

Students interested in a bachelor's degree in applied management will explore functional area topics in financial decision making, human resource management, marketing, innovation and project management. Leadership skills, as they relate to organizational behavior and organizational change, will be studied. Specific emphasis will be placed on servant leadership, which involves being focused on the needs of others in order to create interdependency rather than dependency in organizations. Since 1949, Grand Canyon University has been a premier private university in Arizona, helping students find their purpose and achieve their potential.
