Right to Change Requirements

The University reserves the right to make changes of any nature to the calendar, admission requirements, degree requirements, fees, regulations, course offerings, programs, or academic schedules whenever they are deemed necessary or desirable, including changes or modification of course content, class scheduling, offering patterns, canceling of scheduled classes, or other academic activities.

The Grand Canyon University Policy Handbook does not establish a contractual relationship; rather, it sets forth academic and other requirements that students must meet to be granted a degree and, in some circumstances, to continue to be enrolled at the institution. While advisors and other Grand Canyon University personnel are available to guide students with respect to the requirements, students ultimately bear the responsibility of following the requirements.

Students should view the Academic Catalog for college and program specific information.

Notice of Non-Discrimination

The University, while reserving its lawful rights where appropriate to take actions designed to ensure and promote the Christian principles that sustain its mission and heritage, prohibits unlawful discrimination on the basis of age, disability, national origin, race, color, religion, gender, veteran status, or any other classification protected by applicable law, in its employment, admission policies, educational programs, or activities. It is the purpose of the University to pursue the very highest employment and academic standards within a context that celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. While students, faculty and staff may represent diverse religious backgrounds, the University reserves the right to seek, hire and promote persons who support and embody the Christian mission of the institution, as allowed by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and as protected by the Constitutions of the State of Arizona and the United States of America.

Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX discrimination or the application of Title IX harassment policies may be submitted to the Title IX coordinator and/or to the Office of Civil Rights for the United States Department of Education:

Accreditation and Authorizations

Accreditation

Grand Canyon University holds many accreditations, some college-specific and others program-specific. Accreditation is desirable as it speaks to the quality of the college or university, acknowledged by peer institutions. In choosing a university, parents and students should ensure their university of choice is regionally accredited.

Regional accreditation in higher education originated almost a century ago as an American process conferred by a nongovernmental agency. It provides quality assurance and ensures institutional program improvement. The agency's expert and trained peers have visited and reviewed Grand Canyon University. During the visit, Grand Canyon University is reviewed from a variety of facets, including: educational activities, administration, financial stability, admissions and student personnel services, resources, student academic achievement, organizational effectiveness, and relationships with outside constituencies.

Six regional agencies provide institutional accreditation on a geographical basis — Middle States, New England, North Central, Northwest, Southern, and Western. While independent of one another, the six regional associations cooperate extensively and recognize one another's accreditation.

The Higher Learning Commission and its predecessor have accredited Grand Canyon University continually since 1968, obtaining its most recent ten-year reaccreditation in 2007. The Arizona State Board for Private Postsecondary Education licenses GCU in Arizona.

In the 2013-14 season, Grand Canyon University began the process of reclassifying from Division II to Division I as a member of the Western Athletic Conference.

California Resident Students Rights and Responsibilities Related to the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF)

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.

It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833, (916) 431-6959 or (888) 370-7589.

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.

2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120 day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120 day period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law, or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of noncollection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

State Authorizations

State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (SARA) Participant

Grand Canyon University is an institutional participant in the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA) initiative. SARA is an agreement among member states, districts and territories that establishes comparable national standards for interstate offering of postsecondary distance education courses and programs. It is intended to make it easier for students to take online courses offered by postsecondary institutions based in another state. SARA is overseen by a National Council and administered by four regional education compacts. For more information and a list of member states, please visit <http://nc-sara.org/>.

About Grand Canyon University

Vision

Grand Canyon University is a premier Christian University educating people to lead and serve.

Mission Statement

Grand Canyon University prepares learners to become global citizens, critical thinkers, effective communicators, and responsible leaders by providing an academically challenging, values-based curriculum from the context of our Christian heritage.

Mission Based Student Learning Competencies

Tied to the mission statement of GCU are mission-based competencies that faculty and administration believe are imperative for students to learn. GCU strives to ensure students who progress through their program at different times exit the program with the same foundational knowledge and demonstrable skills, and that graduates bring commensurate knowledge and practical skills to the workforce. Consistent competencies and objectives, regardless of the modality, are the foundation of every program design. All GCU courses provide foundational knowledge and then apply or synthesize the learning. Thus, all graduates of the same program will have developed comparable skill sets.

Historical Sketch

Grand Canyon College was born in the wake of World War II as the realization of a dream long held dear by the tiny congregations of Southern Baptists that called the Arizona mission frontier their home. In the fall of 1946, the Baptist General Convention of Arizona voted to organize a college. A few months later, the Convention selected the first trustees for the college, who soon secured an abandoned armory building in Prescott, Arizona, as Grand Canyon’s first campus.

The College was chartered on August 1, 1949, with 16 faculty and approximately 100 students, many of them veterans. In 1951 the College put up its first permanent buildings on a 90-acre tract in west Phoenix. Grand Canyon College was fully accredited in 1968 by the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education, 30 North LaSalle Street, Suite 2400, Chicago, IL 60602-2504, 312-263-0456, 800-621-7440.

The College was first considered primarily a school for preachers, but its reputation expanded rapidly. Grand Canyon College became famous early on for its teacher education program and soon developed outstanding programs in the sciences, nursing, business, music, and the arts, while maintaining its excellence in Christian studies.

During planning for the change in institutional organization and status from Grand Canyon College to Grand Canyon University, the institution identified several landmark events that had been and would be pivotal during this transition. These included, but were not limited to, the organization of programs and departments into multiple colleges, the offering of graduate degree programs, the formation of the Grand Canyon University Foundation, and the generosity of several individuals who pledged or gave unrestricted gifts valued at one million dollars or more to launch the University into the next decade and century. In May of 1984, the College trustees voted to prepare for transition to University status on the school's 40th anniversary in 1989. Another landmark event occurred at the turn of the century that moved the University away from being owned and operated by the Arizona Southern Baptists Convention to being self-owned by the Board of Trustees.

Four years later, in 2004, the University was struggling financially and facing the prospect of having to close its doors. Unfortunately, the University did not have a large endowment or donor base to rely upon to help solve its financial crisis. In order to preserve the University, the University was sold to a small group of investors and converted to an investment funded model. The years 2004 – 2008 were difficult for the University as its traditional campus deteriorated while the University focused primarily on online education and financial solvency. Then, in 2008, a management team with experience in Christian education, led by President Brian Mueller and Chief Operating Officer Dr. Stan Meyer, was installed and a new vision was imparted for reinvigorating the campus. In May 2008, the University raised additional funds for campus expansion through an initial public offering. Today, Grand Canyon Education, Inc., d/b/a Grand Canyon University, is a publicly traded company listed under the symbol LOPE on the NASDAQ National Market. Today, the painstaking re-engineering of Arizona's premier private Christian university is making a college education possible – and affordable – for many who could only dream of such an opportunity.

University Seal

When the Grand Canyon College seal was adopted in 1950, two of its major components were the cross and the cactus. The saguaro cactus rises from its desert setting to signify the intellectual opportunity for Grand Canyon University students, counteracting the arid mental state of uneducated man. The cross stands prominently on the horizon as a guide for spiritual enlightenment. Between the outer circle representing the earth and the inner circle representing the wheel of progress, the name of the University and its location are inscribed. The use of the seal is permitted only with approval of the Chief Executive Officer of the University.

University Mascot and Colors

The University mascot is the antelope. Antelope are native to the region surrounding Prescott, Arizona, near the college's first campus. The mascot reminds us of our heritage and humble beginnings. School colors are purple, black, and white. Students, employees, or contractors of the University shall not use the Grand Canyon University name, logo, or mascot in connection with any commercial venture without written approval of the Chief Executive Officer.

Statement of Principle

The words of the Alma Mater summarize the attitude and spirit of Grand Canyon University:

ALMA MATER

Musical score for the Alma Mater song, consisting of eight staves of music with lyrics underneath each staff.

Hail to thee, Grand Can-yon Col-lege

Al-ma Ma-ter True.

Set a-midst the des-ert's glo-ry,

High-est praise to you.

So to God our hopes as-pir-ing,

This our pledge di-vine,

Striv-ing, seek-ing, find-ing, serv-ing

God and all man-kind.

Words and music composed by Dr. Chester S. Bagg

Admission Policies and Application Procedures

Overview

Applications for admission to Grand Canyon University are considered primarily in light of the applicants' academic qualifications. Qualified applicants willing to uphold the University's vision and mission, and open to the possibility of spiritual as well as intellectual development are encouraged to apply. Although the University seeks to integrate Christian faith and practice into all aspects of campus life, no statement of faith or religious affiliation is required of prospective students with the exception of majors in the College of Theology. Theology majors are required to affirm the University's Doctrinal and Ethical Positions Statements, the College's Covenant, and the Dispositional and Behavioral Standards. Grand Canyon University does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, national origin, gender, disability, or any other classification protected by law in its programs and activities.

Baccalaureate Admission Requirements

All students must submit either acceptable high school or college transcripts to be considered for full admission into the University. College of Theology

All Programs

Grand Canyon Theological Seminary students are required to affirm GCU's Doctrinal and Ethical Positions Statements, the College of Theology's Covenant, and the College of Theology's Dispositional and Behavioral Standards. These documents serve to clarify and underscore the College's commitment to the essential doctrines of the Christian faith and its concern to exemplify these doctrines in life and ministry. Together, these documents outline the Covenantal Standards of the seminary community at GCU.

Students must complete this requirement by signing these documents within the application for their program of study. Students may be denied admission or removed from the program based on the following:

- Failure to affirm the College of Theology's Covenantal Standards as outlined in the Doctrinal and Ethical Positions Statements, the College's Covenant, and/or the College's Dispositional and Behavioral Standards.
- Display of dispositions and/or behavior that do not align with the College's Covenantal Standards during the course of the admissions process or during the course of their time at the institution.
- A history of behavior that is contrary to the Covenantal Standards and unbecoming of a gospel minister.

Post-Master of Arts in Theology: Introductory Biblical Languages Certificate

In order to be eligible for admission to the program, students must possess a Master of Arts degree in Christian Studies, Biblical Studies, Theological Studies or Christian Ministry or a Master of Divinity from an approved academic institution. Students will be admitted only on the basis of a completed degree in a designated area of theology (i.e. an acceptable and appropriate theological background at the graduate level).

Students who have completed a graduate or baccalaureate degree in Christian Studies, Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, Christian Ministry, or some other GCU-approved, theologically based program are able to waive the fundamental courses: BIB-501 and BIB-502.

Master of Divinity

Students who have completed a graduate or baccalaureate degree in Christian Studies, Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, Christian Ministry, or some other GCU-approved, theologically based program are able to waive the Master of Divinity fundamental courses: BIB-501, BIB-502 and MIN-510. This includes graduates from GCU's Bachelor of Arts in Worship Arts program.

Master of Arts in Christian Leadership

Master of Arts in Christian Ministry

Master of Arts in Youth and Family Ministry

Master of Arts in Urban Ministry

Students who have completed a graduate or baccalaureate degree in Christian Studies, Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, Christian Ministry, or some other GCU-approved, theologically based program are able to waive the fundamental courses: BIB-501 and BIB-502. This includes graduates from GCU's Bachelor of Arts in Worship Arts program.

Doctoral Admission Requirements

Applicants to the doctoral programs may be accepted for admission by meeting the full range of criteria for one of the options specified below.

Have earned a doctoral degree or GCU-approved post-master's program from a regionally accredited institution with a GPA of 3.4 or higher on the degree-bearing transcript. Applicants with a GPA less than 3.4 will be Accepted with Specifications.

OR

Have earned a master's degree from a regionally accredited institution with a GPA of 3.4 or higher in the degree on the degree-bearing transcript. Applicants with a GPA of 3.0 – 3.39 will be Accepted with Specifications. Applicants with a GPA below a 3.0 will not be accepted into the University.

AND

Submit a Letter of Intent of approximately 250 – 400 words. The Letter of Intent is designed to help learners begin their Doctoral Journey in a reflective and purposeful manner.

Doctoral Programmatic Admission Requirements

Some programs of study at Grand Canyon University require a higher GPA and/or other criteria to qualify for admission.

Doctor of Business Administration (DBA)

All entering DBA learners must have either:

1. MBA
2. Non-MBA masters' or doctoral degree including fundamental courses with a minimum 3.0 GPA, or a passing grade if the institution does not use a traditional A-F grading systems, in accounting, finance, marketing and statistics. At GCU these graduate level business fundamentals may be met by taking ACC-502, FIN-504, MKT-607, and SYM-506. Students must earn a minimum 3.0 GPA in each course. Students have the option to take an exam to fulfill this requirement. More information can be obtained through a Doctoral University Counselor. The business fundamental courses must be met prior to starting doctoral level courses.

Additionally, learners enrolling into the Data Analytics emphasis must also have a course on relational databases (such as SQL, MySQL, etc.) or an introductory course on database structures. This course can be graduate or undergraduate level. At GCU this may be met by taking MIS-605.

Doctor of Education in Organization Leadership with an Emphasis in Special Education

All students entering into the Doctor of Education in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Special Education must have an undergraduate, graduate or doctoral degree in education to be admitted into the program.

Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP)

1. Must hold a Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree from a CCNE/NLNAC, ACEN or CNEA accredited program.
2. Possess a current unencumbered, unrestricted license as a registered nurse (RN) or ARNP certification in states where the ARNP is an upgrade of the RN license resulting in only one license that is both an RN and an ARNP license:
 - Canadian province (excluding Quebec), where they are employed as a RN.
 - Meet the International Student Application Procedures.

Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education and Supervision

All learners entering the PhD in Counselor Education and Supervision program:

1. All entering Ph.D. learners must complete a statistics course or research course containing key statistics fundamentals, earning a minimum 2.0 GPA or a passing grade if the institution does not use traditional A-F grading systems, prior to starting doctoral level courses. Students have the option to take an exam to fulfill this requirement. More information can be obtained through a Doctoral Enrollment Counselor.

2. Must be an independent licensed or associate level licensed mental health professional, or sign an eDoc indicating their commitment to obtain dependent – or independent-level licensure before they enter their practicum experience. Students will not be allowed to start the practicum without this licensure, and thus will be unable to complete the program.
3. Must have graduated from an approved Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) entry level institution OR have graduated from an equivalent program.
 - Students not having a CACREP approved Master's Degree will be able to fulfill 4 of the 8 competencies to meet CACREP standards through their doctoral course work; the four competencies are:
 - Professional Counseling Orientation and Ethical Practice
 - Social and Cultural Diversity
 - Counseling and Helping Relationships
 - Group Counseling and Group Work
 - However, students missing any didactical coursework from the following areas will need to take the missing didactical courses before entry into doctoral-level counselor education coursework.
 - Human Growth and Development
 - Assessment and Testing
 - Research and Program Evaluation
 - Career Development
 - Students must show these courses in their Masters in Counseling degrees, or appeal to CDS with the syllabi indicating content to fulfill these competencies.

Doctor of Philosophy in General Psychology (Ph.D.)

All entering Ph.D. learners must complete a statistics course or research course containing key statistics fundamentals, earning a minimum 2.0 GPA or a passing grade if the institution does not use traditional A-F grading systems, prior to starting doctoral level courses. Students have the option to take an exam to fulfill this requirement. More information can be obtained through a Doctoral University Counselor.

Non-Degree Program Admission Requirements

HS Dual Enrollment

High school students may enroll if they are in their Junior or Senior year of high school, and have a current, minimum un-weighted cumulative high-school GPA of 3.0.

High school sophomore students may be admitted if they demonstrate their readiness to participate in college level coursework. To do so, they need to have a current, minimum un-weighted cumulative high-school GPA of 3.25 and meet all course prerequisites.

Grand Canyon University may waive the class status for up to 25% of the students enrolled for dual enrollment program.

High school students may take a maximum of 32 credits (up to 8 courses). Exceptions to this policy require approval from the Provost or designee. High school students are required to meet the Prerequisites for all courses. College-level credit earned at GCU may later be applied toward a degree program at Grand Canyon University. High school students need to meet the Baccalaureate Admission Requirements listed within the University Policy Handbook.

Continuing Education

The University offers Continuing Education courses designed specifically for teachers in a 6-week, 3-graduate credit format. These courses can be used for a variety of purposes; re-certification, salary scales, professional development, etc. but the student must check with their state and/or district to ensure transferability. Applications who wish to enroll in these courses must complete the Non-Degree Application. Non-degree seeking students may enroll in multiple courses. These courses will not transfer into a GCU degree program and will not be accepted for regular matriculation to the University.

Single Course

The University offers single-course registration to applicants who are not interested in enrolling in and completing a specific Program of Study.

1. Applicants who wish to enroll in either undergraduate or graduate courses must complete the Non-Degree Application.
2. Non-Degree seeking students may take a maximum of 24 credits (up to 6 courses). Exceptions to this policy require approval from the President, Provost or designee.
3. If additional credits are needed, students must enroll in a degree program.
4. Non-Degree seeking students may take up to two courses simultaneously.

College-level credit earned may later be applied toward a degree program, except CEU courses, at Grand Canyon University, provided the student applies for admission and is accepted to the University. Applications for admission will be evaluated on an individual basis. If non-degree seeking students wish to complete a specific program of study, they must complete the standard Application for Admission and fulfill, as appropriate, the Baccalaureate Admission Requirements or the Master Admission Requirements. Applications for admission will be evaluated on an individual basis. Students who reach 16 credits in a non-degree seeking status may be contacted and encouraged to apply for University matriculation and to enter a specified degree program.

General Application Procedures

Although applicants may be conditionally accepted for admission based on incomplete records, final records are required in order to complete the admission file. In order to be considered for admission, all prospective students will need to remit the following:

1. Application for Admission: Prospective students must complete and sign the Application for Admission, and submit all requested information. Incomplete applications may be returned. Information and application forms are available on campus and on the Grand Canyon University Web site.
2. Official Transcript(s): Based on the degree level admission requirements. If applicants have completed coursework at an institution outside of the United States, they must have the work evaluated by an approved evaluation service selected by the University (see the section entitled Evaluation of Transfer Credit). If accepted, prospective students will need to submit a final transcript showing their graduation date.
3. Official Standardized Test Scores: If applicable

Admission Statuses

Conditionally Accepted

All applicants are conditionally accepted until proof of admissions eligibility is met, including applicable documentation. All applicants will remain in this status until they have attended their first course at GCU.

Accepted

Students have demonstrated their admissions eligibility and are fully accepted into the University.

Accepted with Specifications

Students who do not meet the standards for admission may be admitted to Grand Canyon University programs with specification. Admission with specification requires nontraditional baccalaureate students to limit coursework to no more than 12 attempted credits or one semester for traditional baccalaureate student (no more than 16 credits). Master's and Graduate Certificate students are limited to 8 attempted credits (nontraditional) or one semester according to the program course-walk (traditional). Doctoral students are limited to 6 attempted credits. Traditional campus students may be required to fulfill additional requirements. Traditional campus students will be able to enroll for Chapel credit during their probationary term. The University will remove the specification for those who achieve the minimum standards below:

Degree Level	Minimum Standards
Undergraduate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • First-Year Students will be enrolled into GCU's Foundational General Education Sequence (Nontraditional: 3 courses/12 credits; Traditional: one semester [max 16 credits]). • Transfer students enroll in UNV 103 or UNV 303, as one of their first 12 credits/semester courses. • Complete their coursework with a minimum institutional GPA of 2.0 • Review of academic record occurs after attempting 12 credits for nontraditional students, or one semester for traditional campus students. Academically Withdrawn occurs after failing to achieve the minimum-standard GPA Acceptance occurs after achieving the minimum-standard GPA
Graduate Degree and Graduate Certificate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete their coursework with a minimum institutional GPA of 3.0. • Review of academic record occurs after attempting 8 credits for nontraditional campus students, or one semester according to the program course-walk for traditional campus students. Administrative Withdrawal occurs after failing to achieve the minimum-standard GPA. Acceptance occurs after achieving the minimum-standard GPA.
Doctoral	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete their coursework with a minimum unweighted institutional GPA of 3.0.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review of academic record occurs after attempting 6 credits. Administrative Withdrawal occurs after failing to achieve the minimum-standard GPA. Acceptance occurs after achieving the minimum-standard GPA.

Students who are withdrawn from the University will be neither academically nor financially responsible for any future courses for which they may have been pre-registered and may reapply in 12 months for reconsideration.

Deferred Admissions

Students who cannot provide sufficient admissions documentation will be deferred until complete and acceptable documentation is provided. Students currently attending a course will be permitted to complete the course but will not be registered for any additional coursework until officially admitted.

Denied

Students who do not meet the admission requirements of the University will not be accepted.

International Student Admission

International students may be citizens of the United States with foreign academic credentials or have entered the country on a lawful immigrant or nonimmigrant visa. The following details the requirements for international student admission.

International Student Application Procedures

In order to be considered for admission, international students must complete the Application for Admissions, which includes submitting the following:

1. Official Transcript(s)

a. Secondary School: All international students must have completed, or be in the process of completing, a secondary school program that is equivalent to the 12th grade (high school) in the United States. An official evaluation of students' secondary school work, written in English, must be sent directly from a University-approved transcript evaluation service to the University. If an original document is not available, a certified copy will be accepted. Students who have not completed secondary school at the time of application must submit their official transcript evaluations upon graduation from the 12th-grade equivalent.

b. College and/or University: Official transcripts (written in English or translation, if not in English) of students' college or university work must be sent directly from the college or university to Grand Canyon University. If original documents are not available, certified copies will be accepted.

GCU will consider three year international bachelor degrees for admission into graduate level programs. The acceptance of three year international bachelor degrees is contingent upon the students foreign credential evaluation (from a GCU approved evaluation agency). The evaluation must indicate: "That the degree prepares the student for graduate level studies" OR "Given the relatively high proportion of coursework completed in the major field of study, the foreign degree program has prepared this student to meet minimum graduate admission eligibility standards".

If the evaluation indicates that the three year bachelor degree does not prepare the student for graduate level studies, the student must complete a degree equivalent to a US bachelor degree prior to entering a graduate program. The following countries will be considered for three year bachelor degrees: Bologna Process participating countries, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and India (Bachelor in Commerce ONLY).

c. University-approved Transcript Evaluations: In order to evaluate foreign credentials accurately and consistently, Grand Canyon University requires all international college or university transcripts to be evaluated by a University-approved evaluation service. Among others, University-approved evaluation services include those agencies that are members of or affiliated with the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) and the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admission Officers (AACRAO). If the evaluation agency is unable to translate the transcripts into English, applicants may be able to obtain official translations at many consulates, embassies, or university language departments. Grand Canyon University will not award any transfer credit from foreign credentials without an evaluation from an approved evaluation service. The fee for evaluation is the responsibility of the student. All evaluations must have been evaluated by an approved agency within one year of the student's application date.

The following is a list of approved agencies:

- Arizona International Credential Evaluators (AZICE)
- Academic and Professional International Evaluations, Inc. (APIE)
- Academic Credentials Evaluation Institute, Inc. (ACEI)
- American Education Research Corporation (AERC)
- Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc. (ECE)
- Educational Records Evaluations Service, Inc. (ERES)
- Evaluation Service, Inc.
- Foundation for International Services (FIS)
- Foreign Credentials Services of America (FCSA)
- Global Credential Evaluators (GCE)
- Institute for International Credentials Evaluation at CSU Fresno (IICE)
- International Consultants of Delaware, Inc. (ICD)
- International Education Research Foundation, Inc. (IERF)
- Lisano International: Foreign Educational Credential Evaluation (LI)
- Joseph A. Silny Associates (JS&A)
- World Education Services, Inc. (WES)

2. English Language Proficiency Documentation:

a. Students who completed secondary school and/or received a diploma or degree from a post-secondary institution from the countries listed satisfy the English Language Proficiency admission requirement: Anguilla, Antigua and Barbuda, Australia, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Bermuda, Botswana, British Virgin Islands, *Canada, Cayman Islands, Christmas Island, Cook Islands, Dominica, Fiji, Gambia, Ghana, Grenada, Guyana, India, Ireland, Jamaica, Kenya, Kiribati, Liberia, Malawi, Malta, Marshall Islands, Mauritius, Micronesia, Namibia, New Zealand, Nigeria, Niue, Norfolk Island, Palau, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, Pitcairn Islands, Puerto Rico, Saint Kitts, and Nevis, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and Grenadines, Seychelles, Sierra Leone, Singapore, *South Africa, Swaziland, Tanzania, Trinidad and Tobago, Turks and Caicos Islands, Uganda, United Kingdom, United States, Vanuatu, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

*If French is noted on Canadian credentials or Afrikaans on South African credentials, the student must prove proficiency through testing.

 Healthcare programs in India are instructed with English as the sole medium of instruction.

 If a student submits multiple documents to satisfy the English Proficiency requirement, the English Proficiency Test Scores will supersede all other documents in making the admission decision.

b. Students who have completed secondary school and/or received a diploma or degree from a post-secondary institution in a non-exemption country may obtain a letter on official letterhead indicating that “English was the sole medium of instruction in their program”. The letter must be signed and dated by a recognized school official. If, on the international transcript evaluation performed for application, it is specified that the sole medium of instruction is English, a letter from the school is not necessary.

c. Students who have not completed secondary school and/or received a diploma or degree from a post-secondary institution must have completed a minimum of 24 semester college level credits at a regionally accredited or GCU-approved institution and/or an international institution recognized by the Ministry of Education or other acceptable government agency and have a minimum GPA of 2.75 from an institution whose sole medium of instruction is English. The language-proficiency requirement cannot be satisfied through experience in English learning programs at other schools.

3. English Language Proficiency Scores: If English is not the native language of prospective students, their score reports for a language proficiency test must be sent directly to Grand Canyon University from the testing center. The table below specifies minimum scores to be considered for admission to various programs.

GCU accepts the following forms of language assessment:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
- Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC)
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
- Berlitz Language Evaluation

Minimum Scores
Scores Required by Program	General Undergrad Programs	Undergrad Education, Nursing & General Graduate Programs	Graduate Education, Business & Nursing Programs
Test Type	I	II	III
TOEFL Paper-based	500	550	575

Minimum Scores
TOEFL Computer-based	173	213	233
TOEFL Internet-based	61	79	90
TOEIC	625	750	815
IELTS	6	6	7
Berlitz Computer-based	74	81	85

ACT and SAT Scores: GCU does not require scores from these tests for international students; however, international athletes may be required to submit scores.

F-1 Student Application Procedure

F-1 student applicants are required to submit additional documentation to the International Student Coordinator in order to obtain the Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) Student Status – For Academic and Language Students, also known as an I-20. These international students are attending courses on the traditional campus or courses at an off-site location.

Documents required for the I-20 include:

- Copy of Passport (valid within 6 months)
- International Student Application
- Confidential Financial Statement
- Affidavit of Sponsor (if applicable)
- Evidence of financial responsibility, not older than 6 months, such as official award letters for scholarships and fellowships and for personal or family funds evidence, which should be on bank letterhead stationery, or in the form of a legally binding affidavit.
- GCU reserves the right to ask for a $6,000 refundable deposit from applicants before an I-20 will be issued. A refund will be granted only if the visa is denied and evidence of denial is provided to the CIE.
- Application for campus housing is a separate procedure from admission. If prospective students plan to live on campus, they should contact the Office of Residence Life.

Limitation on attempts for an F-1 Visa

The I-20 is used to apply for an F-1 visa at a U.S. embassy or consulate. The decision to award a visa is up the consulate officer. Should a GCU applicant be denied a visa, the applicant may re-apply with a new I-20 for a second attempt. However, if the second application is denied and the applicant wishes to apply for a third time, eligibility for a third I-20 will require a personally written letter explaining the circumstances of the previous denials. GCU will not support any more than three total attempts for an F-1 visa. Each attempt will require the applicant to repeat the F-1 Student Application Procedure.

Citizenship/Visas/Permanent Residents

Neither United States citizenship nor residence within the United States is a requirement for admission to Grand Canyon University. In addition to U.S. Citizenship Grand Canyon University accepts the following students as “eligible non-citizens.”

- Permanent Resident: United States lawful permanent residency refers to a person's immigration status: the person is authorized to live and work in the United States of America on a permanent basis. A United States Permanent Resident Card is an identification card attesting to the permanent resident status of an alien in the United States. It is known informally as a green card because it had been green in color from 1946 until 1964, and it has reverted to that color since May 2010. Green card also refers to an immigration process of becoming a permanent resident. The green card serves as proof that its holder, a Lawful Permanent Resident, has been officially granted immigration benefits, which include permission to reside and take employment in the USA. The holder must maintain permanent resident status, and can be removed from the United States if certain conditions of this status are not met.

- Eligible Visa Status: Students with any of the following valid United States Visas are eligible for entry.

Licensure Programs

Online Students

Programs which contain practicum, internship or student teaching that lead to licensure are not eligible for enrollment outside of the USA.

General Academic Regulations

This section of the Grand Canyon University Policy Handbook contains general academic policies intended to assure a consistent, high quality educational environment for GCU students and to reflect that quality to accrediting agencies, state licensing/certifying agencies, individuals and groups who provide scholarships or otherwise support the University, graduate schools, and potential employers of GCU graduates. The University has no right to change policies or procedures of another organization for which it is merely acting as an agent.

Students are responsible for following all applicable University policies and procedures. Students should note some Programs of Study have specific policies in addition to general University policy. A careful review of policies and other requirements for a given program is strongly recommended. All policies and procedures herein apply to undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students unless explicitly stated otherwise. Please contact your University Counselor or Student Services Counselor for clarification and details. Oral or written inquires and requests are accepted, but a written message takes precedence over any oral message in the event of conflicting information.

Official Student Communication

Upon enrollment, all students receive a Grand Canyon University e-mail address. This e-mail address is used for all official communication with students including, but not limited to, student specific information, policy updates, notification of changes in University procedures, and general announcements. It is the student's responsibility to check this e-mail on a regular basis and be informed about published University policy.

Official Name Change

Students who would like to change their legal name need to submit two forms of government-issued identification to their Student Services Counselor (SSA).

Preferred First Name

When possible, the University may provide students the ability to use a preferred first name in University systems. While GCU will try to respect the first name the student prefers, GCU reserves the right to approve the preferred first name. Students trying to use a preferred first name that is inappropriate in an educational environment will revert to using the legal name on file.

Change of Address Notification

If a student is considering a move, or has moved to another state while enrolled, the student must contact a Student Services Counselor immediately to determine whether the student's current Program of Study is available in that state. Additionally, if the student is enrolled in a program leading to licensure, it must be determined whether it is possible for the student to complete the program in the new state, before incurring any/additional course charges. It is expected that students will conduct all field placements, practicum, or student teaching within the state in which they reside at the time of enrollment. Students who plan to conduct field placements, practicum, or student teaching outside of their home state must disclose this to their Student Services Counselor.

Academic Calendar

Nontraditional (Online, Evening-Satellite and Evening-Campus) Students

Grand Canyon University offers online and offsite courses in a sequential, non-term modality. Courses start on a regular basis, with undergraduate courses starting on Monday, graduate/doctoral courses starting on Thursday.

The academic calendar year is defined as a minimum of 24 earned credits and 30 instructional weeks for undergraduate programs; 16 earned credits and 32 instructional weeks; 12 earned credits and 32 instructional weeks for doctoral programs.

Students are required to adhere to the classroom posting required and complete assignments within the required timeframe. Please see the Class Attendance and Participation section of the University Policy Handbook.

Students must maintain continuous enrollment in their programs. If students have a need to interrupt their course enrollment, they must contact their Student Services Counselor for options available to them.

Traditional Campus Students

Students attending Grand Canyon University's main campus attend school in three semesters; with traditional semesters of May (summer), September (fall), and January (spring) semester starts. Refer to the Academic Calendar for specific semester dates.

Classification of Students and Courses

Grand Canyon University complies with Department of Education credit hour definitions when designing and designating credits to courses per Federal Register 75 FR 66832 final regulations:

Credit hour: Except as provided in 34 CFR 668.8(k) and (1) a credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonably approximates not less than one of the following-

- One hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks or one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time
- At least an equivalent amount of work as required in paragraph (1) of this definition for other academic activities as established by the institution, including laboratory work, internships, practicums, studio work, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours.

Student Classification Based on Credits

- Freshmen are students who have not yet completed 24 credit hours.
- Sophomores are students who have completed 24 to 47 credit hours.
- Juniors and seniors are students who have completed a minimum of 48 credit hours.
- Fifth Year Students are students who have completed a bachelor's degree from an accredited, GCU-approved college, university, or program and are accepted for a program of specified upper division courses to secure standard teacher certification.

- Second Degree Students are students who have completed a bachelor's degree from a regionally or nationally accredited institution and are completing the requirements for a second bachelor's degree.
- Graduate Students are students who have completed a bachelor's degree from an accredited, GCU-approved institution and have been admitted into the graduate program.
- Non-Degree Seeking Students are students who are not working toward a degree and/or are not placed in a classification.

Academic Definition of Full-Time Status

Nontraditional Students

Nontraditional undergraduate students must complete 24 credits during their academic year to be considered full-time.

Nontraditional graduate students who started their program prior to July 5, 2012 and all doctoral students must complete 12 credits during the academic year to be considered full-time. All nontraditional graduate students who start their program on or after July 5, 2012, must complete 16 credits during the academic year to be considered full-time. Students are also subject to the Program of Study, Course Availability, and Cancellation Policy.

Traditional Campus Students

Undergraduate students must enroll in a minimum of 12 credit hours in the Fall and Spring semesters. Undergraduate students will be considered full-time if they enroll in 6 credits in the Summer Session A or B, or 12 credits over the entire Summer semester. Graduate students who are enrolled in 16 or more credits during an academic year are considered full-time.

Academic status may differ from financial aid status eligibility for funding. Please see the Financial Aid section of the University Policy Handbook for details.

Per federal regulations, International (F-1) students are required to pursue a full course of study. During the Fall and Spring semester, the minimum for an undergraduate is 12 credits per semester and one online class may be taken to satisfy the 12 credit minimum. If the Summer semester is your first semester at GCU and a summer start date is on your I-20, then you must enroll for 6 credits in Session A or B, or 12 credits over the entire Summer semester to be considered a full-time student. The minimum for a graduate student's full course of study follows general campus policy noted above and is verified by the International Student Coordinator.

To enroll in courses, a student must contact their University Counselor (new students) or their Student Services Counselor (current students).

Overload Policy

Nontraditional Students

Students may request to take more than one course concurrently, if they meet the following criteria:

Baccalaureate students:

- Completed at least 12 credits at Grand Canyon within their current Program of Study, AND
- Cumulative GPA is 3.0 or better.
OR
- Earned associate degree or 60 applied transfer credits with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better evidenced by received and applied transcripts BEFORE starting a program.
OR

- GCU Alumni student with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better in graduated enrollment.

Master students:

- Completed at least 6 credits at Grand Canyon within their current Program of Study, AND
- Cumulative GPA is 3.5 or better.
OR
- GCU Alumni undergraduate student with a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or better in graduated enrollment.
OR
- Earned master's or doctoral degree.

Doctoral students:

- Doctoral learners excluding Doctor of Nursing Practice learners may not take more than one course at a time. Concurrent enrollment at Residency with one online course is the exception.

Taking concurrent courses can change a student's academic year, and thus, payment periods. To enroll in concurrent courses, students must be financially cleared by their Student Services Counselor prior to starting those courses. A secondary payment method may be required.

Overload Policy Exemptions

- Students cannot take courses concurrently with student teaching, PCN-622, or PCN-662A-D.
- Undergraduate students in the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions must take theory and clinical coursework concurrently in the sequence indicated for their program of study. Graduate students in the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions enrolled in APRN programs must take theory and clinical coursework concurrently as prescribed by the plan of study. Students in Non-APRN or non-Nursing programs enrolled in clinical coursework or courses with field experiences may not take more than one course during these placements.
- Master of Divinity seminary students participating in the evening course option will may be exempt from this policy.
- Master of Divinity students may be concurrently enrolled at Residency with one online course.

Traditional Campus Students

To enroll in more than 20 credits per semester, undergraduate students must possess a GPA of 3.0 and file an official appeal that is approved by the Office of Academic Compliance.

Course Classification Based on Course Number

Courses are numbered from 000 to 999. The course numbering system is as follows:

- 000-099 are remedial courses designed for students with deficiencies in specific content areas. Credits earned for these courses cannot be applied toward a degree program.
- 100-299 are lower division, undergraduate courses.
- 300-499 are upper division undergraduate courses.
- 500-699 are graduate level courses.
- 700-999 are doctoral level courses.
- 5000-5999 are continuing education courses.

Course Length

The University offers courses that are typically 4 to 15 weeks in length. The course length is determined by the Program of Study and/or format in which the course is taken.

- Online courses are typically 5, 7, or 8 weeks in length.

- Traditional Campus courses are typically 15 weeks in length.

Program of Study, Course Availability, and Cancellation

A Program of Study (POS) defines the courses required for a particular degree. If the University cancels a POS and/or courses, the University will use the following guidelines for program completion.

If a major or degree is fully retired, and if a student had no breaks in enrollment except those defined/documentated by the Leave of Absence Policy and Procedure, Baccalaureate and Masters students will have 2 years to complete the Program of Study under the Catalog of Record, defined as the Academic Catalog published in the academic year and edition (Fall, Spring, or Summer) under which the student enrolled. Doctoral students will have 3 years to reach the 900 course series in their Program of Study. This applies unless state or federal law and/or accrediting bodies mandate POS and/or course changes.

In all cases that a course is retired, students will enroll in the course equivalency or a substituted course. In all cases where a student chooses to change the program of study, the student will always be required to enroll in the most current version of that program, which may change the student's catalog of record.

Nontraditional Students

- If a student has been out of attendance less than 180 days, students return to their current program of study if the program version is active. If a program of study revised during the student's absence, the student may be able to update to the current version. If they choose to remain in their current version of the program, they may be required to take substituted courses from the new program version. Students must speak to their Student Services Counselor prior to program changes.
- If the student is out of attendance between 180 days and a year*, and the program of study revised, returning students must update to the current version of the program if one is available, or they must choose a different active program in which to transfer.
- Students out of attendance longer than a year must complete a new enrollment agreement and select either the newest version of a program, or another active program.
- In the event that a retired licensure program version is no longer in compliance with state regulations or certification requirements, all students currently enrolled in the retired licensure program may need to sign a new Enrollment Agreement and move to the most current program version

*For students in any non-licensure program of study, an exception will be made for students with 2 or fewer courses remaining in their current program of study. Course substitutions may be made. Students with 3 or more courses must follow the above policy.

*Students out of attendance for 180 days or less, and are changing their emphasis only are not subject to this policy. Doctoral Students who have started RES-885, RES-871, PSY-825, or the 900 course series will be allowed to remain in their current program of study.

Traditional Campus Students

In order to remain in the current program of study, students must remain continuously enrolled. If students are out longer than one traditional term (either Fall or Spring) then the student will be required to enroll in the newest version of the program of study, if one is available.

- In the event that a retired licensure program version is no longer in compliance with state regulations or certification requirements, all students currently enrolled in the retired licensure program may need to sign a new Enrollment Agreement and move to the most current program version.

Course and Program Availability

Students transferring to GCU from another educational institution, and GCU students transferring programs within the institution, are subject to course and section availability. GCU believes that sufficient interaction between students and faculty is an important part of the learning experience. Therefore, if a course section has too few students to support student learning, it may be cancelled. Additionally, if a student has a large number of transfer credits and enrolls in a new program and courses are not available, students may be required to take a different course needed in the program of study or will be subject to breaks in attendance until the course is available. Nontraditional students should reference the Leave of Absence – Nontraditional policy for additional information.

Program Exceptions

Students enrolled in an Initial Program – Leads to Initial Teacher Licensure (IP/TL) program within the College of Education, who cannot complete student teaching, may transfer to the equivalent Initial Program – Does Not Lead to Teacher Licensure (IP/Non-TL) program, provided the courses are the same and the student has completed the entire program of study at the time of transfer.

Military Reenrollment

Grand Canyon University complies with the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 requirements for readmission of service members. Students who are out of attendance greater than 180 days for qualified military service reasons may be able to return to their degree program without updating to the most current Academic Catalog. Students need to contact their military Enrollment, Academic or Student Services Counselor if they discontinued enrollment due to military service.

Registration Policy

Continuous Registration

Upon application to the University, all applicants sign an Enrollment Agreement in which they attest to understanding the Program of Study requirements. This document acknowledges that most programs follow a course sequence and the student will be continuously enrolled and scheduled through the duration of their program unless they formally request to change their enrollment status. With the submission of this signed document, applicants are then registered into their chosen Program of Study.

Students are granted 8 weeks from the program's start date to provide their official transcripts from the prior degree-granting institution (whether high school, associate, or baccalaureate degree) to gain admittance into the University. If this official documentation is not provided prior to the end of the 8-week period, students may not be allowed to continue forward into subsequent courses. Once the Office of Academic Records can confirm admissibility the student will be officially accepted to the University and will be allowed to continue registration.

Students remain continuously enrolled throughout their program. If a student needs to make an adjustment to their course schedule or modify their enrollment status, the student will need to contact their Student Services Counselor. Those using Federal Financial Aid (Title IV) must speak to their Student Services Counselor prior to making the change and if the change is made, will need to adhere to the Leave of Absence policies as outlined in this handbook.

First Course Completion Policy

Nontraditional Students

Grand Canyon University believes the foundational skills and experiences learned in the first course of the undergraduate, graduate or doctoral program is imperative to student success.

Therefore, if a student fails or withdraws from one of these courses, the student will be withdrawn from any currently enrolled course and re-enrolled into this course.

If a student fails or withdraws this course after the second attempt, the student will be dismissed from the University. Additionally, if the student fails or withdraws from their first course, then passes this course and subsequently fails the next course taken, the student will also be dismissed from the University for not meeting the academic requirements for progression.

Students who are withdrawn from the University will be neither academically nor financially responsible for any future courses for which they may have been pre-registered and may reapply in 12 months for reconsideration.

Class Presence

Grand Canyon University believes that students are primarily responsible for their attendance in the classroom.

Traditional Campus Classrooms

All traditional campus students must post at least one message in the learning management system within the first week of the class start date in addition to being present at all face to face class meetings.

Online Classrooms

Grand Canyon University requires all students enrolled in an online course to attend every week. This attendance is marked by activity in the online classroom. An online week for undergraduate students is Monday through Sunday and for graduate students is Thursday through Wednesday. Students are not permitted to be out of attendance more than two consecutive, online weeks. An administrative withdrawal will be processed should a student be out of attendance for more than two consecutive, online weeks.

Cohort Classrooms (Campus and Satellite Locations)

Courses offered in the face-to-face, evening cohort programs for undergraduate and graduate students are designed as concentrated seminars with attendance being a prerequisite for student learning. Students are expected to act professionally and regular class attendance is one reflection of that commitment. Recognizing that occasional unavoidable absences may occur, students must notify the instructor in advance. If a face-to-face class absence (or partial absence) is necessary, the following guidelines apply:

- Partial Absence: At the course instructor's discretion, partial attendance may result in a deduction of participation points.
- One Absence: One class absence will result in the loss of participation points and, in-class activity points if applicable.

- An absence (or partial absence) does not preclude students from completing assignments as expected or according to completion timelines.

Multiple Absences:

- Courses that are 12 or fewer weeks: For courses that are 12 or fewer weeks, absences from two or more classes (consecutive or non-consecutive) in a course will result in being withdrawn from the course and a grade of "W" if they occur in any week prior to the last two weeks. Students in a course that is 12 weeks or less and who have their second absence during the last two weeks of the course, can no longer earn points for assignments due that week and beyond after the second absence. They will earn the grade based on their academic performance for the full point allotment of the course. Faculty will assign a letter grade of A through F. Students are required to follow the Course Drop Policy.
- 16 week courses: For courses that are 16 weeks, absences from four or more classes (consecutive or non-consecutive) in a course will result in being withdrawn from the course and a grade of "W" if they occur in any week prior to the last four weeks. Students in a 16 week course who have their fourth absence during the last four weeks of the course can no longer earn points for assignments due that week and beyond, after the fourth absence. They will earn the grade based on their academic performance for the full point allotment of the course. Faculty will assign a letter grade of A through F. Students are required to follow the Course Drop Policy.

Residency Classrooms (Campus and Satellite Locations)

College of Doctoral Studies:

In addition to standard online attendance policy for the online portion of the Residency, doctoral students are expected to be present during all sessions of the face-to-face classroom experience during Residency. The Residency classroom time schedule is divided into eight half-day sessions – one on Monday afternoon, two on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and one on Friday morning.

- Partial Absence: At the course instructor's discretion, partial attendance may result in a deduction of points if applicable.
- One Absence: One session absence will result in the loss of points if applicable.

An absence (or partial absence) does not preclude students from completing assignments as expected or according to completion timelines.

- Multiple Absences: Students who are absent from two or more consecutive or non-consecutive sessions in a residency can no longer earn points for assignments due that day and beyond after the second absence. They will earn the grade based on their academic performance for the full point allotment of the course. Faculty will assign a letter grade of A through F. Students are required to follow the Course Drop Policy.

College of Theology:

Master of Divinity (MDiv) students are required to attend Residencies as part of their program of study for their degree program. In addition to online requirements, MDiv Residencies entail a residential component that is 5 days in length. Because this arrangement represents a limited amount of class time in comparison with traditional classes, attendance at each residential session is expected. Unexcused absences are not acceptable and will result in a significant deduction of points for each contact hour a student misses. A student who misses 5 contact hours or more automatically fails the Residency. Students who miss less than 5 contact hours will incur the following penalties based on the number of hours missed:

- 1 hour: 10% deduction in final grade
- 2 hours: 15% deduction in final grade
- 3 hours: 20% deduction in final grade
- 4 hours: 25% deduction in final grade

A student who is forced to miss one or more sessions for reasons beyond his or her control may request an excused absence but all excused absences are subject to approval by the Dean or a designee. An excused absence is defined as an absence will only be granted for unforeseen reasons beyond the student's control such as a death in one's immediate family, a documented personal illness, natural disaster, or airline delays. A scheduling conflict, even if ministry-related, does not constitute an emergency and cannot be excused. Students who foresee a conflict with scheduling are encouraged to register for an alternative Residency in order to avoid the possibility of penalty or failure. An absence may only be excused provided that the student communicates the need for an excuse as soon as the need arises and provides appropriate documentation for such absences when possible.

College of Nursing and Health Care Professions:

On-Campus Experience Attendance Policy

Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) students are required to attend both scheduled On-Campus Experiences and successfully complete all requirements including, but not limited to, skills practice, skills check-off and lecture.

Required attendance:

- Must be physically present each day.
- Must participate each day from scheduled start to finish time.

Failure to attend any portion of the On-Campus Experience will result in an automatic course failure. Students will be required to repeat the course and the On-Campus Experience associated with the course to progress in their program of study.

All On-Campus Experiences must be fulfilled as a graduation requirement.

Class Participation

Participating in classroom discussion is paramount to the learning experience. Participating in the weekly discussions allows students and instructors to share experiences, investigate complicated subject matter, share expertise, and examine the content from new perspectives. The qualitative participation requirements are:

- Follow-up responses to classmates' initial answers or responses that integrate course theories with a practical application of the subject, offering a personal observation or experience, or referencing real-world examples, current events, or presenting current research on the topic.
- Classroom interaction demonstrating deeper or broader thoughts beyond rephrasing what the textbook has presented on the topic.
- Responses encouraging further discussion and ongoing dialogue with other students and the instructor in the class.
- Asking additional, relevant questions about the week's topic.
- Communications that are presented in a professional and supportive manner, and with respectful tone.

Traditional Campus Classrooms

In addition to the qualitative requirements, each instructor will provide the specific, in-class, quantitative participation requirements.

Online Classrooms (Undergraduate and Graduate)

Participation can be earned only by posting substantive, quality messages to fellow classmates and the instructor in the main forum of the classroom. Certain courses may have alternative participation requirements. Students are encouraged to review the course syllabus and consult with the faculty member prior to the course start.

Courses	# Required Days	# Required Substantive Posts Each Day
UNV-103, UNV-108, UNV-104, PHI-105, ENG-105, PSY-100, CWV-101	4	2
All Other Undergrad	3	2
Graduate and Doctoral	3	1

Cohort Classrooms

Students participating in face-to-face classes in a cohort format are enrolled in a hybrid program that requires students to be active in both the physical classroom, as well as the online classroom.

All programs (Except RN-BSN): Campus and Satellite Locations

Students must post their initial response to the 1st discussion question by Day 3, and to the 2nd discussion question by Day 5 of each week. The post must also meet already established DQ requirements as stated in the course syllabus. In addition to the qualitative requirements, each instructor will provide the specific, in-class, quantitative participation requirements.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN-BSN) Program

Students must post their initial response to the 1st discussion question by Day 3, and to the 2nd discussion question by Day 5 of each week. In order to earn full participation points students must post 1 substantial message on 3 different days of each course week in addition to actively engaging in the face to face classroom meetings.

Online Classrooms (Doctoral)

Full participation in the discussion is a key component of the learning experience. It enriches group interaction and enhances the doctoral learning environment. To be considered substantive, a participation post (the initial and the on-going) should average 150 - 250 words in length. The post should include appropriate foundation knowledge, be factual, enhance the ongoing dialogue, and include support from scholarly literature. It is for this reason that a majority of a learners' substantive participant posts should include at least one citation. Rather than just reporting what someone else has stated, the doctoral learner should demonstrate application and/or reflection of knowledge such that the learner enhances the meaning of the referenced material. Contributing to the discussion should promote an exciting, vibrant, shared learning community that accomplishes two or more of the following:

- Expands on a classmate's comments in a value-adding, topic-related way
- Promotes a collaborative, supportive doctoral community
- Advances the dialogue through follow-up questions
- One-liners, off-topic posts, vague statements, unsupported opinions, inadequate explanations or posts do not meet the substantive participation requirements listed above.

Assignment Submissions

All assignments should be submitted through the drop box in the learning management system as Word documents with extensions of .doc or .docx unless otherwise indicated in the assignment description. Written assignments of 500 words or more are required to be submitted to the TurnItIn drop box before submitting to the Assignments drop box in the learning management system, thus allowing students to make adjustments prior to submitting the final version for grading.

Late Policy

All assignments are due before midnight Arizona time on the due dates indicated. Assignments posted after the indicated due dates will be subject to a deduction of 10% of the available points for each day late. No assignment can be accepted for grading after midnight on the final day of class. Technical issues are not valid excuses for late work unless the problem stems from GCU servers. Exceptions to this policy are at the discretion of the instructor.

Learning Management System Availability

Grand Canyon University's online learning management systems are specifically intended to host classrooms for current and recently completed classes. Student access to classes will be removed five (5) weeks following the course end date. It is the responsibility of each student and faculty member to keep copies of all files uploaded to the online learning management system. The University is not responsible to make course content or files submitted to the online learning management system available to students or faculty members once the class has been removed.

Missed Class Time for University-Sponsored Activities

The University recognizes the importance of participation in University-sponsored activities such as musical and theatrical performances, athletic competition, and debate. It also recognizes that such participation may result in conflict with scheduled class times, including examinations, homework, quizzes, presentations, activities, participation, etc. It is the responsibility of participating students to ensure that official documentation is submitted to their faculty members by the sponsoring organization/college in advance of the excused absences.

