirements:
1. Be a citizen of the United States (non-citizens may enroll but must obtain citizenship prior to commissioning).
2. Be of sound physical condition and pass the US Army physical fitness test.
3. Meet the required professional military educational requirements.
4. Be at least 17 years of age for entrance into the advanced course and be able to complete all commissioning requirements prior to age 30.

Only those students in the basic and advanced courses who meet required military regulations are eligible to receive financial assistance through the US Army. Members of the Department of Military Science at Arizona State University are available during normal office hours to answer questions or provide counseling.

Four-Year Program

Students may enroll in Army ROTC during their freshman year. They take the basic course during the first two years, receiving a total of 13 semester hours of credit for the four semesters of study. Upon satisfiying the requirements stated previously, they enter the advanced course where they will earn 12 semester hours for the four semesters of study. Students are also required to attend a six-week advanced summer camp at Ft. Lewis, Washington, between their junior and senior years. To preclude excessive course overloads, students in certain majors, especially nursing, should plan an additional semester or two and/or summer school to complete degree requirements. ROTC students must meet all of the degree requirements of the college. Upon successful completion of the advanced course and requirements for a degree, students are commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the Regular US Army, Army Reserve, or Army National Guard.

Two-Year Program

Students must have at least two academic years of college work remaining, either at the undergraduate or graduate level. The student must also have reached academic junior status. This program is open to all students with the exception of three- and four-year Army ROTC scholarship winners. Students seeking enrollment in the two-year program should make application during the Spring semester of the year in which they desire to enter the program. Students must attend and successfully complete a paid five-week basic camp at Fort Knox, Kentucky (conducted during June and July) prior to enrolling in the advanced course. Students with previous military experience or who are currently members of the National Guard or Reserve may be admitted directly into the two-year program provided they are academic juniors. They then follow the same program and meet the same requirements as stated for advanced course students in the four-year program.

Qualifications for Admission to the Advanced Course

To be admitted to the advanced course, students must:

1. Successfully complete the basic course, if they are in the four-year ROTC program; if they are in the two-year program, they must be selected for and successfully complete the six-week basic summer camp, or have completed prior military service.
2. Achieve and maintain the minimum cumulative GPA required for graduation in the student’s selected major, but no less than 2.00.
3. Attain at least junior class standing.
4. Maintain full-time student status.

Pay and Allowance

Each advanced course student receives one-half the pay of a second lieutenant during attendance of the six-week advanced camp. Uniforms, housing, and meals are provided at the camp without cost to the student, and they are reimbursed at the current mileage rate for travel to and from camp. All students in the advanced course, regardless of scholarship status, are paid about $1,500.00 tax-free for each of their two years.

Scholarship Programs

The Army ROTC offers scholarship programs for outstanding young men and women who are motivated toward a career as professional officers in the US Army. These scholarships are awarded in varying amounts for tuition. In addition, the scholarship pays $150.00 subsistence allowance and $225.00 each semester for textbooks and supplies. A scholarship for four years is available to freshmen who will enter the four-year program. Applications must be submitted in accordance with a schedule furnished by the high school counselors. Selection is made on a nationwide basis.

Scholarships for continuing students are available for three- and two-year periods commencing with the sophomore and junior years of ROTC, respectively. Applications are open to all students in good standing with the University. Previous ROTC or military experience is not required for application for two- and three-year scholarships. Selection is made by a review board at the national level. Acceptance of any of the three scholarship programs requires a service commitment to serve in the Active Army for a period of up to four years after commissioning and graduation.

Active Duty Requirements

Graduates of Army ROTC may serve as officers in the Active Army, Army National Guard, or Army Reserve. Active duty commitments may vary from four years to as little as three months. Scholarship students have up to a four-year active duty commitment.

In no case will academic credit be granted for work done in the past.

Total University Liberal Arts Foundation Requirement for the College of Business 51-52 hours

As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successfully four (three for those students who substitute ENG 103 for ENG 101 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive. The purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is twofold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines; and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English in structuring, drafting, and revising compositions effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both). At least one of the Writing-Intensive courses must be upper division and from the student's major. Only those courses designated as WI in the catalog descriptions will count toward meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing, complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for the effectiveness of the written assignments.

 Calculus is recommended for those students who intend to pursue a program of graduate study.

The J. Niles Puckett College of Christian Studies

MISSION STATEMENT
The J. Niles Puckett College of Christian Studies prepares students called to ministry and students called to service in the church, instructs students who want to understand more deeply the theological and philosophical implications of the Christian faith, and supports the University's liberal arts foundation by equipping all students with a working knowledge of the Bible and the Christian worldview.

COLLEGE DESCRIPTION
The J. Niles Puckett College of Christian Studies exists to guide students in challenging learning experiences, to provide them with a strong Biblical foundation for ministry, and to equip them for service in the Christian community. The courses are designed to equip students with an understanding of the Bible and its historical and theological significance for the Christian faith, to prepare them for ministry and to provide them with spiritual guidance.

A vital part of the student's development in ministry is the exploration of a personal call to ministry. Each Christian Studies student should be able to identify and verbalize his/her experience of being called to ministry.

The faculty is committed to helping students formulate their call by exploring various directions that a call may take. Opportunities to dialogue with church, denominational, and Christian ministry leaders help guide students in the process of ministry development.

