NATIONAL BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL TEACHING STANDARDS

The College of Education allows you to apply National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBCT) certification to courses within many graduate-level programs of study. NBCT certificate equivalencies are based on two factors: the NBCT five core propositions and standards by certificate. GCU does not offer program-specific equivalencies for all 26 NBCT certificates. GCU also does not offer NBCT equivalencies towards the master's degree in educational administration program. The NBCT certificate can only be used towards the degree requirements of one graduate program.

GCU credit hours: Up to 12 credits or one-third of the total program requirements in transfer (whichever is less)