The University defines an excused absence as a University-sponsored activity that requires students to miss class. Students requiring excused absences will be afforded a reasonable opportunity to make up the affected assignment(s) within two weeks of the due date. All classwork must be submitted by the last day of the term. Faculty will provide students with discussion questions to complete to address missed participation. Students must complete exams and group assignments on time. Arrangements for proctoring assignments must be made by the sponsoring organization/college, in conjunction with the faculty of the course. Allowing the missed assignment or exam to be dropped does not constitute a reasonable opportunity.

Specific courses including student teaching, internships, clinical sessions, or practicums cannot be missed even for University sanctioned events.

If students fail to provide advanced documentation, instructors have the discretion to treat the absence as unexcused and to decline any missed work that was due during that absence. Any students found to have misrepresented themselves regarding their participation in University-sponsored activities will be referred to the University Code of Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action.

Participation in NCAA Division 1 Athletics

To be eligible for participation in NCAA Division 1 athletics, a student must meet one of the following requirements:

- Student is enrolled full-time and matriculated as a degree seeking undergraduate student taking courses on the Phoenix campus;
- Student is enrolled as a non-traditional graduate cohort or graduate online student and lives in the locale of the institution.

Grade Point Average (GPA) Progression

Nontraditional Students

When a student earns a grade that drops the overall cumulative GPA below the undergraduate requirement of 2.0, undergraduate nursing requirement of 2.5, or the graduate and doctoral requirement of 3.0, he/she will be placed On Notice. The student has up to three course attempts to raise the GPA to the respective requirements. If the student is able to increase the GPA within three courses, the student will no longer be On Notice. If the student is unable to raise the GPA after the third course, the student will be Academically Disqualified for a period of 15 weeks. If this occurs within the first 12 credits of the student's program, the First Course Completion and/or the Accepted with Specifications policy (if applicable) supersede this policy.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) is defined as a student's progress toward successful completion of his or her degree requirements, and includes two equal components that are referred to as qualitative and quantitative measurements. The qualitative component evaluates the enrollment cumulative GPA and determines if the student is meeting the minimum GPA requirements set forth for the specific academic level and academic program. The quantitative component evaluates the student's progression towards completing his or her Program of Study within a measured maximum timeframe that cannot exceed 150% of the published length of the program.

SAP calculations are performed at the completion of the intervals listed below and are calculated using both the GCU enrollment cumulative GPA and earned credit hours at each review time period.

- Nontraditional Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral Students: At the completion of every payment period. Please see Nontraditional Academic Calendar \(Online and Cohort\) section.
- Traditional Undergraduate and Graduate Students: After each semester

If a grade change for a course within the designated interval occurs within 35 days of an interval being completed, SAP will be recalculated.

Transfer credits (TR), provided they meet degree requirements, will be counted as both attempted and earned credit hours. Failed grades (F), Incompletes (I), and Withdrawals (W) will be counted as attempted credit hours but will not count as earned credit hours. Credit hours earned for repeated coursework, in addition to the original credit hours, will be counted as both attempted and earned credit hours.

Warning

Undergraduate students are placed on warning if their enrollment cumulative GPA drops below 2.0 or if they have not earned at least 67% of the cumulative credit hours attempted at each review time period as stated above.

Masters and Doctoral students are placed on warning if their enrollment cumulative GPA drops below 3.0 or if they have not earned at least 67% of the cumulative credit hours attempted at each review time period as stated above.

The warning period provides for an additional interval as described above. The warning status will be removed when the minimum enrollment cumulative GPA specified above is regained, and/or student earns 67% of the credit hours attempted. If a student fails to meet the minimum GPA or is not earning at least 67% of attempted credit hours in the subsequent interval, the student will be placed on suspension..

Suspension

Nontraditional students who are placed on suspension are not permitted to enroll in courses for a 15-week suspension period. The suspension period will begin with the last day of attendance.

For traditional campus students, the suspension period will begin on the last day of the semester. The suspension period for traditional campus students is as follows:

- Suspended at the end of Fall term: May be reinstated for the subsequent Fall term
- Suspended at the end of Spring term: May be reinstated for the subsequent Spring term
- Suspended at the end of Summer term: May be reinstated for the subsequent Spring term

After fulfilling the terms of the suspension, students may apply for reinstatement by submitting a Request for Reinstatement. Students may or may not be granted re-admittance based on their academic record, including participation in previous courses. If readmission is granted, an Academic Plan will be created which may require students to first repeat any course or its equivalency for which they did not earn a C or better (undergraduate) or a B or better (graduate). Students granted re-admittance will need to follow their Academic Plan specifying courses to repeat, grades required to be earned, or any other activities students must complete. The student's progress under the terms of the Academic Plan is monitored, and no program or modality changes can occur until the Academic Plan is complete.

If any course grade earned while on an Academic Plan is considered non-passing, the student will not have the opportunity to continue under the reinstatement plan and will be expelled. Failure to adhere to any other terms of the Academic Plan could also lead to expulsion. If a student fails to meet the minimum GPA requirements or is not earning at least 67% of attempted credit hours at the completion of his or her Academic Plan he or she will not be granted additional probationary time and will be expelled.

Students may have financial aid reinstated if they are reinstated academically.

It is important to note that students may also be suspended for other reasons, such as violations of the Code of Conduct and Academic Standards policy.

Expulsion

Expulsion is reserved for students who have continually failed to meet the University's expected performance requirements, measured by enrollment cumulative GPA and/or earning at least 67% of the cumulative credit hours attempted. After a suspended student is permitted reinstatement, he or she must raise their GPA to the required minimum and/or earn 67% of attempted credit hours by the completion of academic plan. If the student fails to meet either requirement, or any other terms in the Academic Plan, he or she will be expelled from the University and cannot register for any additional courses for two academic years.

After fulfilling the terms of the expulsion, students may apply for reinstatement by submitting a Request for Reinstatement. Students may or may not be granted re-admittance based on their academic record that includes participation in previous courses. If readmission is granted, an Academic Plan will be created which may require students to first repeat any course or its equivalency for which they did not earn a C or better (undergraduate) or a B or better (graduate). Students granted re-admittance will need to follow their Academic Plan specifying courses to repeat, grades required to be earned, or any other activities students must complete. The student's progress under the terms of the Academic Plan is monitored, and no program or modality changes can occur until the Academic Plan is complete.

It is important to note that students may also be expelled for other reasons, such as violations of the Code of Conduct and Academic Standards policy.

Maximum Timeframe

Federal regulations require students to complete their Program of Study within a measured maximum time frame that cannot exceed 150% of the published length of the program. The sum of the total required credit hours multiplied by 150% will be the maximum number of attempted credit hours. If a student reaches the 150% timeframe and has not completed his or her program of study, they will be placed on SAP Suspension. Students placed on SAP Suspension for not being able to complete their program within the 150% timeframe may apply for reinstatement by submitting a Request for Reinstatement. If readmission is granted, students may continue taking required coursework, but may be required to make other payment arrangements.

Baccalaureate Programmatic Progression Requirements

Honors College

Upon acceptance into the Honors College, students may remain enrolled as long as they adhere to the following, which will be reviewed by the Honors Committee annually:

1. Maintain an enrollment cumulative GPA of 3.25.
 - Students who fail to maintain the enrollment cumulative GPA requirement will be placed on honors probation for two consecutive semesters in order to remediate the deficiency. The student's case will be reviewed at the end of the probationary period by the Honors Committee to determine if the student will be removed from the Honors College.

- Students must be off probation and in good academic standing at the time of graduation to be recognized as an Honors College graduate.
 - Students removed from the Honors College for failure to meet the GPA progression requirement, and are currently between a 3.0 and 3.24 GPA can appeal for reinstatement into the Honors College. Appeals for reinstatement are reviewed on a case by case basis, and must be approved by the dean.
2. Complete the Annual Symposium each year with a “Pass” grade. Students that fail to meet the minimum expectations for the Annual Spring Symposium will not be granted a probationary period, and will be removed from the Honors College.
 3. Refrain from committing Student Code of Conduct violations.

Honors Course Withdrawal

Students wishing to withdraw from their honors course must follow the Course Drop Policy.

Prior to participation in any practicum/field experience, teacher candidates must provide their Field Experience Counselor with verification of a current State of Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card or current fingerprint clearance documentation in accordance with the fingerprint policies of the state in which they reside. Current and valid fingerprint clearance must be on file through the duration of the program. Failure to maintain current and valid Fingerprint Clearance may lead to immediate termination from the program. Based on the teacher candidate’s Program of Study, the teacher candidate will need one of the following:

1. Fingerprint Clearance Card

2. Federal Background Check: If a federal background check is required, official copies of this document will be reviewed by the Field Experience Counselor. A federal background check will be considered ‘clear’ if no offense(s) are listed. Teacher candidates with ‘cleared’ federal background checks will be deemed eligible for participation in practicum/field experiences. Should any offense(s) be listed on the federal background check, teacher candidates will be required to apply for and secure a valid State of Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card. Where applicable, a current teaching certificate may be provided in lieu of fingerprint clearance. GCU will not accept any background check older than six years.

3. District Letter: GCU accepts letters from cooperating school districts to satisfy the fingerprint clearance requirement. The letter must be on district letterhead. GCU must receive this letter directly from the district. If the letter is received directly from the teacher candidate, the teacher candidate must sign a FERPA release listing the letter’s signatory (school/district contact who completed the letter), and the teacher candidate’s TED will call the signatory to verify the letter’s authenticity. In order for the district’s letter to be accepted, the following information is required to be included:

- Teacher candidates name
- Employee identification number
- Date that the background check was completed (must be within the last 6 years)
- Identification number assigned to the background check
- Current employment status
- Date of initial employment
- Breaks in employment (if none, the letter must indicate that there were no breaks in employment)

Should any of the above information be missing from the letter or if the letter is not printed on official district letterhead, GCU will be unable to accept the letter for the purpose of satisfying the Fingerprint Clearance Policy. Please note that teacher candidates may need to complete additional fingerprinting for certification purposes based on their state’s requirements.

If candidates are charged with a felony or misdemeanor while in the program, even if charges are not verified, they are obligated to report this to their Field Experience Counselor. Failure to do so may lead to immediate termination from the program.

In the event that admission to Grand Canyon University’s College of Education is denied as a result of one or more offense listed in Sections B or Section C of the Arizona Revised Statute (ARS) 41-1758.03, outlined in Appendix A, the following appeals process should be followed.

Level One Appeal

1. Apply for a fingerprint clearance card from the Arizona Department of Public Safety. (Should the fingerprint clearance card be denied, see a Level Two Appeal)
2. Upon securing a fingerprint clearance card, request documentation from the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education indicating consent of your potential eligibility to apply for and obtain a teacher or principal license based on the listed offense(s). The Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education may request additional information regarding the listed offense(s) prior to the issuance of their consent to be eligible for certification.
3. Provide Grand Canyon University with copies of the Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card and the documentation provided by the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education for reconsideration of admission.

Level Two Appeal

1. In the event that a fingerprint clearance card is denied, petition the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting for a good cause exception. More information regarding the application and process for a good cause exception can be found at the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting website.
2. If the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting approves the good cause exception, a fingerprint clearance card will be issued. (Should the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting deny the good cause exception, a fingerprint clearance card will not be issued, and denied admission. (This decision cannot be appealed.)
3. Upon securing an Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card, request documentation from the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education indicating consent of your potential eligibility to apply for and obtain a teacher or principal license based on the listed offense(s). The Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education may request additional information regarding the listed offense(s) prior to the issuance of their consent to be eligible for certification.
4. Provide Grand Canyon University with copies of the Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card and the documentation provided by the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education for reconsideration of admission.

Practicum/Field Experiences

Practicum experiences are field-based learning opportunities that focus on observation, application, and reflection. Practicum experiences require the teacher candidate to spend a prescribed amount of time in real-life classroom settings in order to demonstrate competency with predetermined activities that are aligned to professional standards in the field of education. Teacher candidates in any course requiring practicum hours are required to have fingerprint clearance on file with their Field Experience Counselor. Teacher candidates who are not in an active student status may not complete practicum hours in the field. Teacher candidates enrolled in the Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education program, who are completing field experiences in Arizona, are required to submit a completed Student Information Release Form (SIRF) and proof of immunization and/or immunity from Tuberculosis (TB).

COE Clinical Practice Expectations and Academic Standards

The following clinical practice expectations for Teacher Candidates in the College of Education seek to address the common issues and responsibilities of Teacher Candidates who are out in schools and school districts in a field experience and clinical practice setting. The statements are designed to be reflective of the fundamental principles and values that are desired of a Teacher Candidate and his/her professional and personal conduct in the field experience and clinical setting. The conduct expectations clarify conduct unbecoming of a Teacher Candidate, and thus are subject to disciplinary action. By addressing these issues we seek to respond to and clarify our expectations for all of our Teacher Candidates who are representing themselves and Grand Canyon University in their role and work with students, Cooperating Teachers, GCU Faculty Supervisors, and school communities.

Teacher Candidates in the College of Education represent GCU's value-based liberal arts institution. All Teacher Candidates who go out into the field are expected to abide by the responsibilities of university citizenship and to show consideration and respect for personal freedom and property rights of members of the civic, academic, and school community. Teacher Candidates are expected to abide by ethical, professional, and academic standards that are conducive to a positive learning experience. These expectations include, but are not limited to the expectation that the Teacher Candidate:

- Gives appropriate attention to college and site placement work
- Attends class, exercises, and engagements as required by the college and school site placement
- Acknowledges and accepts the responsibility of honorable adherence to the university's and site placement's standards, rules, policies, and procedures
- Supports and exhibits ethical behavior with students, faculty, staff, school placement personnel, and the community
- Recognizes and embraces the diversity and personal values of others
- Exhibits self-direction and self-reliance as a college student and in the pursuit of individual and collaborative learning objectives and goals
- Acknowledges and accepts personal responsibility and accountability for his or her actions, interactions, and communication in all forms with students, faculty, staff, school placement personnel, and the community
- Upholds confidentiality and respect for personal or professional information communicated in the placement classroom
- Adheres to college dispositional expectations, policies, and standards of academic honesty
- Represents themselves solely in all matters related to Clinical Practice performance, evaluation, assessments, disciplinary action, etc.
- Dresses according to professional attire expectations which can be interpreted as:
 - Women: slacks (dress pants), skirts (mid-calf to about two inches above the knee), blouses, shells, cardigans, blazers, dresses
 - Men: dress pants, button down shirts, polo shirts (with a collar), blazers
 - Dress not permitted: Anything that is see-through, short, tight, or shows too much skin, flip-flops, tennis shoes, jeans that are too loose fitting, ripped or faded. Teacher Candidates must also follow the dress code of teachers at the school site

Dispositional Expectations

- High Expectations- Educators should believe that all students can learn and should set and support realistic expectations for student success.

- Respect for the Diversity of Others- Educators should be sensitive to individual learning and social needs of students and embrace the cultural diversity of the community.
- Fairness- Educators should promote social justice and equity, maintain appropriate standards of confidentiality, and exercise fairness in all areas including assessment.
- Professional Conduct- Educators should exercise sound judgment and ethical behavior. They should be a positive role model within their community.
- Reflection- Educators should recognize that reflection combined with experience leads to growth as a professional. Educators should be thoughtful about their professional practice, critically examine it, and seek continual improvement.
- Curiosity- Educators should promote and support curiosity and encourage active inquiry. They should be able to think innovatively and creatively, using critical thinking as a problem-solving approach.
- Honesty- Educators should model integrity by their words and actions. They should be forthright with others and uphold high standards of trust, character, and integrity.
- Compassion- Educators should demonstrate professional friendliness, warmth, and genuine caring in their relationships with others while providing intellectual, emotional, and spiritual support.
- Advocacy- Teachers understand the impact of community involvement and servant leadership as it applies to the welfare of others in the educational setting.
- Dedication- Educators should be committed to the profession of teaching and learning. They should be professionally active, lifelong learners and seek opportunities for professional development.

Clinical Practice Expectation Violations

The following violations clarify conduct unbecoming of Teacher Candidates in the College of Education. Teacher Candidates are expected not to engage in such action while in a clinical setting at a school or school district. The following is a non-exhaustive list of actions that are considered clinical practice conduct violations, for which Teacher Candidates are subjected to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University. If teacher candidates are found eligible to continue with the program, Clinical Practice can only be repeated once.

- Falsification, forgery, alteration, or invention of information, including, but not limited to, any document used for admission or eligibility to the university, document related to:
 - Admission or eligibility to Clinical Practice
 - Information regarding the site placement school, the district and/or personnel
 - Information regarding students
 - Information regarding curriculum content in the classroom
- Disruptive behavior in any form that creates a hostile or offensive educational environment for a student, Cooperating Teacher, GCU Faculty Supervisor, faculty or staff
 - Threatening to harm or endanger the safety of any individual in the practicum/field experience setting
 - Threatening statements, behaviors, acts of violence or corporal punishment against any individual in the practicum/field experience setting
- Failure to comply promptly with any reasonable directive from a Cooperating Teacher, GCU Faculty Supervisors, GCU course instructor, or staff
- Failure to cooperate with an investigation

- Possession, use, distribution, or behavior under the influence of alcohol or illegal or banned drugs or substances while on school property, or as part of any school-related activity
- Communication orally, in writing, or by use of any technological device, including, and not limited to any phone or computer device, outside the classroom in a manner that could be perceived as inappropriate by any member of the site placement school, its extended community or university
- Failure to maintain a professional approach to personal relationships with the students or the school community members

Remediation

The College of Education may take disciplinary action against candidates who demonstrate insufficient performance, inappropriate dispositions, conduct unbecoming, or are terminated by the site school placement. Remediation is implemented if candidates do not demonstrate sufficient progress with regard to performance or dispositions. The College of Education Office of Clinical Practice and/or Professional Practices Committee reviews all documentation and makes a determination as to whether the alleged violation or deficiency has been substantiated and which college-level penalties may apply. If candidates do not comply with remediation plans and/or sanctions, they may be terminated from their site, complete a corrective action plan and/or may have to undergo the Code of Conduct process for failure to comply with a college directive.

Basic Skills and Content Area Exams (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

1. Teacher candidates enrolled in an Initial Program – Leads to Initial Teacher Licensure Programs (IP/TL) beginning with the 2009-2010 Academic Catalog must pass their state-mandated basic skills and content area exams or Praxis I® (Basic Skills) and Praxis II® (Content Area) prior to student teaching. Arizona residents will be required to take the Arizona Educator Proficiency Assessments (AEPAs).
2. Arizona residents will be required to pass the Arizona Educator Proficiency Assessments (AEPAs) successfully.
3. Teacher candidates requiring Arizona certification in application for their local state licensure will need to complete the appropriate AEPAs or an equivalent exam as determined by the Arizona Department of Education's out of state exam reciprocity requirements prior to receiving an Arizona IR. For content areas out of the approved AEPAs areas, teacher candidates seeking Arizona Certification will be required to hold 24 units in the certification content area.
4. Score reports for Arizona residents and those seeking initial licensure in Arizona will be accepted only if the score report documents a passing score ('pass' or 'passed').
5. Teacher candidates residing in states that do not have state-specific mandated basic and/or content exams will be required to take the AEPAs exams or an equivalent exam.

Student Teaching (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

Taken at the conclusion of all coursework, student teaching requires 15-16 consecutive weeks of unpaid, full-time placement with a COE approved cooperating/mentor teacher, who must be licensed in the area in which the teacher is teaching. Student teaching cannot be done during summer months; and is required for an Institutional Recommendation (IR).

Paraprofessionals (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

Teacher candidates may not student teach in the classroom(s) in which they are employed as paraprofessionals. Paraprofessionals are not teachers of record. As assistants to a classroom teacher, their responsibilities are more limited than those required of a classroom teacher. Therefore, paraprofessionals will need to take a leave of absence from their duties and responsibilities while they complete the student teaching requirements for their program of study.

Eligibility for Student Teaching (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

1. Complete all coursework within the program of study.
2. Pass the state-specified basic skills and content area exams or Praxis I® (Basic Skills) and Praxis II® (Content Area) prior to student teaching.
3. Maintain a minimum GPA of a 2.8
4. Work with the appropriate departments to remove any academic and/or financial holds on account to ensure that the Student Services Counselor is able to complete the required registration process.
5. View program evaluations with assigned Student Services Counselor and/or Field Experience Counselor to discuss program progression and academic eligibility.
6. Possess a current Fingerprint Clearance Card or background check. Arizona residents must have an Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card.
7. Student teaching may only be repeated once.

Application for Student Teaching (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

The Student Teaching Application can be found on the College of Education website. Deadlines for applying for student teaching are as follows:

- For Fall Student Teaching – February 1
- For Spring Student Teaching – August 1

No exceptions will be made to these deadlines, as placing learners in an appropriate setting is a process.

Requirements for an Institutional Recommendation (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

Institutional Recommendations (IRs) are issued for teaching, principal, and school counseling programs that lead to initial licensure in Arizona. The IR confirms that a student has met all requirements, including successful student teaching or internship, for the program of study that has been approved by the Arizona State Board of Education. It is the student's responsibility to determine the professional knowledge and subject knowledge exams that must be taken to obtain a certificate in Arizona. An IR is valid for one year from the date it is signed. IRs can be issued only within one year of a student's graduation date; otherwise, the student will need to apply for a transcript analysis to determine if certification criteria have been met.

All teacher candidates seeking an Institutional Recommendation for a teaching license must complete the program requirements for their degree program, which include verification of fingerprint clearance and successful completion of student teaching. It is the learner's responsibility to determine what, if any, testing is necessary for their individual state. Teacher candidates who are seeking licensure in a state which does not require verification of test scores for the basic skills, content knowledge, and/or professional knowledge exam prior to teacher licensure may request a waiver by completing a Waiver of Test Score Verification form. The Waiver of Test Score Verification will be approved only by a dean, or dean's designee. Learners should check with their own state department of education for additional applicable teacher licensure guidelines.

College of Fine Arts and Production

Bachelor of Arts in Dance

Bachelor of Arts in Dance Education (IP/TL)

Prospective students seeking admission to Grand Canyon University as dance education majors should have a minimum of two years of concentrated training in ballet, modern, and jazz dance technique. To gain admission into the program, a student must meet the general admission requirement of the university along with the requirements below.

1. An audition, either live or through the submission of DVD or digital materials
2. Dance resume and goal essay

Auditionees will be led by a faculty member and asked to demonstrate their technical skill level via barre and center work, progressions and improvisation. In addition, students will perform one minute of solo choreography. Transfer students are required to perform solos that they have choreographed. Candidates must demonstrate performance strength and skills that can be developed to enable them to successfully complete the degree requirements of the major and to successfully serve in professional realms of dance and dance education. Prospective students may register online to audition on a date of their choice at www.gcu.edu/auditions.

College of Nursing and Health Care Professions

All CONHCP Nursing Undergraduate Programs

Chain of Command

Effective Fall 2017

In a healthcare organization, it is the expectation that nurses will use the chain of command to bring issues to the appropriate leader's attention. This is especially important when nurses question things like medication type and dosage. In order to prepare students for the requirements of health care employers, the College leadership expect students to use the Chain of Command for raising similar issues in nursing programs. Therefore, students with concerns regarding the classroom should appropriately and professionally address their faculty. If intervention is needed beyond the faculty, students should address concerns to the Director or Program Chair of their program. Finally, if the issue needs further attention, in conjunction with the Director or Program Lead, the concern should be taken to the Assistant/Associate Dean over the student's program.

If the student's concern is regarding something unrelated to nursing courses, the student should consult with their counselor, and if needed the Student Services Manager.

If after this process is exhausted, the student can pursue the University Appeals Procedures.

Professional Practices Committee

The College of Nursing & Health Care Professions Professional Practices Committee serves as the central sanctioning body for the application of College-level penalties in all cases involving student violations of the CONHCP clinical and lab policies, the Student Professional Dispositions, as well as the Nursing Professional Standards.

Student Professional Dispositions

One important aspect of the student experience is the fulfillment of professional dispositions—ways of working, thinking, and interacting with others—in three areas: Professionalism, Work Ethic, and Communication Skills. In order to support student development and have clear expectations in these areas CONHCP lists the following key dispositions. Failure to demonstrate these dispositions through behaviors at any point in the program may jeopardize students' continuation in the program. Students are expected to monitor their development of these professional dispositions, beginning now and continuing throughout their career. The ability to reflect on personal growth, strengths, and challenges is a central characteristic of effective people working in health care. These disposition statements do not replace the University Code of Conduct.

Communication Skills

1. Demonstrate appropriate, professional, respectful verbal communication
2. Demonstrate appropriate, professional, respectful written communication
3. Demonstrate a disposition toward inquiry and problem solving
4. Work collaboratively with students, faculty, and professionals
5. Demonstrate consistently positive attitudes toward learning and/or teaching
6. Accept responsibility for decisions and actions
7. Establish and maintain mutually respectful interactions
8. Demonstrate understanding of university/program organizational chart by communicating "need to know information" to individuals according to the chain of command

Work Ethic

1. Demonstrate regular attendance
2. Demonstrate punctuality
3. Complete work in a timely manner
4. Demonstrate organizational skills
5. Know and observe all pertinent policies and procedures
6. Demonstrate a disposition toward personal ownership of learning and professional development

Professionalism

1. Demonstrate a commitment to work with clients, their families, students, faculty, and staff in appropriate, professional, and respectful ways
2. Demonstrate an awareness of community, state, national, and world contexts that have an impact on the profession and the learning process
3. Treat everyone fairly, equitably, and respectfully
4. Accept constructive criticism and adjusts performance accordingly
5. Express and demonstrate interest in and enthusiasm for teaching/learning
6. Adapt to new and diverse teaching/learning situations
7. Adapt to differences among people including differences of SES, gender, age, ability, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, religion, language, etc.
8. Maintain confidentiality about all student, client, faculty, and staff records unless disclosure serves a professionally compelling purpose or is required by law
9. Demonstrate discretion when discussing colleagues, faculty, field sites, and personal information
10. Respect the points of view of others
11. Contribute meaningfully, appropriately, professionally, and respectfully to discussions by asking questions, giving opinions, and listening to others
12. Project an appropriate professional appearance in professional settings
13. Project an appropriate professional and respectful demeanor
14. Be open to leadership and opportunities for growth
15. Understand and practice professional ethical standards

16. Recognize personal at risk behavior: Behavioral choice that increases risk where risk is not recognized, or is mistakenly believed to be justified
17. Recognize personal reckless behavior: Behavioral choice to consciously disregard a substantial and unjustifiable risk
18. Acts overall in a manner that furthers the interests of others (enlightened self-interest): Enlightened self-interest refers to the understanding and trust that what a person does to enhance another's quality of life enhances one's own quality of life to a similar degree. More simply put, it is the idea that "what goes around comes around"
19. Utilize social media responsibly, avoiding issues regarding privacy and confidentiality by not communicating information regarding your clinical experiences or documents contained in a client record.

Conduct Violations

- Practicing outside of scope
- Unprofessional conduct
- Sanctions against a license/certification, or failure to report criminal conduct
- Unsafe practice
- Practicing outside supervision
- Unprepared for clinical
- Breach of privacy/confidentiality
- Violations of the Clinical Probation, Clinical Lab Attendance, or Clinical Tardy policies
- Failure to follow policies/guidelines of facility
- Positive drug screen
- Failure to follow Office of Field Experience guidelines

Procedure for Processing Alleged Violations of the CONHCP Professional Practices Committee

The College of Nursing and Health Care Professions may take disciplinary action against a student who violates the Professional Practices. Violations will be reported through an Incident Report by GCU instructors, GCU staff, or third parties affiliated with GCU. Reports are forwarded to the Professional Practices Committee Administrator upon discovery of the incident. Additionally, GCU staff is required to notify students that an incident report will be submitted to the Professional Practices Committee. The Administrator then reviews the report, as well as any history of prior offenses. The Administrator then notifies the student if the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions intends to take further action as a result of the particular report or as a result of the history of offenses. If further action is recommended, the Professional Practices Committee will determine whether the alleged violation has been substantiated and which College-level penalty to apply.

Students who are charged with a violation of the Professional Practices are afforded an opportunity to be heard before a College-level penalty is applied. Students at risk for College-level sanctions will be:

- Contacted by the Professional Practices Committee Administrator
- Offered the opportunity to present documentation and speak on their own behalf to the Professional Practices Committee.
- Present information by submitting a written statement and/or participating via teleconference.

Students are not required to participate or submit information.

Students who wish to participate or present information must adhere to the following:

- Submit all documentation within the timeframe specified in the notification.

- If the student does not respond within seven days of being contacted by the Professional Practices Committee Administrator, the student forfeits his/her right to participate in the process and a determination will be made by the Professional Practices Committee.
- All information, including the initial report and supporting documentation, and any statement and documentation submitted by the student, will be reviewed by the Professional Practices Committee during their formal Committee meetings.
- Students are not entitled to representation by any third party, personal representative, or attorney in the College disciplinary process.

College-level Penalties

The Professional Practices Committee has the ability to issue College-level penalties. In making its determination, the Board considers the severity of the offense, as well as the student's history within the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions. A College-level penalty may include, but is not limited to:

- Applying a formal warning to the student record (which may result in further penalties for additional occurrences)
- Stipulating a professional growth plan, to include a letter of concern.
- Issuing clinical probation
- Administrative withdrawal from the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions, which includes course failure.
- Assigning a failing grade for the assignment(s), which may result in course failure
- Recommending a failing grade for the course

The Professional Practices Committee may determine referral to the University Code of Conduct Committee is appropriate, in addition to or in place of, any College-level penalties.

The recommendation for a course failure or an administrative withdrawal must be approved by the Assistant/Associate Dean (or designee) over the student's program, and referred to the University's Code of Conduct Committee for processing. Since students are provided the opportunity to speak on their own behalf to the Professional Practices Committee, the referral to the University Code of Conduct Committee is for processing only and is not intended to be a re-review of the issue.

Students may appeal a determination made by the Professional Practices Committee by utilizing the University Appeal Procedures and submitting a formal appeal through a Student Services Counselor.

Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training

Students may enroll in general education coursework that prepares students for entry into the Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training (ATP) program. Admission into the clinical portion of the Athletic Training Education program is competitive and determined by the criteria listed below in addition to the availability of clinical placements. Admission into the Athletic Training Program is not guaranteed

Admission Requirements for Clinical Coursework

To be eligible for acceptance into the clinical phase of the program, students must:

1. Complete the application by the designated deadline as specified on the ATP website.
2. Possess a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.
3. Successfully complete all prerequisite courses: ENG-105, ENG-106, MAT-144, BIO-201, BIO-201L, BIO-202, BIO-202L ATP-214, ATP-214L and ATP-256. ATP-214, ATP-

214L and ATP-256 must be completed at Grand Canyon University.

4. Complete the Athletic Training entrance examination, which includes content from prerequisite courses including BIO-201, BIO-201L, BIO-202, BIO-202L ATP-214, ATP-214L and ATP-256.
5. Complete a written essay to answer a series of questions regarding students' knowledge of the profession of athletic training and commitment to learning.

Students offered secondary admission must complete and submit the following information to the Office of Field Experience prior to the start of clinical rotations:

1. Application for an Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card.
2. First Aid card from an approved provider listed in the Guidelines for Undergraduate Field Experience Manual
3. Professional Rescuer CPR card from an approved provider listed in the Guidelines for Undergraduate Field Experience Manual. The CPR course must meet the Board of Certification (BOC) Emergency Cardiac Care (ECC) requirements (www.bocate.org).
6. Signed Technical Standards form
7. Signed HIPAA and FERPA confidentiality acknowledgement form
8. Health History and Physical Examination form which include proof of required vaccinations outlined in the Guidelines for Undergraduate Field Experience Manual
9. Proof of valid professional liability insurance
10. Hepatitis B Vaccination Form
11. Valid National Athletic Trainers Association Membership which provides access to clinical course proficiency requirements. Membership fee is paid by the student.

Students offered secondary admission must attend the mandatory athletic training orientation prior to the start of the academic year. Policies and procedures pertaining to blood borne pathogens, communicable diseases, and accreditation requirements are reviewed with new students at that time.

Upon acceptance into the clinical phase of the program, students must adhere to the following criteria in order to remain in good standing and continuously enrolled in the Athletic Training program:

1. Maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.7. Students who fail to meet the minimum GPA requirement will be placed on academic probation for the following semester. Students who fail to raise their GPA after the following semester will be administratively withdrawn from the program.
2. Successfully complete all Athletic Training major courses with C or better. Students who receive a lower grade than a C will be administratively withdrawn from the program and will need to follow the steps outlined in the Re-Entry to Athletic Training Major Courses section.
3. Maintain continuous enrollment during the fall and spring semesters.
4. Maintain National Athletic Trainers Association Membership at the cost to the student, which provides access to clinical course proficiency requirements.
5. Maintain Emergency Cardiac Care (ECC) certification (current through May of each academic year).
6. Maintain Athletic Training Student Liability Insurance (current through May of each academic year).
7. Attend the GCU Athletic Training Student Orientation annually (either in person or on a webinar), which includes blood borne pathogen training and a discussion of the communicable disease policy.

8. Follow clinical requirements as outlined in the Athletic Training Clinical Manual.
9. Know and adhere to a clinical site's privacy and procedures before undertaking any activities at the site.
10. Promptly report any violation of those procedures, applicable law, or ATP confidentiality agreement by an ATP student, faculty or staff member to the appropriate ATP clinical instructor or faculty member.
11. Understand that a violation of the clinical site's policies and procedures, of applicable law, or ATP confidentiality agreement will subject the student to disciplinary action.
12. Maintain Immunization Records as outlined in the Athletic Training Clinical Manual.
13. Successfully complete GCU Board of Certification (BOC) endorsement exam prior to being endorsed by the Program Director. Students must report any legal incidence that may result in revocation of the fingerprint clearance card or cause ineligibility to sit for the BOC examination immediately to the program director.

Re-Entry to Athletic Training Major Courses

Students who have failed courses in the athletic training major must submit an official academic appeal to the Athletic Training Program Director to be considered for re-entry into the program.

A student receiving a grade of incomplete "I" in any athletic training major course must assure that the incomplete is resolved and a grade is submitted prior to the start of the next academic semester. Failure to do so will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and current cohort sequence.

Student must petition with the Athletic Training Program Director for re-entry to the athletic training major under the following conditions:

1. Interrupted Enrollment- Student has been out of the athletic training major (for at least one course). Students must follow a cohort sequence.
2. Course failure- Student receives a failure (below a grade of "C") in athletic training course. Students may not continue in ATP course sequence until failed course has been repeated and passed with a "C" or better. Courses are currently offered one time during the academic year.
3. Unresolved Incomplete- Student receives an incomplete "I" as a grade in an athletic training course that is unresolved by the first day of classes in the following semester.
4. Administrative Withdrawal- Student has been administratively withdrawn from the athletic training major course.

Re-entry to the major is not assured simply because the student was previously enrolled in athletic training courses or was previously accepted. The decision will be based on the evidence showing that the student is ready to continue, has potential to complete the program, and is in compliance with University regulations and standards of behavior. All decisions to readmit are also contingent upon clinical space availability. The student must meet all admission and clinical requirements to be considered for re-entry into the program.

Only one failed athletic training course may be repeated once based on acceptance of the student by the reapplication process to the major. Subsequent course failures constitute administrative withdrawal from the athletic training education program.

Board of Certification Examination

In order to attain certification, an individual must complete a professional athletic training education program accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education \(CAATE\) and pass the Board of Certification (BOC) exam.

Please visit the BOC website and view the candidate information for full description of qualifications and process.

Mandatory Advisement for Athletic Training Major Courses

Faculty members may request mandatory advisement or remediation sessions when students are in clinical or academic jeopardy, and/or when student behavior appears below professional standards. Satisfactory academics and/or behavioral changes must be accomplished by the end of the course in order to progress in the program. It is important to maintain continuous progress and a sound knowledge base to be successful throughout the program.

Athletic Training Major Course Completion

Successful completion of athletic training courses means that students must:

1. Achieve a minimum of 76% average for the theory portion of the course.
 - a. Theory grade includes the average of exams and all non-clinical assignments.
 - b. Theory grade for clinical courses includes all proficiencies and clinical assignments.
2. Achieve a minimum of 76% average for the graded clinical portion of the course with satisfactory clinical performance.
 - a. Exam portion does not include quizzes.
 - b. Courses delineated as writing intensive do not follow the exam policy.
3. Achieve a minimum of 76% average for the graded clinical proficiencies, and submitted to earn course credit.
4. Complete all assignments, including clinical proficiencies, and submitted to earn course credit.
 - a. Late assignments will be deducted 10% per day.
 - b. No points will be awarded for any assignment submitted 10 days past the due date, but submission is still required.
 - c. Technical issues are not valid excuses for late work unless the problem stems from GCU servers.
5. Complete a minimum of 150 clinical hours in each clinical course.
 - a. Students should not be scheduled for less than 10 hours per week and no more than 20 hours per week.

Clinical Probation Policy

Clinical probation is the official means of notifying you of unacceptable behavior or unsatisfactory performance. Being placed on probation can affect the field experience/clinical grade and may result in being administratively withdrawn from the course as determined by the Professional Standards Committee.

Clinical probation status is conferred at the discretion of the course instructor, clinical instructor, and respective Course Faculty for any unsafe or unprofessional behaviors. The following are examples of behaviors that lead to probation:

- Participating in a setting with expired or outstanding immunizations or documentation or delay in completing OCO modules by the due date.
- Unexcused absences
- Tardiness, failure to notify faculty/staff of tardiness or absences in clinical
- Insufficient preparation for the field experience
- Failure to follow instructor's or preceptor's guidance
- Unsafe practice in the clinical area
- Causing a client unnecessary suffering or harm
- Failure to report abnormal data in a timely manner to the appropriate persons
- Conduct inappropriate to the role of the student as outlined in this manual

- Failure to follow instructor’s guidance
- Failure to dress in approved program attire
- HIPAA violations
- Leaving the clinical site without permission at any time during clinical hours
- Pre-licensure students administering medications unsupervised by an RN
- Performing skills/interventions which have not been signed off by the faculty
- Acting outside of a student scope or practice

Probation Procedure

- A discussion with Couse Faculty and letter of probation will be given you.
- Code of Conduct will be initiated.
- A copy of the letter will be sent to the College Administrator and will be placed in your file.
- Refer to the University Policy Handbook for more information
- Clinical probation may result in up to 10% reduction in the clinical grade and may result in the student being withdrawn from the course

Clinical Probation

Clinical probation means the student is not meeting the stated clinical objectives, which are listed in the syllabus for each clinical course. A student may be removed from the clinical area for any unsafe or unprofessional behaviors. Clinical probation may result in up to 10% reduction in the clinical grade and may result in the student being withdrawn from the course at the discretion of the lead faculty member.

Examples of probationary actions, include but are not limited to:

1. Unsafe practice in the clinical area
2. Insufficient preparation for clinical experience
3. Failure to follow faculty/staff guidance in clinical experience
4. Failure to notify faculty/staff of tardiness or absences during clinical experience
5. Causing patient to experience unnecessary suffering
6. Inappropriate performance specific to level of expectations
7. Unprofessional communication to faculty, staff, or patient
8. Non-adherence to student uniform attire
9. Consciously falsifying documents, including patient and personal documents

Clinical Probation Procedure

The following steps will occur if the student is not meeting the clinical objectives.

1. The lead faculty member will meet with the student and provide him or her with a letter of clinical probation effective throughout the duration of the clinical course.
2. A copy of the letter will be sent to the Associate Dean and Site Director and will be placed in the student’s file.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (Pre-Licensure)

The Bachelor of Science in Nursing (Pre-licensure) is a significantly rigorous program, both academically and based on the time commitment required. Students who choose to apply for secondary admission to the nursing program should understand all the additional nursing policies students must adhere to in order to be admitted, progress, and graduate from the program. Students who cannot meet the academic rigor of the courses, as well as prioritize time-demanding program requirements above all else, will likely have a difficult time meeting the requirements of the program.

Effective Application Deadline for Spring 2018

The number of students admitted into the clinical portion of the Pre-Licensure program is dependent on the availability of clinical spaces and varies each application period. Admission into the program is competitive, and CONHCP stack-ranks prerequisite GPA, programmatic GPA, and HESI A2 scores to determine final admissions decisions. Admission cannot be guaranteed.

Applications that do not meet the minimum requirements by the application deadline will be denied without consideration.

- GCU’s Pre-licensure program only admits students into the pre-licensure program that are first time, full-time freshman students at Grand Canyon University (did not attend another college or university before or since enrolling at GCU, excluding any college credits earned while attending high school). (Students already registered as a GCU student as of April 6, 2017, will be honored even if they do not meet this requirement.)

All locations:

- Meet minimum cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher for all prerequisite coursework (BIO-201/201L, BIO-202/202L, BIO-205/205L, BIO-319, BIO-322/483, CHM-101/101L, ENG-105, ENG-106, MAT-134/144, MAT-274, PSY-102, PSY-357, SOC-102).
- Programmatic GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Complete the Health Education Systems, Inc. (HESI A2) entrance exam with a minimum score of:
 - 80% in Composite Score of Reading Comprehension, Grammar, Vocabulary
 - 80% in Math
 - 75% in Human Anatomy and Physiology

Students are able to complete the full HESI A2 entrance exam twice during one application period. Attempts taken less than 45 days apart will be nullified. Students can take the full HESI entrance exam with a maximum of four total attempts over two application periods. Students must take all three required portions in the same sitting in order for the test to meet standards. CONHCP will use the attempt with the highest overall score, providing all subtest scores meet the requirements above. CONHCP will not select highest subtest scores from different attempts.

The above criteria will be weighted per the table below:

Criteria	Weight	Spring 2018
BIO-201/201L, BIO-202/202L, BIO-205/205L, BIO-319, BIO-322/483, CHM-101/101L, ENG-105, ENG-106, MAT-134/144, MAT-274, PSY-102, PSY-357, SOC-102	40%	3.25
Programmatic GPA: All courses taken under the enrolled program	15%	3.0
HESI: Composite Score of Reading Comprehension, Grammar, Vocabulary	15%	80
HESI: Math	15%	80
HESI: Human Anatomy and Physiology	15%	75

Additional Requirements

- Submit Fingerprint Clearance Card:
 - Applicants provide a Level One State of Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card.
- Pass a Background Check: Students must pass an approved background check. The background check includes an approved OIG/GSA component that documents students have not committed Healthcare Fraud or Abuse. Students whose record includes any felony will be automatically disqualified and denied admission. If the prospective student or student is charged with a felony, or undesignated offense either before admission or during the program, he/she must speak with the Site Director and Dean within 15 days. Students with misdemeanors on their records will be reviewed to determine potential clinical placement and employability based on the individual's record. Students that are admitted with misdemeanors can in no way be guaranteed licensure or employment, as licensure is at the sole discretion of the State Boards of Nursing and external healthcare employers

All criteria must be completed by the deadline specified below. The College of Nursing and Healthcare Professions will conduct a review of the student's records to determine admissibility into the nursing major.

Deadline	Semester
May 15	Fall
September 15	Spring
January 15	Summer

While GCU may attempt to collect a student's location preference for the didactic portion of the program, GCU's location assignment is final. If a student does not accept the assignment, GCU will offer the position to the next qualified student.

Required Prior to Starting BSN Clinical Coursework

Upon acceptance into the nursing program, students must complete the following prior to starting the major coursework and clinical phase of the program.

1. Sign the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Confidentiality Agreement before any involvement in a clinical setting.
2. Attend College of Nursing and Health Care Professions training or an approved in-classroom clinical instruction on requirements relating to patient privacy.
3. Complete the Drug, Nicotine, and Alcohol Screening. Please refer to the Guidelines for Undergraduate Field Experience Manual for additional information.
4. Provide the following health information to the Office of Field Experience at least two weeks before the semester start date where the student will begin their clinical coursework. Some requirements will need to be updated after the initial screening/immunization. Please refer to the Guidelines for Undergraduate Field Experience Manual for additional information.
 - Health history
 - Physical exam
 - Current health insurance coverage
 - Proof of immunization and/or immunity (as in the Guidelines for Undergraduate Field Experiences Manual) are required:
 - Tuberculosis (TB) screening
 - Lab evidence (titer) of immunity
 - MMR (measles, mumps, rubella)

- Varicella Zoster (VZV)
- Tetanus-Diphtheria (TD)
- Influenza
- Hepatitis A (recommended; not required)
- Hepatitis B (recommended; a signed waiver is required if the vaccination series is not completed or declined by the student)
- Submit a Professional Rescuer CPR course completion card. The certification has to remain current throughout the program.

Progression Requirements during the Pre-licensure Nursing Major and Clinical Coursework

While enrolled in the nursing major, students must adhere to the following criteria:

1. Follow the clinical policies and procedures outlined in the Guidelines for Undergraduate Field Experience Manual.
2. Maintain a current Level One State of Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card or current fingerprint clearance documentation in accordance with the fingerprint policies of the state in which the student resides.
3. Maintain continuous enrollment in the nursing major courses. Traditional campus students maintain enrollment for the Fall and Spring semesters. Fast-track students maintain enrollment for the Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters. This includes clinical rotations.
4. Earn a grade of a C or better in all nursing major courses.
5. Only failed courses within the same academic term may be repeated one time, provided the student follows the college's reapplication process and the application is approved. Failure in a didactic or clinical course also results in failure of the co-requisite course; however, co-requisite failures are processed as a single non-passing occurrence. Students who fail one or more nursing core course(s) for the second time in consecutive or non-consecutive semesters will not be approved re-entry to the program.

Students that fail a term or semester will not be allowed to register for the following term or semester given they are now out of sequence with their plan of study. These students must apply through a formal reentry application process to re-enter the program following a failure for the next term or semester the failed course(s) is offered. Re-entry is not guaranteed. A re-entry decision will be based on evidence showing that the student is ready to continue, has potential to complete the program, and is in compliance with University regulations, professional standards of behavior, and is deemed safe. All decisions to readmit are also contingent upon clinical space availability. New Mexico students seeking re-entry must first verify whether the level they need is available at the New Mexico location. If it is not, the students must apply for re-entry to the main campus. The student must meet all admission and clinical requirements to be considered for re-entry into the program. All re-entry students will be placed on a student success plan. Students must meet with the faculty of the re-entered course during week one of the course to develop a student success plan.

Failure to achieve any of these criteria will result in nursing course failure.

Failure to pass ALL of the benchmark assignments as designated in the individual course will result in failure of the course.

Pre-licensure Nursing Major Course Completion

Failure to achieve any of these criteria will result in nursing course failure::

1. Achieve a minimum of 76% average for all exams, excluding HESI Exams.

2. Earn a minimum of 76% or a passing grade for each of the benchmark assignments as designated in the individual course. Example benchmarks may include:
 - a. Performance-Based Assessment (labs)
 - b. Presentation related to the content goals of the program
 - c. HESI 3-Day Live
 - d. HESI CAT
3. Students must complete all HESI Standardized exams in each course, any associated remediation, and HESI retake when remediation is required. The higher of the two exam scores will be used as the grade earned. The following table explains the scoring in terms of grade percentages.

HESI Scoring Interval	Performance Level	% Score
≥ 1100	Recommended	100
1050 – 1099	Recommended	95
1000 – 1049	Acceptable	90
950 – 999	Acceptable	85
900 – 949	Minimum score indicative of passing the NCLEX	80
875 – 899	Minimum acceptable	76
850 – 874	Remediation required	70
800 – 849	Remediation required	65
750 – 799	Remediation required	60
700 – 749	Remediation required	55
≤ 699	Remediation required	50

4. Achieve a minimum of 76% or higher for the course.
Clinical:

1. Complete total number of clinical experience hours required for the course. In instances when the clinical site lacks sufficient clinical experiences to meet clinical objectives (i.e. low census, closed units, etc.) students are required to make-up the clinical hours associated with that clinical experience. It is up to the University to determine how students will make up those hours, but the primary method will be an additional clinical rotation. Secondly, if alternative clinical rotations cannot be arranged, the University may choose to use lab and case studies to meet the clinical objectives. Students may not decline the make-up experience identified, and may risk failing the course for nonattendance.
2. Achieve a minimum of 76% as the cumulative grade for the course.

In the event that a student has not met one of the criteria and wants to drop course while course is still in session please refer to the Course Drop Policy.

Re-Entry to Pre-licensure Nursing Major Courses

Any student who exits the nursing program prematurely for any reason must reapply to obtain another seat in the program. The reason(s) a student is unable to successfully progress may be due to failure, withdrawal (elective or administrative) or leave of absence (LOA) in a course(s).

Re-entry to the nursing program is not guaranteed irrespective of whether the student was previously enrolled in the nursing program or was previously accepted. Students may be granted one re-entry. A student applying for readmission will update to the most current version of the Pre-licensure program, and complete the courses associated with that version of the program. If, after readmission to the program, the student subsequently fails or withdraws from any course, they are ineligible for re-entry and will have to choose another program if they remain at the University.

The re-entry decision will be based on stack ranking using the criteria pertaining to the level the student failed to complete.

Level One

Level One students who fail or withdraw and apply for re-entry will be considered under the admissions policy with the alternates for the term the student is requesting re-entry. The students whose admission stack ranking achieve the highest overall score will be offered any remaining positions for the term. Admission is not guaranteed.

Levels Two through Four

Consideration for re-entry will be considered each term, and stack-ranked against other students seeking re-entry. Students requesting re-entry must be in compliance with the following:

1. Students must file a Reinstatement form
2. Re-entry will be considered in the following order:
 - a. Students with extreme medical circumstances
 - b. Overall exam score for the course(s) in the failed term
 - c. Completion of benchmark assignments
 - d. HESI score for content exams
3. If re-entry is approved, the student must sign and abide by the required remediation documented in the student success plan, which may include, but is not limited to:
 - a. Repeating of failed academic courses or passed academic courses in accordance with an Academic Plan, determined by Academic Compliance.
 - b. Clinical/laboratory/simulation experiences;
 - c. Required Faculty Meetings
 - d. Remediation activities related to Code of Conduct and Professional Standards Committee.

Students denied re-entry will receive a letter indicating the College's decision.

Conditions for Pre-Licensure Readmission Application

1. Student withdrew from one or more enrolled nursing courses in same semester.
2. Student receives a failure in one or more enrolled nursing course within the same semester.
3. Student has been administratively withdrawn from a nursing major course.