Christian Studies students may choose from three degree programs. Each degree program seeks to provide a solid foundation for working with people in all fields of Christian endeavor as well as prepare students for seminary. Students should examine and choose the degree program which best fits their goals in ministry.

The Bachelor of Arts in Biblical/Theological Studies degree program is designed to equip students primarily in knowledge of the Bible and theology, either in preparation for seminary or for a ministry emphasizing preaching and teaching of the Bible and its theological truth.

The Bachelor of Arts in Christian Education degree program is designed to equip students primarily in knowledge and skill related to Christian education, either in preparation for seminary or for a ministry of designing and carrying out the Christian education program in, but not limited to, the context of the local church.

The Bachelor of Arts in Creative Arts in Worship degree program is designed to equip students primarily in knowledge and skill related to Christian worship, either in preparation for seminary or for a ministry of designing and leading Christian worship in, but not limited to, the context of the local church.

The Christian Leadership minor is designed to support the student's major by focusing on transferable management and leadership skills, styles, and models understood within a Christian context. An important facet of this minor is its internship component.

The Philosophy minor is designed to equip students with the tools needed for developing Christian solutions to philosophical and ethical problems. More broadly, the program aims to provide a sound grasp of philosophy in general and to sharpen the analytical skills needed for meaningful participation in philosophy.

The Christian Studies Minor is designed to provide students with a basic yet fundamentally sound foundation for understanding the essential beliefs and practices of Christianity.

As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successfully four (three for those students who substitute ENG 103 for ENG 101 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive. The purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is two-fold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines; and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English in structuring, drafting, and revising compositions effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both). At least one of the Writing-Intensive courses must be upper division and from the student's major. Only those courses designated as Writing-Intensive in the catalog descriptions will count toward meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing, complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for the effectiveness of the written assignments.

The College of Continuing Studies

MISSION STATEMENT
The College of Continuing Studies seeks to deliver multi-discipline, degree completion programs for working adults who are seeking to improve their professional skills, increase their knowledge base, and expand their understanding of the pragmatic application of theory and practical information in their respective professions.

COLLEGE DESCRIPTION
The College of Continuing Studies offers adult-oriented, professional development programs designed for individuals who are seeking to complete the requirements for a Bachelor of Science or Arts degree in an economically viable program that is designed to accommodate their busy personal and professional schedules.

COLLEGE FEATURES
The Bachelor of Science degrees in Applied Management, Organizational Sociology, and Public Safety Administration are all degree completion programs and are offered only through the College of Continuing Studies. The college also offers an R.N. to B.S.N. degree track in collaboration with the Samaritan College of Nursing, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Christian Leadership. These programs are innovative, convenient, and cost-effective, allowing students to complete a regionally accredited B.S. or B.A. degree in about 14 months. All courses are delivered in a seminar, open discussion format. The classes are facilitated by advanced degree professionals who are specialists in the areas in which they teach. The concepts learned in the classroom can be immediately applied to one’s work and personal life. Assignments include outside readings and essays on selected topics. Students in this program also design, implement, and evaluate an applied research project related to their occupations or communities. The project facilitates problem-solving, research design and methodology, and writing skills.

The programs consist of 36 semester hours of coursework, which are completed in 57 weekly, four-hour class sessions. These credits, combined with the number of credits transferred into the program from regionally accredited institutions and the number of credits earned through the portfolio evaluation process (prior learning), complete the 128 hour minimum requirement for a baccalaureate degree from Grand Canyon University.

ADMISSION INFORMATION
Applicants for the degree completion program must be at least 25 years of age; if less than 25, they may only be admitted with permission of the dean or program director. Applicants should also possess professional training and life experiences for which equivalent college credit can be awarded. Students entering the R.N.-B.S.N. program must be licensed as an R.N., in the State of Arizona, have a minimum GPA of 2.8, 2 professional letters of reference and a negative urine drug screen.

Interested students should complete the following steps:
1. Request an application packet from the College of Continuing Studies. Note: A separate application is used for the College of Continuing Studies program. Please do not complete a standard Grand Canyon University Application for Admission.
2. Call the College of Continuing Studies (602-589-2531) and set up an appointment with a representative to review your transcripts and determine your preliminary eligibility for the program. You will need unofficial copies of your transcripts for the appointment.
3. Submit a completed and signed College of Continuing Studies Application for Admission along with a $50 non-refundable processing fee to:
   Grand Canyon University
   College of Continuing Studies
   3300 W. Camelback Road
   PO Box 11097
   Phoenix, AZ 85061-1097
4. Submit a completed Health History Form, accompanied by verification of current Measles, Mumps, and Rubella (MMR) immunizations to the College of Continuing Studies at the above address. If born on or after January 1, 1957, students must present documented evidence of immunization against or immunity to measles and rubella before they will be allowed to attend classes. University policy requires either a doctor's statement, a blood titre showing immunity, or a copy of a health department card as proof of immunizations. Measles information must include two measles or MMR immunizations — one at 15 months of age and one after 1980.