Guidelines for Pre-licensure Readmission

1. Consideration for readmission will be granted only to the student who is in compliance with the following readmission guidelines:
 - a. Student will have to file a Reinstatement form for review by the college.
 - b. Student requesting readmission must have:
 - i. A 2.7 cumulative GPA on 4.0 scale in all nursing major courses. GPA will be calculated using course grades from previously completed nursing major courses,

- ii. In the reinstatement form, student must list the reason(s) for not progressing in the nursing major; the reason(s) for wanting readmission to the nursing major; indications for how the student's status has changed in regards to progression in the nursing major; and examples of the strategies for success to be implemented if granted readmission.
- c. The College Administrator may specify certain criteria necessary for readmission. In the Student Success Plan additional readmission criteria may include but are not limited to:
 - i. Repeating of failed academic courses;
 - ii. Repeating of passed academic courses in accordance with an Academic Plan, determined by Academic Compliance.
 - iii. Clinical/laboratory/simulation experiences;
 - iv. Remediation meetings and activities;
 - v. Counseling;
 - vi. Review of Code of Conduct issues, including timeliness, professionalism, and accountability.
 - vii. Remediation activities related to Code of Conduct issues.
- d. The student is responsible for providing documentation of compliance with the readmission criteria prior to consideration of reentry. This may include a summary of work, educational, and other experiences required/obtained since leaving the program.
- e. Students may be granted one readmission.
- f. A student requesting readmission to the College of Nursing & Health Care Professions may need to comply with new curriculum requirements.
- g. Readmission to the nursing program is not guaranteed simply because the student was previously enrolled in nursing courses or was previously accepted. The decision will be based on the evidence showing that the student is ready to continue, has potential to successfully complete the program, and is in compliance with University regulations and standards of behavior
- h. All readmissions are subject to space availability and approval of the Dean.
- i. If readmission is granted, the readmission is valid only for the semester noted on the Readmission Request Form.
- j. If readmission is granted, the student must meet all the requirements for readmission as detailed on the Readmission letter.
- k. Student acceptance letter will detail the requirements and timelines the student must meet before attendance in the courses can occur.
- l. Students denied readmission will receive a letter indicating College's decision.

Pre-licensure Nursing Total Testing Exams

Students are required to complete total testing exams, as assigned at each level of nursing courses.

Pre-licensure Nursing Med-Math Policy

The purpose of this policy is to ensure students demonstrate a basic level of knowledge and skills proficiency prior to safely administering medication, under direct supervision, in a clinical environment. A medication math exam, given at all levels, and as assigned after new math content, must be passed prior to administering medications in the clinical setting.

The med-math and medication administration performance-based assessment consists of two-parts. Students will not be allowed to administer medication in the clinical setting until both Part A and

Part B of the performance-based assessment has been successfully completed:

- Part A: Successfully passing the med-math exam with a minimum score of 90%. Students who do not achieve a minimum of 90% score after the third attempt at the med-math exam will fail the course and will be withdrawn from the course immediately.
- Part B: Demonstrating safe medication administration in a clinical/simulated environment. Students who cannot demonstrate safe medication administration after three (3) clinical/simulated scenarios will fail and be withdrawn from the course. Students are not permitted to administer medications in any clinical setting, under direct supervision, until they demonstrate proficiency (Part A and Part B). Students are obligated to inform the clinical faculty and facility RN of their proficiency status. Failure to inform may result in immediate removal from the clinical setting and course failure

Students will be required to complete remediation for each unsuccessful attempt. Please refer to the Required Academic Remediation Policy.

Pre-licensure Nursing Practice & Medication Administration Policy

Nursing practice and medication administration by students is only permitted under direct supervision and only after the successful completion of performance-based assessments (written and simulated). Direct supervision requires that the clinical faculty assigned by GCU, or an approved agency RN, be physically present at the time of specific nursing practices and medication administration to observe the student perform the procedure and provide guidance as needed.

Students may not do any of the following, even under direct supervision:

- Administer emergency drugs or drugs used in "code" situations (ACLS)
 - Obtain & Administer blood and/or blood products
 - Administer chemotherapy
 - Administer medications that induce sedation
 - Take verbal or phone orders from a doctor, nurse practitioner, or other care provider
 - Transcribe orders
 - Witness consents, permits, or advanced directives
- In the event of medication error or any failure to administer medications as prescribed; including failure to administer medications according to:
- The correct patient
 - The correct route
 - The correct dosage
 - Within the appropriate time frame
 - According to the correct procedure

The student must notify the clinical faculty and complete all documentation required by the agency. The clinical faculty is obligated to report the incident to the unit or facility supervisor and the Pre-Licensure Director. The Pre-licensure Director may refer the incident to the Professional Standards Committee.

Failure to comply with this policy is a practice violation reportable to the Arizona State Board. Students found to be in violation of this policy will be immediately removed from the clinical setting and clinical rotation and may be interim suspended from the pre-licensure program pending an investigation by the Professional Standards Committee

Mandatory Advisement for Pre-licensure Nursing Major Courses

Faculty members may request mandatory advisement or remediation sessions when students are in clinical or academic jeopardy, and/or when student behavior appears below professional standards. Satisfactory academics and/or behavioral changes must be accomplished by the end of the course in order to progress in the nursing program. It is important to maintain continuous progress and a sound knowledge base to be successful throughout the program.

Required Academic Remediation

Remediation is considered a professional and academic responsibility. All course/program requirements must be met in order for the College of Nursing & Health Care Professions to submit program completion documents to the State Board of Nursing in which a student intends to be licensed.

- Academic remediation is a required component of course and program completion. Student must complete individual academic remediation, as outlined in a student success plan, which may include but is not limited to HESI-specific remediation, med-math, course content, and clinical skills.
- Students approved through the re-entry process will be required to complete remediation in addition to retaking any failed course(s). Students will work with their faculty to complete the remediation plan. Students will fail any course in which the remediation plan was not completed, and be expelled from the program.

Clinical Probation

Clinical probation is the official means of notifying you of unacceptable behavior or unsatisfactory performance. Clinical probation means the student is not meeting the stated clinical objectives, which are listed in the syllabus for each clinical course. A student may be removed from the clinical area for any unsafe or unprofessional behaviors.

Examples of probationary actions, include but not limited to:

- Unexcused absences (For Pre-Licensure Nursing: as per the Clinical & Lab Attendance & Participation Policy)
- Tardiness as per the Clinical Tardy Policy
- Insufficient preparation for the field experience
- Failure to follow instructor's or preceptor's guidance
- Unsafe practice in the clinical area
- Causing a client unnecessary suffering or harm
- Failure to report abnormal data in a timely manner to the appropriate persons
- Failure to follow instructor's guidance
- Failure to dress in approved program attire
- HIPAA violations
- Leaving the clinical site without permission at any time during clinical hours
- Pre-licensure students administering medications unsupervised by an RN
- Performing skills/interventions which have not been signed off by the faculty
- Acting outside of a student scope or practice

Clinical Probation Procedure

The following steps will occur if the student is being placed on clinical probation.

1. The faculty member will speak to the Director of Clinical Operations (BSN) or the Clinical Education Coordinator (BSAT)
2. The Director of Clinical Operations/Clinical Education Coordinator will notify the Professional Standards Committee.

3. The Professional Standards Committee will provide sanctions based on the severity of the infraction. The student will receive a letter indicating what sanction was determined. The clinical probation will remain in effect throughout the duration of the clinical course.
4. The faculty member will meet with the student to discuss.
5. A copy of the letter will be sent to the Program Manager/Director of associated program and will be placed in student's file.

The student has the remainder of the course to earn a passing grade, which removes the student from clinical probation.

A student, who is placed on probation, may have a 10% reduction in the clinical grade and/or may result in the student being withdrawn from the course.

Pre-licensure Nursing Math Requirement

A medication math exam, given at all levels, and as assigned after new math content, must be passed per the policy prior to administering medications in the clinical setting.

Student Safe Practice

The College of Nursing and Health Care Professions' priority is the education of future nurses and health care occupations in a safe environment for students, faculty, staff, and patients. Patient safety is of the utmost importance. In certain cases where a nursing student is engaged in behavior that is intentional, negligent, below program standards, inconsistent with nursing professional standards, or potentially or actually harmful to a patient, the Dean will report the incident to the Arizona Board of Nursing as soon as the incident is substantiated. Reporting is mandatory under the Nurse Practice Act.

Examples of conduct or practice violations reportable to the Arizona Board of Nursing include:

- Information that a nurse or certificate holder may be mentally or physically unable to safely practice nursing or perform nursing related duties
- Conduct involving practicing beyond the scope of practice of the license or certificate. Examples include knowingly giving a medication not authorized by a treating provider, obtaining laboratory or other tests not authorized by a treating provider, unauthorized adjusting of dosage
- Conduct which leads to the dismissal for unsafe nursing practice or conduct or other unprofessional conduct
- Conduct that appears to be a contributing factor to high risk/harm to a patient and required medical intervention
- Conduct that appears to be a contributing factor to the death of a patient
- Conduct involving the misuse of alcohol or other chemical substances to the extent that nursing practice may be impaired or may be detrimentally impacted
- Actual or suspected drug diversion
- Pattern of failure to account for medications; failing to account for wastage of control drugs
- Falsification of medical or treatment records
- Pattern of inappropriate judgment or nursing skill
- Failing to assess or intervene on behalf of patient(s)
- Conduct involving sexual contact with a patient, patient family member or other dual relationships
- Conduct involving physical/verbal patient abuse
- Conduct involving misappropriation, theft or exploitation of a patient
- Practicing nursing without a valid nursing license
- Violation of a disciplinary sanction imposed on the nurse's license by the board
- Conduct that deceives, defrauds or harms the public

- Criminal charges, felony and misdemeanor, which may affect public safety within ten days from when the charge(s) are filed
- Felony conviction(s) must be reported within ten days of the conviction
- Failing to take action in a health care setting to protect a patient whose safety or welfare is at risk from incompetent health care practice, or to report such practice to employment or licensing authorities.
- Failing to report to the Board a licensed nurse whose work history includes conduct, or pattern of conduct, that leads to or may lead to an adverse patient outcome.

Clinical Agency Requirements

CONHCP participates in the Arizona Clinical Education Consortium to select needed clinical rotations with all nursing schools in the state of Arizona. GCU’s first priority is to use the health care providers that participate in this consortium. However, when additional clinical experiences are needed, GCU may contract with health care providers external to the resolution process. In these cases:

Clinical agencies must:

- Meet the clinical outcomes of the course
- Serve the patient population that coincides with the intended population of the clinical experience
- Have population census that supports the assigned students to the clinical rotation
- Sign an affiliation agreement between GCU and the healthcare organization

Students participating in clinical rotations will be required to submit appropriate documentation to meet the clinical agency requirements (R4-19-201.I) which may include:

- Physical Health
- Mental Health
- Criminal Background Checks
- Substance Use Screens
- Functional Abilities
- Supervision of Clinical Activities

Students must be able to meet the essential functions of nursing:

Categories	Essential Functions
Motor/Physical Strength	A student must be able to: Possess the physical strength and mobility to safely carry out nursing procedures and provide routine and emergency care and treatment to patients of all ages in all assigned health care settings.
Perceptual/Sensory	A student must be able to: Use senses to make accurate clinical assessments and judgments.
Math	A student must be able to: Accurately calculate medication/solution dosages and any needed information specific to patient care.

Categories	Essential Functions
Behavioral/Interpersonal (relationships)/Emotional Stability	A student must be able to: Develop mature, sensitive and effective therapeutic relationships with individuals, families and groups of various social, emotional, cultural and intellectual backgrounds; adhere to GCU policies, procedures and requirements as described in the Faculty Handbook, Employee Handbook, and demonstrate ethical behavior, including adherence to professional and university honor codes.
Communication	A student must be able to: Communicate effectively and accurately in English using speech, reading, writing, language skills, and computer literacy, use of appropriate nonverbal communication is also essential.
Problem Solving/Critical Thinking	A student must be able to: Collect, analyze, prioritize, integrate, and generalize information and knowledge to make sound clinical judgments and decisions to promote positive patient outcomes.
Punctuality/Work Habits	A student must be able to: Adhere to classroom and clinical schedules, submit all course assignments timely.
General Health	A student must be able to: Work in an environment that puts one at risk for infection, meet all health and safety requirements to perform patient care in assigned clinical facilities.

Further, using student and site supervisor feedback, GCU evaluates the effectiveness of all clinical agencies to offer direct care experiences that align to course learning objectives.

Facilities are assessed on their ability to provide:

- A safe environment for clinical learning
- Appropriate experience for level skill knowledge of students
- Appropriate interactions-communications between students and clients
- Direct access to medical records necessary to provide for learning experiences
- Opportunities for pre and post conferences

Students are assigned to clinical rotations based on their schedules and may not refuse the assignment. Please see Clinical & Lab Attendance and Participation Policy.

Nursing Licensure Examination

In order to be eligible to take the National Council of State Boards of Nursing Examination for Professional Licensure after graduation, students must have graduated from the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. No exceptions are made to this policy. Students are responsible for applying to take the National Council License Examination – Registered Nurse (NCLEX-RN) exam for professional licensure through the State Board of Nursing.

The registered nurse licensing requirements are the exclusive responsibility of the State Board of Nursing (Arizona: Nurse Practice Act, A.R.S. Sections 36-1601 et. seq.; New Mexico: Nurse Practice Act, Chapter 61, Article 3, NMSA 1978) and must be satisfied independently of any requirements for graduation from the University. Historically, the College of Nursing and Health Care Professionals graduates have been successful on the licensure examination. Satisfactory performance on the licensure examination is the responsibility of the graduate and not guaranteed by the College of Nursing and Health Care Professionals.

Professional Nurse Qualifications

Section 32-1632 of the Arizona State Board of Nursing Statutes, Chapter 15, Article 2 – Licensing states, “An applicant for a license to practice as a graduate, professional or registered nurse shall file with the board a verified written application accompanied by the prescribed fee and shall submit satisfactory proof that the applicant:

1. Has completed the basic professional curriculum in approved professional nursing program and holds a diploma or degree from that program.
2. If convicted of one or more felonies, has received an absolute discharge from the sentences for all felony convictions five or more years prior to the date filing an application pursuant to this chapter.”

In New Mexico, per 16.12.2.10 – Licensure Requirements for Registered Nurses and Practical Nurses.

Nursing students are expected to be clear of any felony convictions at the time of admission into the College of Nursing & Health Care Professions and to remain free of felony convictions for the duration of the program. If the prospective student or student is charged with a felony, or undesignated offense either before admission or during the program, he/she must speak with the Dean immediately.

Student Input and Feedback

The College of Nursing and Health Care Professions provides students with both public and anonymous methods to offer input and feedback used to develop policies and procedures as well as evaluate faculty, nursing courses, clinical experiences, resources and the overall program (R4-19-201.G.).

Throughout each semester, College Administrators and staff are available to answer any questions related to the program using the following methods:

- Open Meetings with Deans and Administrators
- Classroom visits
- Emails
- Student Nurses’ Association Advocacy
- College Administrator appointments

If students wish for a confidential opportunity to participate and provide feedback, students can submit responses through:

- End-of-Course Surveys (EOCS)
- End-of-Program Survey (EOPS)
- Alumni Survey

Comment boxes located in all nursing facility locations.

No Rounding Policy

The GCU College of Nursing & Health Care Professions has adopted a No Rounding policy for all courses within the program. This policy states that all grades will be entered to the hundredth at their face value and not rounded (i.e., a final grade of 89.99 will be entered as B and not a B+).

Testing Policy

Students are allowed 1.5 min per multiple choice question and 3 min per short answer and Med Math questions on exams.

Honor Code

All students will sign the following Honor Code Statement each time they take a test, either electronically or by paper and pencil.

“On my honor, as a Grand Canyon University Student, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this academic work.”

Guidelines for Administration of Exams in The Ground Testing Environment

Examinations will be administered in an environment that is conducive to success and minimizes the opportunity for academic dishonesty.

1. Students may only have a pencil on their desk. Calculators and scratch paper will be provided by proctor, if needed for exam.
2. Everything brought into the room (backpacks, purses, cell phones, hats, snacks, water, etc.) must be placed at the front of the room at the student’s own risk.
3. Only head adornments of a medical or religious nature are permitted during examinations. Hats, hoodies, beanies, and/or other ornamental head coverings must be removed and left with other non-essential paraphernalia in the instructor-/proctor-designated locations
4. All cell phones must be turned off and placed in backpack (no cell phones on desk or in students’ pockets).
5. All watch devices with internet capability must be placed in the front of the room with the student’s belongings.
6. Faculty will be present during entire exam and actively monitoring student behaviors.
7. Students may not talk during the exams.
8. Students must keep their eyes on their own exam at all times.
9. Once the exam has begun students may not approach the instructor to ask questions or seek clarification.
10. Students may not leave the room and return once the exam has begun. Students must use restrooms prior to exam. In the event of a medical emergency, students may leave, but the allotted time will not change.
11. Students who arrive late will still be allowed to take the exam, but the stop time will remain the same.
12. Exams will be timed and collected when time is up.
13. Students may only access the HESI test site on the computer while taking an electronic exam. Students may not minimize the site, exit the site, or use chat during the exam.
14. After completing the examination, students will leave the classroom and not return until instructed by faculty once all students have finished the exam.
15. Students are encouraged to be present and well prepared to take all examinations. Consequences for being absent may include being given a different version of the exam. Only students with excused absences will be given the opportunity to take a make-up exam. Pre-planned, non-emergency misses should be scheduled prior to absence; students will receive different exam versions from those administered to students’ primary section. Only students with excused absences will be given the opportunity to take a make-up exam. Students must notify the instructor no less than one hour prior to the start of the exam for the absence to be considered excused. Students may make up no more than one exam per course.

16. Students who are observed violating the above criteria will be asked to leave the exam, given no credit for the exam, and reported to the University Code of Conduct Committee.

Policy for Student Drug, Nicotine & Alcohol Screening

The practice of professionalism demands that the clinician be free from the influence of any substance that would impair judgment and thinking ability. As a result, health care agencies are requiring students who work directly with patients to undergo drug screening. Students must also be free from impairing substances. Health care agencies and the CONHCP require drug screening of all students prior to their first clinical experience. In addition, students are subject to screening if either the faculty or preceptor suspects that the student is impaired at any time on campus, or during any health care experience or any other university or work related activity. Any student whose test is deemed positive will not be able to enroll or continue in nursing course for a minimum period of one year. Determination will be made in the Professional Standards Committee. The College is required to reports any positive screens and/or suspicion refusal to the appropriate board.

This policy is designed to identify the procedures to be followed for both types of testing as well as to outline the appeal and readmission to the program.

Initial Urine Drug Screening

1. Students entering their first clinical course and new transfer students will receive a drug screen authorization form in order to complete a random urine drug screen. Students will have 24 hours to complete the random drug screen at one of the laboratory options provided. Students receiving an authorization form on a Friday will be required to complete the screen by the end-of-business hours on Monday.
2. Students will be required to show picture identification upon arrival. A driver's license or passport are acceptable forms of identification.
3. The cost for all screening and medical review (if deemed necessary) is the students' responsibility.
4. A screen with questionable results will be sent by the lab for a medical review. Costs for review and retest will be the responsibility of the student.
5. A negative report is necessary to continue in the program of study in the CONHCP.
6. This screen need not be repeated as long as the student maintains continuous enrollment. Continuous enrollment is defined as enrollment in nursing classes during all consecutive semesters until graduation.
7. Students may be re-tested for cause or reasonable suspicion.

For Cause or Reasonable Suspicion Drug, Nicotine & Alcohol Screening

The CONHCP may ask a student to submit to a drug and alcohol screening at any time a faculty member or preceptor believes that the student may be under the influence of drugs or alcohol. This includes but is not limited to the following circumstances: evidence of drugs or alcohol on or about the student's person or in the student's possession, unusual conduct on the student's part that suggests possible use or influence of drugs or alcohol, negative performance patterns, or excessive and unexplained absenteeism or tardiness. Determination will be made in the Professional Standards Committee.

1. Students will be asked to submit to an immediate oral drug and alcohol screening test conducted at one of the laboratory options provided.

2. Students may also be given a drug screen authorization form and asked to immediately complete a urine drug screen at one of the laboratory options provided.
3. Students will be required to show picture identification upon arrival. A driver's license or passport are acceptable forms of identification.
4. The costs for all screening and medical review (if deemed necessary) are the students' responsibility.
5. A screen with questionable results will be sent by the lab for a medical review by the company completing the drug screen. Costs for review and retest will be the responsibility of the student.
6. A negative report, excluding a positive nicotine result, is necessary to continue in the program of study in the CONHCP.

Follow-up Action: Positive Screen (For Cause or Initial Drug Screen)

1. Positive drug screens (including those medically prescribed) may result in withdrawal from the nursing program for a minimum of 12 months. After this 12-month period, the student may apply for readmission under general guidelines stated in the University Policy Handbook, provided there is submission of evidence of satisfactory participation in a rehabilitation program for alcohol/substance abuse. Determination will be made in the Professional Standards Committee.
2. Sources of evidence include: a. Documentation of completed program of rehabilitation.
 - a. Acknowledgement of continuance in a twelve step or after-care program.
 - b. Letter from therapist or licensed health care provider stating the student is now able to function safely in a clinical facility.
3. The student must have a negative screen prior to being readmitted to the nursing program. The screen will be done at the direction of CONHCP and may be periodic while the student is in a CONHCP program. The student is responsible for all costs of screening.
4. The decision to readmit will be made by the CONHCP College Administrator after review of submitted materials. As with other applications for readmission, space availability may be a determining factor for that particular semester.
5. A report will be filed with the State Board of Nursing upon withdrawal from the program consistent with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Nursing.
6. Any student who screens positive after one readmission may be permanently dismissed from the nursing program.

Follow-up Action For-Cause Negative Screen

1. Students whose drug screens are negative will meet with the College Administrator to discuss the perceptions of impaired behavior and the implications and steps to avoid similar situations in the future.
2. A review by the Medical Review Officer (MRO) by the company collecting the drug screen for documentation of any medical condition or treatment may be requested.
3. Students will not be counted as absent from clinical during this evaluation process. However, students will be expected to meet the clinical objectives.
4. A reasonable suspicion/cause drug screen that is positive; however, is deemed negative by a medical review officer will follow these guidelines:
 - a. The student will meet with the College Administrator.

- b. The student may be required to undergo, at the student's expense, an evaluation for drug use/prescription drug use/impairment by a psychiatrist recommended by the State Board of Nursing.
- c. The student will follow other recommendations deemed necessary by the College Administrator.
- d. The student will be required to provide a negative drug screen prior to returning to clinical and be subject to periodic drug screens at the student's expense.
- e. More than one incident of a reasonable suspicion/cause drug screen that is positive; however, deemed negative by a medical review officer may result in withdrawal from the nursing program for a minimum of 12 months. In this case the student will follow the positive drug screening guidelines.

Students Who Refuse Drug Screening

Students who refuse to participate in screening will be required to leave the clinical area and make an appointment with the Dean of Nursing or his/her designee. The student will remain out of the clinical area until an investigation has been done and a recommendation has been made by the College Administrator. Students who refuse screening may be subject to dismissal from the CONHCP. A student who refuses to participate in the aforementioned rehabilitation program will not be allowed into clinical courses; therefore he/she cannot complete the nursing program.

Substances Included in Urine Drug Screen

Amphetamines, Barbiturates, Benzodiazepines, Cannabinoids, Cocaine metabolite, Cotinine (tobacco/nicotine), Fentanyl, Meperidine, Methadone, Opiates, Oxycodone, Phencyclidine, Propoxyphene

*Please note certain clinical facilities include nicotine as part of their screening and will not allow students to rotate at their facility who test positive from nicotine or its byproduct, cotinine.

Bodily Fluids Exposure and/or Injury During Field Experiences

Grand Canyon University acknowledges the inherent risks associated with working around or with patients and health care organizations, including a potential exposure to blood and body fluids. Once in a patient care setting, you will have access to and are expected to utilize appropriate blood-borne pathogen barriers, proper sanitary precautions, and appropriate biohazard disposal equipment and procedures at each clinical site.

The following policy outlines your responsibilities in this area:

- You must have and maintain current health insurance and show verification of coverage each year while matriculated in the program.
- GCU and the clinical agencies that provide practical experiences for our students are not responsible or liable for the costs of medical follow-up or expenses incurred.
- If evaluation and treatment is required by the facility where you are completing clinical experiences, the student is responsible for all costs and associated follow up.
- In the event that you are injured or exposed to blood and body fluids, you will:
 - Immediately notify your clinical instructor or site supervisor
 - Wash the area immediately and thoroughly with soap and water.
 - Within 24 hours, follow-up with your own Primary Care Provider who will make a determination of immunization status and give appropriate prophylaxis or referral for appropriate prophylaxis.

- Assume full responsibility for disease sequelae.
- Follow the policies of the agency (if any).
- Complete a student incident report with the supervising faculty or instructor who was present during incident. A copy of this report will be given to the College Administrator and placed in the student's file.

Communicable Disease Policy

Students may not participate in field experiences during the time they are affected by or suspect they have a communicable disease. A communicable disease is a health disorder that can be passed from one person to another. If students suspect they may have a communicable disease, an immediate visit to the student health center or healthcare provider for evaluation is required. If the evaluation shows possible communicable disease, students must remain out of contact with patients for the duration suggested by the healthcare provider. Students may not return to participation in field experiences until they have been re-evaluated by a healthcare provider and released with written verification of full release. You Students must contact the clinical preceptor and faculty upon suspicion and verification of the disease.

Examples of communicable diseases include, but are not limited to the following:

- AIDS
- Shingles (Herpes Zoster)
- Chickenpox
- Strep pharyngitis
- Measles
- Cholera
- Conjunctivitis
- Diphtheria
- Diarrhea- infectious
- Influenza
- Tetanus
- Impetigo
- Yellow Fever
- Hepatitis A, B or C
- Herpes Simplex
- Meningitis (bacterial)
- Mumps
- Pertussis (whooping cough)
- Rubella
- Shigellosis
- Streptococcal pneumonia
- Scabies
- Hand, foot, mouth syndrome
- Viral and acute hepatitis
- Herpes
- Lice (pediculosis)
- Lyme disease
- Escherichia coli (E coli)
- Tuberculosis
- Group A Strep
- Pinworms
- Ringworm

Refer to Clinical Absence and Participation Policy.

Clinical & Lab Attendance and Participation Policy Effective Fall 2017

Clinical and lab attendance is mandatory.

Clinical and lab make ups will only be considered once per semester in each clinical course or scheduled lab, under extreme circumstances, and approved by the Director of Pre-Licensure (or designee). Examples of extreme circumstances that could warrant a clinical or lab make up may include:

- a communicable disease which can be transmitted to patients, staff or other students
- a car accident requiring immediate medical attention
- hospitalization

If a student is unable to attend clinical or a scheduled lab, the student will contact the following:

- Director of Clinical Operations, clinical faculty, and didactic faculty for a missed clinical experience
- Lab director and didactic faculty for missed lab / instructional simulation experience
- Director of Clinical Operations and didactic faculty for a missed immersive simulation experience

The student must notify the above faculty and/or staff at least one (1) hour prior to the scheduled start of the event. Students must then complete the Pre-licensure Clinical/Lab Make-Up Request Form within 24 hours from the time of notification to determine if a make-up clinical experience or lab will be approved. Students can access the Pre-licensure Clinical/Lab Make-Up Request Form at <http://www.gcumedia.com/lms-resources/student-success-center/v2.1/#/resource/college/CoNHCP>.

In order for the University to consider a Pre-licensure Clinical or Lab Make-Up Request in cases of medical absence, the student will be required to submit substantiating medical documentation that states: “the student may return to class, lab, and clinical with no health or safety restrictions” from a medical provider and written on a prescription, or letterhead, that clearly reflects the provider’s medical number. This will be required whether the student misses 1 clinical day or lab or consecutive clinical days or labs. GCU may verify the information contained in the documentation with the provider. Falsification of medical documentation is reportable to the Arizona Board of Nursing (AZ Reg R4-19-403). Students will be notified of the approval or denial of the clinical or lab make-up via mail and email to their gcu.edu email address.

It is up to the University to determine how students will make up missed clinical hours or lab events if approved, but the primary method will be an additional clinical rotation or lab event. Secondly, if alternative clinical rotations cannot be arranged, the University may choose to use lab and case studies to meet the clinical objectives.

Students must make-up missed lab and clinical experiences and may not decline the make-up experience identified. Students may risk failing the course for nonattendance. Students must submit any associated assignments with the make-up to the LoudCloud classroom within 48 hours of completing the make-up for grading.

If a student absence does not meet the above criteria it is considered unexcused. Students will lose all points for the associated lab but will have to complete the lab in order to progress in their course and in the program.

Students who must miss clinical or lab due to extended illness are encouraged to contact the Student Disability Office.

Students who must miss clinical due to extended illness are encouraged to contact the Student Disability Office..

Clinical Tardy Policy

Clinical tardiness is defined as being greater than 15 minutes (>15 minutes) from the start of the clinical shift.

Any anticipated tardiness within the 15 minutes timeframe must be reported to the appropriate Director of Clinical Operations, course faculty and clinician

If a student fails to “call-in” or notify the appropriate course faculty and clinician, this will be considered as an “unexcused clinical absence” which will result in failure of the course as per the Lab & Clinical attendance policy.

Dependent on the clinical site, a student who is tardy and/or has missed patient report may be requested to leave. In this situation, the student will not be able to complete the scheduled clinical day therefore will be considered a missed clinical day. The student will be required to complete a clinical make-up. Refer to Lab & Clinical Attendance Policy.

Consequences of being tardy three times within the same course will be as follows:

A clinical course that meets more than three times:

First Occurrence: Student will receive a clinical warning.

Second Occurrence: Student will be placed on clinical probation for the second late.

Third Occurrence: Student will fail clinical on the third late.

A clinical course that meets three times or less:

First Occurrence: Student will be placed on clinical probation for the first late.

Second Occurrence: Student will fail clinical on the second late.

Clinical Restriction Policy

Clinical restriction is the official means of restricting the student from any field experience when students have missing, expired, or insufficient immunizations or documentation requirements on file with the Office of Field Experience (OFE). You will be notified by the OFE 4 weeks before documentation is set to expire. Once documentation has expired, the OFE will notify you course faculty of your restriction status. At all times it is your responsibility to ensure that your health and safety documentation is up to date and current, and that all other program requirements have been met. Health and safety requirements are mandatory for all students where indicated in this manual.

Failure/Program Expulsion

If you fail to meet the course objectives, policies, and procedures outlined in the classroom and this manual, you may face failure or program expulsion. You must repeat any failed courses before moving on to the next course outlined in your program of study. A Code of Conduct form will be filed by the course faculty for any action that results in clinical failure. Field Experience/Clinical course failure may result in a failure of the co-requisite theory course at the judgment of the Course Faculty and Professional Standards Committee.

Examples of clinical failure, program expulsion, or Code of Conduct violation actions:

- Compromising GCU’s relationship with any site
- Compromising safety in any form
- Plagiarism and ethical conduct resulting in Code of Conduct Violations

The student has the remainder of the course to earn a passing grade, which removes the student from clinical probation.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN)

Students who have been accepted into the nursing program may remain in the program if they adhere to the following criteria:

1. Maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA on 4.0 scale in all nursing major courses.
2. Maintain continuous enrollment for nursing major courses
3. Adhere to the Class Attendance and Participation section of the University Policy Handbook.
4. Students who earn two non-passing grades in the program will be administratively withdrawn from the program. Students have the option to complete a Request for Reinstatement, which is discussed within the University Appeals Procedures section of the University Policy Handbook.

Students in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN) program who want to transition into Grand Canyon University's Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) program may complete up to two graduate level courses as part of their upper division elective credits for the BSN degree completion. Eligible MSN programs are included on the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN) to Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) Fast-Track Request Form. To be eligible, students must:

1. Possess a 3.5 enrollment cumulative GPA at the time 33 of 36 RN to BSN program major credits are completed.
2. Complete the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN) to Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) Fast-Track Request Form.

Once approved, students must complete the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) courses with a C or better. Grades earned will be calculated into the graduate GPA. Tuition for the MSN courses taken as electives will be charged at the graduate tuition rate and will be charged the Canyon Connect Fee at the graduate rate. It is recommended that students enroll into the MSN program within 180 days of completing their Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN) program to guarantee transferability of credit hours earned toward the MSN program. After 180 days, students will be required to advance into the graduate program of study deemed current at that time

Bridge to Master of Science in Nursing

CPR Requirements

Students must be certified in CPR for Health Care Providers through the American Heart Association or American Red Cross and are required to maintain certification throughout the program. Graduate students may also obtain CPR certification for the Professional Rescuer from American Red Cross. Information as to the availability of courses may be obtained by calling either the American Heart Association, or American Red Cross. CPR for Bystanders or the community will not fulfill this requirement. CPR instruction teaches skill of airway management and external cardiac compression for the adult and pediatric victim.

Students who do not have a current CPR certification card will not be permitted to participate in clinical experiences. In addition, Graduate students need to meet the certification requirements of the respective agency in which they perform clinical.

College of Theology

The College of Theology's mission is to educate and equip students to communicate the gospel effectively, serve the church faithfully, and minister with integrity at home and abroad. Therefore, within the context of the College, significant attention is given to spiritual and professional formation so that students are biblically qualified for ministry upon graduation. The Bible teaches that ministers must be "above reproach" in private and in public because ministers lead God's people as they grow up into the fullness of Christ through the careful study and application of God's word. Simply stated, one whose life has not been transformed profoundly by the power of the gospel is hardly in a position to lead others in this way of life. Thus, preparation for ministry requires attention to the spiritual, and professional aspects of each student's training in addition to academic study.

Doctrinal, ethical, and covenantal alignment are vital to the health of the institution as the faculty and administration strive to fulfill the mission of developing godly leaders, ministers, and scholars. Evangelical unity with respect to doctrine and morality represents a crucial basis for ministerial preparation just as it represents a crucial basis for gospel ministry. For these reasons, students in the College are asked to affirm the University's Doctrinal and Ethical Positions Statement, the COT Covenant, and standards for conduct that agree with those beliefs. In this way students affirm the basic tenets of the Christian faith and commitment to a lifestyle worthy of the Lord Jesus and worthy of the gospel ministry to which they have been called.

The University's foundational documents, the Covenant, and the dispositional and behavioral standards have not been created for purposes of legalistic compulsion or in a coercive spirit. Rather, they represent commitments and guidelines that have been developed for the purpose of living freely together in a community marked by faith, hope, and love. All students who enter into COT's covenantal community do so freely and they do so with full understanding that the community strives to cultivate the character of Christ daily. Indeed, in light of the unique call God has placed on their lives, the vast majority of ministerial students are motivated to conform to established standards and are grateful for the structure and accountability the community provides.

In most cases when students' dispositions or behaviors fail to align with the College's standards, COT's faculty and staff are able to correct gently and provide all necessary counsel. Indeed, gracious conversation and pastoral guidance should normally characterize the initial steps taken by faculty and staff to address impropriety. The College is committed to forming students in a loving and merciful way that is redemptive rather than punitive. Thus, in cases where minor dispositional or behavioral issues arise, direct student engagement by a member of the faculty or a representative of the College will be most appropriate. Further action will only be necessary when a student is unresponsive to direct engagement or when a student persists in conduct that is unbecoming. Faculty and staff should refer cases that involve major dispositional and behavioral issues in accord with established processes.

Dispositional and Behavioral Standards

As ministers of the gospel, theology students are expected to conform to dispositional and behavioral standards that are consistent with biblical teaching, sound doctrine, and the commitments they make at the start of their program. "Dispositions" refers to one's attitudinal inclinations, mental and emotional outlook, integrity, and character. Sincerely held dispositions lead to actions and patterns of conduct, which is to suggest that dispositions, at some level, contribute to behaviors.

COT has adopted the following dispositional and behavioral standards that align with the College's Covenant. Although these standards are not exhaustive, they represent the essential values and qualities that should characterize gospel ministers. Students are encouraged to acknowledge their struggles and shortcomings without fear and for the sake of working through challenges with the support and encouragement of the community. Students who disregard the standards or fail to demonstrate these dispositions and behaviors, however, may be subject to disciplinary action.

- EMBRACE TRUTH: Ministers of the gospel embrace the truth of Christ, and speak and act truthfully. This includes integrity with respect to the commitment to uphold doctrinal and ethical positions and behaviors consistent with those of the University within their academic work, within the GCU community, and in any internship or supervised ministry/field experience setting.

- DISPLAY A HEART FOR GROWTH, TRANSFORMATION, AND LEARNING: Ministers of the gospel have a heart for growth and transformation. They demonstrate humility and pursue Christlikeness by taking correction, having a charitable spirit, and not thinking of themselves more highly than they ought. They do not hide sin but, rather, acknowledge it and learn from mistakes as they progress through their program of study. They demonstrate eagerness to learn and engage faithfully with their coursework, classmates, Scripture, scholarly research, faculty, and ministry supervisors.
- AFFIRM THE VALUE OF PEOPLE: Recognizing that all people are created in the image of God, ministers of the gospel treat people in ways that demonstrate their intrinsic value and dignity. Accordingly, ministers of the gospel reject discrimination and show the value of others in the way they interact with people of all races, nationalities, ages, genders, socio-economic levels, abilities, and faith traditions. These principles extend to all forms of communication.
- DEMONSTRATE GRACE AND RESPECT: Ministers of the gospel demonstrate grace and respect in their attitudes, actions, and words. They embody the fruit of the Spirit, speaking with kindness and patience, communicating respectfully in all situations. They avoid actions and speech that could show disrespect, a sharp tongue, harassment, prejudice, racism, sexism, vulgarity, foul language, or bullying. Students extend grace and charity at all points including discussions with others who differ with them on matters of doctrine and ethics. They strive for unity, which requires careful thought about doctrinal dialogue, genuine love for one another, and a resolve to be “quick to hear, slow to speak, [and] slow to anger” (James 1:19).
- PROMOTE PEACE: Ministers of the gospel seek to be peacemakers, approaching conflict with the goal of restoration and reconciliation. They follow biblical practices for conflict resolution, glorifying God by taking responsibility for their own contribution to a conflict, and asking and offering forgiveness when needed. They bring peace and joy to their classrooms and congregations, avoiding words and actions that might bring discord, dissension, or destruction.
- MAINTAIN SEXUAL PURITY: Following the teaching of the Bible, ministers of the gospel maintain personal sexual purity, reserving sexual expression for a marriage relationship between one man and one woman. They refrain from the use of all pornographic materials and any explicit content that would grieve the Holy Spirit while demonstrating an openness to accountability, counsel, and prayer in areas of struggle and perceived powerlessness. They refrain from sexually charged language and behavior inside or outside the classroom.
- AVOID EXCESS: Ministers of the gospel avoid excess and abuse of any substances that could move them from a place of health to harm. Students embrace moderation in all things for the sake of safeguarding against idolatry and protecting their gospel witness.
- SEEK FIRST GOD’S KINGDOM: Ministers of the gospel pursue God’s purposes for the world even when this requires abandoning the pursuit of their own selfish interests. They cultivate love, justice, beauty, grace, wisdom, and wholeness in their relationships and eschew worldly desires that result in consumerism, materialism, and the pursuit of fame and prestige.

Corrective Action Plan for Unacceptable Dispositions and Unprofessional Behavior

As a Christian community, the College of Theology and Grand Canyon Theological Seminary strive to be affirming and redemptive to students who are struggling and failing to exhibit these dispositions in their behaviors. The conduct that is unbecoming for a Christian leader or minister, however, may be referred through one of the following processes:

1. Dispositional alert from a faculty member, a ministry supervisor, or another GCU employee which is processed through the College of Theology’s Covenantal Standards Committee (CSC). This committee will determine the disciplinary action to be taken on a case by case basis.
2. Code of conduct violation charge which is reported through the “Classroom Incident Report” and is handled through the Code of Conduct process of the University.

In cases of minor misalignment, direct engagement by a member of the faculty or a representative of the College for the purpose of education, formation, and/or correction will be most appropriate. Further action is only necessary when a student is unresponsive to direct engagement or when a student persists in conduct that is unbecoming. Students who disregard COT’s Dispositional and Behavioral standards or fail to demonstrate these dispositions and behaviors may be subject to disciplinary action. In certain egregious situations, disciplinary action may be immediate and will be recommended to the University Code of Conduct Committee.

Unbecoming dispositions and behavior, within the classroom or outside the classroom may result in an array of corrective actions taken by the CSC or recommendations for disciplinary actions made by the CSC to the Code of Conduct Committee including, but not limited to the following potential outcomes

1. A corrective dialog with the CSC or designee
2. A letter of reprimand
3. A required number of professional and/or pastoral counseling sessions
4. A series of coaching sessions
5. Recommendations to the Code of Conduct committee such as:
 - a. Removal from the class
 - b. Removal from the supervised ministry/field experience site
 - c. Failure of the course
 - d. Suspension
 - e. Expulsion from the program. In the case of expulsion, students will have the option of reapplying to the program after a two year hiatus at which time the student will make a case for his or her change in behavior and disposition such that the CSC would possibly allow them to return to the program

Any question of interpretation or application of the Dispositional and Behavioral Standards Policy will be referred to the Dean of the College of Theology or a designee for final determination.

These standards should not be applied in ways that foster discrimination and harassment. Students who experience gender or disability-based discrimination or harassment should seek the assistance of the Title IX or Section 504 Coordinator for investigation under the applicable grievance procedures.

Process Guidelines for COT Dispositional and Behavioral Standards

The following guidelines are intended to assist with the evaluation of and appropriate response to dispositional and behavioral issues. These guidelines should enable faculty and College representatives to accurately assess and prudently address situations in ways that are redemptive, fair, and commensurate with the type of misalignment in question.

Doctrinal and Ethical Alignment

COT faculty are encouraged to make key distinctions in their teaching and classroom interaction between doctrine that is absolutely essential to the Christian faith and other teachings that, although important, are not fundamental to Christianity.

Essential doctrines are those core teachings that distinguish Christians from non-Christians and must be believed in order for one to be a genuine follower of the Lord Jesus. Denial of essential doctrine represents a grave matter.

Nonessential teachings are significant because they safeguard the integrity and health of essential doctrines and because they derive either directly or indirectly from the teaching of Scripture. Examples include the form and meaning of baptism, the organization and governance of the church, qualifications for ministers, styles of worship music, and the timing of Christ's return in relation to other events of the last days. Christians frequently disagree about various nonessential teachings but disagreement about these doctrines does not amount to a denial of the faith.

Dispositional and Behavioral Alignment

In cases of minor misalignment, direct engagement by a member of the faculty or a representative of the College for the purpose of education, formation, and/or correction will be most appropriate. Further action is only necessary when a student is unresponsive to direct engagement or when a student persists in conduct that is unbecoming. Students who disregard COT's Dispositional and Behavioral standards or fail to demonstrate these dispositions and behaviors may be subject to disciplinary action. In certain egregious situations, disciplinary action may be immediate and will be recommended to the University Code of Conduct Committee.

Minor Misalignment

Instances of minor misalignment should be dealt with redemptively rather than punitively to the extent possible. Such cases typically require forbearance and patience instead of formal discipline.

Major Misalignment

Instances of major misalignment should be dealt with redemptively, but disciplinary action may be necessary if the situation cannot be redeemed apart from formal action. Certain egregious situations may represent exceptions and may require immediate disciplinary action.

Master Programmatic Progression Requirements

College of Education

All College of Education Graduate Programs COE Graduate Certificates

Prior to participation in any practicum/field experience, teacher candidates must provide their Field Experience Counselor with verification of a current State of Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card or current fingerprint clearance documentation in accordance with the fingerprint policies of the state in which they reside. Current and valid fingerprint clearance must be on file through the duration of the program. Failure to maintain current and valid Fingerprint Clearance may lead to immediate termination from the program. Based on the teacher candidates' Program of Study, the teacher candidate will need one of the following:

1. Fingerprint Clearance Card
2. Federal Background Check: If a federal background check is required, official copies of this document will be reviewed by the Field Experience Counselor. A federal background check will be considered 'clear' if no offense(s) are listed. Teacher candidates with 'cleared' federal background checks will be deemed eligible for participation in practicum/field experiences. Should any offense(s) be listed on the federal background check, teacher candidates will be required to apply for and secure a valid State of Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card. Where applicable, a current teaching certificate may be provided in lieu of fingerprint clearance. GCU will not accept any background check older than six years.
3. District Letter: GCU accepts letters from cooperating school districts to satisfy the fingerprint clearance requirement. The letter must be on district letterhead. GCU must receive this letter directly from the district. If the letter is received directly from the teacher candidate, the teacher candidate must sign a FERPA release listing the letter's signatory (school/district contact who completed the letter), and the teacher candidate's TED will call the signatory to verify the letter's authenticity. In order for the district's letter to be accepted, the following information is required to be included:
 - Teacher candidate's name
 - Employee identification number
 - Date that the background check was completed (must be within the last 6 years)
 - Identification number assigned to the background check
 - Current employment status
 - Date of initial employment
 - Breaks in employment (if none, the letter must indicate that there were no breaks in employment)

Should any of the above information be missing from the letter or if the letter is not printed on official district letterhead, GCU will be unable to accept the letter for the purpose of satisfying the Fingerprint Clearance Policy. Please note that teacher candidates may need to complete additional fingerprinting for certification purposes based on their state's requirements.

If candidates are charged with a felony or misdemeanor while in the program, even if charges are not verified, they are obligated to report this to their Field Experience Counselor. Failure to do so may lead to immediate termination from the program.

In the event that admission to Grand Canyon University's College of Education is denied as a result of one or more offense listed in Sections B or C of the Arizona Revised Statute (ARS) 41-1758.03, outlined in Appendix A, the following appeals process should be followed.

*Note: Students enrolled in Non-College of Education programs at Grand Canyon University who seek to transfer into the College of Education need to meet current admission requirements.

Level One Appeal

1. Apply for a fingerprint clearance card from the Arizona Department of Public Safety. (Should the fingerprint clearance card be denied, see a Level Two Appeal)

2. Upon securing an Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card, request documentation from the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education indicating consent of your potential eligibility to apply for and obtain a teacher or principal license based on the listed offense(s). The Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education may request additional information regarding the listed offense(s) prior to the issuance of their consent to be eligible for certification.
3. Provide Grand Canyon University with copies of the Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card and the documentation provided by the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education for reconsideration of admission.

Level Two Appeal

1. In the event that a fingerprint clearance card is denied, petition the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting for a good cause exception. More information regarding the application and process for a good cause exception can be found at the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting website.
2. If the Board of Fingerprinting approves the good cause exception, a fingerprint clearance card will be issued. (Should the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting deny the good cause exception, a fingerprint clearance card will not be issued, and denied admission. (This decision cannot be appealed.)
3. Upon securing an Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card, request documentation from the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education indicating consent of your potential eligibility to apply for and obtain a teacher or principal license based on the listed offense(s). The Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education may request additional information regarding the listed offense(s) prior to the issuance of their consent to be eligible for certification.
4. Provide Grand Canyon University with copies of the Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card and the documentation provided by the Investigation Unit of the Arizona Department of Education for reconsideration of admission.

Practicum/Field Experiences

Practicum experiences are field-based learning opportunities that focus on observation, application, and reflection. Practicum experiences require the teacher candidate to spend a prescribed amount of time in real-life classroom settings in order to demonstrate competency with predetermined activities that are aligned to professional standards in the field of education.

Teacher candidates who are not in an active student status may not complete practicum hours in the field. Teacher candidates in any course requiring practicum hours are required to have fingerprint clearance on file with their Field Experience Counselor. In addition, teacher candidates enrolled in the Master of Education in Early Childhood Education program, who are completing field experiences in Arizona, are required to submit a completed Student Information Release Form (SIRF) and proof of immunization and/or immunity from Tuberculosis (TB).

1. Basic Skills and Content Area Exams
2. Teacher candidates enrolled in an Initial Program – Leads to Initial Teacher Licensure Programs (IP/TL) beginning with the 2009-2010 Academic Catalog must pass their state-mandated basic skills and content area exams or Praxis I® (Basic Skills) and Praxis II® (Content Area) prior to student teaching. Arizona residents will be required to take the Arizona Educator Proficiency Assessments (AEPAs).
3. Arizona residents will be required to pass the Arizona Educator Proficiency Assessments (AEPAs) successfully.
4. Teacher candidates requiring Arizona certification in application for their local state licensure will need to complete the appropriate AEPAs or an equivalent exam as determined by the Arizona Department of Education's out of state exam reciprocity requirements prior to receiving an Arizona IR. For content areas out of the approved AEPAs areas, teacher candidates seeking Arizona Certification will be required to hold 24 units in the certification content area.
5. Score reports for Arizona residents and those seeking initial licensure in Arizona will be accepted only if the score report documents a passing score ('pass' or 'passed').
6. Teacher candidates residing in states that do not have state-specific mandated basic and/or content exams will be required to take the AEPAs exams or an equivalent exam.

COE Clinical Practice Expectations and Academic Standards

The following clinical practice expectations for Teacher Candidates in the College of Education seek to address the common issues and responsibilities of Teacher Candidates who are out in schools and school districts in a field experience and clinical practice setting. The statements are designed to be reflective of the fundamental principles and values that are desired of a Teacher Candidate and his/her professional and personal conduct in the field experience and clinical setting. The conduct expectations clarify conduct unbecoming of a Teacher Candidate, and thus are subject to disciplinary action. By addressing these issues we seek to respond to and clarify our expectations for all of our Teacher Candidates who are representing themselves and Grand Canyon University in their role and work with students, Cooperating Teachers, GCU Faculty Supervisors, and school communities.

Teacher Candidates in the College of Education represent GCU's value-based liberal arts institution. All Teacher Candidates who go out into the field are expected to abide by the responsibilities of university citizenship and to show consideration and respect for personal freedom and property rights of members of the civic, academic, and school community. Teacher Candidates are expected to abide by ethical, professional, and academic standards that are conducive to a positive learning experience. These expectations include, but are not limited to the expectation that the Teacher Candidate:

- Gives appropriate attention to college and site placement work
- Attends class, exercises, and engagements as required by the college and school site placement

- Acknowledges and accepts the responsibility of honorable adherence to the university's and site placement's standards, rules, policies, and procedures
- Supports and exhibits ethical behavior with Teacher Candidates, faculty, staff, school placement personnel, and the community
- Recognizes and embraces the diversity and personal values of others
- Exhibits self-direction and self-reliance as a college student and in the pursuit of individual and collaborative learning objectives and goals
- Acknowledges and accepts personal responsibility and accountability for his or her actions, interactions, and communication in all forms with Teacher Candidates, faculty, staff, school placement personnel, and the community
- Upholds confidentiality and respect for personal or professional information communicated in the placement classroom
- Adheres to college dispositional expectations, policies, and standards of academic honesty
- Represents themselves solely in all matters related to Clinical Practice performance, evaluation, assessments, disciplinary action, etc.
- Dresses according to professional attire expectations which can be interpreted as:
 - Women: slacks (dress pants), skirts (mid-calf to about two inches above the knee), blouses, shells, cardigans, blazers, dresses
 - Men: dress pants, button down shirts, polo shirts (with a collar), blazers
 - Dress not permitted: Anything that is see-through, short, tight, or shows too much skin, flip-flops, tennis shoes, jeans that are too loose fitting, ripped or faded. Teacher Candidates must also follow the dress code of teachers at the school site

Dispositional Expectations

- High Expectations- Educators should believe that all Teacher Candidates can learn and should set and support realistic expectations for student success.
- Respect for the Diversity of Others- Educators should be sensitive to individual learning and social needs of Teacher Candidates and embrace the cultural diversity of the community.
- Fairness- Educators should promote social justice and equity, maintain appropriate standards of confidentiality, and exercise fairness in all areas including assessment.
- Professional Conduct- Educators should exercise sound judgment and ethical behavior. They should be a positive role model within their community.
- Reflection- Educators should recognize that reflection combined with experience leads to growth as a professional. Educators should be thoughtful about their professional practice, critically examine it, and seek continual improvement.
- Curiosity- Educators should promote and support curiosity and encourage active inquiry. They should be able to think innovatively and creatively, using critical thinking as a problem-solving approach.
- Honesty- Educators should model integrity by their words and actions. They should be forthright with others and uphold high standards of trust, character, and integrity.
- Compassion- Educators should demonstrate professional friendliness, warmth, and genuine caring in their relationships with others while providing intellectual, emotional, and spiritual support.

- Advocacy- Teachers understand the impact of community involvement and servant leadership as it applies to the welfare of others in the educational setting.
- Dedication- Educators should be committed to the profession of teaching and learning. They should be professionally active, lifelong learners and seek opportunities for professional development

Clinical Practice Expectation Violations

The following violations clarify conduct unbecoming of Teacher Candidates in the College of Education. Teacher Candidates are expected not to engage in such action while in a clinical setting at a school or school district. The following is a non-exhaustive list of actions that are considered clinical practice conduct violations, for which Teacher Candidates are subjected to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University. If teacher candidates are found eligible to continue with the program, Clinical Practice can only be repeated once.

- Falsification, forgery, alteration, or invention of information, including, but not limited to, any document used for admission or eligibility to the university, document related to:
 - Admission or eligibility to Clinical Practice
 - Information regarding the site placement school, the district and/or personnel
 - Information regarding Teacher Candidates
 - Information regarding curriculum content in the classroom
- Disruptive behavior in any form that creates a hostile or offensive educational environment for a student, Cooperating Teacher, GCU Faculty Supervisor, faculty or staff
- Failure to comply promptly with any reasonable directive from a Cooperating Teacher, GCU Faculty Supervisors, GCU course instructor, or staff
- Failure to cooperate with an investigation
- Possession, use, distribution, or behavior under the influence of alcohol or illegal or banned drugs or substances while on school property, or as part of any school-related activity
- Communication orally, in writing, or by use of any technological device, including, and not limited to any phone or computer device, outside the classroom in a manner that could be perceived as inappropriate by any member of the site placement school, its extended community or university
- Failure to maintain a professional approach to personal relationships with the Teacher Candidates or the school community members

Remediation

The College of Education may take disciplinary action against candidates who demonstrate insufficient performance, inappropriate dispositions, conduct unbecoming, or are terminated by the site school placement. Remediation is implemented if candidates do not demonstrate sufficient progress with regard to performance or dispositions. The College of Education Office of Clinical Practice and/or Professional Practices Committee reviews all documentation and makes a determination as to whether the alleged violation or deficiency has been substantiated and which college-level penalties may apply. If candidates do not comply with remediation plans and/or sanctions, they may be terminated from their site, complete a corrective action plan and/or may have to undergo the Code of Conduct process for failure to comply with a college directive.

Student Teaching (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

Taken at the conclusion of all coursework and dependent upon the teacher candidate's program of study, student teaching requires 15-16 consecutive weeks of unpaid, full-time placement with a COE approved cooperating/mentor teacher, who must be licensed in the area in which the teacher candidate is teaching. Student teaching cannot be done during summer months; and is required for an Institutional Recommendation (IR).

Paraprofessionals (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

Teacher candidates may not student teach in the classroom(s) in which they are employed as paraprofessionals. Paraprofessionals are not teachers of record. As assistants to a classroom teacher, their responsibilities are more limited than those required of a classroom teacher. Therefore, paraprofessionals will need to take a leave of absence from their duties and responsibilities while they complete the student teaching requirements for their program of study.

Eligibility for Student Teaching (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

1. Complete all coursework within the program of study.
2. Pass the state-specified basic skills and content area exams or Praxis I® (Basic Skills) and Praxis II® (Content Area) prior to student teaching.
3. Maintain a minimum GPA of a 3.0
4. Work with the appropriate departments to remove any academic and/or financial holds on account to ensure that the Student Services Counselor is able to complete the required registration process.
5. View program evaluations with assigned Student Services Counselor and/or Field Experience Counselor to discuss program progression and academic eligibility.
6. Possess a current Fingerprint Clearance Card or background check. Arizona residents must have an Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card.
7. Student teaching may only be repeated once.

Application for Student Teaching (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

The Student Teaching Application can be found on the College of Education website. Deadlines for applying for student teaching are as follows:

- For Fall Student Teaching – February 1
- For Spring Student Teaching – August 1

No exceptions will be made to these deadlines, as placing learners in an appropriate setting is a process.

Requirements for an Institutional Recommendation (Initial Program/Teacher Licensure Only)

Institutional Recommendations (IRs) are issued for teaching, principal, and school counseling programs that lead to initial licensure in Arizona. The IR confirms that a student has met all requirements, including successful student teaching or internship, for the program of study that has been approved by the Arizona State Board of Education. It is the student's responsibility to determine the professional knowledge and subject knowledge exams that must be taken to obtain a certificate in Arizona. An IR is valid for one year from the date it is signed. IRs can be issued only within one year of a student's graduation date; otherwise, the student will need to apply for a transcript analysis to determine if certification criteria have been met.

All teacher candidates seeking an Institutional Recommendation for a teaching license must complete the program requirements for their degree program, which include verification of fingerprint clearance and successful completion of student teaching. It is the learner's responsibility to determine what, if any, testing is necessary for their individual state. Teacher candidates who are seeking licensure in a state which does not require verification of test scores for the basic skills, content knowledge, and/or professional knowledge exam prior to teacher licensure may request a waiver by completing a Waiver of Test Score Verification form. The Waiver of Test Score Verification will be approved only by a dean, or dean's designee. Learners should check with their own state department of education for additional applicable teacher licensure guidelines.

Certification through Non-Degree Courses (Initial Program/Non-Teacher Licensure Only)

Graduates from an Initial Program – Does Not Lead to Teacher Licensure (IP/Non-TL) programs who wish to return to GCU to complete certification coursework will enroll in student teaching courses through the non-degree division. As these learners do not qualify for an Institutional Recommendation they must be certified in Arizona through a course-by-course evaluation conducted by the certification division of the Arizona Department of Education. Learners will need to meet all Arizona certification requirements, including verification of fingerprint clearance, successful completion of student teaching, verification of passing scores on the AEP or an equivalent exam as determined by the Arizona Department of Education's out of state exam reciprocity requirements, and successful completion of Arizona SEI requirements.

Master of Education in Educational Administration (Advanced Program for Principal Licensure (AP/PL))

Prior to the first internship course, students must submit a copy of one of their Valid Arizona Fingerprint Clearance Card or official results of Federal Background Clearance from their state Department of Public Safety agency to their Field Experience Counselor.

Eligibility for the Educational Administration (EAD) Internship

1. Learners must complete the following courses prior to starting their internship courses.
 - EAD-501, EAD-505, and EAD-510 must be successfully completed in order to enter into the first internship, EAD-519.
 - EAD-519, EAD-513, EAD-520, and EAD-523 must be successfully completed in order to enter into the second internship, EAD-529.
 - EAD-529, EAD-530, EAD-533, and EAD-536. Must be successfully completed in order to enter into the third and final internship, EAD-539.
 2. Work with the appropriate departments to remove any academic and/or financial holds on account to ensure that the Student Services Counselor is able to complete the required registration process.
 3. View program evaluations with assigned Student Services Counselor and/or Field Experience Counselor to discuss program progression and academic eligibility.
 4. Principal candidates not meeting the graduate GPA requirement of a 3.0 at the time of the final internship, EAD-539, must submit an appeal which will be reviewed by the College of Education.
 5. Possess a current Fingerprint Clearance Card or background check. Arizona residents must have an Arizona Department of Public Safety Fingerprint Clearance Card.
 6. The Internship may only be repeated once.
- Students unable to meet the eligibility requirements may transfer enrollment to the Master of Educational Leadership program of study.

Internship and Field Work Hours

Learners in the educational administration program will accumulate 270 internship and 90 field work hours, totaling 360 hours. Field work hours are accrued throughout the program and internship hours are accrued at the culmination of each of the three blocks in 90-hour increments. Internship hours are unpaid, require partial-time placement with an approved COE mentor administrator, and are required for an Institutional Recommendation (IR).

Institutional Recommendation

Institutional Recommendations (IRs) are issued for teaching, principal, and school counseling programs that lead to initial licensure in Arizona. The IR confirms that a student has met all requirements, including successful student teaching or internship, for the program of study that has been approved by the Arizona State Board of Education. It is the student's responsibility to determine the professional knowledge and subject knowledge exams that must be taken to obtain a certificate in Arizona. An IR is valid for one year from the date it is signed. IRs can be issued only within one year of a student's graduation date; otherwise, the student will need to apply for a transcript analysis to determine if certification criteria have been met.

All College of Education principal candidates seeking an Institutional recommendation for principal license must complete the program requirements for their degree program, which include verification of the fingerprint clearance and successful completion of an internship component.

- Arizona residents will be required to successfully pass the Arizona Educator Proficiency Assessment (AEPA) principal licensure test.
- Principal candidates requiring Arizona principal certification in application for their local state licensure will need to successfully pass the principal AEPA licensure test.

Meet all other prerequisites for student teaching (3.0 GPA, GCU-approved placement, successful completion of courses in program of study).

Master of Education in Early Childhood Education Nevada ARL

In order to apply for conditional licensure with the state of Nevada, students in the Master of Education in Early Childhood Education (Nevada ARL) must receive an ARL Recommendation letter from GCU's College of Education. This letter can be obtained once the following requirements are met:

- Successful completion of the first three courses in the approved program (8 credit hours)

Pre-Practicum Hours Requirement

Students are required to complete the minimum of 100 pre-practicum hours. Students who fail to meet the minimum amount of hours required per course will receive a failing grade and will have to retake the course. Hours accumulated during a course that receives a non-passing grade will not be counted towards the program practicum hour requirement. Students may not complete additional hours to use in a future course. Students are responsible for determining which licensure guidelines, including additional practicum hours, are applicable to and necessary for their individual state boards.

Practicum Hours Requirement

Students are required to complete the minimum practicum hours required for each course in their program of study. Each practicum course requires that the student complete 150 practicum hours. Students who fail to meet the minimum amount of hours required per course will receive a failing grade and will have to retake the course. Hours accumulated during a course that receives a non-passing grade will not be counted towards the program hour requirement. Students may not complete additional hours to use in a future course. Students are responsible for determining which licensure guidelines, including additional practicum hours, are applicable to and necessary for their individual state boards.

Counseling Student Professional Standards and Dismissal Policy

Student success is a priority for Grand Canyon University and the Counseling Program(s)*. Students are encouraged and required to follow the Grand Canyon University's academic progression policy and the adopted Ten Counseling Dispositions, the American Counseling Association's (ACA) ethical code and/or the National Association of Addictions Professionals (NAADAC) ethical code. Failure to meet course objectives, policies, counseling dispositions, procedures outlined in the courses, the University Policy Handbook, and/or practicum/internship manual may result in failure, Professional Standards, or removal from program. Failure to meet the American Counseling Association Code of Ethics and/or the National Association for Addiction Professional's Code of Ethics may result in a warning, coaching, probation, suspension, or removal from the program. It is important that students maintain continuous growth and continuous clinical or counseling skill acquisition as they progress through the program of study. This policy and the dispositions are designed to meet the standards of the American Counseling Association.

Dispositional Expectations

Dispositions are the values, commitments, and professional ethics that influence behaviors toward others, and, if sincerely held, dispositions lead to actions and patterns of professional conduct. The Grand Canyon University Counseling Program's dispositions adhere to the university's mission statement, as well as to the established counseling profession codes of ethics. The Grand Canyon University Counseling Program have adopted the following dispositions for its students derived from the American Counseling Association (ACA) Code of Ethics. Although these dispositions are not all inclusive, they do represent values and qualities that are warranted by counseling students. Students who fail to adhere to or demonstrate such dispositions may be subject to disciplinary actions.

- Psychological Fitness - Counselors are aware and assess their motives for pursuing the counseling profession. They are aware of their unfinished emotional and/or mental health issues, and resolve them before starting to provide counseling services to others. Counselors engage in self-care and seek resolutions to issues that arise during their practice. Counselors adhere to the American Counseling Association (ACA) Code of Ethics and/or the National Association of Addictions Professionals (NAADAC) Code of Ethics.
- Self-Awareness - Counselors are aware of their personal moral, ethical, and value systems and provide counseling services with objectivity, justice, fidelity, veracity, and benevolence. Counselors are acutely aware of their personal limitations in providing services, and are willing to refer clients to another provider when necessary.
- Cultural Diversity - Counselors respect, engage, honor, and embrace diversity and a multicultural approach that supports the worth, dignity, potential, and uniqueness of people within their social and cultural context. Counselors promote self-advocacy and assist clients in advocating for empowerment within their cultural context.
- Acceptance - Counselors foster a healthy climate of change by providing and promoting acceptance and a nonjudgmental environment during the therapeutic process. They understand their personal value system and do not impose their values, attitudes, beliefs, and behaviors on their clients.

- Empathy - Counselors foster understanding, compassion, and avoid any actions that can cause harm to a client. Counselors treat others with dignity and respect.
- Genuineness - Counselors deal truthfully with themselves and their clients, in order to avoid harming their clients.
- Flexibility - Counselors practice a client-centered approach, and align treatment to the client's goals for therapy.
- Patience - Counselors understand the therapeutic process and respect clients' efforts to gain control over their lives. Counselors encourage an environment that promotes self-empowerment and allows client's voice in the therapeutic process.
- Amiability - Counselors do not support or engage in any act of discrimination against a prospective, current, or former client. Counselors promote and practice social justice and do not exploit others in their professional relationships.
- Professional Identity - Counselors adhere to regulatory state boards and nationally recognized codes of ethics. Counselors practice only within their scope and competencies. They seek to utilize best practices and empirically supported treatments. Counselors stay current with the counseling profession through seeking continuing education, and by supporting counseling associations.

Professional Practices Committee

When students have violated dispositional values, expected classroom decorum, university standards, American Counseling Association (ACA) code of ethics and/or the NAADAC code of ethics, they will be referred to the counseling program(s) Professional Practices Committee. Students can also be referred to the committee when students display counseling or clinical skills deficits. Instructors (FTF, OFTF and/or Adjunct), Office of Field Experience staff and program administrators may file referrals to the committee for review. Referrals are to be sent to the Counseling Clinical Program Managers.

Students at risk for College-level sanctions will be contacted by the Professional Practices Committee and offered the opportunity to provide a Written Statement and documentation on their own behalf to the Professional Practices Committee. Students have the option to provide a Written Statement within the allowed timeframe, but are not required to present information. If the student does not respond within seven days of being contacted by the Professional Practices Committee Administrator, the student forfeits his/her right to participate in the process and a determination will be made by the Professional Practices Committee. All information, including the initial report and supporting documentation, and any statement and documentation submitted by the student, will be reviewed by the Professional Practices Committee during their formal Committee meetings. Students are not entitled to representation by any third party, personal representative, or attorney in the College disciplinary process. A notice will be sent within 72 hours to the student about the committee's decision.

Possible Outcomes of the Professional Standards Meeting:

- Warning and Coaching: If the Professional Practices Committee issues a recommendation for coaching, the student will be notified within 72 hours with information about the assigned coach and directions for contact. Coaching will be provided by program faculty for 4 weeks. Students receiving a warning or a coaching assignment will not be suspended or dismissed from classes, the program, or field experience. These activities are to enhance or strengthen the student's understanding of their profession and the ACA code of ethics and to safeguard the counseling field as prescribed by the American Counseling Association Code of Ethics (ACA Codes F.6.b. & F.7.a.).

- Failure of Assignment Grades and/or Courses: The Professional Practices Committee may issue zeros to assignments, which in turn may change the final course grade(s). Failing grades may be assigned by the college in field experience classes and in response to problems with practice hours accumulated, violating ethical codes or removal from the field practice site.
- Suspension from Clinical Practice: Corrective Action Plan (CAP) for unprofessional behavior and conduct, as defined by the American Counseling Association (ACA) and/or the National Association for Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) counseling codes of ethics, may be the subject of a code of conduct violation charge and/or corrective action plan. Note: Ethical violations may result in the student being reported to the applicable state licensing board (for information on different types of violations, and potential consequences refer to the “Unprofessional Conduct Acknowledgement Form” located in the practicum manuals).
- Program Removal: The recommendation for administrative withdrawal must be approved by the Assistant/Associate Dean (or designee) over the student’s program, and referred to the University’s Code of Conduct Committee for final review and determination/processing. Please see the Procedures for Processing Alleged Violations of the Student Code of Conduct for additional information.

Additional Notes:

- a. If students are removed from a didactic or practicum course, as part of a corrective action plan, they may need to retake the course at their own expense. Students are encouraged to discuss any financial or other concerns with a Student Services Counselor (SSC). Students may also be assigned a failing grade for the assignment(s), which may result in course failure. Students may be assigned a failing grade for the course despite actual end of course grade
- b. Students may not participate in corrective action plans more than three times. Students who do not complete the correction action plan successfully will be referred by the Professional Practices Committee to the Code of Conduct committee for removal from the program.
- c. The Professional Practices Committee may require students to attend therapeutic services at their own cost. As prescribed by the ACA standard of gatekeeping and Professional Standards (ACA Codes F.6.b. & F.7.a.).The Professional Practices Committee may determine a referral to the University Code of Conduct Committee is appropriate, in addition to or in place of, any College-level penalties. Students may appeal a determination made by the Professional Practices Committee by utilizing the University Appeal Procedures and submitting a formal appeal through a Student Services Counselor.

*Counseling Programs includes all graduate counseling programs and associated emphasis.

The term counselor is used to refer to counselors in training at the graduate level.

Corrective Action Plan for Unprofessional Behavior

Unprofessional conduct, as defined by the American Counseling Association (ACA) and/or the National Association for Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) counseling codes of ethics, may be the subject of a code of conduct violation charge and/or corrective action plan.

- Depending on the determination made by the Professional Practices Committee, students may be administratively withdrawn from practicum courses and asked to participate in mandatory four-week coaching session. If administratively withdrawn, students will be issued an “F” as a final grade. If students are terminated from sites due to an unethical or illegal behavior and, consequently, administratively withdrawn from an individual practicum course, the practicum hours completed during this time will not be counted for that course.

- To resume practicum experiences, students must successfully complete the terms of their corrective action plans, which include mandatory coaching, within the allotted four-week period. Students will not earn credits or practicum hours for completing corrective action plans.
- If students are administratively withdrawn from a practicum course as part of a corrective action plan, they may need to retake the course at their own expense. Students are encouraged to discuss any financial or other concerns with a Student Services Adviser (SSA).
- Students may not participate in corrective action plans more than twice. Students who do not successfully complete their corrective action plan will not be able to graduate with a counseling degree.

Ethical violations may result in the student being reported to the state licensing board (for information on different types of violations, and potential consequences refer to the “Unprofessional Conduct Acknowledgement Form” located in the practicum manuals).

College of Nursing and Health Care Professions

All CONHCP Nursing Graduate Programs

Professional Standards

The American Nursing Association \(ANA\) Code of Ethics statement serves as the guiding principle for the nursing profession. The Associate Dean of Graduate Programs in the College of Nursing and Healthcare Professions, together with the respective APRN program director and faculty, will determine the consequences for graduate nursing students who violate these standards. Graduate nursing students must adhere to the Code of Conduct and Academic Standards section of the University Policy Handbook.

The University carries Medical Professional Liability Insurance on all students. The coverage is $2,000,000 each incident or occurrence and $4,000,000 in the aggregate through the following company:

Parker Smith & Feek, Inc.
Bellevue (425-709-3600)
2233 112th Avenue NE

Certificate number: MFL019309

Chain of Command

Effective Fall 2017

In a healthcare organization, it is the expectation that nurses will use the chain of command to bring issues to the appropriate leader’s attention. This is especially important when nurses question things like medication type and dosage. In order to prepare students for the requirements of health care employers, the College leadership expect students to use the Chain of Command for raising similar issues in nursing programs. Therefore, students with concerns regarding the classroom should appropriately and professionally address their faculty. If intervention is needed beyond the faculty, students should address concerns to the Director or Program Chair of their program. Finally, if the issue needs further attention, in conjunction with the Director or Program Lead, the concern should be taken to the Assistant/Associate Dean over the student's program.

If the student's concern is regarding something unrelated to nursing courses, the student should consult with their counselor, and if needed the Student Services Manager.

If after this process is exhausted, the student can pursue the University Appeals Procedures.

Professional Practices Committee

The College of Nursing & Health Care Professions Professional Practices Committee serves as the central sanctioning body for the application of College-level penalties in all cases involving student violations of the CONHCP clinical and lab policies, the Student Professional Dispositions, as well as the Nursing Professional Standards.

Student Professional Dispositions

One important aspect of the student experience is the fulfillment of professional dispositions—ways of working, thinking, and interacting with others—in three areas: Professionalism, Work Ethic, and Communication Skills. In order to support student development and have clear expectations in these areas CONHCP lists the following key dispositions. Failure to demonstrate these dispositions through behaviors at any point in the program may jeopardize students' continuation in the program. Students are expected to monitor their development of these professional dispositions, beginning now and continuing throughout their career. The ability to reflect on personal growth, strengths, and challenges is a central characteristic of effective people working in health care. These disposition statements do not replace the University Code of Conduct.

Communication Skills

1. Demonstrate appropriate, professional, respectful verbal communication
2. Demonstrate appropriate, professional, respectful written communication
3. Demonstrate a disposition toward inquiry and problem solving
4. Work collaboratively with students, faculty, and professionals
5. Demonstrate consistently positive attitudes toward learning and/or teaching
6. Accept responsibility for decisions and actions
7. Establish and maintain mutually respectful interactions
8. Demonstrate understanding of university/program organizational chart by communicating "need to know information" to individuals according to the chain of command

Work Ethic

1. Demonstrate regular attendance
2. Demonstrate punctuality
3. Complete work in a timely manner
4. Demonstrate organizational skills
5. Know and observe all pertinent policies and procedures
6. Demonstrate a disposition toward personal ownership of learning and professional development

Professionalism

1. Demonstrate a commitment to work with clients, their families, students, faculty, and staff in appropriate, professional, and respectful ways
2. Demonstrate an awareness of community, state, national, and world contexts that have an impact on the profession and the learning process
3. Treat everyone fairly, equitably, and respectfully
4. Accept constructive criticism and adjusts performance accordingly

5. Express and demonstrate interest in and enthusiasm for teaching/learning
6. Adapt to new and diverse teaching/learning situations
7. Adapt to differences among people including differences of SES, gender, age, ability, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, religion, language, etc.
8. Maintain confidentiality about all student, client, faculty, and staff records unless disclosure serves a professionally compelling purpose or is required by law
9. Demonstrate discretion when discussing colleagues, faculty, field sites, and personal information
10. Respect the points of view of others
11. Contribute meaningfully, appropriately, professionally, and respectfully to discussions by asking questions, giving opinions, and listening to others
12. Project an appropriate professional appearance in professional settings
13. Project an appropriate professional and respectful demeanor
14. Be open to leadership and opportunities for growth
15. Understand and practice professional ethical standards
16. Recognize personal at risk behavior: Behavioral choice that increases risk where risk is not recognized, or is mistakenly believed to be justified
17. Recognize personal reckless behavior: Behavioral choice to consciously disregard a substantial and unjustifiable risk
18. Acts overall in a manner that furthers the interests of others (enlightened self-interest): Enlightened self-interest refers to the understanding and trust that what a person does to enhance another's quality of life enhances one's own quality of life to a similar degree. More simply put, it is the idea that "what goes around comes around"
19. Utilize social media responsibly, avoiding issues regarding privacy and confidentiality by not communicating information regarding your clinical experiences or documents contained in a client record.

Conduct Violations

- Practicing outside of scope
- Unprofessional conduct
- Sanctions against a license/certification, or failure to report criminal conduct
- Unsafe practice
- Practicing outside supervision
- Unprepared for clinical
- Breach of privacy/confidentiality
- Violations of the Clinical Probation, Clinical Lab Attendance, or Clinical Tardy policies
- Failure to follow policies/guidelines of facility
- Positive drug screen
- Failure to follow Office of Field Experience guidelines

Procedure for Processing Alleged Violations of the CONHCP Professional Practices Committee

The College of Nursing and Health Care Professions may take disciplinary action against a student who violates the Professional Practices. Violations will be reported through an Incident Report by GCU instructors, GCU staff, or third parties affiliated with GCU. Reports are forwarded to the Professional Practices Committee Administrator upon discovery of the incident. Additionally, GCU staff is required to notify students that an incident report will be submitted to the Professional Practices Committee. The Administrator then reviews the report, as well as any history of prior offenses. The Administrator then notifies the student if the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions intends to take further action as a result of the particular report or as a result of the history of offenses. If further action is recommended, the Professional Practices Committee will determine whether the alleged violation has been substantiated and which College-level penalty to apply.

Students who are charged with a violation of the Professional Practices are afforded an opportunity to be heard before a College-level penalty is applied. Students at risk for College-level sanctions will be:

- Contacted by the Professional Practices Committee Administrator
- Offered the opportunity to present documentation and speak on their own behalf to the Professional Practices Committee.
- Present information by submitting a written statement and/or participating via teleconference.

Students are not required to participate or submit information.

Students who wish to participate or present information must adhere to the following:

- Submit all documentation within the timeframe specified in the notification.
- If the student does not respond within seven days of being contacted by the Professional Practices Committee Administrator, the student forfeits his/her right to participate in the process and a determination will be made by the Professional Practices Committee.
- All information, including the initial report and supporting documentation, and any statement and documentation submitted by the student, will be reviewed by the Professional Practices Committee during their formal Committee meetings.
- Students are not entitled to representation by any third party, personal representative, or attorney in the College disciplinary process.

College-level Penalties

The Professional Practices Committee has the ability to issue College-level penalties. In making its determination, the Board considers the severity of the offense, as well as the student's history within the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions. A College-level penalty may include, but is not limited to:

- Applying a formal warning to the student record (which may result in further penalties for additional occurrences)
- Stipulating a professional growth plan, to include a letter of concern.
- Issuing clinical probation
- Administrative withdrawal from the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions, which includes course failure.
- Assigning a failing grade for the assignment(s), which may result in course failure
- Recommending a failing grade for the course

The Professional Practices Committee may determine referral to the University Code of Conduct Committee is appropriate, in addition to or in place of, any College-level penalties.

The recommendation for a course failure or an administrative withdrawal must be approved by the Assistant/Associate Dean (or designee) over the student's program, and referred to the University's Code of Conduct Committee for processing. Since students are provided the opportunity to speak on their own behalf to the Professional Practices Committee, the referral to the University Code of Conduct Committee is for processing only and is not intended to be a re-review of the issue.

Students may appeal a determination made by the Professional Practices Committee by utilizing the University Appeal

Procedures and submitting a formal appeal through a Student Services Counselor.

Master of Science in Nursing: Acute Care Nurse Practitioner with an Emphasis in Adult-Gerontology (ACNP)

Master of Science in Nursing: Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP)

Post-Master of Science in Nursing: Family Nurse Practitioner Certificate

Post-Master of Science in Nursing: Acute Care Nurse Practitioner with an Emphasis in Adult-Gerontology Certificate

Students who have been accepted into the nursing program may remain in the program if they adhere to the following criteria:

1. Maintain continuous enrollment for the duration of their program.
2. Students who earn one non-passing (W, F) grade will be administratively withdrawn from the program. Students who are administratively withdrawn or take a leave of absence have the option to complete a Request for Reinstatement, which is discussed within the University Appeal Procedures section of the University Policy Handbook.
3. Upon any reinstatement to the APRN program, all students need to review the BON R4-19-511- APRN graduates must complete a minimum of 45 contact hours of advanced pharmacology education within 3 years immediately preceding the application to the BON post-graduation for prescribing and dispensing authority as a practicing nurse practitioner. If Advanced pharmacology needs to be repeated, the student may take it as a single course at GCU and will be responsible for the cost of that course
4. Students need to follow the requirements listed in the Guidelines for Graduate Field Experience Manual. If not followed, students may have a registration hold place on their student accounts.
5. Students must possess self-coverage Professional Nursing Liability Insurance. The coverage is a minimum of $1 million per event/$3 million total coverage. Proof of insurance must be submitted upon request by the Office of Field Experience.

Master of Science in Nursing: Acute Care Nurse Practitioner with an Emphasis in Adult-Gerontology (ACNP)

Master of Science in Nursing: Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP)

Graduate Clinical Requirements

Prior to registration for clinical courses, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. Submit a Student Clinical Placement Application prior to the start of each clinical course to the Office of Field Experience. The Office of Field Experience will give priority to assigning clinical placements to those students who have submitted the application and all required documentation by the appropriate deadline.
2. Submit the following documents to the Office of Field Experience. Students are required to maintain these documents in order to continue in the clinical setting each semester.
 - Evidence of Professional Nursing Liability Insurance $1 million per event and $3 million total coverage
 - Evidence of Health Insurance
 - Health/Safety Requirements as described in the Guidelines for Graduate Field Experience Manual
 - It is the responsibility of the student to identify clinical placements and preceptors. Should a student have difficulty securing a site, the Office of Field Experience will provide assistance to secure a placement on the student's behalf. Priority will be given to those students who have submitted the application and all required documentation by the appropriate deadline.

- Submit a Student Clinical Placement Application: Students must submit a minimum of three qualified preceptors with valid contact information and who have committed to being a preceptor 6 months prior to the start of each clinical course. GCU follows the definition of a qualified preceptor in the Arizona Rules of the State Board of Nursing (R4-19-502). Students will not be permitted to begin clinical courses and will be unregistered until the site and the preceptor is fully approved by the Office of Field Experience within the College of Nursing and Health Care Professions. The Office of Field Experience will make every attempt to use a student preferred preceptor/site. If that is not possible, the student must accept a preceptor/site offered by the Office of Field Experience
- Health and Safety Documentation: All Health and Safety documents must be submitted to the Office of Field Experience 16 weeks prior to the start of the course. Application requirements could include additional background checks, special forms or immunizations and on-line module training as described in the Graduate Field Experience Manual. Expired documents must be re-submitted in order to continue in the clinical.
- In a case where a preceptor is unable to fulfill their requirements, the Office of Field Experience will make every attempt to assist the student in finding alternative placement to complete the hours. If this is not possible, the student may need to withdraw, retake the course, and all associated clinical hours will be lost and need to be repeated the following term. Students will be responsible for all costs associated with any repeat courses.
- Every attempt will be made to arrange this in the student's geographical area. Students must be willing to travel to any site in their state at their own expense to complete the clinical requirements.
- Students must notify the Office of Field Experience of a change of address immediately as this may impact clinical placement. A student who moves to a state in which the program is not offered will not be able to complete the program.

In addition to the student requirements above, GCU must receive all components of the preceptor requirements prior to the start of the clinical course. Students may be requested by the Office of Field Experience to reach out to the preceptor to facilitate receipt of these documents.

On-Campus Experience Attendance Policy

Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) students are required to attend both scheduled On-Campus Experiences and successfully complete all requirements including, but not limited to, skills practice, skills check-off and lecture.

Required attendance:

- Must be physically present each day.
- Must participate each day from scheduled start to finish time.

Failure to attend any portion of the On-Campus Experience will result in an automatic course failure. Students will be required to repeat the course and the On-Campus Experience associated with the course to progress in their program of study.

All On-Campus Experiences must be fulfilled as a graduation requirement.

Master of Public Health

Master of Science in Nursing

Post-Master of Science in Nursing Certificate

No Rounding Policy

The GCU College of Nursing & Health Care Professions has adopted a No Rounding policy for all courses within the program. This policy states that all grades will be entered to the hundredth at their face value and not rounded (i.e., a final grade of 89.99 will be entered as B and not a B+).

Testing Policy

Students are allowed 1.3 min per question and 3 min per short answer and math questions on exams.

Honor Code

All students will sign the following Honor Code Statement each time they take a test, either electronically or by paper and pencil.

"On my honor, as a Grand Canyon University Student, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this academic work."

The Ground Testing Environment

Examinations will be administered in an environment that is conducive to success and minimizes the opportunity for academic dishonesty.

1. Students may only have a pencil and piece of blank scratch paper issued by the proctor at their desk or computer.
2. Everything brought into the room (backpacks, purses, phones, PDAs, hats, snacks, water, etc.) must be placed at the front of the room at the student's own risk.
3. All phones must be turned off.
4. Students may only use calculators and paper provided by GCU.
5. Faculty will actively monitor all students during examinations.
6. Students will be issued a piece of colored cardstock to use as a cover sheet while taking paper exams.
7. Talking is not allowed during the exam.
8. Each student's eyes must be on their own exam at all times.
9. Once the exam has begun students cannot approach faculty to ask questions or seek clarification about the exam.
10. Students cannot leave the room and return once the exam has begun.
11. Students may only access the test site on the computer while taking an electronic exam. Students may not minimize the site, exit the site, or use chat during the exam.
12. After completing the examination, students will leave the classroom and not return until instructed by faculty once all students have finished the exam.
13. Students are encouraged to be present and well prepared to take all examinations. Consequences for being absent may include being given a different version of the exam. Only students with excused absences will be given the opportunity to take a make-up exam. Students must notify the instructor no less than 30 minutes prior to the start of the exam for the absence to be considered excused. Students may make up no more than one exam per course.
14. Students who are observed violating the above criteria will be asked to leave the exam, given no credit for the exam, and reported to the University Code of Conduct Committee.

Policy for Student Drug, Nicotine & Alcohol Screening

The practice of professionalism demands that the clinician be free from the influence of any substance that would impair judgment and thinking ability. As a result, health care agencies are requiring students who work directly with patients to undergo drug screening. Students must also be free from impairing substances. Health care agencies and the CONHCP require drug screening of all students prior to their first clinical experience. In addition, students are subject to screening if either the faculty or preceptor suspects that the student is impaired at any time on campus, or during any health care experience or any other university or work related activity. Any student whose test is deemed positive will not be able to enroll or continue in nursing course for a minimum period of one year. Determination will be made in the Professional Standards Committee. The College is required to reports any positive screens and/or suspicion refusal to the appropriate board.

This policy is designed to identify the procedures to be followed for both types of testing as well as to outline the appeal and readmission to the program.

Initial Urine Drug Screening

1. Students entering their first clinical course and new transfer students will receive a drug screen authorization form in order to complete a random urine drug screen. Students will have 24 hours to complete the random drug screen at one of the laboratory options provided. Students receiving an authorization form on a Friday will be required to complete the screen by the end-of-business hours on Monday.
2. Students will be required to show picture identification upon arrival. A driver's license or passport are acceptable forms of identification.
3. The cost for all screening and medical review (if deemed necessary) is the students' responsibility.
4. A screen with questionable results will be sent by the lab for a medical review. Costs for review and retest will be the responsibility of the student.
5. A negative report is necessary to continue in the program of study in the CONHCP.
6. This screen need not be repeated as long as the student maintains continuous enrollment. Continuous enrollment is defined as enrollment in nursing classes during all consecutive semesters until graduation.
7. Students may be re-tested for cause or reasonable suspicion.

For Cause or Reasonable Suspicion Drug, Nicotine & Alcohol Screening

The CONHCP may ask a student to submit to a drug and alcohol screening at any time a faculty member or preceptor believes that the student may be under the influence of drugs or alcohol. This includes but is not limited to the following circumstances: evidence of drugs or alcohol on or about the student's person or in the student's possession, unusual conduct on the student's part that suggests possible use or influence of drugs or alcohol, negative performance patterns, or excessive and unexplained absenteeism or tardiness. Determination will be made in the Professional Standards Committee.

1. Students will be asked to submit to an immediate oral drug and alcohol screening test conducted at one of the laboratory options provided.
2. Students may also be given a drug screen authorization form and asked to immediately complete a urine drug screen at one of the laboratory options provided.
3. Students will be required to show picture identification upon arrival. A driver's license or passport are acceptable forms of identification.
4. The costs for all screening and medical review (if deemed necessary) are the students' responsibility.
5. A screen with questionable results will be sent by the lab for a medical review by the company completing the drug screen.

Costs for review and retest will be the responsibility of the student.

6. A negative report, excluding a positive nicotine result, is necessary to continue in the program of study in the CONHCP.

Follow-up Action: Positive Screen (For Cause or Initial Drug Screen)

1. Positive drug screens (including those medically prescribed) may result in withdrawal from the nursing program for a minimum of 12 months. After this 12-month period, the student may apply for readmission under general guidelines stated in the University Policy Handbook, provided there is submission of evidence of satisfactory participation in a rehabilitation program for alcohol/substance abuse. Determination will be made in the Professional Standards Committee.
2. Sources of evidence include: a. Documentation of completed program of rehabilitation.
 - a. Acknowledgement of continuance in a twelve step or after-care program.
 - b. Letter from therapist or licensed health care provider stating the student is now able to function safely in a clinical facility.
3. The student must have a negative screen prior to being readmitted to the nursing program. The screen will be done at the direction of CONHCP and may be periodic while the student is in a CONHCP program. The student is responsible for all costs of screening.
4. The decision to readmit will be made by the CONHCP College Administrator after review of submitted materials. As with other applications for readmission, space availability may be a determining factor for that particular semester.
5. A report will be filed with the State Board of Nursing upon withdrawal from the program consistent with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Nursing.
6. Any student who screens positive after one readmission may be permanently dismissed from the nursing program.

Follow-up Action For-Cause Negative Screen

1. Students whose drug screens are negative will meet with the College Administrator to discuss the perceptions of impaired behavior and the implications and steps to avoid similar situations in the future.
2. A review by the Medical Review Officer (MRO) by the company collecting the drug screen for documentation of any medical condition or treatment may be requested.
3. Students will not be counted as absent from clinical during this evaluation process. However, students will be expected to meet the clinical objectives.
4. A reasonable suspicion/cause drug screen that is positive; however, is deemed negative by a medical review officer will follow these guidelines:
 - a. The student will meet with the College Administrator.
 - b. The student may be required to undergo, at the student's expense, an evaluation for drug use/prescription drug use/impairment by a psychiatrist recommended by the State Board of Nursing.
 - c. The student will follow other recommendations deemed necessary by the College Administrator.
 - d. The student will be required to provide a negative drug screen prior to returning to clinical and be subject to periodic drug screens at the student's expense.

- e. More than one incident of a reasonable suspicion/cause drug screen that is positive; however, deemed negative by a medical review officer may result in withdrawal from the nursing program for a minimum of 12 months. In this case the student will follow the positive drug screening guidelines.

Students Who Refuse Drug Screening

Students who refuse to participate in screening will be required to leave the clinical area and make an appointment with the Dean of Nursing or his/her designee. The student will remain out of the clinical area until an investigation has been done and a recommendation has been made by the College Administrator. Students who refuse screening may be subject to dismissal from the CONHCP. A student who refuses to participate in the aforementioned rehabilitation program will not be allowed into clinical courses; therefore he/she cannot complete the nursing program.

Substances Included in Urine Drug Screen

Amphetamines, Barbiturates, Benzodiazepines, Cannabinoids, Cocaine metabolite, Cotinine (tobacco/nicotine), Fentanyl, Meperidine, Methadone, Opiates, Oxycodone, Phencyclidine, Propoxyphene

*Please note certain clinical facilities include nicotine as part of their screening and will not allow students to rotate at their facility who test positive from nicotine or its byproduct, cotinine.

Bodily Fluids Exposure and/or Injury During Field Experiences

Grand Canyon University acknowledges the inherent risks associated with working around or with patients and health care organizations, including a potential exposure to blood and body fluids. Once in a patient care setting, you will have access to and are expected to utilize appropriate blood-borne pathogen barriers, proper sanitary precautions, and appropriate biohazard disposal equipment and procedures at each clinical site.

The following policy outlines your responsibilities in this area:

- You must have and maintain current health insurance and show verification of coverage each year while matriculated in the program.
- GCU and the clinical agencies that provide practical experiences for our students are not responsible or liable for the costs of medical follow-up or expenses incurred.
- If evaluation and treatment is required by the facility where you are completing clinical experiences, the student is responsible for all costs and associated follow up.
- In the event that you are injured or exposed to blood and body fluids, you will:
 - Immediately notify your clinical instructor or site supervisor
 - Wash the area immediately and thoroughly with soap and water.
 - Within 24 hours, follow-up with your own Primary Care Provider who will make a determination of immunization status and give appropriate prophylaxis or referral for appropriate prophylaxis.
 - Assume full responsibility for disease sequelae.
 - Follow the policies of the agency (if any).
 - Complete a student incident report with the supervising faculty or instructor who was present during incident. A copy of this report will be given to the College Administrator and placed in the student's file.

Communicable Disease Policy

You may not participate in field experiences during the time you are affected by or suspect you have a communicable disease. A communicable disease is a health disorder that can be passed from one person to another. If suspected of communicable disease, you must immediately visit the student health center or personal physician for evaluation. If the evaluation shows possible communicable disease, you must remain out of contact with patients for the duration suggested by the physician. You may not return to participation in field experiences until you have been re-evaluated by a physician, nurse practitioner, or physician assistant and released with written verification from the medical provider. You must contact the clinical preceptor and faculty upon suspicion and verification of the disease.

Clinical & Lab Attendance and Participation Policy Effective Fall 2017

Clinical and lab attendance is mandatory.

Clinical and lab make ups will only be considered once per semester in each clinical course or scheduled lab, under extreme circumstances, and approved by the Director of Pre-Licensure (or designee). Examples of extreme circumstances that could warrant a clinical or lab make up may include:

- a communicable disease which can be transmitted to patients, staff or other students
- a car accident requiring immediate medical attention
- hospitalization

If a student is unable to attend clinical or a scheduled lab, the student will contact the following:

- Director of Clinical Operations, clinical faculty, and didactic faculty for a missed clinical experience
- Lab director and didactic faculty for missed lab / instructional simulation experience
- Director of Clinical Operations and didactic faculty for a missed immersive simulation experience

The student must notify the above faculty and/or staff at least one (1) hour prior to the scheduled start of the event. Students must then complete the Pre-licensure Clinical/Lab Make-Up Request Form within 24 hours from the time of notification to determine if a make-up clinical experience or lab will be approved. Students can access the Pre-licensure Clinical/Lab Make-Up Request Form at <http://www.gcumedia.com/lms-resources/student-success-center/v2.1/#/resource/college/CoNHCP>.

In order for the University to consider a Pre-licensure Clinical or Lab Make-Up Request in cases of medical absence, the student will be required to submit substantiating medical documentation that states: "the student may return to class, lab, and clinical with no health or safety restrictions" from a medical provider and written on a prescription, or letterhead, that clearly reflects the provider's medical number. This will be required whether the student misses 1 clinical day or lab or consecutive clinical days or labs. GCU may verify the information contained in the documentation with the provider. Falsification of medical documentation is reportable to the Arizona Board of Nursing (AZ Reg R4-19-403). Students will be notified of the approval or denial of the clinical or lab make-up via mail and email to their gcu.edu email address.

It is up to the University to determine how students will make up missed clinical hours or lab events if approved, but the primary method will be an additional clinical rotation or lab event. Secondly, if alternative clinical rotations cannot be arranged, the University may choose to use lab and case studies to meet the clinical objectives.

Students must make-up missed lab and clinical experiences and may not decline the make-up experience identified. Students may risk failing the course for nonattendance. Students must submit any associated assignments with the make-up to the LoudCloud classroom within 48 hours of completing the make-up for grading.

If a student absence does not meet the above criteria it is considered unexcused. Students will lose all points for the associated lab but will have to complete the lab in order to progress in their course and in the program.

Students who must miss clinical or lab due to extended illness are encouraged to contact the Student Disability Office.

Students who must miss clinical due to extended illness are encouraged to contact the Student Disability Office..

1:1 Student/Preceptor Ratio

All APRN students are required to maintain a 1:1 ratio in the clinical setting with their preceptor.

- First Policy Violation:
 - Student will receive a written letter from Program Lead stating the dates of the violation and associated consequences.
 - All Clinical hours completed on the day of the violation will be lost; which will require the student to complete additional clinical hours to meet the minimum course required hours.
- Any Repeat violations:
 - Student will receive a written letter from the Program Lead stating the dates of the violation and associated consequences
 - All clinical hours completed on the day of the violation will be lost; which will require the student to complete additional clinical hours to meet the minimum course required hours.
 - Student will be referred to the professional standards committee and student may be subject to clinical probation.

Clinical Absence Policy

Failure to complete the minimum clinical requirements will result in failure of that clinical course.

All absences are to be reported to the preceptor in a timely manner via email, text, or phone.

If a student is unable to attend clinical, the student must:

1. Contact, by phone or in person, the course faculty, at least one (1) hour prior to the scheduled clinical time.
2. Notify by phone the designated client or clinical agency, at least one (1) hour prior to the scheduled clinical time.
3. At the discretion of the faculty member, submit a release signed by a health care provider to return to clinical.

Clinical Tardy Policy

Clinical tardiness is defined as being late at the beginning of a clinical. Any anticipated tardiness is to be reported to the appropriate course faculty and preceptor.

Consequences of being tardy three times within the same course are:

First Occurrence: Student will receive a clinical warning.

Second Occurrence: Student will be placed on clinical probation for the second late.

Third Occurrence: Student will fail clinical on the third late.

Clinical Restriction Policy

Clinical restriction is the official means of restricting the student from any field experience when students have missing, expired, or insufficient immunizations or documentation requirements on file with the Office of Field Experience (OFE). You will be notified by the OFE 4 weeks before documentation is set to expire. Once documentation has expired, the OFE will notify you course faculty of your restriction status. At all times it is your responsibility to ensure that your health and safety documentation is up to date and current, and that all other program requirements have been met. Health and safety requirements are mandatory for all students where indicated in this manual.

Clinical Probation Policy

Clinical probation is the official means of notifying you of unacceptable behavior or unsatisfactory performance. Being placed on probation can affect the field experience/clinical grade and may result in being administratively withdrawn from the course as determined by the Professional Standards Committee.

Clinical probation status is conferred at the discretion of the course instructor, clinical instructor, and respective Course Faculty for any unsafe or unprofessional behaviors. The following are examples of behaviors that lead to probation:

- Participating in a setting with expired or outstanding immunizations or documentation or delay in completing OCO modules by the due date.
- Unexcused absences
- Tardiness, failure to notify faculty/staff of tardiness or absences in clinical
- Insufficient preparation for the field experience
- Failure to follow instructor's or preceptor's guidance
- Unsafe practice in the clinical area
- Causing a client unnecessary suffering or harm
- Failure to report abnormal data in a timely manner to the appropriate persons
- Conduct inappropriate to the role of the student as outlined in this manual
- Failure to follow instructor's guidance
- Failure to dress in approved program attire
- HIPAA violations
- Leaving the clinical site without permission at any time during clinical hours
- Pre-licensure students administering medications unsupervised by an RN
- Performing skills/interventions which have not been signed off by the faculty
- Acting outside of a student scope or practice

Probation Procedure

- A discussion with Course Faculty and letter of probation will be given you.
- Code of Conduct will be initiated.
- A copy of the letter will be sent to the College Administrator and will be placed in your file.
- Refer to the University Policy Handbook for more information
- Clinical probation may result in up to 10% reduction in the clinical grade and may result in the student being withdrawn from the course

Failure/Program Expulsion

If you fail to meet the course objectives, policies, and procedures outlined in the classroom and this manual, you may face failure or program expulsion. You must repeat any failed courses before moving on to the next course outlined in your program of study. A Code of Conduct form will be filed by the course faculty for any action that results in clinical failure. Field Experience/Clinical course failure may result in a failure of the co-requisite theory course at the judgment of the Course Faculty and Professional Standards Committee.

Examples of clinical failure, program expulsion, or Code of Conduct violation actions:

- Compromising GCU's relationship with any site
- Compromising safety in any form
- Plagiarism and ethical conduct resulting in Code of Conduct Violations

Clinical Probation

Clinical probation means the student is not meeting the stated clinical objectives, which are listed in the syllabus for each clinical course. A student may be removed from the clinical area for any unsafe or unprofessional behaviors. Clinical probation may result in up to 10% reduction in the clinical grade and may result in the student being withdrawn from the course at the discretion of the lead faculty member.

Examples of probationary actions, include but are not limited to:

1. Unsafe practice in the clinical area
2. Insufficient preparation for clinical experience
3. Failure to follow faculty/staff guidance in clinical experience
4. Failure to notify faculty/staff of tardiness or absences during clinical experience
5. Causing patient to experience unnecessary suffering
6. Inappropriate performance specific to level of expectations
7. Unprofessional communication to faculty, staff, or patient
8. Non-adherence to student uniform attire
9. Consciously falsifying documents, including patient and personal documents

Clinical Probation Procedure

The following steps will occur if the student is not meeting the clinical objectives.

3. The lead faculty member will meet with the student and provide him or her with a letter of clinical probation effective throughout the duration of the clinical course.
4. A copy of the letter will be sent to the Associate Dean and Site Director and will be placed in the student's file.
5. The student has the remainder of the course to earn a passing grade, which removes the student from clinical probation.

College of Theology

The College of Theology's mission is to educate and equip students to communicate the gospel effectively, serve the church faithfully, and minister with integrity at home and abroad. Therefore, within the context of the College, significant attention is given to spiritual and professional formation so that students are biblically qualified for ministry upon graduation. The Bible teaches that ministers must be "above reproach" in private and in public because ministers lead God's people as they grow up into the fullness of Christ through the careful study and application of God's word. Simply stated, one whose life has not been transformed profoundly by the power of the gospel is hardly in a position to lead others in this way of life. Thus, preparation for ministry requires attention to the spiritual, and professional aspects of each student's training in addition to academic study.

Doctrinal, ethical, and covenantal alignment are vital to the health of the institution as the faculty and administration strive to fulfill the mission of developing godly leaders, ministers, and scholars. Evangelical unity with respect to doctrine and morality represents a crucial basis for ministerial preparation just as it represents a crucial basis for gospel ministry. For these reasons, students in the College are asked to affirm the University's Doctrinal and Ethical Positions Statement, the COT Covenant, and standards for conduct that agree with those beliefs. In this way students affirm the basic tenets of the Christian faith and commitment to a lifestyle worthy of the Lord Jesus and worthy of the gospel ministry to which they have been called.

The University's foundational documents, the Covenant, and the dispositional and behavioral standards have not been created for purposes of legalistic compulsion or in a coercive spirit. Rather, they represent commitments and guidelines that have been developed for the purpose of living freely together in a community marked by faith, hope, and love. All students who enter into COT's covenantal community do so freely and they do so with full understanding that the community strives to cultivate the character of Christ daily. Indeed, in light of the unique call God has placed on their lives, the vast majority of ministerial students are motivated to conform to established standards and are grateful for the structure and accountability the community provides.