5. Request official transcripts from all previous colleges or universities attended to be sent to the College of Continuing Studies. Applicants are not permitted to disregard their records of enrollment at other institutions. The transcripts must be mailed directly from the issuing institution to the College of Continuing Studies. Applicants may use the Request for Official Transcript forms enclosed in the application packet.

Students who have completed work at institutions outside of the United States must have their transcripts evaluated by an approved credentials evaluation service. An additional fee, payable to the credentials evaluation service, is required. Brochures describing in detail the approved evaluation services and the fees incurred are available from College of Continuing Studies personnel.

6. Submit a completed Payment Option Form to the College of Continuing Studies.

Once the above information is received, applicants will be notified of their status. Accepted applicants will need to select an available class night and must make arrangements to attend the College of Continuing Studies Orientation Program (normally held one week prior to the start of courses).

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

The College of Continuing Studies faculty and staff are available to advise students and develop a comprehensive degree plan designed to facilitate completion of academic requirements for the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Science in Nursing degrees in the most effective manner. However, responsibility for selecting courses and maintaining normal progress toward graduation ultimately rests with the student.

As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successfully four (three for those students who substitute ENG 103 for ENG 101 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive. The purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is two-fold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines; and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English structuring, drafting, and revising compositions effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and ENG 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both), or their equivalents. At least one of the Writing-Intensive courses must appear in upper division and from the student's major. Only those courses designated as Writing-Intensive in the catalog descriptions will count towards meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing, complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for the effectiveness of the written assignments.

Coursework is offered leading to teacher certification in the following areas:

1. Elementary Education (A minor in a content area commonly taught in grades K-8 in the Arizona public schools is required);

2. Special Education-Learning Disabilities and Emotionally Handicapped, offered in conjunction with a double major in Elementary Education;

3. Teaching English as a Second Language Provisional Endorsement (An Arizona elementary, secondary, or special education teaching certificate, three hours of ESL 420/520c, and three hours of ESL 423/523 is required.) This is valid for three years and is non-renewable;

4. Bilingual Provisional Endorsement (An Arizona elementary, secondary, or special education teaching certificate and passage of the bilingual proficiency exam);

All Elementary Education and Special Education majors as well as those seeking Secondary Certification must meet the requirements for the Grand Canyon University state-approved certification program prior to graduation.

PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATE, ELEMENTARY, SPECIAL EDUCATION, OR SECONDARY

Students working toward a bachelor's degree may normally qualify for a provisional certificate for teaching in the elementary or secondary schools of Arizona if they have credit for the courses required in professional preparation, including a study of psychology, curriculum, methods of teaching, and student teaching, may be included in the work leading toward the bachelor's degree.

One who has already earned a bachelor's degree may normally qualify for a provisional teaching certificate by completing at least 40 hours in upper division courses during a special Fifth Year program designed by the Dean of the College of Education in consultation with the student. These assessments will be based on the Arizona Teacher Standards Seven and Eight. Upon receipt of the provisional certificate, which is valid for two years and not renewable, the teacher must pass the performance portion of the Arizona Educator Proficiency Assessment in order to receive a Standard Teaching Certificate. The assessment is based on the Arizona Teacher Standards One, Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six. A Special Education Certified Teacher must also pass the Arizona Teacher Standard Nine. GRADUATE STUDIES

The graduate program is based upon a framework that provides for the professional growth of the teacher practitioner. This framework includes a cyclical process of inquiry, reflection, application, evaluation and additional reflection. These five elements are incorporated into activities and assignments in each course of the program through a combination of collaborative and individual work.

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) degree program was designed for holders of a bachelor's degree seeking a graduate degree for the purpose of initial teacher certification or for the purpose of an initial concentration in the College of Education. Those students seeking initial certification will be expected to meet the criteria of teacher certification in elementary, secondary, or special education as well as the goals of the graduate program. It is the student's responsibility to determine the status of this master's degree within the context of individual school districts. This program parallels the other two graduate programs in their framework for professional growth with the exception that students may not have their own classrooms in which to make direct application of principles, concepts, strategies, and philosophies.

Coursework is presently offered in the following areas:
• Elementary Education
• Secondary Education
• Special Education

The Professional Preparation requirements, with the exception of Student Teaching, may be taken at night.

The Master of Arts (M.A.) in Education degree was designed for the advanced preparation of practicing elementary, secondary, and special education certified teachers offering study in a specialized area of education. Coursework is presently offered in the following areas:
• Elementary Education
• Reading Education
• Secondary Education
• Teaching English as a Second Language/Bilingual Education

For those students who hold a bachelor's degree and do not hold a teaching certificate, there is a non-certification concentration in Teaching English as a Second Language.

The Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) program is offered on campus and in a distance-learning format and has been designed to promote a high quality graduate education experience in the convenience of a community or school without residency requirements. This program seeks to meet the needs of the practitioner in the field; the primary focus is upon improving the quality of instruction for the certified teacher.

Additional course requirements may be imposed at the discretion of the graduate committee if the program extends beyond this time limit. Upon acceptance into the graduate program, the student will receive an Official Program of Study. † Students in the College of Liberal Arts with a Secondary Education major complete only the University Liberal Arts Foundation requirements for the College of Education (see pages 61).

* Students who qualify for ∆ENG 103, Honors Composition, may satisfy the requirements of the English section of Core Area II by successfully completing this course. This may reduce the total ULAF requirements to 34 hours for those students.