In most cases when students' dispositions or behaviors fail to align with the College's standards, COT's faculty and staff are able to correct gently and provide all necessary counsel. Indeed, gracious conversation and pastoral guidance should normally characterize the initial steps taken by faculty and staff to address impropriety. The College is committed to forming students in a loving and merciful way that is redemptive rather than punitive. Thus, in cases where minor dispositional or behavioral issues arise, direct student engagement by a member of the faculty or a representative of the College will be most appropriate. Further action will only be necessary when a student is unresponsive to direct engagement or when a student persists in conduct that is unbecoming. Faculty and staff should refer cases that involve major dispositional and behavioral issues in accord with established processes.

Dispositional and Behavioral Standards

As ministers of the gospel, theology students are expected to conform to dispositional and behavioral standards that are consistent with biblical teaching, sound doctrine, and the commitments they make at the start of their program. "Dispositions" refers to one's attitudinal inclinations, mental and emotional outlook, integrity, and character. Sincerely held dispositions lead to actions and patterns of conduct, which is to suggest that dispositions, at some level, contribute to behaviors.

COT has adopted the following dispositional and behavioral standards that align with the College's Covenant. Although these standards are not exhaustive, they represent the essential values and qualities that should characterize gospel ministers. Students are encouraged to acknowledge their struggles and shortcomings without fear and for the sake of working through challenges with the support and encouragement of the community. Students who disregard the standards or fail to demonstrate these dispositions and behaviors, however, may be subject to disciplinary action.

- EMBRACE TRUTH: Ministers of the gospel embrace the truth of Christ, and speak and act truthfully. This includes integrity with respect to the commitment to uphold doctrinal and ethical positions and behaviors consistent with those of the University within their academic work, within the GCU community, and in any internship or supervised ministry/field experience setting.
- DISPLAY A HEART FOR GROWTH, TRANSFORMATION, AND LEARNING: Ministers of the gospel have a heart for growth and transformation. They demonstrate humility and pursue Christlikeness by taking correction, having a charitable spirit, and not thinking of themselves more highly than they ought. They do not hide sin but, rather, acknowledge it and learn from mistakes as they progress through their program of study. They demonstrate eagerness to learn and engage

- faithfully with their coursework, classmates, Scripture, scholarly research, faculty, and ministry supervisors.
- AFFIRM THE VALUE OF PEOPLE: Recognizing that all people are created in the image of God, ministers of the gospel treat people in ways that demonstrate their intrinsic value and dignity. Accordingly, ministers of the gospel reject discrimination and show the value of others in the way they interact with people of all races, nationalities, ages, genders, socio-economic levels, abilities, and faith traditions. These principles extend to all forms of communication.
 - DEMONSTRATE GRACE AND RESPECT: Ministers of the gospel demonstrate grace and respect in their attitudes, actions, and words. They embody the fruit of the Spirit, speaking with kindness and patience, communicating respectfully in all situations. They avoid actions and speech that could show disrespect, a sharp tongue, harassment, prejudice, racism, sexism, vulgarity, foul language, or bullying. Students extend grace and charity at all points including discussions with others who differ with them on matters of doctrine and ethics. They strive for unity, which requires careful thought about doctrinal dialogue, genuine love for one another, and a resolve to be “quick to hear, slow to speak, [and] slow to anger” (James 1:19).
 - PROMOTE PEACE: Ministers of the gospel seek to be peacemakers, approaching conflict with the goal of restoration and reconciliation. They follow biblical practices for conflict resolution, glorifying God by taking responsibility for their own contribution to a conflict, and asking and offering forgiveness when needed. They bring peace and joy to their classrooms and congregations, avoiding words and actions that might bring discord, dissension, or destruction.
 - MAINTAIN SEXUAL PURITY: Following the teaching of the Bible, ministers of the gospel maintain personal sexual purity, reserving sexual expression for a marriage relationship between one man and one woman. They refrain from the use of all pornographic materials and any explicit content that would grieve the Holy Spirit while demonstrating an openness to accountability, counsel, and prayer in areas of struggle and perceived powerlessness. They refrain from sexually charged language and behavior inside or outside the classroom.
 - AVOID EXCESS: Ministers of the gospel avoid excess and abuse of any substances that could move them from a place of health to harm. Students embrace moderation in all things for the sake of safeguarding against idolatry and protecting their gospel witness.
 - SEEK FIRST GOD’S KINGDOM: Ministers of the gospel pursue God’s purposes for the world even when this requires abandoning the pursuit of their own selfish interests. They cultivate love, justice, beauty, grace, wisdom, and wholeness in their relationships and eschew worldly desires that result in consumerism, materialism, and the pursuit of fame and prestige.

Corrective Action Plan for Unacceptable Dispositions and Unprofessional Behavior

As a Christian community, the College of Theology and Grand Canyon Theological Seminary strive to be affirming and redemptive to students who are struggling and failing to exhibit these dispositions in their behaviors. The conduct that is unbecoming for a Christian leader or minister, however, may be referred through one of the following processes:

1. Dispositional alert from a faculty member, a ministry supervisor, or another GCU employee which is processed through the College of Theology’s Covenantal Standards Committee (CSC). This committee will determine the disciplinary action to be taken on a case by case basis.

2. Code of conduct violation charge which is reported through the “Classroom Incident Report” and is handled through the Code of Conduct process of the University.

In cases of minor misalignment, direct engagement by a member of the faculty or a representative of the College for the purpose of education, formation, and/or correction will be most appropriate. Further action is only necessary when a student is unresponsive to direct engagement or when a student persists in conduct that is unbecoming. Students who disregard COT’s Dispositional and Behavioral standards or fail to demonstrate these dispositions and behaviors may be subject to disciplinary action. In certain egregious situations, disciplinary action may be immediate and will be recommended to the University Code of Conduct Committee.

Unbecoming dispositions and behavior, within the classroom or outside the classroom may result in an array of corrective actions taken by the CSC or recommendations for disciplinary actions made by the CSC to the Code of Conduct Committee including, but not limited to the following potential outcomes

1. A corrective dialog with the CSC or designee
2. A letter of reprimand
3. A required number of professional and/or pastoral counseling sessions
4. A series of coaching sessions
5. Recommendations to the Code of Conduct committee such as:
 - a. Removal from the class
 - b. Removal from the supervised ministry/field experience site
 - c. Failure of the course
 - d. Suspension
 - e. Expulsion from the program. In the case of expulsion, students will have the option of reapplying to the program after a two year hiatus at which time the student will make a case for his or her change in behavior and disposition such that the CSC would possibly allow them to return to the program

Any question of interpretation or application of the Dispositional and Behavioral Standards Policy will be referred to the Dean of the College of Theology or a designee for final determination.

These standards should not be applied in ways that foster discrimination and harassment. Students who experience gender or disability-based discrimination or harassment should seek the assistance of the Title IX or Section 504 Coordinator for investigation under the applicable grievance procedures.

Process Guidelines for COT Dispositional and Behavioral Standards

The following guidelines are intended to assist with the evaluation of and appropriate response to dispositional and behavioral issues. These guidelines should enable faculty and College representatives to accurately assess and prudently address situations in ways that are redemptive, fair, and commensurate with the type of misalignment in question.

Doctrinal and Ethical Alignment

COT faculty are encouraged to make key distinctions in their teaching and classroom interaction between doctrine that is absolutely essential to the Christian faith and other teachings that, although important, are not fundamental to Christianity.

Essential doctrines are those core teachings that distinguish Christians from non-Christians and must be believed in order for one to be a genuine follower of the Lord Jesus. Denial of essential doctrine represents a grave matter.

Nonessential teachings are significant because they safeguard the integrity and health of essential doctrines and because they derive either directly or indirectly from the teaching of Scripture. Examples include the form and meaning of baptism, the organization and governance of the church, qualifications for ministers, styles of worship music, and the timing of Christ's return in relation to other events of the last days. Christians frequently disagree about various nonessential teachings but disagreement about these doctrines does not amount to a denial of the faith.

Dispositional and Behavioral Alignment

In cases of minor misalignment, direct engagement by a member of the faculty or a representative of the College for the purpose of education, formation, and/or correction will be most appropriate. Further action is only necessary when a student is unresponsive to direct engagement or when a student persists in conduct that is unbecoming. Students who disregard COT's Dispositional and Behavioral standards or fail to demonstrate these dispositions and behaviors may be subject to disciplinary action. In certain egregious situations, disciplinary action may be immediate and will be recommended to the University Code of Conduct Committee.

Minor Misalignment

Instances of minor misalignment should be dealt with redemptively rather than punitively to the extent possible. Such cases typically require forbearance and patience instead of formal discipline.

Major Misalignment

Instances of major misalignment should be dealt with redemptively, but disciplinary action may be necessary if the situation cannot be redeemed apart from formal action. Certain egregious situations may represent exceptions and may require immediate disciplinary action.

Doctoral Programmatic Progression Requirements

College of Doctoral Studies

Doctoral learners who have completed the total number of credits and the content requirement for graduation, but who are struggling with completion of the dissertation requirement for graduation, may choose to transfer to a corresponding alternate degree program, as follows:

- Move to the Education Specialist Degree:
 - EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in K-12 Leadership
 - EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Instructional Leadership
 - EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Effective Schools
- Move to the Master of Science in Leadership degree:
 - EdD in Organizational Leadership
 - EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Organizational Development
 - EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Healthcare Administration
 - EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Christian Ministry
- EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Special Education
- EdD in Organizational Leadership with an Emphasis in Higher Education Leadership

Learners who transfer should consult with their SSAs to see which courses carry over to the new degree and which courses do not. Learners are responsible for meeting all graduation requirements of the new degree after approved course equivalencies and substitutions are applied. Once the learner completes the alternate degree, then they are unable to return to that doctoral program for completion.

Doctoral Dispositions:

It is important for the doctoral learner and dissertation chair to establish a clear understanding of the expectations of working together, how each will communicate with the other, and how they will establish a timeline for completion of dissertation milestone steps (see below). Additionally, it is important that the learner model the doctoral dispositions that exemplify a practicing scholar and researcher. As an independent scholar, a doctoral learner should be modeling the dispositions in their interactions with their committee, the college, and support staff. The Doctoral Dispositions state that doctoral learners at GCU:

- Are dedicated Scholar-Practitioners, passionate about their field, who become leaders in the disciplines and communities they serve
- Commit to producing scholarly research, which is ethical and academically honest
- Are self-directed, able to self-motivate toward their continued pursuit of knowledge and are responsible for their own learning
- Engage in reflective scholarly practice, asking questions of both self and others
- Actively communicate effectively and professionally with peers, faculty, and college staff
- Are accountable for the quality and academic integrity of their own scholarship and research agenda
- Are receptive to the feedback, analysis, and constructive critique from peers and faculty within their scholarly community
- Demonstrate how to design, execute, and present independent, academically rigorous research, that adds to the body of knowledge within their discipline

Continuous Enrollment

Learners need to remain continuously enrolled in order to access guidance from their chairs and University resources throughout the dissertation process. There are three academic reasons for a Leave of Absence (LOA):

- After the learner has completed External AQR Review for the Proposal and is planning on submitting for a full IRB review or requires a site authorization/external IRB that is taking longer than thirty (30) days, he/she can take an LOA until the review is completed.
- Learners who are using a longitudinal design for data collection that will require more than two months may take an LOA for a specified amount of time based on their approved methodology.
- After the learners have completed the Form and Format review of their dissertation, they do not need to maintain active enrollment as they complete the final steps of the process.

Learners should reference the Leave of Absence – Nontraditional policy for additional information.

All standard policies regarding LOAs apply. Learners looking to take a Leave of Absence for academic or other reasons should work closely with their SSA. Chairs and committee members are under no obligation to work with a learner who is on an LOA. Once a learner is reenrolled, the chair and committee members will return to following the Committee Roles and Expectations document. If Learners are Inactive longer than three months for reasons other than the exceptions listed above, the University may need to assign them a different chair when they return.

Doctoral Program Time Limit

Students in the Doctor of Business Administration, Doctor of Education in Organizational Leadership, and Doctor of Philosophy in General Psychology programs have a limit of seven calendar years to successfully complete the course of study and dissertation as determined by their original enrollment date in the degree program. Changing emphases does not change this date, but changing programs (i.e. from Ph.D to Ed.D) does. Learners who are also out more than 12 months and reenroll will use their reenrollment date as their start date. This limit is in effect regardless of whether the learner is active or inactive. Learners approaching the limit may submit a formal appeal through a Student Services Counselor requesting a one year extension; however, the extension is not guaranteed. Including any extensions, the time required to complete the doctorate may not exceed a maximum of nine calendar years from the start of program.

Residency Attendance Policy

Doctoral Learners that are required to attend residencies as part of their program of study for their degree programs and who do not attend residency during the first 24 credit hours of their program will be not be allowed to register for further coursework until the first residency requirement is fulfilled.

Additionally, any learner who has not fulfilled their second residency requirement by completion of 42 credit hours will not be allowed to register for further coursework until the second residency requirement is fulfilled.

All residency requirements must be fulfilled as a graduation requirement.

The only exceptions to this attendance policy will be for medical or other unforeseen extenuating circumstances and then only at the recommendation of the appeals process. Any learner who is granted an appeal to postpone residency will be expected to attend the next available residency to fulfill this attendance requirement.

Dissertation Process and Progression

Learners in the DIS process beginning with RES-871, RES-885, and PSY-825 are taking ownership of their dissertation journey and setting their own schedule and goals. Learners need to follow the dissertation process and policy set in the Grand Canyon University Dissertation Milestone Guide and the Learner Expectations Checklist, accessible by all learners via the DC Network. Supporting this process are the various University resources that are available to them.

The table in Appendix A shows the eight review levels required for dissertation approval. Each review level is iterative and the documents must meet the standards set for that document based on GCU criteria and generally accepted standards of scholarly work for doctoral research across disciplines. Learners should use this table to set target completion dates for the major milestones and levels of review. Then track and adjust their plan (if necessary) according to the actual completion dates.

The Peer Review process for Level 2 proposal review emulates the peer-review process used to review and approve academic papers for publication. There are a total of five review cycles in the Proposal Peer Review Process, two preliminary review cycles and three full review cycles. At the onset of the Level 2 review process, the Academic Quality Reviewer may return the document to the learner up to two times, if document is not sufficiently developed. After the two preliminary reviews, the learner must receive proposal approval within the three subsequent full review attempts.

Failure to obtain approval or conditional approval on the third and final AQR will prevent the learner from progressing further in the doctoral program. Learners then have two options available to them. The first is to transfer to a different program as described above. The second is to work on the proposal, attempting one final time to address all outstanding items, and use the Doctoral Academic Appeal option under University Appeal Procedures later in this handbook to appeal for one final review

Learners in the Direct Practice Improvement (DPI) Project process beginning with DNP-955, DPI Project: Part I, are taking ownership of their direct practice improvement project journey and setting their own schedule and goals. Learners need to follow the DPI Project process and policy set in the Grand Canyon University DPI Project Milestone Guide and the Learner Expectations Checklist, accessible by all learners via the DC Network. Supporting this process are the various University resources that are available to them. Learners need to remain continuously enrolled in order to access guidance from their chairs and University resources throughout the DPI Project process.

Learners looking to take a Leave of Absence (LOA) for academic or other reasons should work closely with their Student Services Counselor (SSA). Chairpersons and committee members are under no obligation to work with a learner who is on an LOA. Once a learner returns, the chairperson and committee members will resume following the Committee Roles and Expectations. The learner might also be assigned a new chairperson and/or committee members if the previously assigned chairperson or committee members are unavailable once the learner returns.

Students in the Doctor of Nursing Practice programs have a limit of seven calendar years to successfully complete the course of study and DPI Project as determined by their original enrollment date in the degree program. This limit is in effect regardless of whether the learner is active or inactive. Learners approaching the limit may submit a formal appeal through a Student Services Counselor requesting a one year extension; however, the extension is not guaranteed. Including any extensions, the time required to complete the doctorate may not exceed a maximum of nine calendar years from the start of program.

Practice Immersion Requirements

Prior to progression for practice immersion courses, the student must meet the requirements set forth in the Program Handbook.

All DNP learners will need to secure a mentor and clinical site through the Office of Field Experience to complete their practice immersion hours prior to starting DNP-805. Learners will not progress to DNP-805 until all mentor and clinical site documents have been approved by the Office of Field Experience and the college..

Chain of Command

Effective Fall 2017

In a healthcare organization, it is the expectation that nurses will use the chain of command to bring issues to the appropriate leader's attention. This is especially important when nurses question things like medication type and dosage. In order to prepare students for the requirements of health care employers, the College leadership expect students to use the Chain of Command for raising similar issues in nursing programs. Therefore, students with concerns regarding the classroom should appropriately and professionally address their faculty. If intervention is needed beyond the faculty, students should address concerns to the Director or Program Chair of their program. Finally, if the issue needs further attention, in conjunction with the Director or Program Lead, the concern should be taken to the Assistant/Associate Dean over the student's program.

If the student's concern is regarding something unrelated to nursing courses, the student should consult with their counselor, and if needed the Student Services Manager.

If after this process is exhausted, the student can pursue the University Appeals Procedures.

Doctor of Philosophy in General Psychology (Ph.D.)

This degree is not intended for those seeking licensure in clinical practice. Those interested in licensure or certification should identify the applicable requirements by inquiring directly with their state or province.

Non-Degree Programmatic Progression Requirements

HS Dual Enrollment

Each fall, continuing high school students must maintain a 3.0 GCU enrollment cumulative GPA, as well as the required high school GPA, in order to continue in the HS Dual Enrollment program. Students who fail to meet the 3.0 GCU enrollment cumulative GPA in the fall semester will not be able to participate in the spring semester of the same academic year. Students may enroll in no more than two online courses at a time.

Code of Conduct and Academic Standards

Student Code of Conduct

Grand Canyon University endeavors to create an atmosphere of value-based liberal arts education. All students who enroll in the University are expected to accept the responsibilities of university citizenship and to show consideration and respect for personal freedom and property rights of members of the civic and academic community. Students are expected to abide by ethical, professional, and academic standards that are conducive to a positive learning experience. These expectations include, but are not limited to, the expectations that the student

- Gives appropriate attention to college level work
- Attends class, exercises, and engagements as required
- Acknowledges and accepts the responsibility of honorable adherence to the University's standards, rules, policies, and procedures
- Supports and exhibits ethical behavior with fellow students, faculty, and staff
- Recognizes and embraces the diversity and personal values of others
- Exhibits self-direction and self-reliance as a college student and in the pursuit of individual and collaborative learning objectives and goals
- Acknowledges and accepts personal responsibility and accountability for his or her actions, interactions, and communication in all forms with fellow students, faculty, and staff
- Upholds confidentiality and respect for personal or professional information communicated in the classroom
- Adheres to University policies and standards of academic honesty

Conduct Violations

The following is a non-exhaustive list of actions that are considered student conduct violations, for which students are subjected to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University:

- Falsification, forgery, alteration, or invention of information, including, but not limited to, any document used for admission or eligibility to the University, or other official University documents.
- Communicating or behaving in any form that disrupts or interferes with the educational process or any institutional function
- Behaving in any manner that creates a disruption, or a hostile or offensive educational environment for a student, faculty member, or staff member
- Failing to adhere to college dispositional expectations, policies and standards, as referred to the Code of Conduct Committee by college Professional Practices Committees.
- Failing to comply promptly with any reasonable directive from a faculty member or University official
- Failing to cooperate with officials in a University investigation
- Possessing, using, distributing, or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs while on University property or as part of any University activity
- Permitting anyone, with the exception of authorized persons, access to one's classroom, to attend class in one's stead, or to attend class for another
- Sharing one's password or using someone else's password for any University system or network
- Using any University system, network, or other IT resources to upload, download, or otherwise share and/or distribute any copyrighted music, video, software, written works, or other materials without the written consent of the copyrighted owner.
- Recording of any kind in the classroom, or wherever academic instruction occurs, including the use of any audio or video technology, without prior written approval from the faculty member or as a result of an accommodations approved by Student Disability Services, to be used for the student's own individual learning.

- Recording of any meetings on campus, including the use of audio or video technology, between or amongst faculty, staff, students, community members, or authorized visitors, without the prior knowledge and consent of all meeting participants or where the audio or video recordings is likely to cause injury or distress.
- No student or person, individually or on behalf of any business or organization of any kind, whether for-profit or not-for-profit, is permitted to solicit, market, offer goods or services, or operate on behalf of such organization in any way on the University's campus without the prior written consent of the University's President or Provost. In addition, no student or person, individually or on behalf of any business or organization of any kind, whether for-profit or not-for-profit, may use the University's name, marks, seal, logos or other identifying symbols, without the prior written consent of the University's President or Provost.

Campus Violence and Substance Abuse Prevention

Grand Canyon University is committed to creating a safe educational atmosphere and providing an appropriate learning environment for the University community. Therefore, the University prohibits and will take immediate action, up to and including expulsion, against the following:

- Threatening statements, behaviors, or acts of violence against students, faculty, and staff
- Acting in a manner which can be interpreted as physical assault or abuse
- Threatening to harm or endanger the safety of others.
- Behaving or acting in a manner which carries the potential for violence or acts of aggression, as interpreted by a reasonable person

Possessing a weapon on campus:

Weapons, as defined by GCU's Weapons-Free Campus Policy, and hazardous materials are not allowed on campus. Students possessing weapons on campus are in violation of GCU's Weapons-Free Campus Policy.

Students possessing a firearm on campus are subject to immediate expulsion from the University, and the expulsion is not subject to appeal. Law Enforcement Officers, on or off duty, are exempt from this provision.

Selling/Distribution of Illegal and Unprescribed Drugs:

In addition to legal consequences which may result from the involvement of law enforcement, this policy applies to students found to be selling, distributing, or possessing an amount determined to be for more than personal use of illegal or prohibited substances, or paraphernalia indicative of selling/distribution. This includes but is not limited to the intent or ability to distribute.

Illegal drugs are defined as any controlled substance banned by the State of Arizona and/or the United States Federal Government. In addition to these banned controlled substances, GCU also prohibits the possession and distribution of synthetic marijuana products/ substitutes such as "Spice", "K2" or "Potpourri"; "Bath Salts"; prescription medication not prescribed to the possessor and synthetic substances categorized as a drug by law enforcement. Drug paraphernalia is described as any equipment, product or material that is modified or used for making, consuming, using or concealing drugs. This includes but is not limited to the use or possession of a Hookah pipe, glass smoking pipe or items altered to assist in the making, using or concealing drugs including the scent of drugs.

Academic Integrity Violations

As indicated in the Code of Conduct, all students are expected to possess a high standard of conduct and personal integrity in the classroom. Academic dishonesty is defined as any act of deception in an academic setting. The following examples include, but are not limited to, academic integrity violations for which students may be subjected to disciplinary action:

- Cheating, attempting to cheat, or assisting others to cheat, including dishonest activity or unauthorized use of any resource or materials in any academic exercise
- Fabricating, falsifying, forging, altering, or inventing information that applies, but is not limited to, academic coursework, any academic exercise or academic activity
- Plagiarizing, intentionally or unintentionally, the words, works, or ideas of others without proper citation or acknowledgement and representing them as one's own in any academic exercise. Paraphrasing sources which do not represent the student's original words or ideas without proper citation or acknowledgement
- Presenting work that has been prepared by someone other than the student, including the purchase and sharing of work
- Submitting work that has been prepared and used for a different course, wholly or in part, and without appropriate citation of the original work and prior approval of faculty
- Using materials not authorized by the faculty member to complete an assignment, or completion of an assignment by someone other than the student, including, but not limited to, providing/receiving exam answers, using faculty materials, answer keys, or solution manuals
- Collaborating in an unsanctioned manner - Students must work individually on homework, assignments, and other assigned coursework, unless collaboration has been expressly permitted by the instructor. Students who do collaborate without express permission of their instructor must inform the instructor of the nature of their collaboration
- Violating copyright laws and regulations.
- Violating the University's policies and regulations pertaining to the use and propriety nature of the Grand Canyon University curriculum, network, networking facilities, computer use, or platform access
- Selling or providing papers, essays, discussion questions, assignments, or any part of the University curriculum, to other students, online term paper clearinghouses, or other commercial websites.

Procedure for Processing Alleged Violations of the Student Code of Conduct

The University may take disciplinary action against a student who violates the University's Code of Conduct. Depending on where the incident occurs, violations will be reported on the Classroom Incident Report (classroom-related incidents), the Residence Life Incident Report form (for campus housing issues), or the Security Incident Report (for general campus incidents) (collectively the "Reports"). Reports submitted for specific actions, as recommended by college Professional Practices Committees, are forwarded for processing only and are not subject to the procedures outlined in this section.

Reports are forwarded to the Office of Academic Compliance upon discovery of the incident. Additionally, faculty are required to notify students that an incident report will be submitted to the Office of Academic Compliance. The Office of Academic Compliance then reviews the report, as well as any history of prior offenses. This office then notifies the student if the University intends to take further action as a result of the particular report or as a result of the history of offenses. If further action is recommended, the Code of Conduct Committee will determine whether the alleged violation has been substantiated and which University-level penalty to apply.

Students who are charged with a violation of the Student Code of Conduct are afforded an opportunity to be heard before a University-level penalty is applied. Students at risk for University-level sanctions will be contacted by the Office of Academic Compliance and offered the opportunity to present documentation and speak on their own behalf to the Code of Conduct Committee, which includes the Dean (or designee) of the appropriate College. Those at risk for University-level sanctions are offered three ways in which they may present refutation information to the Code of Conduct Committee: 1) Written statement; 2) Teleconference, and 3) In-person meeting (students are responsible for any expenses incurred).

Students are not required to present information to the Code of Conduct Committee. If the student does not respond within seven days of being contacted by the Office of Academic Compliance, the student forfeits his/her right to participate in the process and a determination will be made by the Code of Conduct Committee.

Students are not entitled to representation by any third party, personal representative, or attorney in the University disciplinary process.

In-Course Penalties

The instructor determines the penalty for academic dishonesty that occurs during the course, as it relates to the outcome of the course for the student. An in-class penalty may include, but is not limited to:

- Requiring a rewrite of the assignment or paper, with or without point deductions
- Awarding limited credit for a specific assignment or paper
- Awarding no credit for a specific assignment or paper
- An instructor may not prevent a student from attending or completing a course, as this would be a University-level decision. However, the professor can recommend such action to the Code of Conduct Committee in the Classroom Incident Report.

University Penalties

The Code of Conduct Committee determines all University-level penalties. In making its determination, the Committee considers the severity of the offense, as well as the student's history at the University. A University-level penalty may include, but is not limited to:

- Applying an official disciplinary warning to the student record (which may result in further penalties for additional occurrences)
- Assigning a failing grade for the assignment(s)
- Assigning a failing grade for the course
- Removing a student from class
- Stipulating suspension for 15-weeks
- Stipulating expulsion for two years
- Revoking academic credit or degree

The recommendation for academic suspension, academic expulsion, and the revocation of academic credit or degree must be approved by the Director of Academic Compliance or a designee. Upon conclusion of a required separation period, students who are suspended or expelled from the University for a code of conduct violation may apply for reinstatement by submitting a formal appeal through a Student Services Counselor; however, re-admittance is not guaranteed.

Grand Canyon University requires the use of plagiarism detection software, by which student work is monitored for plagiarism. The University retains all student work submitted to the plagiarism detection database.

The University reserves the right to review all courses for any purpose at any time. If unreported / undiscovered academic dishonesty is found through course examination, the University may engage in a thorough investigation of all coursework the student completed at GCU. Upon completion of the investigation, if the University believes academic dishonesty has occurred, a report will be submitted to the Office of Academic Compliance for disciplinary action by the Code of Conduct Committee.

Internal Review Policy

We expect our students, prospective and current, to be ethical and honest members of the University community and beyond. Fraudulent behavior, or attempting to commit fraud, will not be tolerated. Such fraudulent activity includes, but is not limited to:

- Falsification, forgery, alteration, or invention of information, including, but not limited to, any document used for admission or eligibility to the University, document used to apply for financial aid, or other official University documents, including the misuse of documents, records, accounts, identification, or financial instruments.
- The inability or unwillingness of a student or prospective student to demonstrate academic intent or verify eligibility or identity.
- Acting on behalf of another student and/or allowing someone to act on one's behalf without approved documentation on file.

GCU complies with the recommendation of the Department of Education, Office of Inspector General (OIG) to have a system in place for detecting and monitoring for fraud. Therefore, individuals or groups suspected of violating these provisions will be selected for Internal Review, required to comply, and complete the review process. Such students may be placed on hold and unregistered from future courses, which may prevent any type of funding to be disbursed until cleared through the Internal Review process. Those deemed ineligible for admission may be permanently denied admittance, or dismissed from the University, by the Registrar or designee. Students administratively withdrawn through these provisions are processed separately from the Code of Conduct procedures. Students may be responsible for any balances or charges incurred.

If Grand Canyon University suspects fraud has occurred in connection with a student's application for federal student financial assistance, the individual will be referred to the Office of Inspector General of the US Department of education.

Gender-Based and Sexual Misconduct Policy and Grievance Procedures

Purpose

The University, while reserving its lawful rights where appropriate to take actions designed to ensure and promote the Christian principles that sustain its mission and heritage, prohibits unlawful discrimination, including any form of harassment, on the basis of age, disability, national origin, race, color, religion, gender, veteran status, or any other classification protected by applicable law, in its employment, admission policies, educational programs, or activities. It is the purpose of the University to pursue the very highest employment and academic standards within a context that celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. Title IX regulations require non-discrimination on the basis of sex or gender.

Statement of Objective

This policy prohibits any gender-based discrimination and/or harassment by, of, and between members of the Grand Canyon University community. For example, between employees, between an instructor and a student, between two students, or between a student and campus guest. This policy applies in all University programs and activities, including but not limited to, athletics, instruction, grading, housing, and University employment.

Definitions

For the purposes of this policy, prohibited sex discrimination includes harassment, sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence, stalking, and other misconduct offenses when sex or gender is the foundation. Full definitions are provided in the following sections.

Student- Student status, per the terms of this policy, is a person who is in active status defined as currently attending classes.

Reporting Party - The student, employee, or third party who presents as the subject of any prohibited conduct under this policy, regardless of whether that person makes a report or seeks action under this policy.

Responding Party - The student, employee, or third party who has been accused of violating this policy.

Proceeding - Any hearing where a determination is made on a complaint, including whether there is a finding and/or sanctions. This includes informal resolution, Administrative adjudication, and Title IX Hearing Board adjudication.

Result - Regulatory requirements stipulate that both parties be notified, in writing, of the outcome of the complaint and any appeal. This includes information about the sanction imposed upon the Responding Party when the sanction directly relates to the Reporting Party. Compliance with these provisions does not constitute a violation of Section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), commonly known as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). e provided in the following sections.

Policy

Off-Campus Conduct

Conduct that occurs off campus can be the subject of a complaint or report and will be evaluated to determine whether it violates this policy, e.g., if off-campus harassment has continuing effects that create a hostile environment on campus. Allegations of off-campus sexual misconduct are of particular concern and should be brought to the University's attention.

The University is able to respond to alleged incidents of sex and gender-based misconduct:

- that occurred on campus,
- that were part of official University programs or activities (regardless of location), or

- where the Reporting Party and/or Responding Party are students, member of the faculty, staff, administration or third-party vendor of the University.

If the offender is unknown or is not a member of the GCU community, the Title IX Coordinator (or designee) will assist individuals in identifying appropriate campus resources, including assistance in contacting local authorities if the individual would like to file a criminal report. In addition, GCU may take other actions to protect the individual and the campus community.

Retaliation Prohibited

The University prohibits retaliation against anyone who complains of, or is involved in the filing, investigation, or resolution of a gender-based harassment or discrimination claim. The University also will not retaliate against anyone who files a complaint, or otherwise participates in an investigation, proceeding or hearing conducted by an outside agency. Employees or students who believe they have witnessed or experienced retaliation in violation of this policy should report the retaliation pursuant to the Complaint Procedure outlined in this policy.

Mandatory Employee Reporting

To enable the University to respond effectively and to stop instances of sexual harassment and sexual misconduct at the University proactively, all University employees must promptly (normally within 24 hours) report information they have about alleged or possible sexual harassment and sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator. An employee's responsibility to report potential Title IX violations is dependent upon their designation as either a "Confidential Employee" or a "Responsible Employee".

Confidential Employees are employees who are licensed medical, clinical, or mental-health professionals, and who are acting in that professional role in the provision of services to a patient who is a student. Confidential Employees are also any employees providing administrative, operational and/or related support for such health care providers in their performance of such services. A Confidential Employee will not disclose information about a potential Title IX policy violation to the University's Title IX Coordinator without the student's permission.

A Responsible Employee is any University employee not designated as a Confidential Employee. Responsible Employees are required to report to the University's Title IX Coordinator all relevant details about an incident regarding a potential Title IX policy violation. Responsible Employees include student-employees, such as resident assistants, and teaching assistants.

Policy

Members of the Grand Canyon University community, guests and visitors have the right to be free from all forms of gender and sex-based discrimination, examples of which can include acts of sexual violence, sexual harassment, intimate partner violence, and stalking. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. The specific procedures for reporting, investigating, and resolving prohibited conduct are based upon the nature of the Responding Party's relationship to the University (student, employee, or third party). Each set of procedures referenced below is guided by the same principles of fairness and respect. When an allegation of misconduct is brought to the University's attention, and a Responding Party is found to have violated this policy, serious sanctions will be used to reasonably ensure that such actions are never repeated. This policy has been developed to reaffirm these principles and to provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. This policy is intended to define community expectations and to establish a mechanism for determining when those expectations have been violated.

Harassing conduct may take various forms, including, name-calling, graphic verbal or written statements (including those communicated through cell phones, social media, or the Internet), or other conduct that may be physically threatening, harmful, or humiliating. Harassment does not have to be based on intent to harm, be directed at a specific target, or involve repeated incidents. Sex-based harassment includes sexual harassment, which is further defined below.

Sexual Misconduct Offenses

Sexual misconduct offenses include, but are not limited to:

1. Sexual Harassment
2. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact (or attempts to commit same)
3. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse (or attempts to commit same)
4. Sexual Exploitation (or attempts to commit same)

Sexual Harassment

Sexual Harassment is unwelcome, gender-based verbal or physical conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive that it:

- unreasonably interferes with, denies or limits someone's ability to participate in or benefit from the university's educational program and/or activities, and is
- based on power differentials (quid pro quo), the creation of a hostile environment, or retaliation.

Quid-pro quo

Quid pro quo sexual harassment exists when there are:

- unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature; and
- submission to or rejection of such conduct results in adverse educational or employment action

Hostile Environment

A Hostile Environment based on sex exists when harassment has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's employment or academic performance.

A hostile environment can be created by anyone involved in a university program or activity (e.g., administrators, faculty members, students, and even campus guests). Mere offensiveness is not enough to create a hostile environment. Repeated incidents increase the likelihood that harassment has created a hostile environment. A serious incident, such as a sexual assault, even if isolated, can be sufficient.

In determining whether harassment creates a hostile environment, the harassment will be considered not only from the perspective of the individual who feels harassed, but also from the perspective of a reasonable person in a similar situation. Also, the following factors will be considered:

- The degree to which the conduct affected one or more students' education or individual's employment;
- The nature, scope, frequency, duration, and location of the incident or incidents;
- The identity, number, and relationships of the persons involved;
- The perspective of a "reasonable person" in the same situation as the person harassed; and
- The nature of higher education.

Retaliatory Harassment

Retaliatory harassment is any adverse employment or educational action taken against a person because of the person's participation in a complaint or investigation of discrimination or sexual misconduct.

Non-Consensual Sexual Contact

Non-Consensual Sexual Contact is:

- any intentional sexual touching,
- however slight,
- with any object,
- by one person upon another.
- that is without consent and/or by force.

Sexual Contact

Sexual Contact includes: intentional contact with the breasts, buttock, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, though not involving contact with/of/by breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth or other orifice.

Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse

Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse is:

- any sexual intercourse
- however slight,
- with any object,
- by one person upon another.
- that is without consent and/or by force.

Intercourse

Intercourse includes: vaginal penetration by a penis, object, tongue or finger, anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger, and oral copulation (mouth to genital contact or genital to mouth contact), no matter how slight the penetration or contact.

Non-consensual sexual intercourse includes sexual assault, defined by ASRS 13-1406, as intentionally or knowingly engaging in sexual intercourse or oral sexual contact with any person without consent of such person.

Sexual Exploitation

Occurs when someone takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other sexual misconduct offenses. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

- Invasion of sexual privacy;
- Prostituting another student;
- Non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity;
- Going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex);
- Engaging in voyeurism;
- Knowingly transmitting an SDI, STD or HIV to another student;
- Exposing one's genitals in non-consensual circumstances; inducing another to expose their genitals;
- Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation

Additional Applicable Definitions:

A. Consent is an understandable exchange of affirmative words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable clear permission regarding willingness to engage in (and the conditions of) sexual activity.

- Silence does not necessarily constitute consent.
- In the absence of mutually understandable words or actions, it is the responsibility of the initiator, or the person who wants to engage in the specific sexual activity, to make sure that he/she has the consent from his/her partner(s).
- Consent to any one form of sexual activity cannot automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity.
- Previous relationships or prior consent cannot imply consent to future sexual acts.
- Effective consent may not be given by minors less than 18 years old.

B. Force is the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats) and coercion that overcome resistance or produce consent (“Have sex with me or I’ll hit you. Okay, don’t hit me, I’ll do what you want.”).

- Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.
- There is no requirement that a party resists the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent.

C. Incapacitation is a state where someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g. to understand the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of their sexual interaction).

- This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, sleep, involuntary physical restraint, alcohol or drug consumption, or from the taking of rape drugs.
 - Possession, use and/or distribution of any of these substances, including Rohypnol, Ketamine, GHB, Burundanga, etc. is prohibited, and administering one of these drugs to another student is a violation of this policy.
- Sexual activity with someone who one should know to be -- or based on the circumstances should reasonably have known to be -- mentally or physically incapacitated (by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout), constitutes a violation of this policy.
- Use of alcohol or other drugs will never function as a defense for any behavior that violates this policy.

Other Misconduct Offenses When Based on Sex or Gender

Allegations of the following behaviors, regardless of whether they are based on discrimination, shall be addressed and considered in accordance with this policy and Discrimination Grievance Procedures:

- Bullying, defined as repeated and/or severe aggressive behavior likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control or diminish another person, physically or mentally (that is not speech or conduct otherwise protected by the 1st Amendment).
- Intimate Partner Violence: Any act of abuse, violence or threatened act of violence that occurs between individuals who are involved or have been involved in a sexual, dating, spousal, domestic, or other intimate relationship. Psychological abuse is a form of Intimate Partner Violence.
- Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person, on the basis of sex/gender, that is unwelcome, and would cause a reasonable person to fear bodily injury or to experience substantial emotional distress.

- Stalking includes, but is not limited to acts in which a person directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about another person, or interferes with another person’s property.
- Stalking includes “cyber-stalking,” a particular form of stalking in which a person uses electronic media, such as the internet, social networks, blogs, cell phones, texts, or other similar devices or forms of contact

Sanction Statement

Consequences for violating this policy will depend upon the facts and circumstances of each particular situation. In determining the severity of sanctions or corrective actions, factors such as the frequency and severity of the offense and any history of past discriminatory, harassing or retaliatory conduct are relevant. The sanctions include, but are not limited to:

- Any student found responsible for violating the policy on Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Contact (where no intercourse has occurred) will likely receive a sanction ranging from warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous disciplinary violations.
- Any student found responsible for violating the policy on Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Intercourse will likely face a recommended sanction of suspension or expulsion.
- Any student found responsible for violating the policy on sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, or other misconduct or harassment offenses will likely receive a recommended sanction ranging from warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous disciplinary violations.

For employees, a finding of discrimination, harassment that creates a hostile environment or results in a tangible employment or educational action, or sexual misconduct may be cause for disciplinary action up to and including termination.

For students transferring to GCU, the Title IX Coordinator may take action if the student transferred prior to completing their sanctions at their previous institution. If the student wishes to continue attending GCU, the Title IX Coordinator will evaluate the possibility of applying or upholding the incomplete sanctions.

Amnesty for Drug or Alcohol Possession and Consumption Violations

The University strongly encourages students to report instances of sex-based discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct involving students. Therefore, students who provide information about sex-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking involving students will not be disciplined by the University for any violation of the University’s drug or alcohol possession or consumption policies in which they might have engaged in connection with the reported incident.

Consensual Relationships

In order to protect the integrity of the academic and work environment, it is essential that those in a position of authority do not abuse, or appear to abuse the power with which they are entrusted. Staff (including all employees who supervise other staff or students) and faculty members (including coaches and graduate assistants) exercise power over subordinates and students. Therefore, the University prohibits consensual relationships of an intimate, sexual or romantic nature between staff or faculty and any employee or student when unequal power exists in the relationship. Unequal power in the relationship exists when the staff or faculty employee is in a position of actual or apparent professional or academic authority in activities including teaching, advising, mentoring, supervising, directing or evaluating the employee or student. Consensual relationships between Public Safety Officers and students are strictly prohibited due to the unequal power inherent in their interactions.

Furthermore, the University strongly discourages consensual relationships between staff or faculty and students even when no unequal power exists in the relationship since it may lead to unanticipated conflicts. Consensual relationships with students may lead to the perception by others that there is favoritism or bias in educational decisions undermining the spirit of trust and mutual respect that is important in an educational environment. Moreover, the fact that a relationship was initially consensual does not insulate the staff or faculty member from a claim of sexual harassment.

Grievance Procedures

The University will take prompt and appropriate action to: (1) thoroughly, promptly, and impartially investigate complaints; and (2) prevent, correct and, if necessary, discipline individuals who engage in behavior that violates this policy. The following procedures should be followed whenever a person believes that they have witnessed or been the subject of discrimination, harassment or retaliation on the basis of sex or gender. These procedures also apply to students and employees in our online environment.

If an individual feels they have been harassed in any way, it is generally best to tell the offending person that you find such behavior offensive, that such behavior is against University policy, and that you want him or her to immediately stop. However, if an individual is uncomfortable taking this action, or if the conduct does not stop after the offending person has been warned, the student should immediately contact the Title IX or Deputy Title IX Coordinator. If the Reporting Party is an employee, he/she should report the conduct to a supervisor, Department Head/SVP, the division HR Business Partner, or the Title IX Coordinator.

Students and employees should report the offending incident or conduct promptly. Timely reporting is vital to the University's ability to investigate complaints and take appropriate action. Prompt reporting also discourages further misconduct. This said, students and employees are encouraged to report offensive conduct even if similar conduct was not reported in the past.

The complaint should specify:

- The name of the individual(s) against whom the complaint is made
- The nature of the alleged offense
- The specifics of the offending incident(s) with precise details (what happened, who was present, when, where, any reasons why they believe the action was taken)
- The date and signature of the person making the complaint

A person wishing to file a complaint should submit a written statement to the Title IX Coordinator or one of the Title IX Deputy Coordinators. It is recommended that as much information as possible be provided regarding the offending incident or conduct.

Title IX Coordinator

Jennifer Lech, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President of Academic Affairs and University Registrar

3300 W. Camelback Road
Phoenix, AZ 85017
602-639-5900
TitleIX@gcu.edu

Duties and Responsibilities: Monitoring and oversight of overall implementation of Title IX compliance at the University, including coordination of training, education, communications, and administration of grievance procedures for faculty, staff, students, and other members of the University community.

Deputy Title IX Coordinator

Shanna Milonas, MBA
Director of Academic Compliance
3300 W. Camelback Road
Phoenix, AZ 85017
602-639-5900
TitleIX@gcu.edu

The Deputy Title IX Coordinator reports to the Title IX Coordinator to assist with day-to-day leadership, coordination and oversight of the University Title IX program and assists with assuring institutional compliance with Title IX. The Deputy Title IX Coordinator assists the Title IX Coordinator by playing a lead role in monitoring and implementing Title IX compliance measures in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, and University policies.

Assistant Deputy Title IX Coordinators

The University has also designated Assistant Deputy Title IX Coordinators who may assist the Title IX/Deputy Coordinator with implementing and monitoring appropriate policies, procedures, training programs, best practices, and other items related to compliance with Title IX. Assistant Deputy Title IX Coordinators ensure potential Title IX issues are immediately reported to the Title IX/Deputy Title IX Coordinator.

For students:

Tim Griffin, Ed.D
Dean of Students
3300 W. Camelback Road
Phoenix, AZ 85017
602-639-6647

Privacy/Confidentiality of Complaints and Reports

GCU will inform the Reporting Party before beginning an investigation. All parties involved in the investigation process, including witnesses, have privacy rights and information will be shared only as necessary:

- To the Reporting Party, Responding Party, or witnesses, as necessary to give fair notice of the allegations and to conduct the investigation. This includes the complaint, investigation report and findings including sanctions, and any decision resulting from an appeal;
- To other University officials who have a need to know in performing their official University business;
- To law enforcement consistent with state and federal law and University Policy;
- To government agencies who review the University's compliance with federal law;
- As necessary to respond to litigation, formal investigation, or to respond to lawfully issued subpoenas.

Privacy and confidentiality have distinct meanings under this policy. Privacy applies to responsible employees and means that information related to the allegations will only be shared with a limited circle of University employees who "need to know" in order to assist in the assessment, investigation, and resolution of the report. Confidentiality refers to confidential employees in the context of laws that protect certain relationships, including medical and clinical care providers, mental health providers, and counselors (and those who provide administrative services related to the provision of those services).

Reporting Party Requests Confidentiality or No Investigation

If a Reporting Party requests confidentiality or asks that the complaint not be pursued, GCU will take reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the complaint consistent with the request for confidentiality, but GCU's ability to respond may be limited. The Title IX Coordinator will evaluate the request in the context of its responsibility to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for all students, faculty, and staff. GCU reserves the right to initiate a formal or informal investigation. Should the University decide to initiate an investigation, the Reporting Party will be notified that the University intends to proceed with an investigation and confidentiality cannot be ensured. The Reporting Party is not required to participate in the investigation.

In cases where the Reporting Party requests confidentiality and the circumstances allow the University to honor that request, the University will offer interim supports and remedies to the Reporting Party and community, but will not otherwise pursue formal action.

Interim Measures

GCU will take whatever measures necessary to create a safe environment for all students. During the course of the investigation, various measures may be taken by the University in order to ensure the physical, mental, and emotional wellbeing of its students. A student may request some of these measures be taken on their behalf, even if the University does not pursue a formal investigation, however, interim measures cannot be applied retroactively from the reporting date. These measures include, but are not limited to:

- Academic accommodations, to include but not limited to:
 - Transferring to another section of a lecture or laboratory
 - Rescheduling an academic assignment or test
 - Accessing academic support (e.g., tutoring)
 - Arranging for incompletes, a leave of absence, or withdrawal from campus
 - Preserving eligibility for academic, athletic, or other scholarships, financial aid, internships, study abroad, or foreign student visas
- Providing medical and mental health services, including counseling.

- Arranging changes in campus housing and/or dining locations.
- Providing assistance in finding alternative housing.
- Assistance in arranging for alternative employment arrangements and/or changing work schedules.
- A "No contact" directive pending the outcome of an investigation. Such a directive serves as notice to both parties that they must not have verbal, electronic, written, or third party communication with one another
- Providing an escort to ensure that the student can move safely between school programs and activities.
- Transportation accommodations or parking arrangements to ensure safety and access to other services.
- Assistance identifying additional resources or assistance including off-campus and community advocacy, support, and services.
- In serious cases, an interim suspension may be considered in order to ensure overall campus safety.

Failure to adhere to the parameters of any University-directed interim measure may result in immediate action by the Title IX Coordinator for failure to comply with a reasonable directive, and failure to cooperate with officials in a University investigation.

Law Enforcement Investigations

Certain acts may constitute both a violation of University policy and criminal activity, the University encourages students to report alleged such acts promptly to local law enforcement agencies, and will assist them in doing so if requested. Criminal investigations may be useful in the gathering of relevant evidence, particularly forensic evidence. Because the standards for finding a violation of criminal law are different from the standards for finding a violation of this policy, criminal investigations or reports are not determinative of whether a violation has occurred as it relates to this policy. The filing of a complaint of a sexual assault under this policy is independent of any criminal investigation or proceeding.

While the University's investigation may be delayed temporarily while the criminal Investigators are gathering evidence, the University will not wait for the conclusion of any criminal investigation or proceedings to commence its own investigation and will issue immediate interim measures as necessary.

If police have not already been notified, the University may be obligated to contact law enforcement if it has reasonable belief that a crime has been committed. Claimants will be notified if such a report is necessary. This does not mean charges will be automatically filed or that a Claimant must speak with the police, but the institution is legally required to notify law enforcement authorities.

Preserving Evidence

After a sexual assault, vital evidence may remain on your body or clothes. It is important to not shower, bathe, wash, change clothes, comb hair, eat or drink before a physical exam, if possible. Exams should typically be conducted within 120 hours of an assault. Such physical evidence is important to both a GCU investigation, as well as a police investigation. If you showered or washed, evidence may still be collectible, and medical conditions can be treated, even after 120 hours.

Electronic evidence can be extremely important for the outcome of an investigation. Save and/or screenshot any relevant text messages, social media posts, photos, snapchats, voicemails or emails. These can be provided to Public Safety or the Title IX investigator for use in a university investigation.

Preliminary Investigation

If the University receives a complaint or otherwise becomes aware of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment or sexual misconduct, a preliminary investigation will be conducted to assess whether the alleged facts, as immediately known, could rise to the level of prohibited conduct, and whether informal or formal resolution is appropriate. A preliminary investigation may include an initial meeting with the Reporting Party to:

- Review details of the allegation
- Provide a copy of this policy
- Explain avenues for resolution
- Explain the steps involved in an investigation
- Discuss confidentiality standards and concerns
- Determine whether the Reporting Party wishes to pursue a resolution through the University
- Referral to law enforcement, counseling, medical, academic, or other resources, as appropriate.
- Discuss interim measures that can be provided during the investigation and resolution process.

If the Title IX Coordinator, or designee, determines that a full investigation is not warranted, the Reporting Party will be provided written notification of the decision and any remedial measures that the University plans to implement in order to ensure the concerns were reviewed and addressed. A determination that a full investigation under this policy is not warranted does not preclude the University from taking appropriate steps to eliminate, deter, remedy, or address prohibited or otherwise disruptive conduct.

Resolution of Complaints

A Title IX Investigation will normally be completed within 60 calendar days after the University has notice of an allegation of prohibited conduct. The Title IX Coordinator or designee may extend this timeframe for good cause, including but not limited to, law enforcement involvement, number of witnesses to be interviewed, and University breaks. The University will take all reasonable efforts to apprise the parties of the progress of the investigation. Anyone with a perceived conflict of interest may not be a part of the fact finding or decision making process.