∆ Writing-Intensive course.

As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successfully four (three for those students who substitute ENG 103 for ENG 101 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive. The purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is two-fold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English in structuring, drafting, and revising composition effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both). At least one of the Writing-Intensive course must be upper division and from the student's major. Only those courses designated as Writing-Intensive in the catalog descriptions will count toward meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing, complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for the effectiveness of the written assignments.

Department of Humanities

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION

The Department of Humanities is comprised of the traditional disciplines of the liberal arts which increase our understanding of human actions in the past and present. These disciplines focus on the analysis of written texts and oral communications as unique products of the diverse human community. The department is committed to the concept that "all truth is God's truth" and seeks to integrate historic Christian truths into the various disciplines.

The Department of Humanities serves two principal functions — the provision of a liberal arts education and specialized training for future careers including graduate studies.

English offers majors in English Literature and English Teaching and minors in English and Writing/Journalism. English majors are given the opportunity to gain the knowledge and professional competence to effectively communicate in written and oral discourse. They also gain a wider knowledge in American literature, English literature, linguistics, grammar, and the history of English.

Study of a foreign language increases the student's awareness and appreciation of other people and cultures as well as provides a means of communication. The study encourages students to pursue new areas of interest and provides the means to enhance many career fields.

History presents students with chronological and theoretical frameworks that enable them to properly contextualize the human cultural, social, political, and economic experience. The department seeks to equip its majors and minors with the basic skills for historical research and reflection.

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION

The breadth and applicability of the mathematical sciences fit well with the purposes of a Christian liberal arts university: the mathematical sciences seek to liberate, empower, and prepare people for servant-leadership. They can help liberate people from mental imprecision and from being intimidated or fooled by technical arguments. They can provide students with tools for solving problems; enlighten them with sudden but hard-won insights into structure; engage them in playful yet disciplined creativity; and encourage them to wonder at the beauty of abstract ideas and the mystery of their applicability in other fields. Mathematics demands courage and calm action in the face of complexity, and honesty and humility in encounters with error, contradiction, and the limits of knowledge. As "queen and servant," mathematics gives leadership and service to other human endeavors, roles which fit well with the Christian purposes of Grand Canyon University. Thus the Department of Mathematics seeks to uphold the view that the vigorous communication, creation, and application of mathematical ideas can be a noble Christian calling.

Since every degree at Grand Canyon University has a mathematics requirement, the mission of the Mathematics Department faculty is to focus on the needs of students from all disciplines who have diverse interests and backgrounds. The faculty strive to prepare the students, whether they are majoring in Mathematics or some other area, by offering them a mathematical framework that may serve as a foundation for graduate studies or careers in teaching, industry, or business.

Mathematics is a broad, applicable, and playful subject. In recent times, especially since the advent of the digital computer, mathematics has expanded into a collection of mathematical sciences which include pure and applied mathematics, computation, computer science, statistics, operations research, and other areas. Themes of structure, randomness and chaos, techniques of computation, analysis and visualization, and modes of thought involving proof, counter-example, intuition, and creation of unifying concepts are hallmarks of mathematics. Mathematical ideas have found application not only in the physical sciences but increasingly in the life, social, and management sciences, and even in the arts and humanities. The pace of discovery and invention in mathematics remains high. Mathematics is indeed the "queen and servant of the sciences."

The Department of Mathematics offers majors in Mathematics, Mathematics for Secondary Teaching, and Mathematics for Engineers.

Students who have completed advanced or accelerated courses in mathematics in high school may apply for advanced placement with regard to certain mathematics courses. An individualized program may be tailored for students who plan to continue their study elsewhere in an engineering program, but who also desire a strong foundation in mathematics and the advantages of a Christian liberal arts setting.

Students have the opportunity to enhance their contact with faculty, other math students, and the national mathematical communities through the Grand Canyon University student chapter of the Mathematical Association of America.

The facilities for mathematics include a Computer Center and the Dynamical Systems Lab where students use computers to study fractals, chaos, and iterations.

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION
The Music Department offers various areas of study for the student desiring to pursue music as a profession. It provides classes, ensembles, and private music instruction for students majoring in other fields, and contributes to the cultural environment of the University community. Students may choose programs leading to the Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Arts, and Bachelor of Science degrees.

The department is dedicated to developing the musicianship of each student through excellence in the classroom and all performing areas. Students from the entire University join with music majors and minors in performing in a variety of ensembles, opera, and musical productions each year.

Recitals and concerts by students, ensembles, and faculty provide the University community and the Phoenix area with opportunities to hear some of the finest music being performed today.

Scholarships are available by audition.

University Liberal Arts Foundation for the Secondary Education Program (see page 61).

Additional Emphasis hours required.

Admission to Teacher Education programs (see pages 59-60).

Secondary Education major required (see page 59).

In order to graduate with K-12 Endorsement, 16 hours of student teaching (EED 480 - grades K 6, and SED 480 - grades 7 -12) must be completed.

Courses are listed alphabetically by prefix, not in the order they should be taken. See Academic Advisor for sequence.

The Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education is offered with an emphasis in Choral Conducting or Instrumental Conducting. Students pursuing a music education major must meet the requirements for Music Core, Music Education Core and Emphasis.

All Music majors must complete seven semesters of ensemble participation according to emphasis (one ensemble per semester). Additional hours beyond the seven may be taken for credit or audit.

The Department of Music includes a minimal level of piano performance as a requirement for all music majors. Four semesters of piano are required to strengthen keyboard skills and assist the student in passing the piano proficiency examination. If the proficiency is completed early, the student must still meet the four semester requirement. Students must pass the piano proficiency examination before student teaching and before the senior recital.

PIANO PERFORMANCE
Students pursuing a music degree with piano as the major instrument must audition for the piano faculty at the completion of the first semester of study. At this time, students must demonstrate an acceptable level of technical proficiency and musical ability as determined by the piano faculty. Students must perform standard advanced piano literature (Beethoven Sonatas, Bach Preludes and Fughes, Schubert Impromptus, etc.). Students unable to perform at the acceptable level will be admitted in the program on a two semester probationary status. At the end of the second semester of probation, the student must readmission demonstrating the required technical and musical abilities necessary for admission to piano major status. Department of Social Sciences

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION
The Department of Social Sciences is a diverse department serving two principal functions: the provision of a liberal arts education and a solid foundation in the majors offered by the department.

The International Studies major is designed for students who may enter such varied fields as diplomacy, government service, international communications, world-wide religious service, and other fields where international understanding and expertise is required.

Justice Studies is an interdisciplinary field which embraces those aspects of the social sciences and the humanities that are relevant to an understanding of law, justice, social control, and political change. Courses aid students in developing their own values and seeing how they apply to the field of justice studies.

Political Science is the study of politics and government through an integrated approach that recognizes global and normative perspectives. Leaders of the new millennium should learn what is, and ponder what should be, the relationship between the individual citizen and the collective body political.

The Pre-law minor helps students develop skills necessary for success in law school. Basic objectives include the development of comprehensive, articulate communication; a critical understanding of human institutions; and analytical skills.

Psychology offers a broad array of courses which increase our understanding of human actions in the past and present. Individualized instruction is encouraged through practica and internships, research and writing experience, and small group interactions.

Sociology seeks to encourage students to think deeply and seriously, using both the Christian and scientific perspectives, about the consequences of social structures upon human social behavior in its many diverse contexts.

The Social Sciences major and minor provide the student with an interdisciplinary approach in understanding the fields of economics, geography, history, political science, psychology, and sociology. The Social Sciences minor is especially useful for Elementary Education majors.

These admission agreements provide outstanding Grand Canyon University students the opportunity for special consideration when they apply to these institutions.

Grand Canyon University students have been accepted at universities and professional programs throughout the United States. Of particular interest is Grand Canyon University's arrangement with KCOM's Arizona School of Health Sciences. The Arizona School of Health Sciences, reserves admission slots in its physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, and sports health care programs for Grand Canyon University students who qualify for "Preferred Admission Status." To obtain information about these opportunities, contact a health profession advisor in the College of Science at Grand Canyon University.

Other articulation and reserved admissions agreements provide outstanding students enhanced admission opportunities into nationally recognized pharmacy programs such as Butler University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, Midwestern University, Glendale College of Pharmacy, and Western University of Health Sciences College of Pharmacy.

ARIZONA SCHOOL OF HEALTH SCIENCES
(A DIVISION OF KIRKVILLE COLLEGE OF OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE)
The Kirkville College of Osteopathic Medicine, the founding school of the osteopathic profession, and Grand Canyon University signed agreements in 1994 establishing the Arizona School of Health Sciences. The Kirkville College of Osteopathic Medicine satellite facility now known as The Arizona School of Health Sciences opened in September 1995 on the Grand Canyon University campus. The Arizona School of Health Sciences coordinates regional clinical rotations for third and fourth year students of osteopathic medicine in Arizona osteopathic and joint-staffed hospitals. In addition, The Arizona School of Health Sciences prepares students for careers in physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, and sports health care. The occupational therapy and physician assistant programs are Arizona's first and the physical therapy program is Arizona's second. The physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, and sports health care programs currently have entering class sizes of approximately 50, 30, 40, and 20 students, respectively.

Total University Liberal Arts Foundation Requirements 39* hours

* Students who place into ENG 103 Honors Composition may satisfy the requirements of the English section of Core Area II by successfully completing this course. This may reduce the total ULAF requirements to 33 hours for those students.

Δ As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successfully four (three for those students who substitute ENG 103 for ENG 101 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive. The purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is two-fold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines; and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English in structuring, drafting, and revising composition effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both). At least one of the Writing-Intensive courses must be upper division and from the student’s major. Only those courses designated as Writing-Intensive in the catalog descriptions will count towards meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing, complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for the effectiveness of the written assignments.
Writing-Intensive courses are identified by a “Δ” throughout the catalog.

‡ Students in the College of Science with a Secondary Education major complete only the University Liberal Arts Foundation requirements for the College of Education (see page 61).
The faculty and staff of the College of Science assist all students in reaching their potential and in preparing for further professional study if desired. However, it is the student’s ultimate responsibility to gain admittance to further educational programs and institutions.