Informal Resolution

Some complaints may allow for an informal resolution. Mediation will not be used to resolve sexual misconduct complaints. If informal resolution is appropriate, a resolution of the conflict that is agreeable to all parties will be pursued. Under the informal process, GCU is required to only conduct such fact-finding as is useful to resolve the complaint, and to protect the interests of the parties, the University, and the community. If a satisfactory resolution is reached, the matter will be considered closed, and both parties will be provided written notification of the outcome. A formal investigation can be requested at any time by the parties, or as initiated by GCU.

Formal Investigation and Resolution

If investigation is to commence, the Responding Party will receive a Notice of Investigation as notification that a report has been filed, and will have the opportunity to review the written complaint or otherwise be informed of the substance of the allegation. If the Responding Party cannot be located, attempts at notification will be documented and additional University actions may take place to ensure a documented response to the notification.

A trained Investigator will interview the Reporting Party, Responding Party, and, as applicable, any witnesses. The Reporting Party and Responding Party may each have an advisor of their choice present at all interviews in which they participate. The Investigator will also gather any pertinent evidentiary materials (this may include, but is not limited to, emails, written documents, or photographs). During the investigation process, both the Reporting Party and the Responding Party will have opportunity to provide the Investigator with evidence and/or specify witness information. The Investigator will then prepare a report detailing the relevant content of the interviews and the documentation materials gathered, which is submitted to the Title IX Coordinator for review. Directly following the submission of the investigative report, the Title IX Coordinator will determine sanctions if a policy violation has been found, or determine that no policy violation has occurred.

At any point during the investigation, if it is determined there is no reasonable cause to believe that university policy has been violated, the Title IX Coordinator has authority to terminate the investigation and end resolution proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, should the Responding Party withdraw from the University, official transcripts will not be released until the conclusion and adjudication of the investigation.

For all levels of adjudication, the rules of evidence, process and procedure used in civil or criminal court do not apply and will be based on the preponderance of the evidence standard (i.e. it is more likely than not that a policy violation occurred).

Responding Party Admits to Violation

If at any point during the investigative process the Responding Party admits to the Title IX policy violation, the investigation will conclude and be submitted for adjudication. The Title IX Coordinator will review the prepared investigative materials, along with the Responding Party's admission, and will determine sanctions accordingly.

Adjudication Where the Responding Party is a Student

Administrative Adjudication – No Policy Violation

If no violation is found to have occurred, such outcome will be communicated in writing to the Reporting Party and Responding Party along with the opportunity to review the investigative report. GCU will continue to assist the Reporting Party with resources as applicable.

Administrative Adjudication – Policy Violation Established

If a violation is found to have occurred, the Responding Party and Reporting Party will each individually have the opportunity to review the investigative report and the documentation materials from the investigation. Following this review, the Responding Party will be given the opportunity to accept the findings and sanctions as issued by the Title IX Coordinator, or designee. If the Responding Party accepts, the decision and sanctions will be communicated to both parties in writing, and the decision is not appealable by the Responding Party. If the Responding Party rejects the findings and sanctions, the case will be forwarded to the Title IX Hearing Board. The Reporting Party will be notified of the submission to the Title IX Hearing Board. The Responding Party will have 3 days to decide to accept or reject the finding. If the Responding Party does not submit a decision within the 3 days, the sanctions will be imposed as outlined in the decision letter.

Title IX Hearing Board Adjudication – Policy Violation Established

If the Responding Party rejects the Title IX Coordinator findings and sanctions, the issue is forwarded to the University's Title IX Hearing Board for a formal hearing, which will be convened within 7 days of the Responding Party's rejection of the findings.

The Reporting Party and Responding Party will be notified of the date, time, and location of the hearing. One member of the Board will be designated as the Chair and responsible for administering the hearing and recording the decision. The Board members will be given timely and equal access to the information that will be used at the hearing.

A Title IX Hearing Board meeting regarding a violation under this policy will consist of the following components:

- Introduction of members and procedural rules
 - Reporting Party, Responding Party, and Advisors cannot interact and are not permitted to speak to or question one another.
 - Reporting Party, Responding Party, and Advisors cannot interrupt the proceedings at any time.
 - Reporting Party, Responding Party, and Advisors cannot correct the Investigator during the presentation of the case.
 - Reporting Party, Responding Party, and Advisors are to address the Board only.
- Presentation of the information and investigative report by the Investigator
- Questions asked by Board (directed toward Investigator, or the parties as necessary)
- Closed deliberation, as determined by a majority vote, by Title IX Hearing Board.

The Reporting Party has the option to not be in the same room with the Responding Party during the hearing, and the University will accommodate and facilitate such requests to the extent practicable. It is not required that either party attend the scheduled hearing; however, the hearing will proceed in their absence and a determination will be made by the Title IX Hearing Board.

Where the preponderance of the evidence supports the findings against the accused individual, the Title IX Hearing Board will institute penalties for the infractions in accordance with the sanction statement listed above. Notification of the decision will be provided in writing to both parties within three (3) business days after the hearing has been completed.

Adjudication Where the Responding Party is Faculty or Staff

Due to the intersection of employment law and Title IX, there are only two potential outcomes when a finding involves a faculty or staff:

Administrative Adjudication – No Policy Violation

If no violation is found to have occurred, such outcome will be communicated in writing to the Reporting Party and Responding Party along with the opportunity to review the investigative report. GCU will continue to assist the Reporting Party with resources as applicable.

Administrative Adjudication – Policy Violation Established

If a violation is found to have occurred, the Responding Party and Reporting Party will each individually have the opportunity to review the investigative report and the documentation materials from the investigation.

Following this review, the Responding Party will be given the opportunity to accept the findings and sanctions as issued by the Title IX Coordinator, or designee. If the Responding Party accepts, the decision and sanctions will be communicated to both parties in writing, and the decision is not appealable by the Responding Party. If the Responding Party rejects the findings and sanctions, the case will be forwarded to the Assistant Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Human Resources. The Reporting Party will be notified of the submission to the Assistant Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Human Resources.

Appeal Process for Students

Students will have three (3) business days to appeal the decision made during the hearing. All appeals must be made in writing, providing additional documentation for consideration. Appeals are not intended to be full re-hearings of the complaint, and as such, appeals will only be accepted based on one of the following factors:

- Procedural error or omission
- New evidence that was unknown or not available during the original hearing
- Substantially disproportionate sanctions

Disagreement with the findings or sanctions is not, by itself, ground for an appeal. The request for an appeal, including the grounds upon which the request is based and the documentation thereof should be submitted in writing to the Title IX Coordinator:

Jennifer Lech, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President of Academic Affairs and University Registrar
3300 W. Camelback Road
Phoenix, AZ 85017
602-639-5900
TitleIX@gcu.edu

Both parties will be notified in writing if an appeal is submitted. The appeal will be submitted for an initial review to the Title IX Appeal Committee, who will be given timely and equal access to the compliant, investigative report, appeal, and any other relevant documentation. One member of the Committee will be designated as the Chair and responsible for administering the hearing and recording the decision. The Title IX Appeal Committee will review the appeal and new documentation to determine if the appeal meets the limited grounds described above. If the Title IX Appeal Committee determines that grounds are met, it will review the appeal in light of the new information. Appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the original hearing, and pertinent documentation regarding the grounds for appeal. Appeal decisions are to be differential to the original hearing body, making changes to the finding only where this is clear error, and only to the sanction if there is a compelling justification to do so. A decision will be issued within 15 business days of the appeal being accepted. Any sanctions will remain in place during the appeal process. The Title IX Appeal Committee's decision to deny an appeal request, or an appeal decision is considered the final decision of the University.

Appeal Process Where the Responding Party is Faculty or Staff

A Responding Party who is faculty or staff will have three (3) business days to appeal the decision made during the hearing. All appeals must be made in writing, providing additional documentation for consideration. Appeals are not intended to be full re-hearings of the complaint, and as such, appeals will only be accepted based on one of the following factors:

- Procedural error or omission
- New evidence that was unknown or not available during the original hearing
- Substantially disproportionate sanctions

Disagreement with the findings or sanctions is not, by itself, ground for an appeal. The request for an appeal, including the grounds upon which the request is based and the documentation thereof should be submitted in writing to the Title IX Coordinator:

Jennifer Lech, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President of Academic Affairs and University
Registrar
3300 W. Camelback Road
Phoenix, AZ 85017
602-639-5900
TitleIX@gcu.edu

Appeals for Responding Parties who are faculty or staff will be processed through the Open Door Policy or the Employment Dispute Resolution Policy, as outlined in the Employee Handbook, and reviewed by the Assistant Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Human Resources. Please refer to the Employee Handbook for information on the applicable policies. Both parties will be notified in writing if an appeal is submitted. Any sanctions will remain in place during the appeal process.

The Role of Advisors/Support Persons

All parties are entitled to an advisor of their choosing to guide and accompany them throughout the campus resolution process. The advisor may be a friend, mentor, family member, attorney or any other supporter. However, a witness may not also serve as advisor/support person.

The parties are entitled to be accompanied by their advisor in all meetings and interviews at which the party is entitled to be present, including intake, interviews, and hearings. Advisors should help their advisees prepare for each meeting, and are expected to advise ethically, with integrity and in good faith. The University cannot guarantee equal advisory rights, meaning that if one party selects an advisor who is an attorney, but the other party does not, or cannot afford an attorney, the university is not obligated to provide one.

All advisors are subject to the same rules, whether they are attorneys or not. Advisors may not address campus officials in a meeting, interview or hearing unless invited to. Advisors may confer quietly with their advisees as necessary, as long as they do not disrupt the process. For longer or more involved discussions, the parties and their advisors should ask for breaks or step out of meetings to allow for private conversation. Advisors are expected to refrain from interference with the University investigation and resolution. Any advisor who steps out of their role in any meeting under the campus resolution process will be warned once and only once. If the advisor continues to disrupt or otherwise fails to respect the limits of the advisor role, the advisor will be asked to leave the meeting. When an advisor is removed from a meeting, that meeting will typically continue without the advisor present. Subsequently, the Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy will determine whether the advisor may be reinstated, may be replaced by a different advisor, or whether the party will forfeit the right to an advisor for the remainder of the process.

The University expects that the parties will wish to share documentation related to the allegations with their advisors. The University provides a consent form that authorizes such sharing. The parties must complete this form before the University is able to share records with an advisor. Advisors are expected to maintain the privacy of the records shared with them. These records may not be shared with 3rd parties, disclosed publicly, or used for purposes not explicitly authorized by the University. The University will restrict the role of any advisor who does not respect the sensitive nature of the process or who fails to abide by the University's privacy expectations.

The University expects an advisor to adjust their schedule to allow them to attend University meetings when scheduled. The University does not typically change scheduled meetings to accommodate an advisor's inability to attend. The University will, however make provisions to allow an advisor who cannot attend in person to attend a meeting by telephone, video and/or virtual meeting technologies as may be convenient and available. A party may elect to change advisors during the process, and is not locked into using the same advisor throughout.

False Reports

Any member of the university community who knowingly files a false complaint of sexual harassment, or who knowingly provides false information to or intentionally misleads university officials who are investigating or reviewing a complaint of alleged sexual harassment, is subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge for employees and dismissal for students.

Enforcement

Any question of interpretation or application of this policy will be referred to the Title IX Coordinator, or designee, for final determination.

Any student, faculty, or staff found to have violated this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion (for students) or termination of employment (for faculty or staff).

University students are responsible for knowing the information, policies, and procedures outlined in this document.

The University may, at any time, in its sole discretion, change, modify or vary from anything stated in this policy, with or without notice. Nothing contained in this or any other policy, procedure or work rule of the University shall affect the "at will" status of any employee.

University Appeal Procedures

The process described herein relates only to the formal University-level procedure for student appeals, including academic and financial issues. In some cases, a student may appeal a financially or academically related University policy or decision, including tuition, fees, a Code of Conduct or an Academic Dishonesty charge when extreme extenuating circumstances merit, and where supporting documentation exists. Such issues may involve, but are not limited to, final grades, discrimination, or harassment. The appeal process is designed to offer the student multiple opportunities to be heard, as illustrated in the table below. Students should be aware that appeals in which policy or process was not followed, in which extenuating circumstances are not existent, are unlikely to be approved. Additionally, in order to provide students with as many options as possible for resolving issues, University departments may attempt to address student concerns through an informal issue resolution process which is separate from the formal University-level appeal procedure. Students may request to escalate their appeal to the University Appeal process at any time; any decision made at the University-level will supersede all previous proposed resolutions.

Students must initiate the appeal by contacting their Student Services Counselor. The appeal must be completed and submitted by the student, in accordance with FERPA guidelines. The Student Services Counselor will gather the information and route to the appropriate parties at the university. All supporting documentation should clearly and explicitly describe the appeal (including the actual policy being appealed), demonstrating he or she attempted in good faith to resolve the issues with the involved parties. Students are strongly encouraged to discuss the intended appeal with a Student Services Counselor prior to submission.

Under extenuating circumstances, if the student believes the first level decision is unjust, the student may escalate the appeal to the second level by submitting another request via their Student Services Counselor. Not liking the first level decision is not justification for filing a second appeal. A second appeal decision requires additional documentation to justify a re-submission of the issue. The second level of appeal decision is the final decision of the University.

The following include the different appeal definitions:

- End-of-course grades: Faculty are responsible for issuing earned grades. The University supports this assessment made by the faculty based on student performance throughout the course, and overturning a grade is unlikely and only if miscalculation occurred. A student cannot appeal final grades earned unless the student has ample evidence that the grade earned was indeed miscalculated. GCU does not condone rounding grades, and therefore that is not considered miscalculation. To file a grade appeal, students must provide ample documentation indicating where the grade was miscalculated, as well as evidence the faculty and student communicated about the alleged miscalculation of the overall course grade, or the appeal will not be accepted for review. A final grade for a course may be disputed within five weeks of the last day of the course. Students may not file a grade appeal with the University for a grade/score on an individual assignment while the course is in progress.
- Reinstatement Admission Appeals: Students who have been dismissed from the University due to a lack of academic progress or Code of Code of Conduct violations have the option to submit a Request for Reinstatement.
- Code of Conduct: Depending on the severity and origination of a Code of Conduct violation, a student may be subject to consequences of violating the Student Code of Conduct up to, and including, expulsion. A Code of Conduct violation that is also a violation of state or federal law will be turned over to the appropriate authorities for action and is not under the jurisdiction of the University.
- A published policy: Students who have issues with a particular policy may in some cases appeal the policy. However, the following is a list of reasons, albeit a non-exhaustive list, for which a dispute of a published policy is not acceptable, and for which relief (tuition and fees) will not be granted:
 - Disputes arising out of a student's lack of knowledge or understanding of a stated policy
 - A student's reliance upon verbal statements which conflict with the University's written policies, regardless of the source of the verbal communication
 - A student's actions when the student failed to investigate, understand, or consider the financial ramifications of that action / decision
 - A student's failure to regularly review University communications, whether via telephone, mail, or e-mail
 - Illness or death of a person who is not a member of the student's immediate family
 - Disputes arising because of technological issues that are not in direct control of the University

For any appeal where documentation is required but not submitted, the appeal will be returned to the Student Services Counselor as incomplete, and will not be accepted for review. Documentation includes, but is not limited to, email communication, evidence showing attempts to resolve grade appeal issues with faculty, or evidence which supports specific details relating to the claim. Additional documentation may be requested by the University at any time.

Below is a list of specific policies that are not appealable, and for which appeals will not be accepted for review:

- Minimum GPA requirements for graduation
- Program credit requirements for graduation
- Residency requirement
- Upper division credit requirement
- Course overload requirements
- Continuing Education Credits for certificates that do not meet the criteria outlined for GCU Approved Certificates
- SAP statuses (Warning/Probation/Suspension)
- GPA Progression statuses
- Grade appeals where the student has not provided evidence that it meets the terms of the end-of-course grades policy
- Exceeding the maximum number of course repeat attempts
- Expulsions issued for possessing a firearm on campus

SARA Grievance Process

Grand Canyon University is a SARA participating institution. For students who reside in SARA states (see list of SARA states at www.nc-sara.org) the Arizona SARA Council has jurisdiction over Arizona SARA-approved institutions in relation to non-instructional complaints. Instructional complaints, such as grade grievances, are not reviewed by the Council and should not be submitted for review. Prior to registering a non-instructional complaint with the Arizona SARA council, the student must first utilize GCU's appeals process and then utilize the Arizona State Board for Private Postsecondary Education's complaint process. Non-instructional complaints may be submitted to AZ-SARA via <http://azsara.arizona.edu/complaint-process>.

Appeal Timelines

Appeals for both academic and non-academic concerns must be filed no later than five weeks after grades are posted for the course involving the appealed issue. Appeals received after this deadline will not be considered. If the student chooses to dispute the first appeal decision, the second appeal must be filed with the University within five weeks after the notification of the first appeal decision is issued.

The University makes every effort to come to a decision and notify the student within 15 business days of receipt of the appeal. However, in some cases the investigative process may lengthen this timeframe.

Appeal Communication

Appeal decisions are communicated to the student through postal letter. Any questions regarding the appeal must be communicated to the assigned Student Services Counselor.

Textbooks

Some courses are digitally enabled where students are charged the Canyon Connect fee to access the eBook in their Learning Management System. Other courses that may require a print textbook will direct students to purchase the print copy at the campus bookstore. For questions on print textbooks, contact 1-877-866-8917.

Grading System

Grade points are assigned to specific grades according to the grading system and are used to compute a grade point average (GPA). Only those courses in which a letter grade (A through F) is earned are included in the calculation of the GPA. The semester credits of each course are multiplied by the grade points for the grade earned in each course. The sum of these products is divided by the number of semester credits in which a letter grade (A through F) is earned. The GPA that appears on the GCU transcript is based only upon coursework completed at Grand Canyon University. Certain courses earn credit toward fulfilling academic requirements but are not included in the computation of the GPA. These courses are denoted by a grade of CR or S. A grade of U earns no credit. A degree will never post prior to the final course end date.

Please note that course assignments are thoughtfully planned and allocated specific relative values to demonstrate the achievement of student learning outcomes. Consequently, the University does not permit the rounding of assignment or course grades or the issuing of extra-credit points. For example, 92.99 is an A- on the Undergraduate Grading Scale.

Undergraduate GPA

Undergraduate students must earn a minimum grade point average of 2.0 to meet the minimum GPA graduation requirement. Undergraduate students must earn a grade of C in courses in their majors and minors. To review all graduation requirements, please visit the Undergraduate Graduation Requirements section.

Undergraduate Grading Scale

The 100-point grading scale is the standard for all GCU undergraduate courses, although point scales may differ by college or program. Previous grading scales are presented on the University's official transcript. The grade or symbol, point equivalent (scale), the GPA value of the course letter grade, and the interpretation of the level of performance are as follows:

Letter Grade	GPA Value	Point Scale		Interpretation of Level of Performance
		COE, COFAP, CONHCP (Non-Nursing), COT, CHSS, CSET, CCOB	CONHCP (Nursing)
A	4.0	93-100	95-100	Superior; outstanding scholarship

Graduate GPA

Graduate students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher to be eligible for graduation. Graduate students must earn a grade of C or better in all of their courses.

Graduate Grading Scale

The 100-point grading scale is the standard for all GCU graduate courses, although point scales may differ by college or program. In graduate courses, students will be evaluated by the grading scale shown below. Previous grading scales are presented on the University's official transcript. If a graduate student earns a grade of F, he or she will be required to repeat the course and bring up the grade in order to continue in the program. The grade or symbol, point equivalent (scale), the GPA value of the course letter grade, and the interpretation of the level of performance are as follows:

Letter Grade	GPA Value	Point Scale		Interpretation of Level of Performance
		COE, COFAP, CONHCP (Non-Nursing), COT, CHSS, CSET, CCOB	CDS, CONHCP (Nursing)

Incomplete Grades

Students become eligible to request an incomplete grade if the following requirements have been met during the last week of the course:

- They are experiencing a physical and/or extreme circumstance that prevent them from completing the assignments by the scheduled end of the course;
- They are passing the course at the last week of the class;
- They have no outstanding Incompletes; and
- Their course fees and tuition are paid in full.
- Incompletes are not intended for students who have fallen behind in their studies and request an extension past the last day of class solely to submit materials.
- Even if the student is eligible for an Incomplete, the decision to grant the Incomplete contract lies solely with the instructor. If the instructor grants an incomplete, the following must happen:
- By the end of the course, the instructor and the student must complete the Incomplete Contract Form, which is created by the instructor and lists all eligible assignments to be completed by the student and the deadline date(s).
- When submitting final grades for the course, the instructor must enter a grade of "I" and send a copy of the Incomplete Contract Form to the Office of Academic Records.
- The student must submit all assignments within three weeks of the last day of the course.
- Within four weeks of the last day of the course, the instructor must submit a final grade for the student, or the grade of I will be changed to a failing grade.

Neither the incomplete nor the failing grade may be changed to a W grade. A student with more than one outstanding Incomplete may not register for any additional courses until the requirements for all outstanding Incompletes have been fulfilled.

Auditing Courses

Students are not permitted to audit Grand Canyon University courses.

Repeat Policy

When a course has been repeated, the credit used in computing the grade point average is the grade and credit hours earned the last time the repeated course was taken. Students who maximize the number of attempts for repeating a required course may not be able to complete their program.

Repeating Non-Passing Courses

A grade of D or lower earned at Grand Canyon University may be replaced in an undergraduate student's GPA when the identical course or course equivalent is retaken. Undergraduate students must repeat any program-specific Prerequisite courses completed in which a grade of less than C was earned. A grade of C or lower earned at Grand Canyon University may be removed from a graduate student's GPA under the same conditions and with the same results as stated above. Students may attempt the same course up to three times. Attempts include any course with an issued grade, including withdrawn courses. All attempted courses will be documented on the official transcript, but the repeat grade will be the grade of record regardless if it is higher or lower on the grading scale.

A course in a Program of Study may not be repeated once the degree has been awarded. The student should note that graduate schools or other institutions may calculate grades in an alternate fashion. This policy does not apply to special topics and independent study courses, which may consist of varying content depending on the timeframe it was offered.

Repeating Passing Courses

Undergraduate students have the option to repeat any undergraduate general education course where a non-failing grade was earned. The grade earned at Grand Canyon University may be replaced in an undergraduate student's GPA when the identical general education course or equivalent course is retaken. Students have one attempt to retake the same non-failing general education course. This option can only be used for a total of two non-failing general education courses throughout their academic career at Grand Canyon University. All attempts will need approval by submitting a formal University Appeal through an Student Services Counselor. Students may be financially responsible for the tuition of the course. All attempted courses will be documented on the official transcript, but the repeat grade will be the grade of record regardless if it is higher or lower on the grading scale.

A course in a Program of Study may not be repeated once the degree has been awarded. The student should note that graduate schools or other institutions may calculate grades in an alternate fashion. This policy does not apply to special topics and independent study courses, which may consist of varying content depending on the timeframe it was offered.

Grade Changes

A final grade may be changed by the instructor of the course within five weeks of the last day of the course for the following reasons:

- A miscalculation or error in grading has been detected by the instructor/student after final grades have been submitted.
- A University investigation of a grade dispute appeal supports a change of grade or an instructor fails to submit a final grade to replace an Incomplete grade by the deadline.

To change a student's final grade, an instructor must complete and submit a Grade Change Form to the Office of Academic Records.

Academic Honors

Dean's and President's List

GPA's for all undergraduate students' completing 12 semester credits are calculated to determine eligibility for these honors. Students whose enrollment cumulative GPA is 3.5 or above qualify for the Dean's List. Students whose enrollment cumulative GPA is 3.8 or above qualify for the President's List. Student's receiving the Dean's and President's honors will be notified by letter, at each 12-credit review.

Special Study Courses

Certain course numbers have been reserved for special study courses that departments of the University wish to approve. This fall into four categories: independent study, practicum, internship, and student teaching. To register for a special study course, students must obtain and complete appropriate forms with their Student Services Counselor. Once approved by the college, these forms are submitted to the Office of Academic Records where they are reviewed to determine student eligibility. A Special Study Request Form must be submitted no later than the last day of the regular registration period.

Independent Study

Independent Study courses may only be used when a student exhausted alternative courses, especially in the case of degree completion. Independent study courses are restricted to a case-by-case need that must be approved by the instructor, College Dean, and the Provost. A syllabus must be included.

Practicum

A practicum is a supervised practical experience in the student's major area of interest. Between 45 and 60 hours of practical experience equates to one University credit. Arrangements must be made between the agency, organization, or individual and the College Dean/designee to design and evaluate the student's experience. Practicum is reserved for junior and senior students with at least a cumulative 2.0 GPA and approval is required from the College Dean and/or Department Chair or designee(s). Practicum courses are restricted to the lock-step programs of study in the online modality.

Guidelines for University Internship

Grand Canyon University offers two types of internship opportunities: programmatic internships and elective internships. Programmatic internships are encompassed within required courses in the students' program of study, and are administered by the College that houses the specific program. Elective internships are administered by the Office of University Internships. Through the Office of University Internships, undergraduate students have the option to earn up to 12 elective credits. Graduate students can use internships to meet transfer elective credit deficiencies up to the total number of credits required in their program. International students must obtain approval from the Designated School Official.

Students must meet with a Student Services Counselor to review their eligibility to participate in an elective internship. Students must meet the following requirements.

1. Undergraduate Students:
 - Must have completed one semester at Grand Canyon University.
 - Recognizing that some internships might require a certain GPA, students may be required by the employer to have and maintain that level of GPA throughout the internship experience.
2. Graduate students:
 - Where applicable, graduate students may also be required by the employer to have and maintain a certain GPA level throughout the internship experience.

3. All students must meet any additional agency-specific requirements (eg. fingerprinting or background check, CPR, vaccinations, site-specific training etc.)

Students wishing to seek an elective internship for University credit outside of Arizona must check with the Internship Office to determine if approval for internships in that state can be granted. Please note, elective internships for programs in counseling, nursing, or education programs are only permissible within Arizona.

Students are encouraged to contact the Office of University Internships for assistance in selecting their elective internship. Once selected, students need to complete the Internship Registration packet, including:

1. Registration form
2. Code of Conduct Agreement
3. Resume
4. Offer letter from internship organization

Students are required to complete a minimum of 45 hours of documented site based work for each academic credit earned and participate in the learning management system classroom throughout the duration of the course. However, students participating in the AZ Legislative Program are not required to fulfill this requirement. Students may submit Internship Registration Forms requesting to have their current employment position evaluated for consideration as an internship assignment with future work hours being applied towards internship credit. In no case will academic credit be granted for work done in the past.

Student Teaching

Student teaching provides students with the opportunity to demonstrate mastery of knowledge and skills in a live classroom setting. College of Education requires full-time placement of student teachers for 15-16 weeks, dependent upon student's program of study, in classrooms associated with their major area(s) of interest under the direct supervision of a certified educator. During this time, student teachers will assume all teaching duties and responsibilities necessary for effective teaching of students, including assessing students, planning and teaching lessons, and evaluating students' progress. Students must complete all associated student teaching paperwork and approvals, prior to commencing student teaching activities. Students with missing approvals on forms needed may be removed from student teaching. Student teaching may only be repeated once.

Official Enrollment Status Change and Withdrawal

The implications of discontinuing course registration differ greatly during various points. The academic and financial consequences of the specific types of enrollment status changes are outlined below.

Change of Classification

Traditional Undergraduate students who want to become a Nontraditional (Online) Undergraduate student, or vice versa, need to contact their Student Services Counselor for approval. The Student Services Counselor will assign a new Student Services Counselor to the student.

Change of Start Date

Graduate and undergraduate students who have not begun their initial start date at GCU may decide to change their start date by contacting their University Counselor. Students should be aware of the University Course Tuition Refund Policy, when considering changing their start date after the commencement and attendance in their first course.

Course Drop

When students seek to remain active in school, yet reduce the number of credits for which they are registered, the option to drop a course may be available. Students must contact their Student Services Counselor to process a course drop.

Different course drop deadlines apply to courses of varying lengths. Students who drop a course prior to the allowable deadline will earn a grade of W for the course. If students discontinue their course enrollment beyond the allowable timelines, they will receive zeroes for all missing assignments, and will earn a final course grade of A through F that is commensurate with the accumulated total for all course work.

Course Length	Course Drop, W – Grade Deadline
1-2 Weeks	Not permissible after course start
3-13 Weeks	Prior to the last 2 weeks of the course
14-16 Weeks	Prior to the last 4 weeks of the course

Cohort and Residency Classrooms also have Class Presence requirements that are separate from this policy. See Class Presence: Cohort Classrooms and/or Class Presence Residency Classrooms for more information.

Before dropping a course, students are strongly advised to speak with their Student Services Counselor to understand the academic and financial ramifications associated with dropping a course. The Course Tuition Refund Policy in the Financial Services section of the University Policy Handbook outlines the refund schedule for dropped courses. Students who delay exercising the course-drop option until after the deadline retain financial responsibility. Students are responsible for all non-refundable charges.

Add/Drop

If students drop and add courses there may be additional tuition charges depending on the timing of the drop/add action, and the length of the instructional period of the course that is being dropped or added.

Traditional Campus Students

All students may add courses after the semester has begun, but the scheduling may differ based on the length of the instructional period.

- Students enrolled in 15-week courses may add additional 15-week courses to their schedule through the second week of the semester. Students are responsible for any additional tuition charges that may be incurred as a result of adding credits based on the change. A student who is enrolled in 15-week courses, who desires to drop a 15-week course after the second week of the semester (outside the refund period) and add another course that has not yet started will be responsible for tuition charges if the number of registered credits, including the dropped course, exceeds 18.
- Students enrolled in 7-week and 8-week may add additional courses in their current 15-week semester only if the course has not yet begun, they have been actively enrolled from the beginning of the semester, and are responsible for any additional tuition charges based on the change.

- Students who unregister from a course may be eligible for a portion of their refund based on total registered credits remaining.

Before dropping a course, students are strongly advised to speak with their Student Services Counselor to understand the academic and financial ramifications associated with dropping a course. The Course Tuition Refund Policy in the Financial Services section of the University Policy Handbook outlines the refund schedule for dropped courses.

Registration Discontinuance

Students who choose to drop from courses after they have already begun participation in the courses must request to discontinue by contacting their Student Services Counselor. Students will be dropped from all current and future scheduled courses and will be considered inactive for the period discussed with their Student Services Counselor.

Although the discontinuation of registration places students in an inactive status for the requested time, students retain their admitted status within the University and should remain in contact with a Student Services Counselor. If the student is out of attendance for more than 180 days, the student will have to enroll in a program in the current Academic Catalog. Students are still subject to the Course Tuition Refund Policy and the Course Drop Policy.

Students are strongly advised to speak with their Student Services Counselor to understand the academic and financial ramifications associated with dropping a course.

University Official Withdrawal

In the event that students choose to discontinue their enrollment at GCU, they must officially withdraw from the University. Students in this situation lose all of the rights and privileges associated with being GCU students, including maintaining enrollment in their Program of Study (POS). To officially withdraw from the University, students must submit a University Official Withdrawal Form to the Office of Academic Records via the GCU Student Portal. When submitting the University Official Withdrawal Form, students will be asked to identify the reason for withdrawing from the University. If students notify their Student Services Counselor of their intent to withdraw from the University but do not complete the Official Withdrawal form, Student Services Counselors will notify the Office of Academic Records of the Official Withdrawal. Students may also be withdrawn from the University through the Unofficial Withdrawal policy.

Students are still subject to the Course Tuition Refund Policy and the grading policy listed above in Course Drop Policy. Before withdrawing from the University, students are strongly advised to speak with a Student Services Counselor to understand the academic and financial ramifications associated with dropping a course.

All Financial Aid students are required to complete Exit Counseling for any federal loans borrowed while in attendance at Grand Canyon University. This is in accordance with the Department of Education requirements and students should contact their Student Services Counselor for further information on how to complete the Exit Counseling.

Officially withdrawn students must reapply for admission to the University if they decide to return, and enroll in the most current POS.

Semester Official Withdrawal

Traditional Campus Students

Traditional campus students, who choose to discontinue their enrollment at GCU for the current semester enrolled, must complete a Semester Official Withdrawal Form, which can be obtained through their Student Services Counselor. Students are subject to the Course Tuition Refund Policy and the grading policy listed above in Course Drop Policy.

Military Deployment

In support of U.S. military students, the University offers special circumstance withdrawals for students who find themselves deployed without computer access or experience other circumstances that will make it impossible to complete coursework within the prescribed time frame due to temporary assignments when accompanied with official documentation. Active Duty, Reservists, and National Guard students that are currently enrolled in a degree program will be placed on a deployed status for the duration of deployment. Students will receive a tuition credit to their GCU account for the course(s) from which the University withdraws the student. A DW grade (Deployment Withdrawal) will appear on the student transcript for each class the University approves for withdraw with the expectation that students will re-take the affected courses upon re-entrance.

Students seeking this option must submit a completed GCU Deployment Form prior to deployment to be eligible, including submission of official military deployment orders to their Student Services Counselor. It is also the student's responsibility to inform the instructor of the situation. The student assumes responsibility of a course if they post into the classroom after the deployment date indicated on the soldier's Orders.

Students out of attendance for greater than 14 days may have a recalculation of financial aid completed, which may result in a balance on the student's account (if student is using Title IV). Grand Canyon University will defer collections of tuition and fees while in a deployed status.

Eligibility:

- The student must have been attending the course and completing the assignments up to the point of the deployment request.
- The student's circumstances must involve a military commitment.
- Students who determine their need for a deployment withdrawal must submit the GCU Deployment form prior to any scheduled departure date.
- Students must submit official documentation to confirm deployment and/or circumstance (official orders, letter from Commander, etc.).
- Students using Financial Aid must also complete a Deferment Form.
- Official documentation submitted by the student must confirm that the dates of the deployment and/or special circumstance coincide with the time frame of the course.

Temporary Duty or No-Notice deployment will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and must have a letter from the Commander of the soldiers unit attached with the Deployment Orders.

Unofficial University Withdrawal

There are two types of unofficial university withdrawals. The first is administrative withdrawal and the second is the 14-day rule.

Administrative Withdrawal

The University reserves the right to administratively withdraw a student for the following reasons:

- Students who do not attend any of their registered classes within the first week of the course may be administratively withdrawn from all classes, current and future.
 - Students who have not returned to the University in 6 months and have not provided any notification of their absence
- Students withdrawn through the provisions below are processed separately from the Code of Conduct Procedures.
- Students deemed ineligible for admission as a result of the Internal Review process.
 - Failing to comply with the Internal Review process

14-day Rule

An unofficial withdrawal occurs when a student has stopped attending courses for a period of 14 consecutive days or more but has not communicated a desire to officially withdraw from the University.

Student Records

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

Grand Canyon University annually informs students of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. Questions concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be referred to the Office of Academic Records.

These rights are as follows:

- The right to inspect and review educational records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access. Students should submit written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect to the Office of Academic Records. The University will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.
- The right to request an amendment of education records that the student believes is inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the University to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the Office of Academic Records and clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the University decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the University will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.
- The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception that permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (including law enforcement, personnel, and health staff); a person or company with whom the University has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or appeal committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. Upon request, the University discloses education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

- The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Ave., SW
Washington, DC, 20202-5920

Grand Canyon University has designated certain information in the education records as directory information for the purposes of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Students are required to complete a Student Information Release Form (SIRF), submitted to the Office of Academic Records, to control release of such information with respect to student records. The SIRF information is sent out to students annually. It is the responsibility of students to notify the Office of Academic Records if they would like to make any changes to their SIRF information.

Although GCU recognizes some information as directory, GCU's practice is not to release most directory components unless the University determines a need to do so (for example, police request). Some directory information will be released when it comes to athletes, or other student activities, such as theatre productions, regardless if a student opts out. Students wishing to opt out of ALL directory information disclosure must send their request to the following email address: directoryoptout@gcu.edu.

If choosing to opt out students must provide their student ID, and or, reply from their GCU email address.

- Student name
- Address
- Personal email address
- Phone number
- Date and place of birth
- Hometown
- Degrees and awards received and dates
- Dates of attendance (current and past)
- Full or part-time enrollment status
- Participation in officially recognized activities or sports
- Weight and height of members of athletic teams

Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) provides federal protections for personal health information and gives patients an array of rights with respect to that information. At the same time, it permits the disclosure of personal health information needed for patient care and other important purposes. The rule specifies a series of administrative, physical and technical safeguards for covered entities to use to assure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of electronic protected health information.

Student Services Departments using health records to make decisions in regard to a student's education program will safeguard these records according to FERPA provisions.

Student Access

Mobility

Individuals who reside upon and/or visit the GCU campus are responsible for their own mobility. If assistance is needed, a golf cart ride may be available based on a disability issue; however, arrangements need to be made at least 48 hours prior to the visit and are offered as a courtesy service only. Rides are based on availability of campus resources.

For disability accommodations, please contact 602-639-6342.

Student Disability Services

Grand Canyon University (GCU) seeks to serve all of its students equally. This plan is established in order to provide all students with equal access to GCU's programs, systems and facilities.

In order to receive accommodations through the University, students are required to complete the Accommodation Request Form and provide supporting documentation to Student Disability Services. To allow the University sufficient time for processing, requests should be submitted no later than two (2) weeks (10 working days) prior to the start of the course. All approved accommodation requests turned in after the course has begun will be in place as of the date the form and documentation was received by Student Disability Services. Accommodations will not be retroactive. Processing of accommodations begins after both the request form and the appropriate documentation information is received.

Students are required to complete a new accommodation request form annually based on their original approval date. Documentation for permanent disabilities will remain on file with Student Disability Services. Students that are approved for Temporary services will be asked to provide additional documentation to extend services. (Please see Temporary Accommodations Policy for more information). Students are required to notify Student Disability Services of any schedule changes that may occur during their program of study, in order to ensure that their accommodations are applied or adjusted accordingly. Students that withdraw from the University or have been suspended will need to contact Student Disability Services upon their return in order to re-establish their accommodations. Please note that the University cannot provide accommodations that are not requested.

Steps to Accommodations:

1. Complete the Accommodation Request Form
2. Supporting documentation is required for all students requesting accommodations through Student Disability Services. The documentation must be from a medical provider (such as a doctor, psychologist, psychiatrist, etc.) or from testing services (such as Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale and other tests). The documentation should be on letterhead from the provider or service company. The documentation is kept on file in Student Disability Services for verification purposes.
3. Turn in a copy of the above items via one of the options listed below:
4. Fax - 602.589.2652 (All documents must contain the student's name and be addressed: Attn: Disabilities Coordinator)
5. Email - disabilityoffice@gcu.edu please put the students name in the subject line of the email (last, first)

6. Hand Delivery - Take requests to the Kaibab building through the Ground Advisement Team and ask for Student Disability Services.

The student is required to provide documentation that demonstrates credible assurance of a disability issue. The documentation should directly support the student's request for accommodations. The documentation must be from a medical provider (such as a doctor, psychologist, psychiatrist, etc.) or from testing services (such as Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale and other tests). The documentation must state the specific disability and show cause for why a student's disability significantly limits their ability to complete their educational goals at GCU. The documentation should include a summary of the student's functional limitations in order for the University to determine the appropriate accommodations. The documentation is kept on file in Student Disability Services for verification purposes.

The documentation should be typed with the appropriate official signature and contact information for the associated facility for verification purposes (on official letterhead is preferred). We do NOT accept documentation that is handwritten or submitted on a prescription note. These documents are scanned into a protected part of your permanent record and therefore, must be legible and clear. Documentation can be submitted to Student Disability Services either by fax to 602-589-2652, by email to disabilityoffice@gcu.edu or they can be hand delivered to Student Disability Services at the Main Campus in Phoenix, Arizona.

Once documentation is received it will be reviewed. If the documentation provided does not meet the University's requirements it will not be accepted as the official documentation. Students will receive notice and will be asked to provide alternative supporting documentation. The documentation is kept on file in Student Disability Services for verification purposes. Students requesting additional accommodations after their initial approval may be asked to provide additional documentation.

Temporary Accomodation Policy

GCU understands that circumstances out of a student's control may occur while attending classes at the University. Temporary accommodations may be granted to students who experience an unexpected or unavoidable major medical issue such as major surgery, hospitalization, or pregnancy. Temporary accommodations may be put in place until the end of a student's current course. Depending on the supporting documentation provided, an accommodation can be extended to six months.

For consideration, to receive temporary accommodations through the University, students will utilize the Steps to Accommodations process as outlined in the University Policy Handbook. The first step is to submit an Accommodation Request Form, and the second step is to provide supporting documentation. It is important to review the documentation criteria for guidance regarding what documentation to provide. Documentation is required for all students requesting accommodations through the University. It is important to note that the University cannot provide accommodations that are not requested. Additionally, accommodations cannot be applied retroactively.

Service Animals and Assistive Animals Policy

For the purpose of this policy, the term "accommodation animal" refers to "service animals," "emotional support animal," "assistive animals" and "necessary assistance animals" as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act, Fair Housing Act, and other applicable laws.

Any resident student wanting an accommodation animal to live in Grand Canyon University Housing must complete the Steps to Accommodations process. Their request needs to include an explanation of the disability-related need for the animal, the types of tasks, if any; the animal is trained to perform, as well as a description of the animal, including type and the animal's name. Students who obtain approval to have an accommodation animal in University housing will be required to sign and abide by the Resident Responsibilities.

Grand Canyon University will accept, consider and make best efforts to fulfill the request for reasonable accommodations in University housing at any time. However, if the accommodation request is made after July 1st (for Fall semester) or after December 1st (for Spring semester), GCU cannot guarantee that they will be able to meet the individual's housing accommodation needs during the scheduled term of occupancy.

The University limits this accommodation to one animal per dwelling unit in order to ensure the safety of the animals that reside on the GCU campus. With the exception of a trained service dog, the animal should not be in residence unless/until the request is approved. Please note that the approval of a request is animal-specific and is not transferable to another or different animal.

Service Animal:

Per the ADA 2010 Revised Requirements, service animals are defined as dogs that are individually trained to do work or perform tasks for people with disabilities. If the animal is a trained service dog trained to perform service tasks, then the student's Request for Accommodations must answer two questions:

- (1) Is this a service animal that is required because of a disability?
- (2) What work or tasks has the animal been trained to perform? If the resident's disability is not readily apparent, appropriate medical documentation verifying the student's disability will be required.

Therapy/Emotional Support Animals:

If the animal is not a dog, or the animal (even if a dog) is not trained to perform service tasks but is an emotional support animal, then the student needs to request a Housing Accommodation for the assistive animal through the Student Disability Services office. In this case, the student's Request must answer these two questions:

- (1) Does the student (asking to live with the animal) have a disability — i.e., a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities?
- (2) Does the resident making the request have a disability-related need for an assistance animal?

When the disability and/or disability-related need for the animal are not readily apparent, the student will be required to also provide supporting documentation in the form of a letter from a treating physician, licensed mental health professional (specialist), or DSP Specialist documenting the disability and/or disability-related need for the animal, and outlining the following:

- a) Verification of the disability the animal is supporting, and
- b) How the animal serves as an accommodation for the verified disability, and

c) How the need for the animal relates to the ability of the student to use and enjoy the living arrangements available through the University, and

d) The letter is subject to the Documentation Criteria as outlined in the Steps to Accommodations.

Please note that Therapy/Emotional Support animals are restricted to the residence area where the student resides only. They cannot go to class or to other communal areas of the University including the Library, the Arena, sports fields, the Rec Center, Thunder Alley, Classroom buildings, Pool area, etc. If you would like the University to consider an alternative accommodation, it will be reviewed under the premise of a reasonable accommodation as defined under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and may require additional documentation.

Emotional Support Animals may not be left overnight in University Housing to be cared for by an individual other than the owner. If the Owner is going to be absent from their assigned dwelling overnight or for an extended period of time, it is the sole responsibility of the Owner to make off campus arrangements for the animal or to take the animal with them. GCU staff, and fellow students shall not be required to provide care or food for any Emotional Support Animal.

Denied Requests:

Requests for an assistive animal as a disability-related accommodation may be denied if granting the request would constitute an undue financial or administrative burden, or would fundamentally alter the nature of the housing option. In addition, animal accommodation requests may be denied if:

- (1) the specific assistance animal in question poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation, or
- 2) the specific assistance animal in question would cause substantial physical damage to the property of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation. Breed, size, and weight limitations are not applicable to an assistance animal.

Guidelines for Assistive Animals Living on the Grand Canyon University Campus

The following guidelines apply to all approved disability-related accommodation animals and their students who live in GCU Housing.

Animal Behavior

1. An Exception to the Residential Pet Policy is granted for accommodation animals provided that their behavior, noise, odor and waste do not exceed reasonable standards and that these factors do not create unreasonable disruptions for students, faculty or staff.
2. Dangerous, poisonous, and/or illegal animals are not permitted.
3. The approved accommodation animal must be contained within the private residential area (room, suite, apartment, or enclosed balcony) at all times. When being transported outside the private residential area, the animal must be in a carrier or controlled by leash or harness.

Animal Health and Well-Being

1. Accommodation animals must have all veterinarian-recommended vaccinations to maintain the animal's health and prevent contagious diseases. Documentation of appropriate vaccinations are due at the time the Request. Grand Canyon University reserves the right to request updated vaccination verification during the animal's residency.

All animals must have a clean bill of health from a qualified veterinarian professional in order to live in GCU Housing.

2. Animals that live on GCU's campus fall under the licensure and health requirements for Maricopa County. Proof of compliance with those rules and regulations is part of the documentation required for approval of an assistive animal. Please visit the following link for more information: <http://www.maricopa.gov/pets/>

3. All accommodation animals that reside on the GCU campus are required to have the appropriate GCU issued identification cards. Service Dogs that accompany non-residential students to class or other GCU events are welcomed to obtain a GCU issued identification card as well, but are not required to do so.

Animal Cleanliness

Residents are responsible for properly containing and disposing of all animal waste, including but not limited to:

1. Indoor animal waste, such as cat litter, must be placed in a sturdy plastic bag and tied securely before being disposed of in outside trash dumpsters. Litter boxes should be placed on mats so that feces and urine are not tracked onto carpeted surfaces. Animals are required to be housebroken.
2. Outdoor service animal waste, such as dog feces, must be immediately retrieved by resident, placed in a plastic bag and securely tied before being disposed of in outside trash dumpsters.
3. With respect to common areas, the University reserves the right to designate specific sites indoors/outdoors for elimination of animal waste and to prohibit (even if there is immediate clean up afterwards) animal waste in any other common area.

Removal of Assistance Animal

Grand Canyon University may require the individual to remove the animal from University Housing if:

1. The animal or owner violates the standards for behavior and cleanliness as outlined in this policy and in the Resident Responsibilities.
2. The animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others or causes substantial property damage to University property or the property of others.
3. The animal or its presence creates an unmanageable disturbance or interference with the University community.
4. The animal does not have official approval from the Student Disability Services office to be in University Housing or on the University campus.

Removal of an animal from University property will be reviewed on a case by case basis.

Denied Requests

Requests for an assistive animal as a disability-related accommodation may be denied if granting the request would constitute an undue financial or administrative burden, or would fundamentally alter the nature of the housing option. In addition, animal accommodation requests may be denied if:

1. The specific assistance animal in question poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation, or
2. The specific assistance animal in question would cause substantial physical damage to the property of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation. Breed, size, and weight limitations are not applicable to an assistance animal, or
3. If the individual is unwilling to accept an alternative housing placement option offered based on availability or if there are not available housing options to meet the accommodation request.

Grand Canyon University will review each Emotional Support Animal request on a case by case basis. The University may also consider if the animal's presence would force another individual from individual housing (e.g. severe allergies, fear of the animal).

Grievance Process

Students may submit a request for their denial to be reviewed through Student Disability Services, who then present the request to the 504 Coordinator. The 504 Coordinator will review the student's request as well as their documentation before rendering a determination within 10 business days.

If the student is dissatisfied with the determination made by the 504 Coordinator, (s)he can appeal the determination to the Provost of Grand Canyon University. To file a second appeal, the student will contact the Student Disabilities Office, which will forward the appeal to the University Provost, and which will advise the student of the Provost's decision. The Provost's decision will stand as the final decision of the University.

Resident Responsibilities

1. The student is responsible for assuring that the accommodation animal does not interfere with the routine activities of their fellow resident students or cause unreasonable difficulties for student, faculty or staff. Residential community living requires respect for the needs of residents with allergies and those who may fear animals.
2. The student is financially responsible for all consequences caused by the actions of the accommodation animal, including bodily injury or property damage which may necessitate replacement or repair of damaged furniture, carpet, drapes, or wall covering, etc. If an accommodation animal causes substantial physical damage to the property of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by reasonable accommodation, the animal may be excluded from living in the residence.
4. The University shall have the right to bill the student's account for unmet obligations arising for damage caused by an accommodation animal.
5. The student's place of residence may be inspected for fleas, ticks or other pests once per semester or as needed. If fleas, ticks or other pests are detected through inspection, the residence will be treated using approved fumigation methods by a university-approved pest control service.
6. The student must notify Student Disability Services in writing if the accommodation animal is no longer needed as an accommodation or is no longer in residence within 48 hours.
7. Even if the student previously obtained permission for an accommodation animal, the student must file a new request for accommodations if s/he wishes to bring in a new/different accommodation animal in substitution of the previous accommodation animal.
8. The University has the ability to relocate resident and accommodation animal as necessary provided the new site is consistent with the terms of the current contractual agreement.
9. All roommates or suitemates of the student must sign an agreement allowing the accommodation animal to be in residence with them. In the event that one or more roommates or suitemates do not approve, either the student and pet or the non-approving roommates or suitemates, as determined by the Student Disability Services and Housing, may be moved to a more suitable location.

10. Student agrees to continue to abide by all other residential policies. An exception to a policy that otherwise prohibits having an animal does not constitute an exception to any other policy.

11. Any violation of the above rules will be reviewed through the University's Code of Conduct and the resident will be afforded all rights of due process and appeal as outlined in that process.

Resident students will be required to sign an acknowledgement of these guidelines with Student Disability Services.

Section 504 Grievance Procedure

It is the policy of Grand Canyon University not to discriminate on the basis of disability. Grand Canyon University has adopted an internal grievance procedure providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging any action prohibited by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794) of the U.S. Department of Education regulations implementing the Act. Section 504 prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. The Law and Regulations may be examined in the office of Dr. Jennifer Lech, Section 504 Coordinator, 602-639-9200, who has been designated to coordinate the efforts of Grand Canyon University to comply with Section 504.

Any participants, beneficiaries, applicants, or employees, including students, staff, faculty, and visitors who believes they have been subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability (or is unsatisfied with accommodations provided by Student Disability Services) may file a grievance under this procedure. It is against the law for Grand Canyon University to retaliate against anyone who files a grievance or cooperates in the investigation of a grievance. The Section 504 Coordinator should be notified immediately if anyone associated with the grievance procedure is subjected to retaliation as a result of that person's participation in the grievance process.