REQUIREMENTS — PREMEDICAL

PREPARATIONS FOR SCHOOLS OF MEDICINE, PODIATRY, OPTOMETRY, VETERINARY SCIENCE, AND DENTISTRY

Students who plan to apply to medical, podiatry, optometry, veterinary, or dental schools should obtain a premedical advisor immediately upon entering the University or deciding on a career in medicine. Premedical advisors can help students design a curriculum appropriate for application to medical schools.

Medically-oriented students may major in any discipline; however, degrees in biology or chemistry satisfy the requirements for admission to most medical schools. If students major in biology or chemistry, they may minor in humanities or some other non-science area.

For favorable consideration by medical, podiatry, optometry, veterinary, or dental schools, students should take 15 or more hours of science per semester (with the possible exception of the freshman year) and maintain A and B grades. Medical programs are rigorous. Students must demonstrate that they can successfully and comfortably manage a full schedule, allowing time for study, rest, and recreation.

Students who plan to be physicians should work to get as much clinical patient care experience as possible, either through volunteer or paid work in a hospital or clinic.

Medical, podiatry, optometry, veterinary, and dental schools generally require the following courses:

Professional schools require diverse prerequisites; therefore, students are encouraged to determine requirements for particular schools early in their undergraduate careers. A broad liberal arts background including

Requirements — Pre-Elementary and Pre-Secondary Teaching

Preparation for Teaching

Students who plan to major in chemistry for secondary teachers, physics for secondary teachers, biology for secondary teachers, or science for elementary teachers should obtain a College of Education advisor and a Department of Physical Sciences or Department of Biology advisor. The advisors can assist students in selecting courses to satisfy Grand Canyon University graduation requirements, the College of Education requirements, and the State Department of Education requirements for teaching certification.

Criteria for Grand Canyon University Students Preferred Admission Status to Arizona School of Health Sciences

Arizona School of Health Sciences reserves one third of its entering class positions in each of its graduate programs for Grand Canyon University graduates who meet the rigorous criteria set for preferred admission status.

The Arizona School of Health Sciences (ASHS), offers graduate degree programs in Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Physician Assistant studies, and Sports Health Care. Grand Canyon University and ASHS established an articulation agreement facilitating the admission of highly qualified Grand Canyon University students into the graduate programs. To qualify for preferred admission status into these graduate programs, a Grand Canyon University student must meet all of the criteria below:

1. Complete the ASHS graduate program application and return it to the Admission Processing Center by January 15. To be considered for preferred admission status, Grand Canyon University students must complete all sections of the application and send all required documents to the Admission Processing Center by January 15.

2. Satisfy all ASHS admission requirements. Each ASHS program Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Physician Assistant studies, and Sports Health Care has individual admission requirements. Grand Canyon University students who are applying under the preferred admission status must satisfy all requirements including academic, standardized testing, experience, recommendations, resumes, self-evaluation, and the personal interview in order to be admitted. Completion of the criteria stated below, alone, does not guarantee admission to an ASHS program.

3. Complete all ASHS prerequisite courses by the end of the Spring semester prior to enrollment. Prerequisite courses are listed for each individual health science program in brochures and applications provided by ASHS. Students must complete each of these courses with a minimum of “C” by the end of Spring semester.

4. Achieve a minimum Graduate Record Examination (GRE) combined score on verbal, quantitative, and analytical parts of 1550. Students should take the GRE early in order to have scores reported to ASHS prior to the application deadline. Processing of GRE scores normally takes three weeks for the computer test and six weeks for the paper and pen version.

5. Complete a baccalaureate degree at Grand Canyon University. Students must complete their degree prior to the beginning of classes at ASHS. Preferred admission status is available to students completing their degree during the summer session at Grand Canyon University. Academic requirements for non-baccalaureate applications are listed in ASHS admission information.

6. Achieve a minimum 3.25, on a 4.0 scale, cumulative GPA and a 3.25, on a 4.0 scale, science GPA in all college or university course work. Overall science GPA must include all previously taken college work. Students should refer to the ASHS application for instructions on selecting GPAs and courses to include in the science GPA calculations.

- Grand Canyon University students who do not meet all of the above criteria for preferred admission status are still eligible to be considered for admission to ASHS if they meet the general admission criteria specified in the ASHS application. All qualified students are encouraged to apply for admission.
DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION

Courses in the Department of Biology are intended to help students understand and appreciate the structure, function, diversity, and interactions of living organisms. Degrees within the Department of Biology are designed to structure students’ curricula to prepare them for careers or graduate studies in medicine, health sciences, education, research, environmental biology, and wildlife biology.

The faculty of the Department of Biology are broadly trained scientists who are committed to training modern, competent, and responsible professionals. Many of the faculty pursue research that involves undergraduates. The professors recognize that involvement in research complements and strengthens their teaching, and also offers students a valuable view of the scientific process that leads to new discoveries and greater understanding of the natural world. Biology students can receive college credit towards their degree for participation in research or for practical experience they gain from internships.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS — ALLIED HEALTH
(B.S. DEGREE; No Minor Required)

The Bachelor of Science degree in allied health is restricted to outstanding students who gain early admission to master’s degree programs in physical therapy, occupational therapy, or sports health care at the Arizona School of Health Sciences (ASHS). The degree is not available to students already holding a bachelor’s degree.

Department of Health, Exercise Science, & Physical Education

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION

The major and minor degrees described offer a blend of classroom instruction and clinical experience designed for the optimum preparation of students for careers in this field. These courses of study will prepare students for eligibility to meet the requirements of the National Athletic Trainers Association Board of Certification, national certifications in the commercial health and fitness industry, State Board of Education Health Education Endorsement, career employment and advancement in the firefighting service industry, State Board of Education Certification or Endorsement in physical education, health education, or athletic coaching.

An Athletic Trainer is a qualified allied health care professional educated and experienced in the management of health care problems associated with sports participation. The Athletic Training major prepares the student to become a certified athletic trainer who is qualified to work in a variety of settings including high schools, colleges and universities, professional sports, clinics and other areas as an integral part of the health care team. The student will receive education in prevention, care, immediate treatment, rehabilitation and management of athletic related injuries and illnesses. The education includes clinical rotations on and off campus which require at least 800 hours of clinical experience that must be completed before taking the NATABOC certification exam. Students are also required to take a physical exam to ensure ability to complete tasks associated with the position. The selection of student athletic trainers is competitive. A completed admission application should be submitted by March 1, after completing at least 75 observation hours in the GCU athletic training room and level 1 student athletic trainer requirements. Students will be accepted to the program by June 1.

The Corporate Fitness and Wellness major can lead, along with practical experience, to eligibility in any of the following areas: Exercise Leader, Health/Fitness Instructor, or Health/Fitness Director with the American College of Sports Medicine, Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist or Personal Trainer with the National Strength and Conditioning Association, or any of the national aerobics instructor certifications.

The Physical Education major and minor will prepare students for State Board of Education Certification or Endorsement, along with meeting College of Education requirements, at either the elementary or secondary level.

The Recreation major and minor will prepare the student as a recreation professional who can supervise and implement recreation programs and manage recreation facilities.

The Athletic Coaching minor emphasizes skills to assist the future teacher or other professional who wishes to coach interscholastic, intercollegiate, or other sports teams in all aspects of preparation for competition. Successful completion of coursework will meet level three guidelines from NASPE or State Board of Education requirements for coaching certification.

The Exercise Science minor will especially enable the Human Biology or Allied Health major to obtain a degree from Grand Canyon University by providing a concentrated field of study of valuable knowledge and skills to enhance admittance possibilities in allied health professional schools.

The Health Education minor is designed to prepare students to enter the commercial health industry as an educator, or with College of Education coursework, to receive State Board of Education Endorsement.

Department of Physical Sciences

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION

The Department of Physical Sciences provides curricula for students wishing to major in biochemistry, chemistry, physical science, physics for secondary teachers, chemistry for secondary teachers, and science for elementary teachers. These majors are designed to prepare students for graduate school, medical, veterinary, or dental school, engineering, technician careers in industry, government or business, or employment in high school or elementary school science teaching. Minors are offered in chemistry, biophysical science, physics, and science teaching. Students with advanced placement credit from high school physics or chemistry courses are encouraged to apply for departmental credit in General Physics or General Chemistry. See page 12 for specific information.

The diverse backgrounds of the faculty, with expertise in biochemistry, material science, meteorology, solid state chemistry, analytical chemistry, catalysis and organometallics, chemistry education, and computers in education, ensure each student a broad exposure to the physical sciences. Each faculty member is committed to serving students, whether in providing service courses in physics and chemistry, advising students in their choice of major, or helping well-qualified students find summer internships. The Department of Physical Sciences emphasizes teaching excellence, analytical thinking, practical laboratory experiences, spiritual growth, and social awareness, all within a Christian liberal arts setting.

The Samaritan College of Nursing

MISSION STATEMENT

The Samaritan College of Nursing seeks to provide an academically challenging professional nursing education based on a liberal arts foundation to students of diverse backgrounds within an environment of Christian values and with a commitment to the enhancement of health and wellness in society.

COLLEGE DESCRIPTION

The Samaritan College of Nursing is an exciting opportunity at Grand Canyon University, working closely with the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Science, and the College of Continuing Studies. The Samaritan College of Nursing offers both a pre-licensure track and a degree completion track for nurses already licensed as registered nurses. The pre-licensure curriculum leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and is designed to help students assess the individual, the family, and communities, utilize functional health patterns within a variety of clinical settings, formulate nursing diagnoses; plan nursing interventions; and function as professionals within the health care team. Emphasis is placed on both a strong academic foundation and nursing practice. In addition to the traditional baccalaureate nursing program, the Samaritan College of Nursing offers a track for Registered Nurses wanting to complete their bachelor's degree. The RN-BSN degree completion is offered over a 57-week time frame in which the student attends class 1 night/week. The RN-BSN track is offered in conjunction with the College of Continuing Studies.

Pre-licensure baccalaureate students have supervised clinical experience in health care agencies within the metropolitan Phoenix area, and are responsible for personal transportation and uniform expenses necessary for the nursing major. Students are also expected to reflect the stated purpose of Grand Canyon University while participating in the nursing program in various practice areas.

The baccalaureate program is approved by the Arizona State Board of Nursing and has been accredited through the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission, 61 Broadway, New York, New York 10006. 1-800-669-1656 ext. 153, effective through June 30, 2001. Accreditation is being sought through the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, One Dupont Circle NW Suite 530, Washington DC 20036-1120, 202-887-6791. The College is a member of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, and is a charter member of the Western Institute of Nursing.