The University has both informal and formal mechanisms in place to resolve concerns about disability discrimination, denial of access to services, accommodations required by law, or an auxiliary aid they believe they should have received ("disability-related issues"), such as:

- Disagreements regarding a requested service, accommodation, modification of a University practice or requirement, or denial of a request
- Inaccessibility of a program or activity
- Violation of privacy in the context of a disability

Informal Process

GCU encourages students and campus visitors with concerns about a disability-related issue to first discuss the matter with the Student Disability Services (SDS) Office, who will attempt to facilitate a resolution. The SDS Office can be reached at disabilityoffice@gcu.edu or 602-639-6342. Employees and applicants for employment, on the other hand, are encouraged to first contact the HR Service Center regarding disability-related issues at hr@gcu.edu or 602-639-6549.

If the SDS Office or HR is not successful in achieving a satisfactory resolution, within ten working days from the date the disability-related issue is raised, or the complaint is made against HR or the SDS Office, a formal grievance may be filed as described below.

The purpose of the informal process is to make a good faith effort to resolve the issue quickly and efficiently; however, the individual may ask to implement the formal process at any time during the informal resolution or instead of the informal resolution.

Formal Grievance

A formal grievance must be filed with the SDS Executive Decision Board (SDSEDC@gcu.edu) within 21 working days of the date of the informal decision, if applicable, or within 30 calendar days of the occurrence of the disability-related issue. The grievance must be in writing and include the following:

- The grievant’s name, address, email address and phone number
- A full description of the situation
- A description of the efforts which have been made to resolve the issue informally, if any
- A statement of the requested remedy, e.g. requested accommodation

If the grievance involves confidential medical information, the Board will maintain the confidentiality of that information and will not release that information without the student’s permission, except as allowed by law.

The Board will review the grievance for timeliness and appropriateness under this grievance procedure and notify the grievant if the grievance has been accepted. If the complaint is against an identified individual, such as a student, faculty, or staff member, the board will also provide notice of their receipt of the complaint to the named individual.

The Board will select an investigator who will promptly initiate an investigation. The investigator will be an individual who is trained on disability or civil rights issues. In undertaking the investigation, the investigator may interview, consult with and/or request a written response to the issues raised in the grievance from any individual the investigator believes to have relevant information, including but not limited to faculty, staff, students, and visitors to Grand Canyon University. All parties will have an opportunity to provide the investigator with information or evidence that the party believes is relevant to his or her grievance. All parties involved will receive a fair and equitable process and be treated with care and respect. The investigator will respect the privacy of all parties.

Generally, the investigation will be completed within thirty calendar days of the filing of the written complaint. At the request of the grievant, the Board will determine whether the formal grievance process can and should be expedited. In certain situations, circumstances may require the investigation to extend beyond 30 days, and the grievant will be notified in writing if such a situation arises.

Findings and Notification

Within five working days of the completion of the investigation, the investigator will make a recommendation to the Board regarding appropriate actions to be taken. The investigator will summarize the evidence that supports the recommendation, and the grievant will be advised in writing of the outcome of the investigation.

The Board will make a determination regarding the complaint and, if appropriate, take prompt action to remedy the concerns raised by the grievant. If the grievance is against an identified individual, the board will also provide notice of their determination to the named individual.

Appeal

Within 30 calendar days of receiving the determination from the Board, the grievant or the party against whom the grievance is directed, if any, may appeal the determination. To appeal, the party must file a written request for review with the Section 504 Coordinator. The written request for appeal must be based on the grounds of improper procedure, or new evidence that was unavailable at the time of the investigation.

The Section 504 Coordinator will provide a copy of his/her written decision to all parties within 30 calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The appeal decision of the Section 504 Coordinator will be the final determination of the University.

The individual also may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, at any time before, during or after the University’s 504 grievance process.

Grand Canyon University does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, national origin, gender, disability, or any other classification protected by law in its programs and activities.

Student Driver Waiver

Students are required to acknowledge the statement below within the Student Driver Waiver document in their Student Portal.

Students may participate in both mandatory and voluntary off-site events (including classes, internships, externships, clinicals, training, student teaching, volunteer work, school events, etc). Students driving in a personal motor vehicle will be personally responsible for their travel to and from off-site events. Students waive, release, and discharge any and all claims against GCU for damages for death, personal injury, or property damage to students or others that may arise as a result of operating a motor vehicle while traveling to and from any off-site events.

University Technology Requirements

Students and faculty participating in Online and Traditional Web-Enhanced courses must have access to the following minimum hardware and software. Some programs of study at Grand Canyon University require additional technology requirements, which can be found under the Programmatic Technology Requirements section.

*We are working on optimizing our online learning system for mobile devices. Until this optimization is complete, some functions may not be fully available and system navigation may appear different on your mobile device than on your computer. Some error messages may intermittently appear about your mobile browser not being supported.

Please note that most mobile devices, including tablets, smart phones and PDA devices, as well as many eBook reader devices, do not support eBook (PDF) files with embedded digital right management (DRM) restrictions that require connecting to a live server for authentication.

Computers and Software

The Department of Information Technology Services provides computing services at GCU. Students have free access to computers on the GCU campus. The GCU Library is outfitted with new Dell desktop computers offering Internet access. Each student has an individual login that includes secured space on a server for the storage of personal files. This means the student does not have to rely on saving work on a disc. In addition to the library computers, wireless access is available for students with laptops.

GCU Accessibility Standards

Grand Canyon University is committed to providing accessible website content and functionality. “Accessible” means that regardless of any visual impairment, an individual is able to independently access and utilize GCU’s websites to obtain information and services offered by the University. It is GCU’s goal that all students, faculty and staff are able to use the same web services with equivalent ease of use.

In order to achieve this goal, GCU has adopted the following standards for new web development:

1. GCU websites will be designed and developed to be compatible with screen reader software.
2. All website functionality will be accessible through keyboard commands.
3. Site navigation will be arranged so that a user can progress logically from start to finish through the site content.
4. Web sites will be designed to permit screen readers to skip repetitive navigation menus.
5. Frames will be titled with text to allow navigation and identification.
6. Data tables will include identified row and column headers.
7. Multimedia elements will have text alternatives provided.

8. Descriptive text elements will be included for all non-text elements of the page that relate to the page content and functions.
9. Alt tags will be included for pages that contain images.
10. All videos will be closed-captioned and a descriptive text transcript will be made available for blind users.
11. All audio content will include transcripts.
12. All form controls must be labeled.
13. Elements that expand / collapse must be labeled to announce change to the screen reader.
14. If a timed response is required, the user must be alerted and given a method to request more time.
15. All elements must be visible in high contrast mode (Windows).
16. Any information conveyed by color will also be available without the use of color.
17. All pages will be understandable without their associated style sheet.
18. All elements will be designed to avoid causing a screen flicker in the frequency range of 2Hz to 55Hz, inclusive. If a video is unable to meet these standards due to content, a warning label will be included.
19. GCU will use tools provided by W3C to scan new websites and attempt to resolve accessibility suggestions before the website is made available.

In addition to the above standards, GCU offers Technical Support for individuals to work in a one-on-one basis to assist with navigation of a GCU website. Individuals requiring assistance can contact Technical Support or Student Disability Services for assistance.

Programmatic Technology Requirements

Students and faculty participating in the programs below must have access to the following minimum computer hardware and software.

College of Nursing and Health Care Professions

All Bachelor of Science in Nursing (Pre-Licensure) and graduate level students enrolled in a ground cohort are required to have a portable device (PC or MAC laptop computer) with internet access that meets the University Technology Requirements.

College of Science, Engineering, and Technology

Engineering and Engineering Technology Majors

All majors in engineering and engineering technology must have access to a Microsoft Windows PC (laptop only) satisfying the hardware and system requirements as specified at the SOLIDWORKS website - <http://www.solidworks.com/sw/support/SystemRequirements.html>. In selecting a laptop, please note that the programs will be using the most recent version of SOLIDWORKS. For example, please select a laptop that satisfies the hardware and system requirements for SOLIDWORKS 2016 (EDU 2016-2017) for Fall semester 2016. In addition, a 16 GB (minimum) flash drive is required.

All Graduate Programs

All Undergraduate Christian Studies Programs

All graduate and undergraduate Christian Studies students in the College of Theology are required to have a PC or Mac computer, a viable internet connection, and the appropriate hardware and software for required use of YouSeeU at various points within each program of study. When selecting a computer, students may choose from a variety of makes, models, and accessories provided that the computer meets the following technical specifications:

	All Students
YouSeeU	http://www.youseeu.com/system-requirements/

	All Students
Software	Computers must have a current version of Adobe Flash. Students should visit http://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/ to check their Flash version and update if needed. If a student is using a Mac, check Flash settings to ensure Flash is allowed to work. All new Mac computers are defaulted to restrict Flash so one must change the settings before YouSeeU will work. Follow the steps on the Flash Tutorial for Mac article for help with Mac settings. If video editing is necessary to reduce the size or trim the starting or ending point, students may elect to use a standard program like Microsoft Movie Maker or iMovie. These programs should be on most computers or can be added easily.
Other Hardware	Students must have a webcam and microphone available with their computers. Most computers have 'built in' webcams and mics, and if not they can be purchased at minimal cost and added to a computer. Review current computer documentation to find the system settings for mic level and control of the webcam. Students may also use an external video camera or smart phone to record video for some assignment types. If using an external video camera, students need to be familiar with its record function and process for moving the video files from the camera to the computer for upload. Recording in medium to low quality settings is preferred. High definition video is not required and will only increase the size of the file and require further editing.

Intellectual Property Rights

The Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) amends federal copyright law to provide certain liability protections for online service providers, when their computer systems or networks carry materials that violate (infringe) copyright law. To qualify for liability protection, the University is required to have a policy under which the computer accounts of users will be terminated if they repeatedly infringe the copyrighted works of others.

The objectives of this policy are to minimize liability while also providing support for the activities of students, faculty, and staff. In the context of copyright and other intellectual property, this means that the Chief Information Officer should be advised as soon as possible of any suspected infringement. The Chief Information Officer will work with the University content provider to establish any defenses. However, if there is inadequate information to provide a defense, or it appears that no defense exists, the best route to minimize University damages will be prompt removal of the allegedly infringing material.

Policy Statement

Compliance with federal copyright law is expected of all students, faculty, and staff at Grand Canyon University. "Copyright" is legal protection for creative intellectual works, which is broadly interpreted to cover just about any expression of an idea. Text (including e-mail and Web information), graphics, art, photographs, music, and software are examples of types of works protected by copyright. The creator of the work, or sometimes the person who hired the creator, is the initial copyright owner.

Students may "use" all or part of a copyrighted work only if (a) they have the copyright owner's permission (in writing—either e-mail or letter), or (b) they qualify for a legal defense (the most common defense is called "fair use"). "Use" of a work is defined for copyright purposes as copying, distributing, making derivative works, publicly displaying, or publicly performing the work.

Copying, distributing, downloading, and uploading information on the Internet may infringe the copyright for that information. Even an innocent, unintentional infringement violates the law. Violations of copyright law that occur on or over the University's networks or other computer resources may create liability for the University as well as the computer user. Accordingly, repeat infringers are subject to the appropriate disciplinary review procedures as set forth in the disciplinary policies for students, faculty or staff. Violations of law may also be referred for criminal or civil prosecution.

The University has a legal duty to ensure that official Web sites, official e-mail, and other official communications and expressions do not violate the intellectual property rights of third parties. The most common intellectual property rights found on the Internet involve copyright and trademark/service marks.

"Official" Web sites and communications include those that are funded or otherwise sponsored by the University for a University purpose, or which are created by an employee or agent of the University who is acting within the authorized scope of employment or agency on behalf of the University (e.g., posting Canyon Connect on the web for educational use of enrolled students).

Removal of official University content, especially Canyon Connect, can be harmful to academic freedom, to teaching effectiveness, and to the University's educational mission. Therefore, faculty and staff are encouraged to secure copyright permission, a license, or a legal basis for use of someone else's intellectual property, before using the material.

Procedures

A Notice and Counter Notice for material that may infringe on Intellectual Property Rights:

Notice: A copyright owner, or person acting for the owner, must provide the University's designated agent, the Chief General Council, with written notice that information residing on the University's computer systems or networks is an infringement of the copyright. The notice requirement also applies to information in system cache and to information location tools (e.g., hypertext links) that infringe copyright.

If a person working for the University has independent knowledge of a copyright violation on a University computer system or network, the University may have a duty to remove the infringing material. This is true even if there is no "notice" from the copyright owner and this person should report the violation to the General Council as soon as possible.

The University has "notice" of possible infringement when a third party advises a University official that there is an infringement, or when it appears to a University official that material is likely to be infringing based on the circumstances (e.g., copies of nationally syndicated cartoons appear on a University Web site without any statement of copyright permission).

When the University has notice of a possible intellectual property infringement in official University-provided content, it will in good faith:

- Attempt to establish who truly owns the copyright (or other intellectual property) through consultation with the author of the University content and the party claiming ownership.
- Attempt to determine if any legal defense (e.g., "fair use") exists to allow the material to be used by the University.
- Attempt to negotiate a permission or settlement if it appears that the content is infringing or if it appears that settlement is preferable to litigating an unclear claim. If permission or settlement is not feasible and it appears that the material is infringing, the University will promptly remove the material and the designated agent will notify the computer user and the person who complained of infringement.
- When copyright ownership is clear and sharing of the copyrighted material on the University's network appears to violate the law, the University will take appropriate, interim actions to discontinue sharing of the copyrighted materials on the University's network.
- Determine if any disciplinary action is appropriate against the person who posted infringing content. In the case of repeated infringement or bad faith infringement, disciplinary action may include suspension or termination of computing privileges, disciplinary review, termination of employment, and/or legal action.

Network Use

To assure reliable operation of the Grand Canyon University computer network in a manner compliant with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, the Information Technology Services department enforces each of the policies listed below. All network users must agree to abide by these policies. Use of the network or any portion thereof for any purpose implies such consent.

Network Goals and Priorities

The Grand Canyon University Information Technology Services department operates and maintains the computer network for the purpose of facilitating the timely transfer of digital information relevant to and essential for the research and educational activities of Grand Canyon University. In particular, the network is intended to enable information transfer among students, faculty, staff and administrators as necessary to observe the following goals:

- To facilitate student and faculty research;
- To enable access to published literature relevant to teaching and research efforts at Grand Canyon University;
- To allow the receipt and transmission of electronic mail both within the campus and between the campus and off-campus institutions and individuals; and
- To provide access to Internet-based information resources of value to teaching and research efforts at Grand Canyon University.

For all students, faculty, and administrators of Grand Canyon University Information Technology Services, all networking activities not directly related to one of the above goals are considered to be of secondary importance and should not impede or interfere with activities which serve the stated goals of the network.

Media Licensing and Compliance with Copyright Protection Legislation

It is strictly forbidden for any student of Grand Canyon University to engage in any illegal activity while on Grand Canyon University property or during performance of coursework or any other duties related to their involvement with the University. Because unauthorized copying of software is a form of theft and theft is illegal, the illegal copying or “pirating” of software, music, videos, or other media is forbidden by Grand Canyon University policy.

Software Purchase and Installation

To fully comply with Grand Canyon University policy governing software copyright protection, each registered network user must agree that (s)he will not install or use any software that is not legally purchased and registered.

Copyrighted Materials and Usage of Peer-to-Peer and Other File Sharing Systems

Grand Canyon University strictly forbids the sharing and distribution of copyrighted digital materials, including music, movies, photos, etc. Peer-to-Peer File-sharing software including, but not limited to LimeWire, BitTorrent, and Kazaa shall not be activated on any computer that is attached to any GCU network without express written permission from the Information Security. The University shall monitor its networks for indications of such file sharing systems and refer all violations for disciplinary action.

Discipline and Consequences of Policy Violation

If there is discovery of illegally installed software or inappropriate possession, use, or sharing of copyrighted materials, the user may be subject to disciplinary action which may include but is not limited to the loss of network access privileges, suspension, dismissal, and/or criminal prosecution. The individual involved shall be held responsible to fully reimburse the Grand Canyon University for all losses resulting from such discovery.

Installation and Detachment of Network Devices

No device may be connected to the network without authorization of the network manager for the Information Technology Services department. This includes hardware or software, routers, printers, modems, servers, wireless access points and new computers. Violation of this policy that results in network crashes, or other downtime, may result in loss of network privileges.

Computer Virus Protection

All computers connected to the Grand Canyon University Network will be required to have anti-virus software installed and providing active protection. The software must be configured to check for updates on a daily basis. Upon request, the Information Technology Services department will provide students legal sources for free and/or low cost anti-virus software that meets these requirements.

User-Caused Network Service Interruptions

Any user who repeatedly causes service interruptions in any network segment, either through knowingly or unknowingly performing disruptive procedures, introducing viruses, or by attempting procedures for which the user is unqualified, can lose the privilege of access to the network. It is incumbent upon the individual user to use reasonable care to make sure that his/her computer is free of computer viruses that may infect other network computers before each attachment to the network. In cases of malicious vandalism of the network and/or tampering with other user files, the perpetrator may be financially liable for all damages, subject to disciplinary action, and can be subject to criminal prosecution.

Hacking

It is expressly forbidden to make any attempt to defeat any security system in operation on the network. It is also forbidden to reconfigure any common use machine without the express authorization of the network manager responsible for supporting that machine. No computer attached to the network may be used for any illegal activities, including attempts to penetrate the security of other networks. Any user who knowingly or negligently attempts to defeat security may be subject to disciplinary action including but not limited to loss of network access.

Desktop Support

Desktop support is defined as the support required to keep a desktop personal computer up and running. This includes the installation, set-up and trouble-shooting of desktop hardware including hard drives, computer cards, monitors, modems, printers, memory upgrades, etc.

University Information Technology Services does not provide desktop support to students.

Software Support

Students will not receive software support from the Grand Canyon University Information Technology Services department.

Network Access and Support

The Grand Canyon University Information Technology Services department will provide support for student computers to connect to the University network and access the Internet.

The Grand Canyon University Information Technology Services department assumes no responsibility for the loss of any data that resides on student owned computers.

Student computers must have a network interface card (NIC) or wireless network adapter in order to connect to the GCU network.

Students are required to be present when a representative from the Information Technology Services department is working on a student owned computer.

Warranties

It is a recommendation that students maintain manufacturer warranties for the computer and any software installed.

Intellectual Property Policy and Student Works

As a creative community of teachers, artists, scientists, and scholars, Grand Canyon University (“Grand Canyon University” or “GCU” or “Institution”) is committed to encouraging the creation of new works, new ideas, and new forms of creative and scholarly expression. This Intellectual Property Policy (“Policy”) is provided to protect the interests of those who create as well as the interests of Grand Canyon University itself, which supports this creative and scholarly work.

The objective of Grand Canyon University’s Intellectual Property Policy is to promote creative enterprise and to commercialize innovations that contribute to social prosperity. GCU recognizes that fostering a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship – building collaborations with industry – will provide greater opportunities for our students and faculty. These policies are designed to make GCU a preferred partner for collaborative research and development. They also recognize that clear ownership and protection of Intellectual Property is imperative for its optimal utilization. GCU will endeavor to lower the barrier to agreements with industry through commercialization-friendly Intellectual Property terms.

Aligning with GCU’s overall mission to provide an academically challenging, values-based curriculum for its students as future leaders, GCU’s policy on Sponsored Work is aimed at encouraging collaboration with industry experts to afford the greatest educational opportunities for our students while mutually benefitting the Sponsor. GCU’s top priority is our students and their success and not deriving a revenue stream from Intellectual Property generated at the University or as a result of Sponsored Work. In short, GCU’s principle is to create mutually beneficial collaborations for the development of an improved workforce. Accordingly, GCU’s policy on ownership of Intellectual Property developed as a result of Sponsored Research is not only progressive but also distinct from that of other universities.

This Policy expresses Grand Canyon University’s policy regarding ownership and usage rights with respect to Intellectual Property (as hereinafter defined). It covers all those who are a part of Grand Canyon University – faculty, staff, students, visiting artists, visiting scholars, industry partners or other participants enrolled, employed, or affiliated with Grand Canyon University. This Policy governs the ownership and usage of and rights in Intellectual Property in all circumstances, unless Grand Canyon University has modified it through a separate written agreement. Should there be any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and the terms of a separate written agreement between Grand Canyon University and any party, the terms of that separate written agreement will govern. This Policy is not intended to limit “fair use” as defined by U.S. laws.

Definitions (if applicable)

The following terms are used throughout the Policy and are defined as follows:

- a. Copyright - Copyright means the intangible property rights granted for a limited period of time for an original work of authorship fixed in any tangible form of expression or medium. Copyright provides the owner with a bundle of exclusive rights, including the exclusive right to reproduce the work, to prepare derivative works based on the work, to distribute copies of the work to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership (or by rental, lease, license or lending), to display the work publicly, and to perform the work publicly (if relevant).
- b. Commissioned Work - Commissioned Work means any Work (as defined in paragraph II.L.) that is produced or created pursuant to a written agreement with the Institution and for Institution purposes by (a) individuals not under the employ of the Institution or (b) Institutional Employees (as defined in paragraph II.D.) acting outside the scope of their regular Institution employment, as determined by their existing Institution employment arrangement or contract, in Institutional Employees’ free time and without the use of Institutional Resources (as defined in paragraph II. E.).
- c. Independent Academic Effort or Creative Activity - Independent Academic Effort or Creative Activity means the inquiry, investigation, research, or creative activity that is carried out by faculty, staff, Institutional Employees, and Students (as defined in paragraph II.J.) working without any use of Institutional Resources (as defined in paragraph II.E.), that advances knowledge or the development of the arts, sciences, humanities, or technology where the specific direction, methodology, and content of the pursuit is determined by the faculty, staff, Institutional Employees, or Students without the direct assignment, supervision, or involvement of the Institution or any person acting in their capacity as an Institutional Employee.

- d. Institutional Employee - Institutional Employee means any full-time or part-time faculty member, visiting faculty, adjunct faculty, artist, scholar, fellow, full-time or part-time staff member, or Student who is employed by the Institution or who is working under an Institution contract, either express or implied.
- e. Institutional Resources – Institutional Resources means any use of Institution equipment, facilities, property, working time, personnel, materials, funding, or other financial support including, without limitation, resources commonly provided to Institutional Employees, such as offices, library facilities, artistic facilities, laboratory facilities, and everyday telephone, computer, computer network support, and monetary expenditures.
- f. Intellectual Property – Intellectual Property means any intellectual and industrial property and other similar proprietary rights arising anywhere in the world, including all of the following and similar intangible property and related proprietary rights, interests and protections, however arising, pursuant to the laws of any jurisdiction: (i) trademarks, service marks, trade names, brand names, logos, trade dress, and other proprietary indicia of goods and services, whether registered or unregistered, and all registrations and applications for registration of such trademarks, including intent-to-use applications, all issuances, extensions and renewals of such registrations and applications, and the goodwill connected with the use of, and symbolized by, any of the foregoing; (ii) internet domain names, whether or not trademarks, registered in any top-level domain by any authorized private registrar or Governmental Authority, and any brand names, user names or other identifiers for social media or networking websites; (iii) original works of authorship fixed in any tangible form of expression or medium, whether or not published, including all educational training materials, books, musical and other recordings, compositions, lyrics, software, audio/video content, illustrations and photographs, advertising and promotional content, website content, and all other copyrights (whether registered or unregistered), all registrations and applications for registration of such copyrights, and all issuances, extensions, and renewals of such registrations and applications for any of the foregoing; (iv) any rights of publicity including rights in a name, image, and/or likeness; (v) confidential information, designs, devices, technology, know-how, source code, research and development, inventions, methods, processes, compositions, and other trade secrets, whether or not copyrightable or patentable; (vi) patented and patentable designs and inventions, all design, plant, and utility patents, letters patent, utility models, pending patent applications and provisional applications, and all issuances, divisions, continuations, continuations-in-part, reissues, extensions, reexaminations, and renewals of such patents and applications; and (vii) all rights to sue, recover, and retain damages, costs, and attorneys’ fees for past, present, and future infringement and any other rights relating to any of the foregoing.

- g. Patent - Patent means the grant which gives the owner of the Patent a right to exclude others from making, using, or selling the claimed invention for a set period of time.
- h. Sponsored Work - Sponsored Work means any Work (as defined in paragraph II.L.) that is produced or created under an agreement between the Institution and a sponsor which provides the sponsor (or in certain instances, the Institution) with ownership and/or usage rights, whether wholly or jointly, to the Work and Intellectual Property produced under the agreement. Sponsored Works do not include Works created through Independent Academic Effort or Creative Activity, even when based on the findings of the sponsored project, so long as an agreement does not state otherwise.
- i. Sponsor – Sponsor means those industry partners that have entered into an agreement with the Institution to collaborate, oversee, and/or develop a Sponsored Work.
- j. Student - Student means any regularly registered, full- or part-time, undergraduate or graduate student at the Institution, including students attending the Institution in exchange programs or through special grants, fellowships, or programs.
- k. Trademark and Service Mark - Trademark and Service Mark means any word, phrase, name, symbol, logo, slogan, device, or any combination thereof that is used in trade to identify and distinguish one party's goods or services from those of others.
- l. Work - Work means any of the items identified in Sections (i), (iii), (v) and (vi) of the definition of Intellectual Property in paragraph II.F.
- m. Work Made for Hire - Work Made for Hire means any Work prepared by an Institutional Employee within the scope of his or her employment or any Work specially ordered or commissioned by Grand Canyon University for use as a contribution to a collective work, as a part of a motion picture or other audiovisual work, as a translation, as a supplementary work, as a compilation, as an instructional text, as a test, as answer material for a test, or as an atlas, if the parties expressly agree in a written instrument signed by them that the Work shall be considered a work made for hire.

Student Works

As a general rule, all Intellectual Property created or developed by a Student whether through Independent Academic Effort or Creative Activity or by use of Institutional Resources, will be owned by the Student (“Student Intellectual Property”).

1. This general rule is subject to the following exceptions, and the following shall not constitute Student Intellectual Property:
 - a. Intellectual Property developed as a Sponsored Work.
 - b. Intellectual Property developed under a grant which imposes rules or restrictions requiring that Grand Canyon University, the government, and/or a third party hold ownership rights, in whole or in part, to the Intellectual Property.
 - c. Intellectual Property developed by Students who are hired by GCU to carry out specific tasks from which such Intellectual Property results; such Intellectual Property constitutes Work Made for Hire, and therefore, Students retain no rights of ownership in whole or in part to such Intellectual Property or to the Student's contribution to such Work Made for Hire.
2. All Students grant to GCU a royalty-free, worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable, sublicensable and transferable license to use, record, reproduce, distribute, modify, create derivative works of, publish, display, broadcast, perform, and otherwise duplicate Student Intellectual Property (excluding any such Student Intellectual Property created or developed by a Student through Independent Academic Effort or Creative Act) for use by GCU in connection with educational, research, clinical, promotional, commercial, noncommercial, public relations, and marketing campaigns, and any other use that GCU deems necessary. Students will receive no compensation at any time for use by GCU of the Intellectual Property.

3. All Students agree to participate in any promotional, commercial, public relations or other marketing campaigns of any nature related to Student's Intellectual Property when requested by GCU.

Sponsored Works

As a general rule, Intellectual Property developed as a Sponsored Work shall be owned by the Sponsor; provided, however that the Sponsor will be responsible for the patent process, and GCU shall be afforded reasonable windfall and license rights as set forth herein.

1. Patent Filing. The Sponsor shall be responsible for filing patent applications for such Intellectual Property at Sponsor's expense. Patent expenses include the cost of patent filing, prosecution, and maintenance in the United States and any foreign country in which the patent application is filed, or any patent is issued. If Sponsor decides to abandon the patent application or any issued patent, it shall inform GCU at least thirty (30) days prior to any office action deadline such that GCU might complete the patent process or maintain the patent at its own expense, if it so desires. If GCU elects to complete the patent process or maintain the patent, GCU shall receive, and Sponsor shall take all steps necessary to transfer to GCU, full ownership of such patent application, issued patent and any resulting Intellectual Property.
2. Windfall Rights. Any separate written agreement between the Institution and a Sponsor for the development or commercialization of a Sponsored Work shall include a reasonable windfall provision whereby, in the event of commercialization of the Intellectual Property by a Sponsor, GCU may receive a royalty. The terms of such a provision, such as the windfall threshold, royalty amount, and payment terms, will be determined on a case-by-case basis. All royalties received by GCU will be divided equally between GCU and GCU's Scholarship Foundation. GCU reserves the right to revoke or otherwise withdraw such allocated royalties from GCU's Scholarship Foundation at any time at its discretion.
3. License Rights. Any separate written agreement between the Institution and a Sponsor for the development or commercialization of a Sponsored Work shall include a license or licenses granting to GCU the royalty-free, worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable, and transferrable rights to: (i) publish such Intellectual Property, its role in the development of such Intellectual Property, and the relationship between GCU and the Sponsor for educational, promotional, commercial, noncommercial, public relations, and marketing campaigns; (ii) use such Intellectual Property for research, clinical and education purposes; and (iii) use such Intellectual Property in subsequent sponsored research projects at GCU.
4. For Sponsored Work of Students only, any separate written agreement between GCU and a Sponsor shall include a provision whereby Sponsor agrees to make a reasonable effort in conjunction with GCU to employ Student(s) upon graduation at Sponsor's institution whenever feasible.

5. Grant-Funded Work. As an exception to this general rule, Intellectual Property developed as a Sponsored Work under a grant is subject to the rules or restrictions imposed by the granting organization which may require Grand Canyon University, the government and/or a third party to hold ownership rights, in whole or in part, to the Intellectual Property.

Grants

Intellectual Property developed under a grant may impose rules or restrictions requiring that Grand Canyon University, the government and/or a third party hold ownership rights, in whole or in part, to the Intellectual Property. Sponsor and/or Student will retain ownership rights in the Intellectual Property to the extent permitted under the applicable grant rules and the terms of this Policy. The distribution of grant funding shall be subject to grant requirements and will be disbursed accordingly.

Revenue Sharing

As a general rule, absent a written agreement, GCU does not share revenue derived from GCU owned Intellectual Property with the creator of such Intellectual Property. GCU is, however, committed to recognizing the special efforts of GCU students and/or employees participating in certain research and design activities and in those circumstances, GCU will share revenue with the creator(s) (and all other contributing individual(s), if applicable) per the terms of a separate, written agreement.

Additional Policy Provisions

1. The rights of Grand Canyon University to a royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, sublicensable, transferable, worldwide license (exclusive or non-exclusive, as Grand Canyon University deems necessary), to use and reproduce copyrighted materials for educational, research, clinical, non-commercial and promotional purposes shall be included in any agreement with a non-Institution sponsor.
2. If any Intellectual Property is developed jointly by Grand Canyon University and a non-Institution party, the parties' respective ownership and usage rights in the resulting Intellectual Property shall be set forth in a separate written agreement.
3. Students working on a project governed by an existing written agreement to which Grand Canyon University is a party are bound by all terms of that agreement.

Institution's Marks

Intellectual Property comprised of, or associated with, Grand Canyon University's Trademarks and Service Marks, including but not limited to its name, logos, slogans, insignia, and other symbols of identity (collectively the "GCU Marks") belongs exclusively to Grand Canyon University and/or its affiliates. This Policy is designed to protect the reputation of Grand Canyon University and its affiliates, and to prevent the illegal or unapproved use of the GCU Marks.

The GCU Marks shall not be used without the prior, written authorization of the appropriate authorities of Grand Canyon University. No products or services may be marked, offered, sold, promoted, or distributed with or under the GCU Marks without Grand Canyon University's prior written permission and compliance with the licensing policies of Grand Canyon University. All requests for use of the GCU Marks must be submitted in writing to an officer designated by the Institution.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, faculty, staff, Institutional Employees, and Students may identify their status or professional affiliation with Grand Canyon University as appropriate. However, any use of the GCU Marks in this regard must avoid any confusing, misleading, or false impression of affiliation with, or sponsorship or endorsement by, Grand Canyon University.

Reservation of Rights

Grand Canyon University reserves the right at any time in its sole discretion to modify and/or make changes to this Policy. Grand Canyon University agrees, however, that it will endeavor to notify the Grand Canyon University community of its intention to make modifications and/or changes to the Policy prior to their enactment.

Effective Date

This Policy supersedes any preexisting Institution policy on intellectual property and will remain in effect until modified or revoked by Grand Canyon University. This Policy will be binding on all parties who create Intellectual Property before or after the effective date, and this Policy and other agreements that represent modifications to this Policy shall remain binding on such creators even after their relationship with Grand Canyon University changes or terminates. By continuing one's relationship with Grand Canyon University, one agrees to these changes.

To review GCU's Intellectual Property Policy in its entirety, students may contact their Student Services Advisor.

Financial Services

The financial information presented in this Handbook was current when published. Many of the policies, interest rates, limitations, etc., are set by organizations (private or governmental), which may change after this Handbook is published. We strongly urge students to confirm all such information with the student's Student Services Counselor before making financial decisions or commitments.

Payment Policy

Method of Payment

The University offers students the option of one or more of the following methods of payment:

- Cash Payment Options
- Direct Bill
- Financial Aid

Students choose primary and secondary methods of payment upon completing the application for admission. Students are expected to clear their account balances using the specified methods of payment, unless other arrangements are approved. Upon clearing their account, students may contact their Student Services Counselor to arrange different methods of payment for future courses.

Cash Payment Options

Cash

For the protection of Grand Canyon University students and employees, cash payments are only accepted in the Advisement Center with a Student Services Counselor. Students should not send cash through the mail.

Check

The University accepts personal checks, traveler's checks, bank money orders, and cashier's checks. When paying by check, students must include their full name and GCU Student ID on the face of the check. Remit payments to the Accounting Department at P.O. Box 11590, Phoenix, AZ 85061-1590. A service fee of $25.00 is charged for each check returned by a bank for any reason. The University may refuse future payments by check for individuals whose payment is returned by a bank.

Charge

The University accepts Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express. All credit card payments are subject to authorization by the issuing bank. If authorization is denied, payments cannot be processed. Credit card payments can be made online via the Student Portal at <http://my.gcu.edu>. The Portal displays student balances by payment period. Enter payment information and submit. An e-mail will be sent to the GCU e-mail address with confirmation of payment received.

Monthly Installment Plan

The Tuition Payment Plan enables students to spread tuition payments across an agreed upon timeframe. Participation requires a non-refundable $25.00 enrollment fee and advanced approval by their Student Services Counselor. Students who fail to meet the requirements of the payment plan may be prohibited from participating in future payment plans. For additional information, students may contact their Student Services Counselor.

Direct Bill Payment Options

Corporate

Students may have employers that pay school tuition directly to GCU which is different from Deferred Payment. In this situation, the Employer will create an account with GCU, and the GCU Accounting Office will send a billing statement directly to the Employer. This payment relationship bypasses the students; however, students must have their employer complete a Direct Bill Voucher, and submit with their application. Students should contact their assigned Student Services Counselor with questions. In addition, students must pay any balance that Employers do not cover or on which Employers default by selecting an alternative payment option before the end of each payment period.

Military

In order to support those who are currently serving and their spouses or those who have served in the military and are able to utilize military education benefits, Grand Canyon University offers a special military rate per credit hour. Consideration is given to students who can provide the following supporting documentation which must be presented in advance of the term to receive the scholarship:

- Military Transcripts;
- Copy of DD-214 (Release or Discharge from Active Duty);
- Letter from Commanding Officer;
- VA Letter Certifying Military Service;
- Benefit Documentation (TA form, COE, VA form 1905);
- Copy of Military Orders;
- Leave and Earnings Statement (LES); and
- Copy of Military Personal Record.

There are numerous military benefits from the government based upon military status at the time of departure from the service as well as for active duty personnel. Students may utilize several Veterans' Administration educational benefits at GCU such as ROTC, the Montgomery GI Bill, Tuition Assistance (Top-Up), and Vocational Rehabilitation. For additional information, please call 888-442-4551 or visit www.gibill.va.gov.

International Student Payment

Students attending GCU as F-1 visa holders are required to make payment of school tuition, fees and housing in full 30 days prior to the start date of each semester. Delays in satisfying payment may prevent students from attending classes and jeopardize their F-1 status. If international students anticipate payment issues for the following semester, they must consult with the International Students Office immediately.

As noted under the admission policy, Grand Canyon University reserves the right to require a $6,000 refundable deposit from applicants before an I-20 will be issued. A refund will be granted only if the visa is denied and evidence of denial is provided to the International Students Office.

Financial Payment Options

Students may use financial aid to fund their education. Refer to the Financial Aid section for information on applying for aid and the types of aid available.

Payment Deadlines

Tuition and fees are assessed to students as follows: Online (Nontraditional) students are assessed at the time of attendance and Ground (Traditional Campus) students are assessed on the start date of the term. All cash payment options must be paid in full by the start date of the course or term, unless other payment arrangements have been agreed to. Students are able to view their outstanding balance and account activity as well as initiate a credit card payment by logging on to their student portal. Any financial related questions should be directed to the student's assigned Student Services Counselor.

All direct-bill payment options must be paid in full within 30 days of invoicing unless other terms are agreed to with the vendor. Balance notices will be generated and sent to the responsible third party on Day 10 of the course after all rosters have been confirmed.

Accounts that remain delinquent past 30 days are subject to collection efforts that may include credit reporting and placement of the account with a third party collection agency. Accounts that are placed with a third party collection agency will be assessed the associated collection fees. It is the sole responsibility of the students to adhere to payment deadlines of their tuition and fees, regardless of the method of payment or contract with their employer.

Late Payment Fee

Traditional Campus Students

Traditional campus students are required to establish payment arrangements prior to the first day of the semester and to fulfill those payment arrangements, as scheduled, on a monthly basis. Students who do not fulfill the established terms of payment, by failing to submit required financial documents or making full payment as scheduled, will be assessed a monthly fee of $25.00 until the account is current.

Additionally, students who do not pay their balance in full prior to the term's completion may be removed from future university classes, residential housing, and/or have their Meal Plan access restricted, depending on the reason for the balance.

Schedule Change Fee

Traditional Campus Students

Traditional campus students are permitted to change their schedule up to 14 calendar days prior to the semester's start date without financial penalty. Students who make schedule changes after this date are subject to a $25.00 Schedule Change Fee for each advising office visit where the student requests schedule changes. Schedule changes include exchanging courses, adding or dropping courses, or transferring to another section of the same course.

The schedule change fee will be waived for students adjusting schedules based on institutional initiated changes. Schedule changes stemming from participating in a GCU club or activity will be evaluated and verified with the Club/Activity Owner.

Failure to Pay

Failure to pay the balance does not cancel registration or responsibility for tuition and fee charges or related taxes. Non-attendance does not cancel registration or responsibility for tuition and fee charges or related taxes. All cash and direct-bill payment options must be received in full by their due date or a Finance hold will be placed on the student's account on day 30 of the payment period.

 The only exception to this rule includes CASH-paying students who are making regular and consistent payments through Tuition Payment Plans or students with a Deferred Payment Voucher. These students will not incur holds on their accounts.

A Finance Hold will prohibit any future class registration as well as prohibit the purchase and distribution of any official Grand Canyon University transcripts or diploma. Any students who have a hold placed on their account will be subject to Grand Canyon University's Collection Policy.

Failure to comply with the stated policies of the University may result in an administrative withdrawal from classes and/or submission to an outside collection agency, with the student assuming all additional costs.

Student Bankruptcies

Upon notification that a student has filed a bankruptcy petition, the University will immediately cease any collection efforts on the student's account, including removing any Collection Hold that had been issued.

In addition, the University will immediately place a Bankruptcy Hold on the student's account. The purpose of a Bankruptcy Hold is to identify a student with a pending bankruptcy petition. A Bankruptcy Hold allows the University to:

- Release the student's transcript upon receipt of an Official Transcript Request Form and Fee, if applicable.
- Allow the student continued enrollment and attendance in current course(s).

Students that file a bankruptcy petition will have their files referred to the University's legal department for processing. Students in this situation may continue to attend their current classes without interruption, but must prepay for future enrollment.

Course Tuition Refund

The University will refund tuition according to the following policy unless a student attending courses online is a resident of a state that requires the University to follow different guidelines. These state policies are listed in the State Refund Policies section of this handbook. Refer to the Official Enrollment Status Change section of the University Policy Handbook for a complete explanation of the University's Withdrawal Policy.

Nontraditional Students

Students who drop/withdraw from a course/all courses are eligible for the following refund:

Before Week 1.....	100% tuition refund
During Week 1	75% tuition refund
During or after Week 2.....	No refund

Traditional Campus Students

Students who drop/withdraw from a course/all courses within the 15-week semester at the ground campus in Phoenix, Arizona, are eligible for the following refund. The refund policy is based on the start date of the semester regardless of where the course falls within the semester.

Before Week 1.....	100% tuition refund
During Week 1	90% tuition refund
During Week 2	75% tuition refund
During Week 3	50% tuition refund
During or after Week 4	No refund

Course Fee Refunds

Nontraditional Students

All fees, including materials fees, are non-refundable after the start of a course.

Traditional Campus Students

With the exception of course-related fees and student insurance, which are non-refundable after the start of class, all instructional and ground campus-related fees are refundable during Week 1. After Week 1, all fees are non-refundable.

State Refund Policies

Many states have regulations that require the University to apply a specific refund policy to students taking courses in these states. The specific state refund policies are listed below.

New Mexico

Any student signing an enrollment agreement or making an initial deposit or payment toward tuition and fees of the institution shall be entitled to a cooling off period of at least 3 work days from the date of agreement or payment or from the date that the student first visits the institution, whichever is longer. During the cooling off period, the agreement can be withdrawn and all payments shall be refunded. Evidence of personal appearance at the institution or deposit of a written statement of withdrawal for delivery by mail or other means shall be deemed as meeting the terms of the cooling off period.

Prior to the beginning of instruction, a student may withdraw from enrollment, effective upon personal appearance at the institution or deposit of a written statement of withdrawal for delivery (as defined above), and the institution shall be entitled to retain no more than $200 in tuition or fees as registration charges.

Refunds will be calculated as follows:

- Students completing no more than the first 10% of the enrollment period are refunded 90% of tuition.
- Students completing no more than the second 10% of the enrollment period are refunded 75% of tuition.
- Students completing no more than the third 10% of the enrollment period are refunded 60% of tuition.
- Students completing no more than the fourth 10% of the enrollment period are refunded 45% of tuition.
- Students completing no more than the fifth 10% of the enrollment period are refunded 30% of tuition.
- Students completing no more than the sixth 10% of the enrollment period are refunded 15% of tuition.
- Students completing after the sixth 10% of the period will not receive a refund.

"Enrollment period" means a quarter, semester, or other term of instruction followed by the institution which the student has begun and for which the student has agreed to pay tuition.

Tuition and fee refunds must be made within 30 calendar days of the institution receiving written notice of a student's withdrawal or of the institution terminating enrollment of the student, whichever is earlier. Upon request by a student or the department, the institution shall provide an accounting for such amounts retained under this standard within 5 work days.

Military Refund Policy

The Department of Defense has specific regulations that require the University to apply a proportional refund policy on tuition for students that receive Tuition Assistance (TA) benefits. Benefits are earned proportionally during an enrollment period up to 60 percent complete. Upon earning 60 percent of the benefit, no refund will be applied. Unearned TA benefits will be returned to the military department not to the student. If the returned portion creates a balance the student will be required to remit payment. Proportional amounts will be determined by days up to the following amounts. See Appendix B

Sales/Use/Excise/Gross Receipts Taxes

It is the policy of the University to collect and remit sales, use, excise, and/or gross receipts taxes in compliance with state and local taxing jurisdiction regulations which require the University to remit tax where applicable. These regulations vary by student location. Please note: It is also the policy of the University to require payment of sales, use excise, and/or gross receipts tax. Payment of tax is ultimately the student's financial responsibility to the University regardless of the financing arrangements.

Per Hawaii requirements: It is hereby stated that students residing in the State of Hawaii will be charged Hawaii General Excise Tax on all transactions. Students living in the District of Oahu will be charged 4.712%. Students residing in other Hawaii districts will be charged 4.1666%.

Institutional Aid (GCU Scholarships and GCU Grants)

Traditional Campus Students

Grand Canyon University institutional aid reduces the cost of tuition, room and board, materials, and lab fees.

Institutional aid is not available for the summer semester except in certain circumstances.

Eligibility

Applicants may be required to:

1. Complete and submit a GCU Admissions Application.
2. Secondary (high school) transcript, documenting no less than 75% of the coursework needed for degree completion, with an unweighted grade point average (GPA) of 3.00 or above. Degree-bearing transcript must be submitted when conferred. If final transcript negatively impacts admissibility, acceptance status may be rescinded or modified to include specifications
3. Submit post-secondary (college) transcripts, if applicable.
4. Submit final transcripts noting high school graduation date and unweighted GPA to allow final institutional aid to be awarded by the University due date.
5. Submit math and reading SAT and ACT scores (writing does not need to be included).
6. Students must be fully accepted into the University. Students who are Accepted with Specifications may not be eligible for institutional scholarships and will remain ineligible even if they meet full acceptance criteria after their first semester. Students already receiving an employer tuition discount are not eligible for institutional aid.

Institutional Aid Limits

Institutional aid can be combined up to an annual limit (commonly referred to as caps). Institutional aid limits vary by enrollment period. Institutional aid limits also vary based on housing selection per semester. Institutional aid programs, not including those designated for housing, are applied towards tuition and fees only.

Institutional Aid Renewal Eligibility

The following University institutional aid renewal criteria do not supersede requirements that may be specifically outlined within other GCU scholarship programs.

1. Students must maintain full-time continuous enrollment which is defined by program (typically 12 credits per semester) and meet minimum GPA requirements.
 - Students are typically re-evaluated at the end of the University's academic year.

2. Students may use the Summer semester to increase their GPA, if needed. If students become ineligible to participate in the institutional aid program, they may lose eligibility for any future institutional aid.
3. Institutional aid is renewable up to eight semesters for freshman students and up to six semesters for transfer students.
4. Many forms of institutional aid vary based on housing selection and are adjusted on a semester basis.
5. Students enrolled in a double major or double degree may extend their institutional aid for additional semesters if needed, but only if they were enrolled in the double major or double degree prior to their first semester.

Scholarship Revocation

Students who are unable to fulfill the requirements of their institutional aid will have their award immediately revoked in the full amount for the current semester, regardless of the calendar date or amount of time spent in their program of study.

Students transitioning from Online, Evening-Satellite or Evening-Campus to the Traditional Campus may qualify for an Indirect Academic Scholarship if they have completed a minimum of 12 GCU credits, and have a GCU GPA that meets the academic scholarship eligibility.

GCU reserves the right to decline institutional aid at any time. Typically, students will be re-evaluated at the end of the University's academic year.

Financial Bridge Program / Regaining Eligibility Program

The Financial Bridge Program is available to students who began as new students at GCU in the Academic Scholarship Program during the 2014-2015 academic year.

The Regaining Eligibility Program is available to all students at GCU who have lost eligibility for their Academic Scholarship Program.

The University provides a 'Financial Bridge' opportunity to students who originally qualified for a Freshman Entry academic scholarship but earned a cumulative GCU GPA of 2.8-2.99 upon completion of their first year. During the 'Financial Bridge' period (the second academic year at GCU), students are eligible for $4,000 per year (on-campus resident) or $3,000 per year (off-campus). Students are required to bring their cumulative GCU GPA to a minimum of 3.0 to continue receiving this level of funding. Once a student participates in the 'Financial Bridge' program, s/he forfeits the right to participate in the original Academic Scholarship program for future academic years.

If, upon the completion of an Academic Year, your GCU cumulative GPA falls below 2.8, you are ineligible for the 'Financial Bridge' program and will not receive any academic aid for the subsequent Academic Year. However, through the 'Regaining Eligibility' program, students can secure aid for the following academic year if a minimum 3.0 GCU cumulative GPA is earned. This 'Regaining Eligibility' program awards $4,000 per year to an on-campus student and $3,000 per year for an off-campus student. This level of aid is renewable annually as long as a minimum 3.0 GCU cumulative GPA is maintained. Once a student participates in the 'Regaining Eligibility' program, s/he is ineligible to participate in the Academic Scholarship program for the future academic years.

Common Institutional Aid Awards

Following is a list of commonly awarded forms of Institutional Aid for new students who enrolled for the first time during the 2016-2017 Academic Year*. This is not a comprehensive list and excludes the Institutional Aid program requirements for prior years. For more information about the specific requirements for any Institutional Aid program not listed, please contact your Student Services Counselor.

Direct Academic Scholarships (0-23 credits)

This program is only available for freshman students attending GCU and coming directly from High School:

- Students who have fewer than 24 transfer credits.
- Students who completed college coursework while enrolled in high school are exempt from the 24 transfer credit limit. These students may choose to use their transfer GPA, if preferred. If the student chooses to use their transfer GPA, the transfer GPA will be used for In-Direct Academic Scholarship eligibility. Transfer GPA's cannot be used to determine Direct Academic Scholarship eligibility.
- This award is evaluated annually and can be adjusted up or down as long as the student maintains eligibility.
- Once enrolled, Maintain continuous and full-time enrollment at GCU.

Dining Options

Dining options for 2016-17 will be an allotment of Dining Dollars and will not include meal swipes. All resident students are required to purchase a dining option. Students residing in on-campus apartments are required to purchase at minimum the $750 option. Students residing in a residence hall are required to purchase at minimum the $1,350 option, but may elect to purchase any of the other options except for the $750 option. Commuter students may purchase any of the available dining options.

Dining options changes may only be made prior to when the Dining Dollars are available for use on campus. Dining Dollars may not be transferred from the purchasing student to any other individual. Dining Dollar refunds will be calculated less the actual usage and based on the applicable refund percentage at the time of the dining option cancellation. (Week 1 – 90%, Week 2 - 75%, Week 3 – 50%). After the first three weeks of the term, there will be no Dining Dollar refunds.

Dining Dollars that are not used at the end of the fall semester will be available for use in the spring semester. Unused Dining Dollars will expire at the end of the academic year (spring semester).

Dining Options	Details	Price
Canyon $750 Dining Dollars	Exclusive to only apartment and remote housing residents. Minimum requirement for Papago and North Rim Residents.	$750/semester

Dining Options	Details	Price
Canyon $1,350 Dining Dollars	Residence Hall Minimum	$1,350/semester
Canyon $1,800 Dining Dollars		$1,750/semester
Canyon $2,100 Dining Dollars		$2,000/semester
Canyon $2,700 Dining Dollars		$2,550/semester

Students who have special dietary needs should contact Dining Services in person or at (602) 639-6924.

Lopes Cash

Lopes Cash is a form of payment separate from Dining Dollars. Funds can be loaded to a student's campus ID card by their Student Services Counselor. Lopes Cash can be used at all dining locations, to check out resources and books from the GCU Library, and to print from computers.

At the end of the academic year, a student no longer attending the University has 30 days to request a refund of any unused Lopes Cash with their Student Services Counselor. If a request is not made by the student to the University, the Lopes Cash will be forfeited. For both attending and non-attending students, unused Lopes Cash may be used to cover any other outstanding balance the student has with University prior to a refund being issued.