SAMARITAN COLLEGE OF NURSING FEATURES

- All faculty members hold a master's or doctoral degree. Faculty-to-student ratios are limited to 1:8 or 1:10 in the clinical setting.

- Students begin their supervised clinical experiences during the first semester of the nursing curriculum. During the last two years of study, students spend approximately 18 hours per week in an assigned clinical practice area learning to apply theory in direct patient care situations.

- Students complete a practicum in nursing as their last course in the curriculum. This course is designed to assist students in role transition and in gaining confidence in a specialty area. Students may select from areas such as emergency department, intensive care, labor and delivery, community health, school nursing, or adult care.

- Recognition of the spiritual needs of all persons is an integral part of caring for one's self and others. The spiritual dimension is integrated into each nursing course throughout the curriculum. A required ethics course provides an opportunity to develop an ethical approach within Christian framework to one's future professional role.

- Development of a résumé and interview skills are part of the senior studies. Historically, most seniors have found employment prior to graduation. In today's rapidly changing health care environment, the student will value the opportunity to explore the trends in an individual capstone project.

- Scholarships are available based on a student's previous academic work and need. Financial aid processing and advising are available through the University's Office of Financial Aid. Pre-nursing scholarships are available to high school seniors, and transfer and returning students. An ROTC Partner in Nursing Education (PNE) scholarship program has included the Samaritan College of Nursing program as a site for significant student scholarship support through Army awards. ROTC individual advisement and enrollment are necessary for these scholarship awards.

PROCEDURES FOR APPLICATION

Students wishing admission to the pre-licensure program through the Samaritan College of Nursing must first be admitted to the University. Registered nurses desiring the RN-BSN Degree Completion should consult the Director of the RN-BSN Track for program advisement.

Application to the Samaritan College of Nursing is made during the semester prior to the semester in which the student intends to begin the nursing major. Application for Fall admission are considered the previous Spring semester, and applications for Spring admission are considered during the previous Fall semester. Application packets for the Samaritan College of Nursing are available through the Nursing Office.
The application process requires:
1. A completed application form,
2. A negative drug screen,
3. A nursing faculty or RN-BSN Director interview,
4. Three letters of recommendation,
5. Satisfactory completion of nursing prerequisite coursework.

Students may apply during their last semester of prerequisite coursework; however, all prerequisites and admission requirements must be completed prior to beginning the nursing major courses.

Acceptance into the Samaritan College of Nursing is determined by the Samaritan College of Nursing faculty and the availability of sufficient clinical spaces. Applicants who have completed their prerequisites at Grand Canyon University are given priority in consideration for admission to the Samaritan College of Nursing.

A cumulative GPA of 2.80 and a GPA of 3.00 in prerequisite courses are the recommended minimum GPAs for admission to the nursing program. Upon admission, students must provide health information: a health history, physical examination, and proof of immunity for Measles, Rubella, and Varicella. Admission to Grand Canyon University does not guarantee acceptance into the Samaritan College of Nursing program.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Successfully complete the prerequisite coursework, sequential nursing coursework, and all University Liberal Arts Foundation courses.
2. Maintain a 2.50 GPA in required nursing major coursework in order to progress and complete the curriculum.

Students should contact the Samaritan College of Nursing for more detailed information on progression through the nursing major.

The Registered Nurse licensing requirements are the exclusive responsibility of the State Board of Nursing (Nurse Practice Act, A.R.S. Sections 32-1601 et. seq.), and must be satisfied independently of any requirements for graduation from the University. Historically, Samaritan College of Nursing graduates have been successful in the licensure examination. Satisfactory performance on the licensure examination is the responsibility of the graduate and not guaranteed by Samaritan College of Nursing.

3. As a graduation requirement, all students must complete successfully four (three for those students who substitute ENG 105 for ENG 101 and 102) courses which have been designated as Writing-Intensive. The purpose of the Writing-Intensive courses is two-fold: to introduce students to genres and styles of writing appropriate to their own disciplines; and to give students continued practice in writing standard academic English in structuring, drafting, and revising compositions effectively. Two of these courses must be ENG 101 and 102 (or ENG 103, which replaces both). At least one of the Writing-Intensive courses must be upper division and from the student's major. Only those courses designated as Writing-Intensive in the catalog descriptions will count towards meeting this requirement. While each college designates which courses are Writing-Intensive, the student in one of these classes can expect to produce significant amounts of writing, complete multiple drafts which may be reviewed by peers and receive a grade for the effectiveness of the written assignments.

UNIVERSITY LIBERAL ARTS FOUNDATION (ULAF) SAMARITAN COLLEGE OF NURSING

The University Liberal Arts Foundation for the Samaritan College of Nursing differs slightly from the University Liberal Arts Foundation found on page 29. Students majoring in Nursing must complete all requirements listed below as part of the ULAF for the Samaritan College of Nursing. Changes and additional requirements are indicated by italicized print.

Please note: Prerequisite courses are indicated with a “†” and must be completed prior to the Nursing major requirements.

Note: “A” represents a Writing-Intensive course.