Campus ID Cards

Campus ID cards are issued for accessing GCU services as well as for security on campus. Campus ID cards can be used for Dining Dollars access, to check out resources and books from the GCU Library, or discounts on, certain GCU-sponsored events (sporting events, etc.). Students may obtain a campus ID card by visiting the Enrollment Office during normal business hours. Do not give your card to another student or person to use for building access, event admission or for meals. If a student allows another to use his or her card to access food services, both students may receive disciplinary sanctions. Students are issued one card for use during the entire time at GCU at no charge.

It is the responsibility of the student to ensure the security of their student ID card. Any ID cards that are lost or stolen will not receive a refund on any Dining Dollars or Lopes Cash that had been used during the time the card was stolen. If a card is lost or stolen, please notify your Student Services Counselor to put a hold on it for protection. There is a $10.00 fee to replace a lost or stolen card.

Special Course Fees

Certain University classes require payment of fees or deposits for materials, breakage, and/or rental. Contact the Program Director in the pertinent College for specific information.

- Any course where digital materials are provided will be charged the course materials fee. Digital course materials include but are not limited to, simulations, multimedia content, eBooks and/or custom created content. Some courses will include electronic textbooks for which students will be charged a Canyon Connect fee.

Student Health Insurance

All GCU students must ensure they follow the federal guidelines for insurance coverage under the Affordable Care Act. Insurance coverage must be demonstrated or secured by the first of the month prior to the semester.

Deadline	Semester
August 1	Fall
January 1	Spring
May 1	Summer

The student populations below are required to secure suitable insurance coverage while attending GCU

- All traditional campus undergraduate students taking 12 credits or more, regardless of registered credits, are required to carry health and accident insurance.
 - The University-sponsored plan is provided by Aetna Life Insurance Company. The plan provides in-and-out patient coverage up to the required limit (see current brochure for limit) of reasonable and customary charges. Insurance brochures are available in the Cooke Health and Wellness Center.
 - Annual Period: Coverage for all insured students enrolled for the Fall semester, will become effective at the start of the fall semester.
 - Fall Semester Period: Coverage for all insured students will become effective at the start of the semester and conclude at the duration of the fall semester.
 - Spring Semester (Newly Enrolled) Period: Coverage for all students first entering Grand Canyon University in the Spring semester will become effective at the start of the spring semester, and will terminate at the end of the summer semester.
 - New Enrolled Summer Semester Period: Coverage will be determined prior to the start of the Summer semester.
 - NOTE: The health insurance rate for the full academic year is $2,729. It is $1,037 for Fall semester and $1,692 for the combined Spring and Summer semesters. The rate for students who enroll for the first time during the Spring semester is $1,692. Insurance charges may be subject to change in Fall 2017.
- All international students with an F-1 visa (all programs of study) will be automatically enrolled into the University-sponsored plan and do not have the option of waiving.
- All student athletes (all programs of study) are required to provide proof of suitable coverage by semester deadline, or they will be automatically enrolled into the University-sponsored plan and are required to pay the premium.
- Students in the following programs, are required to provide proof of suitable coverage by semester deadline, or they will be automatically enrolled into University-sponsored plan and are required to pay the premium. International students cannot opt out of the coverage.
 - Pre-licensure Nursing - upon entry/acceptance of Level 1 into the program
 - Athletic Training- upon entry/acceptance as a Level 1 into the program

- Theatre Education- upon entry/acceptance as a Freshman into the program
- Theatre and Drama- upon entry/acceptance as a Freshman into the program
- Dance Education- upon entry/acceptance as a Freshman into the program

Waiving Insurance

Student athletes and nursing students (in their clinical portion of their program) with comparable health insurance, including coverage for acute and follow-up health care in the Phoenix area, may apply to waive the University-sponsored plan. To submit a waiver, student should visit <http://www.aetnastudenthealth.com>. Student must complete the insurance waiver process by the posted semester deadlines. No other means of acceptance will be acknowledged. A new waiver must be completed each academic year. All waivers are subject to verification and approval. The University cannot waive student health insurance later than the deadline and fees cannot be appealed

Federal Financial Aid

The purpose of financial aid is to provide funding resources to students who otherwise would be unable to pursue a postsecondary education. The primary responsibility for meeting University costs lies with students and their families.

General Eligibility Requirements

To receive federal Title IV financial assistance, all students must be admitted to the University, be enrolled in a degree Program of Study, be in good academic standing, and be making satisfactory academic progress. Students who are Accepted with Specification are eligible for financial assistance according to the University's admission policy. According to federal regulations, financial aid recipients must be U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizens, not owe money back on a federal student grant, and cannot be in default on any federal student loans.

Financial Aid Application Process

Annually students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) which is the first step in determining financial need. The application can be accessed at Fafsa.Ed.Gov. If a student does not have Internet access, a paper FAFSA may be obtained directly from the Department of Education. The University does not require any of the supplemental forms processed by the College Scholarship Service (CSS) or American College Testing (ACT), for which there is a fee charged.

The results of the FAFSA will be sent electronically to the financial aid department. Eligibility will be determined and funds will be awarded after receipt of all required documentation. Before any federal loans can be awarded, both a Master Promissory Note (MPN) and Entrance Counseling must be completed on the Department of Education's website, StudentLoans.gov.

Verification

Based on information reported on the FAFSA, the Department of Education will require certain applicants to complete the verification process before becoming eligible for TIV aid. If a student is selected for verification, the University will request that the student provide all required documentation which may include, but is not limited to:

- IRS Tax Return Transcript

- Verification of household size and number in college
- Documentation of high school completion
- Government Issued Photo Identification
- Statement of Educational Purpose

Additional documentation may be required to complete the verification process. All paperwork must be submitted as soon as possible but no later than the earlier of 120 days after the student's last day of enrollment or the end of the award year which runs through the month of September. Federal awards will not be processed until the verification process is completed.

Preference/Deadline Dates

Both new and returning students are strongly encouraged to submit initial or renewal FAFSA applications as soon as possible each year as some types of financial aid have limited funding and those students whose FAFSA applications are delayed run an increased risk of receiving reduced awards. Effective with the 17/18 award year, students will be able to complete the FAFSA as early as the preceding October of the award year. Only students who have applied for admission to Grand Canyon University will be issued a financial aid award notice through the Student Portal.

Financial Need and Expected Family Contribution (EFC)

Aid for most federal funding is awarded based on financial need. The EFC is a measure a family's financial strength and indicates how much of students' and students' families (for dependent students) financial resources should be available to help pay educational costs.

The EFC is calculated from information reported on the FAFSA using a formula established by law. Family income and assets are considered in determining the EFC along with household size and number of family members attending a postsecondary school. The EFC can be found on the Student Aid Report (SAR) which is the document produced from the information supplied on the FAFSA.

To determine financial need for federal student aid programs the EFC is subtracted from the Cost of Attendance (COA) which is an estimated amount it will cost to attend school for an academic year. Estimated costs include tuition and fees, room and board, allowances for books, supplies, transportation, and personal expenses. Federal grants and other financial aid are used to meet financial need.

Upon completion of all required paperwork, Title IV funds will be awarded. A financial aid award letter will then be available on the student's portal.

Any changes made to original reported information on the FAFSA may result in a change in financial aid award amounts. If the FAFSA is selected for verification, any changes made during the verification process may also change financial aid award amounts.

Traditional Academic Calendar

The majority of aid for the Traditional campus is processed using the Scheduled Academic Year calendar which consists of a Fall and Spring term (semester) with aid for a Summer term optional. To receive maximum financial aid benefits, undergraduate students must be enrolled full-time (minimum 12 credits per term). Undergraduate students enrolled less than full-time may be eligible for prorated amounts of federal aid depending on the funding source. Undergraduate programs require enrollment of at least six credits per term for federal loan eligibility. Students who receive any institutional scholarships (i.e., academic, departmental, endowed, and/or merit) must maintain a continuous full-time enrollment status. Courses taken at other colleges do not count towards determining enrollment status at Grand Canyon University for financial aid/scholarship purposes.

Nontraditional Academic Calendar (Online and Cohort)

Nontraditional campus aid is processed using the Borrower-Based, Non-term academic calendar. An academic year for undergraduate programs is defined as a minimum of 24 earned credits and 30 instructional weeks. The academic year for masters programs starting July 2012 and after is defined as a minimum of 16 earned credits and 32 instructional weeks. Doctoral programs utilize an academic year definition of 12 earned credits and 32 instructional weeks.

An academic year begins with participation in the first eligible course of a degree program and ends when a student successfully completes both the credits and instructional weeks requirements. An academic year has no calendar time constraints and continues through periods of non-attendance that are less than 180 days until both the credit and weeks requirements are met.

The academic year is divided into two payment periods (terms). The first payment period consists of half of the credits and instructional weeks as defined in the academic year. The second payment period begins when a student has successfully completed the first payment period requirements and has continued on into the next scheduled course. Aid is packaged and disbursed using these definitions. Payments of financial aid awards are made in two equal disbursements following the appropriate payment period rules.

Inform the Office of Financial Aid

Students who receive additional outside assistance must report this fact to the Office of Financial Aid through their assigned Student Services Counselor. Students who have received any Title IV aid from a prior school or are currently receiving Title IV aid at another institution while attending Grand Canyon University must also notify the Office of Financial Aid through their assigned Student Services Counselor as this other source of funding may affect students' eligibility to receive maximum Title IV aid with GCU.

Student Responsibilities

All students should do the following:

- Accurately complete and return all applications, required documentation, verification forms, and any additional information that is requested by any GCU department or any other agency providing financial assistance. Errors or omissions may delay the awarding and disbursement of eligible funds.
- Read and understand all documentation and agreements that are signed and submitted to any department or agency.
- Review the award letter and all other notices issued regarding the responsibilities and conditions that must be adhered to by students receiving financial aid.
- Understand what portion of the financial aid package is need based aid (grant and scholarships that does not have to be repaid) and what portion is non-need based aid (funding that must be repaid such as student loans). If any portion of the aid is in the form of a student loan, understand the total amount of the loan, the interest rate assessed to the amount borrowed, the repayment schedule, the timeframe of the repayment schedule, and the start date of the repayment schedule.

- Notify the servicer of any changes to personal name, address, and enrollment status.
- Review and understand the amounts pertaining to the cost of attendance and the Course Tuition Refund Policy for Grand Canyon University as stated in the Financial Services section.
- Review and understand the amounts pertaining to the cost of attendance and the Course Tuition Refund Policy for Grand Canyon University as stated in the Financial Services section.
- Review and comply with all rules and regulations pertaining to academic, financial, and University conduct policies
- Understand that any intentional misrepresentation of information provided on applications or documents submitted for federal financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code and will be reported to the Office of Inspector General (OIG)

Disbursement of Title IV Funds for Books and Supplies

If a Pell grant eligible student meets all requirements to receive Title IV funds at least 10 days before the start of a payment period, any Title IV funds in excess of the amount owed to the school at the that time (Title IV credit balance funds) are to be made available to the student up to the amount needed to obtain books and supplies.

The school must make the Title IV credit balance funds for books and supplies available to the student by the 7th day of the payment period.

If a student has not yet established eligibility to receive Title IV funds at least 10 days before the beginning of a payment period due to outstanding verification requirements, unresolved "C" codes on the Student Aid Report (SAR), or conflicting information, this requirement does not apply.

In determining whether a Title IV credit balance exists, the school considers all Title IV funds that could be disbursed at least 10 days before the term/payment period, regardless if funds have been received by the institution. It is the student's eligibility to receive Title IV funds at that time, rather than the school's schedule for receiving or disbursing those funds, that determines the existence and amount of a Title IV credit balance for this purpose.

If a student requires monetary assistance with purchasing books and supplies, he should contact his Student Services Counselor to determine if he meets the qualifications listed above. If the Student Services Counselor determines that the student is eligible to receive assistance in purchasing books/supplies, the student will have a maximum of $300 available at the GCU bookstore to purchase the required books/supplies.

The student is under no obligation to take advantage of this provision.

Excess Funds - Stipend Checks

Many times students request aid in excess of the total account charges. Once funds post to the student's account, any funds in excess of the posted charges create a credit balance on the account. In compliance with federal regulations, the University will mail an excess funds (stipend) check within 14 calendar days from the date the credit balance was created on the account.

It is University policy to mail all refund checks to the current address on file. Students who wish to change their address must go through the Office of Academic Records, update their address on the Student Portal, or contact their SSA to make this change.

Students may be subject to a $25 charge for stop payments made after 21 business days of mailing date.

Stipend checks are processed according to federal regulations and University policies. For further details, please contact your Student Services Counselor.

Leave of Absence – Nontraditional

Leave of Absence (LOA) refers to a specific time period during a program when a student is not in attendance. A student who requires a temporary break of enrollment in his program of study that will last for more than 14 days has the option of requesting a Leave of Absence. An LOA must meet certain conditions to be counted as a temporary interruption in a student's education rather than being counted as a withdrawal from the University. There must also be a reasonable expectation that the student will return from the LOA in order for the leave to be approved.

Leave of Absence Criteria

- An LOA request must be signed, dated and submitted on or before the last day of class attendance in a course and must include the reason for the student's request. The request must be completed on the GCU Leave of Absence form. Any request submitted after the last day of class in a course will be denied unless unforeseen circumstances prevented the student from doing so.
- GCU policy allows two LOAs of up to 60 calendar days each in any 12 month rolling calendar year.
- A third LOA can be requested within this 12 month period only if the student can demonstrate extenuating circumstances that would warrant a third leave of absence. The total time spent on an LOA in a rolling calendar year cannot exceed a 180 days.
- Students who do not return from an approved LOA will be withdrawn from the University effective the last date of documented attendance.
- Title IV loans cannot be disbursed to a student while on an LOA; Title IV grants and Perkins loan funds can be disbursed to a student while on an LOA.

A student wishing to request an LOA will need to initiate the process with his Student Services Counselor. The final approval/denial will be completed within one week of the student's LDA. No additional charges can be assessed to a student who returns from an approved LOA.

If the LOA request is not approved or the student does not return as scheduled from the approved LOA, this time of non-attendance will be counted against any grace period for Title IV student loan repayment purposes.

Because of various federal requirements, a Leave of Absence is available only to the Nontraditional student population.

Federal Refund Policy - Official and Unofficial Withdrawal

Any federal financial aid recipient who fails all courses in a semester (traditional campus) or withdraws from the University (traditional and nontraditional) is subject to a federal Return of Title IV Aid calculation. This calculation determines both the amount of federal aid that the school is allowed to retain as well as the amount that must be returned to the Department of Education.

An official withdrawal occurs when a student has formally requested to be withdrawn from the University. The student must submit a Complete Withdrawal Form, available on the student portal. If a student notifies his Student Services Counselor of his intent to withdraw from the University but did not complete the Official Withdrawal form, the Student Services Counselor will notify the Office of Academic Records of the official withdrawal request.

An unofficial withdrawal occurs when a student has stopped attending any coursework for a period of 14 consecutive days or more but has not communicated a desire to officially withdraw from the University.

The federal refund calculation is as follows:

1. Withdrawal:
 - a. Withdrawal from the University before the first day of classes, 100% of Title IV aid must be returned.
 - b. Withdrawal from the University through 60% of the payment period will result in a prorated percentage of aid being earned. Any unearned aid due from the school will be returned to the appropriate funding source. In some instances a portion of unearned aid will be the student's responsibility.
 - c. Withdrawal from the University after attending more than 60% of the payment period will result in 100% of the student's Title IV aid being earned. The institution will retain 100% of funding that covers institutional costs; students may retain the remainder of funding.
2. Failing All Courses in a Semester (Traditional Campus): Traditional campus students receiving failing grades in all coursework for the semester will earn 50% of Title IV aid disbursed. . If validation can be obtained of a later Last Academic Activity date (LAA), that date will be used in the calculation. The student will continue to owe tuition and fees for the entire semester and will be responsible to the University for any remaining balance on account.
3. Unofficial Withdrawal within a Term Containing Modules (Traditional Campus): Coursework taken within a term where no courses taken span the entire length of the term will be subject to modular refund rules. If the withdrawal from future courses within the term occurs after the student is no longer attending a course, Title IV aid will be earned at a 50% rate and the student will be responsible to the University for any remaining balance on account. If validation can be obtained of a later Last Academic Activity date (LAA), that date will be used in the refund calculation.

Maximum Timeframe

Federal regulations require a student to complete his Program of Study within a measured maximum time frame that cannot exceed 150% of the published length of the program. The sum of the total required credits multiplied by 150% will be the maximum number of attempted credits for which a student is eligible to receive aid. If a student reaches the 150% timeframe and has not completed his program of study, he is no longer eligible for Title IV aid. The student may continue taking required coursework, but must make other payment arrangements.

Federal Funding Sources

Federal Pell Grant Awarding

A Federal Pell Grant, unlike a loan, does not have to be repaid. It is available to eligible undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's degree. Student and family income information that is provided when completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) determines Pell eligibility.

Effective July 2012, the Department of Education limited the number of semesters/terms to 12 in which a student may receive a Pell grant. A student's remaining Pell eligibility will be reported on the student's Institutional Student Aid Report or students may contact their Student Services Counselor for this information.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant

FSEOG is available to undergraduate students with exceptional financial need. Students with the lowest EFCs who also receive a Pell grant for that award year have primary consideration for FSEOG funding. FSEOG is an award that does not require repayment. This award is dependent on financial need and availability of limited funds.

Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant (IASG)

A student whose parent or guardian was a member of the U. S. Armed Forces and died as a result of service performed in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001, may be eligible to receive this grant. For more information on this grant students should contact their Student Services Counselor.

Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education Grant (TEACH)

The Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant Program was established under the College Cost Reduction and Access Act (CCRAA), to benefit current and prospective teachers. This program currently provides up to $3728 a year in grant assistance to students who plan on becoming a teacher and meet certain specific requirements. Based on the Budget Control Act of 2011, this amount will be reduced to $3724 in October. If a student who receives a TEACH Grant does not complete the required teaching obligation, the grant must be repaid as a Direct Unsubsidized Loan under the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program.

To be eligible to receive a TEACH Grant, students must:

- Be enrolled in an eligible institution
- File an application and Agreement To Serve
- Have a 3.25 GPA

The Agreement To Serve requirements:

- Full-time teacher for 4 years within eight years of completing degree
- Teach in high need subject areas such as Math, Science, Foreign Language, Bilingual Education, Special Education, Reading Specialist, or a field as defined by the federal government as high need
- Comply with the requirements for being a highly qualified teacher

The amount of the grant will be treated as an unsubsidized Stafford loan and interest will accrue from the date of grant award if the student fails to complete the Agreement to Serve requirements.

For more information about this grant, students can refer to the Financial Services website.

Federal Work Study

Federal work-study provides part-time jobs for students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay educational expenses. Contact Career Services for more information.

Federal Loan Programs

Loans are often part of a financial award package as they provide students with an opportunity to defer part of their educational costs by borrowing now and paying later. Each year a student's loan eligibility is determined by completing the FAFSA. Likewise, eligibility for certain loans and loan amounts may change according to the information reported on all required documentation.

Federal Direct Loan Program

In order to receive a Federal Direct loan, a completed Master Promissory Note (MPN) is required. The MPN is a legal document in which you promise to repay your loan(s) and any accrued interest and fees to the U.S. Department of Education. It explains the terms and conditions of your loan(s), and items such as how interest is calculated, what deferment and cancellation provisions are available to you, and estimated repayment plans.

A second requirement of receiving a student loan is to complete Entrance Counseling. This is a mandatory information session which takes place before you receive your first federal student loan that explains your responsibilities and rights as a student borrower.

Upon graduation/withdrawal, Exit Counseling is also required which will reiterate your rights and responsibilities as a student loan borrower and provide useful tips and information to help manage your student loans.

All required information can be found at both Federal Student Aid and Student Loans.Gov sites.

Direct Subsidized Loans

Subsidized loans are available to undergraduate students who meet certain financial need criteria. The federal government will pay the interest on the loan while the student is attending classes on at least a half time basis and during periods when the loan is deferred.

Effective July 1, 2012, graduate and professional students are no longer eligible for this loan.

The Department of Education implemented a cap on the amount of time a student can attend an institution and continue to receive a subsidized loan. Any student who had no loan debt effective July 1, 2013 will need to complete his program of study within 150% of the published time to completion. If the student does not complete his program of study within that timeframe, he will no longer be eligible to receive additional subsidized funding. Under certain conditions, the provision also causes first-time borrowers who have exceeded the 150% limit to lose the interest subsidy on their Direct Subsidized loans

Direct Unsubsidized Loans

Unsubsidized loans are available to students regardless of financial need. Students are responsible for the interest that accrues on this loan from the date the funds are disbursed until the funds are paid back in full. The student borrower also has the option to pay the interest that is accruing while attending school or postpone payment. If payment is postponed, the interest will accrue and be capitalized (added to the principal amount of the loan).

Plus Loans

PLUS loans are available for graduate/professional students as well as parents of dependent undergraduate students. The PLUS Loan enables parents/graduate students to borrow up to the full cost of attendance less any other financial assistance awarded to the student. PLUS Loan borrowers are subject to a credit check before loan approval.

The interest rate for new loans is determined each year and is announced during the month of July. Contact your Student Services Counselor for the current interest rates.

Repayment on the principal loan balance begins six (6) months after the borrower drops below half-time enrollment status or graduates. Normally, monthly loan payments will not be less than fifty dollars ($50) and must be repaid within the time-period specified by the terms of the borrower's repayment contract.

Federal Carl D. Perkins Loan

The Federal Perkins Loan provides low interest, long-term loans for graduate and undergraduate students who are United States citizens or permanent residents. The amounts awarded vary depending on financial need and the availability of limited funds. No interest is charged nor is repayment required while the borrower is enrolled at least half-time. Nine months after the borrower ceases to be enrolled at least half time, payments begin at an interest rate of 5%. Loan repayment must be completed within a ten-year period at a minimum repayment rate of $40 per month. Under certain circumstances, a portion of the loan may be canceled for designated public service.

All financial records pertaining to Perkins Loans awarded to Grand Canyon University students are maintained by the Office of Financial Aid. Perkins loan recipients must complete the Perkins Entrance Interview and sign the Perkins Promissory Note before funds can be disbursed.

Based on final regulations, the Perkins program will be discontinued after the 2017/18 award year.

Annual and Aggregate Loan Limits

There are limits on the amount of subsidized and unsubsidized loans that a student is eligible to receive each academic year (annual loan limits) and the total amounts that may be borrowed for undergraduate and graduate study (aggregate loan limits).

Annual Loan Limits
	Base Loan Dependent/ Independent Sub/Unsub	Additional Loan Independent Unsub	Total Loan Amount
Freshman	$3,500/$2,000	$ 4,000	$ 9,500
Sophomore	$4,500/$2,000	$ 4,000	$10,500
Junior	$5,500/$2,000	$ 5,000	$12,500
Senior	$5,500/$2,000	$ 5,000	$12,500
Graduate		$20,500	$20,500

State Grants for Arizona Residents

Arizona Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership Program (AzLEAP)

The AZ LEAP program is a state and institutional partnership which provides student financial assistance in the form of need-based grants to low-income, undergraduate, Arizona resident students who have demonstrated substantial financial need.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must be U.S. Citizen or an eligible non-citizen
- Must be a resident of Arizona
- Must be enrolled at least half-time as an undergraduate student
- Must have substantial financial need (be Pell eligible) as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Must meet GCU Satisfactory Academic requirements
- Must not have concurrent enrollment in undergraduate and graduate courses

Math, Science, Special Education Teach Loan Forgiveness Program (MSSE)

The Math, Science and Special Education Teacher Loan Forgiveness Program (MSSE) is a student-centered, need-based forgivable loan designed to financially support and encourage junior or senior Arizona resident college students to enter into the teaching profession and teach in a public school in Arizona.

The maximum forgivable loan is $7,000 per academic year for up to three years excluding all grants, scholarships and other tuition benefits (ex: tribal and military). Funds can be applied toward tuition, instructional materials and mandatory fees as documented in the student's Cost of Attendance (COA) at their institution.

Students must enter into an agreement with the Arizona Commission for Postsecondary Education (ACPE) to teach in an Arizona public school in a term equal to the number of years of loans received plus one year. Additionally, students must sign a promissory note acknowledging the conditions of the loan and promising to repay the loan plus interest if the teaching obligation is not met.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must be U.S. Citizen or an eligible non-citizen
- Must be a resident of Arizona for at least the previous 12 months at the time of application
- Must be enrolled at least half-time as an undergraduate student
- Must be a junior or senior (completed at least 60 college credits) in a course of instruction with the intent to attain licensure as a teacher in math, science, special education in a public school in Arizona
- Must be seeking a first baccalaureate degree
- Must have financial need
- Must maintain satisfactory academic progress
- Must enter into an agreement with the Arizona Commission for Postsecondary Education to teach in an Arizona public school in a term equal to the number of year of loans of loan received plus one year

- Must sign a promissory note acknowledging the conditions of the loan and promising to repay the loan plus 7% interest if teaching obligations are not met.

Student Employment

Federal and Non-Federal Work Study

On campus Federal Work Study and Non-Federal Work Study employees will not be able to work without completed hiring documents. Federal and Non-Federal Work Study positions are paid bi-monthly. A student employed by GCU must be registered for at least six credit hours in order to maintain his/her exemption from Social Security taxes. Students are unable to receive state unemployment upon termination of their position.

Students are expected to do the following:

- Report to work promptly.
- Notify supervisors in advance if they will be late or absent from work.
- Refrain from conducting personal business and schoolwork on during scheduled work hours.
- Accurately report the hours worked (sign time sheet).
- Dress appropriately according to position.
- Monitor earnings in relation to their Federal Work Study award.
- Give two weeks' notice before resigning.

International Student Employment

International students who wish to work while in the U.S. must be aware of and comply with F-1 visa employment regulations. Working illegally while in the U.S. is a serious offense that must be reported to the Department of Homeland Security (SEVIS) and can result in loss of F-1 status and benefits, and possible deportation. All international students must confer with the staff at the International Students Office before accepting or beginning any employment.

For Canadian Students: Grand Canyon University is dedicated to providing high quality service for our Canadian students. Please be advised that students are responsible for determining their eligibility for Canadian Tax Credits. Certain Grand Canyon University courses and programs may not meet certain requirements for tax credits, including but not limited to the minimum week and continuous enrollment requirements. For more information on Canadian Tax Credits, please contact The Revenue Canada Agency or visit www.cra.gc.ca.

On-Campus Employment

International students with F-1 status may be employed on campus without obtaining special permission from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) provided they are maintaining legal immigration status. Nonetheless, international students should check with the International Students Office to be sure the prospective job is permissible.

Off-Campus Employment

After being enrolled full-time for one academic year (two semesters), international students may be eligible for employment off-campus; however, opportunities are limited. Consult with the International Students Office for more information.

Below is a listing of the three primary types of off-campus employment that are available to international students.

- Practical Training (PT) - PT is a benefit that allows F-1 students to gain practical experience working in the US in their field of study. There are two types of PT, Optional Practical Training (OPT) and Curricular Practical Training (CPT). OPT may be taken either during or following completion of the degree program, but is most feasible following completion because of the amount of time it takes to apply. Students are allowed a total of 12 months of OPT. The International Student Coordinator in the International Students Office will determine eligibility for OPT and may recommend to USCIS that work authorization for OPT be given. Prior to submitting an application for OPT, students must have completed full-time enrollment in two semesters of the degree program, and the application must be submitted to USCIS prior to completion. USCIS will review the application and upon approval will issue an Employment Authorization Document (EAD) card as legal permission to work. Students must have the EAD in their possession before they begin to work. Students are not required to have a job offer to apply for OPT.

- CPT may be authorized for those F-1 students who have enrolled in an internship course and have an internship job (firm offer) that has been certified through the college and the International Students Office. Any time up to 12 months on full-time CPT does not detract from a student's OPT. Students who complete 12 or more months of full-time CPT, however, are not eligible for OPT.
- Employment with an International Organization: This type of employment is very limited and must fit within the guidelines of the International Organization Immunities Act. It may require a change of status that could be detrimental to the student's status.

Social Security Number

A Social Security Number (SSN) is required in order to be employed in the U.S. For F-1 students to obtain an SSN, they must have employment on-campus or have other work authorization like Curricular Practical Training or Optional Practical Training. To apply for a SSN on the basis of an on-campus job, students must provide a letter from the campus department and the International Students Office, verifying the job and eligibility.

The following documentation will be necessary to present when applying:

- Unexpired passport containing F-1 visa
- Form I-94 Arrival/Departure record
- I-20 form
- One other piece of identification – a student ID card, driver's license, etc.
- Letter of eligibility from the Center of International Education
- Letter from campus department where the student will be working

To apply on the basis of Curricular Practical Training (CPT), after approval for the internship and registration for an internship course, the staff in International Students Office will generate a new I-20 that lists the student's work permission for that specific employment. In the case of Optional Practical Training (OPT), the student will apply for it in the last semester of study. Upon approval from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS), the student will receive a card showing work authorization. Please see staff in the International Students Office for these types of employment.

After obtaining one of the above types of authorization and documentation, an international student may apply for a Social Security Number by going in person to the local Social Security Administration office. The International Students Office can direct students to the nearest Social Security Administration office.

International Student Tax-Reporting Responsibilities

International students have some responsibilities for reporting to the Internal Revenue Service each year. Students may be subject to U.S. taxation based on the source and type of income and the number of years they have been present in the U.S. Each tax year, all international students must file Form 8843. Those who earned income from a U.S. source must file Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ. Grants and scholarships may be subject to taxation. Generally, tax forms must be filed by April 15 for the previous tax year (January 1 – December 31).

It is students' responsibility to determine tax liabilities and file the appropriate forms in a timely manner.

The International Students Office is not trained as professional tax consultants and cannot complete and/or file any tax forms.

Evaluation of Transfer Credit

The following section outlines how Grand Canyon University evaluates transfer credit from other institutions, alternative transfer credit options, and discusses general policies.

General Policies

The University generally accepts courses from accredited, GCU-approved colleges, universities, or programs provided the work is not of a highly specialized nature and a grade of C or better is earned. Transfer Credit Practices of Designated Educational Institutions, published by the American Association of Collegiate Academic Registrars and Admissions Officers, is used as a general guide in determining acceptability.

If the Office of Academic Records is unable to determine specific applicability for an acceptable course, general elective credit will be granted.

Baccalaureate Transfer Policies

All undergraduate students accepted to Grand Canyon University with prior college or university course credit will receive an official transfer credit evaluation from the Office of Academic Records showing how the courses completed at each previous school will transfer. Evaluations will include the total number of credits accepted, as well as a course-by-course breakdown indicating how each class may be applied toward University graduation requirements. Courses may be accepted as upper or lower division general electives, upper or lower division major or minor electives, or as directly equivalent University courses.

GCU uses the following policies to determine acceptability of courses in an undergraduate program:

- For undergraduate programs, a maximum of 90 hours of transfer credit, no more than 84 credits of which can be lower-division.
- A maximum of 30 credits, combined from the list below, can come from alternative credit options:
 - College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
 - Prometric DSST Exams (DANTES)
 - Excelsior Colleges Exams
 - Berlitz Language Evaluation
 - Advanced Placement (AP)
 - International Baccalaureate (IB)
 - American Credit Evaluation (ACE) approved credits
 - National College Credit Recommendation Service (NCCRS) approved credits
 - Lifelong Learning Assessments (8 credit maximum)
 - GCU Approved Certificates
 - Global Studies Portfolios (GSP)
- Another 30 credits maximum can come from military schools and training.
- All other transfer credits must come from accredited, GCU-approved college(s) transcripts.
- The University will not accept transfer credits from a third-party transcript. Each transfer course must be presented on the college transcript from which the course was completed.
- Courses with a grade of Pass (P) will be considered if “P” is equivalent to a C or better. This is determined by reviewing the grade scale of the institution where the course was completed.
- The University will not accept any course for credit that is described as having remedial or developmental content.

- If a student disagrees with the way credit has been awarded, he or she may appeal through the appeals process as outlined in this University Policy Handbook.
- When coursework is equivalent, transfer credit from a quarter-system institution is evaluated and converted to semester credits on a 1:0.666 ratio.

Quarter Credits	Equivalency in Semester Credits
5	3.33
4	2.67
3	2.00
2	1.33
1	0.67

Below are examples of the evaluation and conversion of quarter system courses:

- Example A: If a student completed 4 quarter credits of ENG 101, the credits would be converted to 2.67 semester credits of English Composition at GCU. It would fulfill credits in the Communications requirement of the General Education; however, the student would earn only 2.67 credits toward the overall requirement of 120.
- Example B: If a student completed 3-quarter credits of ENG 101, the credits would be converted to 2.00 semester credits of English Composition at GCU. The 2 credits would count toward the overall requirement of 120 hours by fulfilling 2 credits in the Effective Communications requirement of the General Education; however, it does not fulfill the English composition requirement. The student would earn only 2.00 semester credits toward the overall requirement of 120.

Master Degree Transfer Policies

External Transfer from Other Institution

The University generally accepts courses from accredited, GCU-approved colleges, universities, and programs, provided the work is equivalent to a Grand Canyon University graduate-level course, has been earned in conjunction with the completion of a 500 level or higher course, and a grade of B or better was earned. The University will accept up to 12 credits or 1/3 of the total program requirements in transfer (whichever is less).

Internal Transfer between GCU Degrees and/or Graduate Certificates of Completion

Students who have completed a Grand Canyon University master's degree or post-master certificate that required 30 or more credits can apply the lesser of 12 credits, or 1/3 of the total program-credit requirements, to a second master's degree at GCU. All credits earned in graduate certificates of completion that require fewer than 30 credits can be applied towards a master's degree at Grand Canyon University.

If students are found to have taken a course equivalent to a GCU course of differing credit, the student will still need to meet the total program credit requirements in order to graduate.

College Transfer Restriction

The first course of the graduate program of study cannot be satisfied by transferred credits.

Master Degree Programmatic Transfer Policies

College of Nursing and Health Care Professions

Master of Science in Nursing: Acute Care Nurse Practitioner with an Emphasis in Adult-Gerontology (ACNP)

Master of Science in Nursing: Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP)

Advanced pharmacology, advanced pathophysiology and advanced health assessment are non-transferrable courses. If, however, these courses are taken within one year of the program start date, an appeal can be submitted for review.

Graduate Certificate of Completion Transfer Policies

The University generally accepts courses from accredited, GCU-approved colleges, universities, and programs, provided the work is equivalent to a Grand Canyon University graduate-level course, has been earned in conjunction with the completion of a 500 level or higher course, and a grade of B or better was earned. The University will accept one course of the total certificate requirements in transfer. This includes credits completed from a master's degree previously earned through Grand Canyon University.

Post-Master Certificates requiring 30 or more credits for completion fall under the Master Degree Transfer Policies section.

Doctoral Degree Transfer Policies

The University generally accepts doctoral-level courses from regionally accredited colleges and universities, provided the content is equivalent to a Grand Canyon University doctoral-level course, and a grade of B or better was earned. The University will accept up to nine credits into the program. Coursework transferred into GCU's doctoral program must have been completed within seven years prior to transfer.

Due to the dissertation or practice improvement components integrated throughout courses in GCU's doctoral programs, the following courses are not eligible for transfer and must be completed at GCU:

- All research courses: RES, PSY-801, PSY-815, PSY-825, PSY-850
- All residency (RSD) courses
- All assessment and statistics courses: PSY-843, PSY-845, PSY-870
- All dissertation courses RES-871, PSY-885, and all 900 level courses
- DNP-801 and the DPI Project (DNP-955, DNP-960, DNP-965) courses in the DNP program.

Foreign Evaluation of Transfer Credits

The following policies apply to credits students have earned at foreign institutions and wish to transfer to GCU.

In order to accurately and consistently evaluate foreign credentials, Grand Canyon University requires all international college or university transcripts to be evaluated by a University-approved evaluation service. Obtaining an evaluation is an additional step to awarding college or university credit from foreign transcripts. The fee for evaluation is the responsibility of the student.

Transferring from GCU to another Institution

Students transferring from GCU to another educational institution are subject to that institution's transfer credit policy. All institutions reserve the right to refuse credits for transfer; therefore, students are encouraged to consult that institution's policy. Grand Canyon University cannot control how, or if, other institutions accept credits earned at GCU.

Transfer Credit Application

There are two methods Grand Canyon University uses to apply transfer credit; through an earned transfer-oriented associate degree (AA or AS), or through course-by-course evaluation.

Associate Transfer Plan

Students who complete a transfer-oriented associate degree (Associate of Arts or Associate of Science) at an accredited, GCU-approved college, university, or program may fulfill the University's General Education requirements, with the exception of the University Success, Christian Worldview, and specified general education course requirements. This applies only if the content of the associate is in alignment with the chosen bachelor program (Associate of Science in Business to Bachelor of Science in Business Administration). If a student's chosen bachelor program is not in alignment (Associate of Science in Business to Bachelor of Science in Education) then a course-by-course evaluation will occur (due to the number of credits required in the major). The same is true of the Arizona General Education Curriculum (AGEC) from Arizona's public community colleges and the California Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) from California's public community colleges.

Students enrolled in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN) program need to refer to the Baccalaureate Programmatic Admission Requirements section for more information on general education requirements.

Course-by-Course Evaluations

Students who transfer into a baccalaureate degree program without a previously earned transfer-oriented associate's degree (AA or AS) or with an Associate of Applied Science degree must fulfill the requirements of the General Education and have a course-by-course evaluation completed. Grand Canyon University will accept a maximum of 90 transfer credits, of which a maximum of 84 can be lower-division credits. Students are required to complete the 120-credit graduation requirement, including the balance of courses specified in the program of study and any elective credits.

Course-by-course transcript evaluations are conducted to determine if courses taken in transfer work equal courses in the student's chosen GCU bachelor degree program. If courses match, the University considers the content requirement fulfilled by that equivalency; however, the upper division requirement may remain. After the University evaluates the student's transfer credits, the University only applies those transfer credits that fulfill program requirements including general education, electives, and courses in the major. Additionally, credit will only be given when it does not duplicate credit previously earned.

Alternative Transfer Credit Options

Students may transfer a total of 30 credits from all alternative transfer credit options combined. All alternative methods accepted are listed in this section. Many students who come to Grand Canyon University have achieved college-level mastery of certain subjects through advanced high school programs or by other means not generally recognized for college credit.

For this reason, the University actively participates in the following:

- High School Programs
- Advanced Placement (AP)
- International Baccalaureate Credit (IB)
- Alternative Testing Programs
- College Level Examination Program (CLEP) of the College Entrance Examination Board;
- Prometric DSST Exams (Formerly DAN TES)
- Excelsior College Exams
- Berlitz Language Evaluation
- American Council on Education (ACE);
- National College Credit Recommendation Service (NCCRS)
- GCU Approved Certificates
- Lifelong Learning Assessment (LLA)
- IT Competency Assessment
- Global Studies Portfolios (GSA)

Certain restrictions apply to these programs. Credit will be given only when it does not duplicate credit previously earned and is not for a course more elementary than one for which the student has earned college credit. CLEP credit will be given only for examinations completed after July 1965.

High School Programs

Student may have earned credits through two alternative credit options during high school. These include Advanced Placement Requirements (AP) and International Baccalaureate Credit (IB). Official transcripts will need to be sent to the Office of Academic Records. Upon receipt of transcripts, credit will be awarded as designated below.

Advanced Placement Requirements (AP)

General Examination:	Score	Credits	General Education Competency
Art History	3	6	Global Awareness, Perspectives, and Ethics
Biology	3	8	Critical Thinking
Calculus AB	3	3	Critical Thinking

General Examination:	Score	Credits	General Education Competency

Berlitz Language Evaluation

For assessment of languages, an evaluation of language proficiency from the Berlitz Institute may be accepted for credit. Credit will satisfy the foreign language requirements. Students can take exams for any language assessed by Berlitz. A maximum of 16 lower-division credits will be awarded using the following scale:

A rating of 7 (out of 10) must be attained on each of the following to receive 8 credits of lower division for the Speaking and Listening portion of the evaluation:

- Listening Comprehension
- Pronunciation
- Speaking Ability
- Vocabulary
- Use of Grammar

A rating of 7 (out of 10) must be attained on each of the following to receive 8 credits of lower division for the Reading and Writing portion of the evaluation:

- Reading Comprehension
- Writing Ability
- Vocabulary
- Grammar
- Spelling

American Council on Education (ACE)

ACE provides credit recommendations for formal courses and examinations completed outside of a traditional classroom. ACE evaluated courses can be applied towards undergraduate lower division general education or elective requirements. Certificates or an ACE transcript should be submitted to the Office of Academic Records. A transcript can be requested on the ACE website at <http://www.acenet.edu/>. Students may submit certificates issued by the National Fire Academy (NFA) and Emergency Management Institute (EMI) as approved by the American Council on Education (ACE). All other certificates issued by NFA and EMI, as well as FEMA Independent Study and Gannett, will not be considered for alternative transfer credits.

National College Credit Recommendation Service (NCCRS)

NCCRS (formerly National PONS) evaluates training and education programs offered outside the traditional college classroom setting and translating them into college credit equivalencies. NCCRS-evaluated courses can be applied towards undergraduate lower-division general education requirements or toward undergraduate lower-division elective requirements. Official transcripts from the organization that sponsored the course or learning experience must be submitted to the Office of Academic Records. NCCRS does not issue transcripts. More information can be found on the NCCRS website.

GCU Approved Certificates

GCU has identified a list of international and national professional certificates that students can submit for alternative transfer credits, which are listed on the GCU Transfer Center. These certificates have been approved by the Colleges and can apply towards one of the following:

- Lower or upper division undergraduate general education, program major/core or elective requirements
- Limited graduate level coursework

Grand Canyon University will award alternative transfer credits based on the equivalencies listed below:

- 10 contact hours = 1 Continuing Education Units (CEU) credit
- 10 CEUs = 1 semester credit
- 100 CEU contact hours = 1 semester credit

Grand Canyon University will consider an academic appeal for certificate(s) not listed on the ACE website or GCU Transfer Center if the certificate meets the following criteria:

- Issued by an international or national organization (cannot be issued by an approved provider of a national or international organization)
- Name of attendee
- Name of Certification earned
- Documents number of CEU or contact hours completed
- Date certification was awarded

Lifelong Learning Assessment (LLA)

The Center for Learning & Advancement defines 'Lifelong Learning Experiences' within the context of the LLA, and for the purposes of choosing an LLA topic and writing an LLA paper, as: "A real-life event that was experienced first-hand, has generated an extensive amount of personal and professional learning that is equivalent to college-level academic rigor and quality, and has created a significant life change in the learner (i.e., an increased capacity to live and apply the learning in new contexts). These learning experiences are most valued when they are job-based (or volunteerism), but they should involve engaging in activities for significant amounts of time (e.g., several years or more), are non-episodic (i.e., not one-time events), and are context-embedded within naturally occurring life events during the adult years of life."

In order to take advantage of this alternative credit method, students must first take the course ENG 135: Lifelong Learning Assessment, which teaches students the skills needed to submit up to 8 credits of Lifelong Learning Assessments. Students create and submit an LLA by documenting adult life experience in the form of an essay following the Kolb model of experiential learning. Papers submitted for consideration of credit should follow the following guidelines to earn:

- 2 credits, complete 10 pages and a minimum of two academic references; 3 subtopics;
- 4 credits, complete 20 pages and a minimum of four academic references; 6 subtopics.

Papers should be written and documented following APA guidelines, including title and reference pages. These pages are not included in the page requirement.

Grand Canyon University will award credit to students for life experiences when the evaluator is convinced that such experiences meet the requirements as outlined in the grading rubric and LLA definition. Sample topic areas follow:

- Caring for the Elderly
- Death and Dying
- Early Childhood
- Management
- Marriage and Family

Credit earned through the LLA process can only be used to fulfill undergraduate general-education or elective requirements and these credits may not be transferable to another institution in the way credit for actual courses completed at GCU would be transferable.

Students should note that incomplete LLAs or LLAs with incomplete coversheets will not be reviewed and will be returned to the student. Students will be notified of the outcome of the review within 2 weeks of receipt of the LLA. Students are notified through their GCU e-mail account. Students will only have 2 attempts to receive a passing score on their LLA paper. Completed LLAs are submitted through the Transfer Center site.

IT Competency Assessment

Students who have experience in a course that cannot be awarded credit through a course transfer from another educational institution or approved certification may be eligible to complete a competency assessment to be awarded transfer credit. Not all courses are available for competency assessments and students can obtain a list of available competency assessments through their SSC or UC. Students must pass the competency assessment with a grade of 70% or better and scores will not be rounded. Students must take the competency assessment prior to becoming active in the course for which transfer credit may be granted. There is no cost to the student to attempt the assessment. Students may attempt the competency assessment two times.

Global Studies Portfolio (GSP)

Traditional Campus Students

The Global Studies Portfolio program will provide international opportunities for students to integrate experiential learning, personal development, disciplinary knowledge, and spiritual growth through active involvement in mission trip experiences through the Department of Spiritual Life. This program strives to prepare students to be responsible leaders and global citizens who participate in a values-based curriculum from the context of our Christian heritage.

GSPs submitted for consideration of credit should follow the following guidelines to earn:

- 2 credits, submit 10 of the pre-determined artifacts and a minimum of two academic references. Mandatory artifact assignments include G1.9 and G3.3.

- 4 credits, submit 20 of the pre-determined artifacts and a minimum of four academic references.
- Each artifact has a detailed assignment description.

Papers should be written and documented following APA guidelines, including title and reference pages. These pages are not included in the page requirement.

Grand Canyon University will award credit to students for a Global Studies Portfolio (GSP) when the student demonstrates that such experiences meet the requirements as outlined in the grading rubric and GSP definition.

Credit earned through the GSP process can only be used to fulfill lower division elective credit requirements. These credits may not be transferable to another institution in the way credit for actual courses completed at GCU would be transferable. Credits are repeatable up to 8 total elective credits.

Students should note that incomplete GSPs with incomplete coversheets will not be reviewed and will be returned to the student. Learning will be evaluated based on content, presentation and mechanics of the portfolio. Students will be notified of the outcome of the review within 2 weeks of receipt of the GSP. Students are notified through their GCU e-mail account. Students will only have 2 attempts to receive a passing score on their GSP.

Completed GSPs are submitted to StudyAbroad@gcu.edu within 90 days of the conclusion of the GCU Mission Trip. A $90 processing fee must be submitted prior to evaluation of the GSP. Payment should be delivered to the Study Abroad Office.

Credit for Military Training and Experience

In addition to the alternative transfer credit option policy, Grand Canyon University will award a maximum additional 30 credits for military training and experience as included on the Army/ACE Registry Transcript System (AARTS), Sailor/Marine/ACE Registry Transcript (SMART), Air University/Community College of the Air Force (CCAF), Coast Guard Institute (CGI) or Joint Services Transcript (JST). If used in conjunction with the alternative transfer credit option, a military student can transfer in 60 credits (30 military training and experience and 30 alternative credits). Credits earned above 60 credits must come from transfer coursework up to 90 credits, of which a maximum of 84 lower-division credits would be accepted. AARTS, SMART, JST, CCAF, and CGI transcripts track all of a service member's or veteran's military training and coursework. Created by the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps in partnership with ACE and similar in format to college transfer transcripts, the documents list personal student data, courses, and occupations evaluated by ACE, including descriptions, learning outcomes, and equivalent college credit recommendations, as well as national college-level exam results. In lieu of the AARTS, SMART or JST documentation, GCU also will accept the DD Form 295, Application for the Evaluation of Learning Experiences during Military Service and DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty.

More information is available regarding these transcripts at <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Transcript-Services.aspx>.

Graduation Requirements

The completion of the required minimum of 120 semester credits for a baccalaureate degree usually requires four years of 30 semester hours each. The freshman and sophomore years are usually spent in general or introductory courses in diversified liberal arts areas. During the remaining two years, the student may concentrate in the field of major interest. The work for the entire program consists of General Education (GE) requirements, major and minor subjects, and elective courses. Students completing a graduate program must meet the curricular requirements per the Program of Study.

A Student Services Counselor will help each student select a combination of major, minor, and elective studies appropriate for that individual. However, it is the ultimate responsibility of the student to plan their course of study appropriately.

Designation of Academic Catalog

University and college programmatic requirements may change. A degree candidate is required to meet the requirements for graduation as outlined in the Academic Catalog in effect at the time he/she begins classes or those of any subsequent changes in the University Policy Handbook, provided the student has remained in continuous enrollment at Grand Canyon University. These requirements are also contained in the student's signed Enrollment Agreement.

Nontraditional Student

Continuous enrollment is defined as being in attendance continuously, with no break in attendance longer than 14 days.

Traditional Campus Student

Continuous enrollment is defined as consecutive semesters; enrollment in the Summer session is not relevant for the traditional campus student.

A student who has been readmitted after a period of non-attendance or after attending an institution other than Grand Canyon University (including an Arizona community college) will graduate under the requirements for graduation as stated in the Academic Catalog at the time of readmission. This provision applies whether the period of non-attendance at Grand Canyon University was voluntary or due to Academic Suspension or Academic Expulsion.

Students who complete one degree program and then wish to pursue a second degree do not do so under the same Academic Catalog as their first degree. These students must meet the Academic Catalog requirements in effect at the time they begin work toward the second degree, unless they remained in continuous enrollment for both degrees and both degrees will be posted at the same time.

Baccalaureate Graduation Requirements

Students are considered complete once all degree requirements are fulfilled and grades have been posted. Students are eligible for graduation upon submission of the Graduation Application, graduation fee, and clearance of financial responsibilities. All degrees will be posted (formally placed on the student's transcript) approximately 30 days after degree requirements are fulfilled and grades are posted. Students wishing to participate in Commencement will have additional requirements to complete. Please refer to the Commencement section for further details.

Program Credit Requirement

The minimum number of semester credits required for a baccalaureate degree is 120. Students lacking the required minimum 120 credits to graduate from their program, usually due to transfer credit may take one of the University's Service Learning courses to complete the difference in credits either in the major or elective category. Service Learning courses cannot be used to fulfill credits in the general education category. Students are required to meet the program graduation requirements of their degree including meeting the required coursework and any capstone requirements.

Traditional Campus Student

Traditional campus students who have transferred in a minimum of 24 college level credits and have a 3.0 GPA or higher can waive the University Foundations course, UNV-303. However, College of Education students are required to take University Foundations in College of Education, UNV-108, regardless of transfer credits and GPA. College of Education students who have previously completed a GCU University Success course or satisfied the waiver requirement in some other fashion are not required to take UNV-108.

Minimum GPA Requirements

Undergraduate students must have at least an enrollment cumulative 2.0 GPA for their program of study.

- Major Grade Point Average: Undergraduate students must also have at least a cumulative 2.0 GPA in their majors and are not permitted to count any course with a grade below C toward their majors. Higher GPAs are required by specific departments and colleges.
- Minor Grade Point Average: Undergraduate students must have at least a cumulative 2.0 GPA in their minors and are not permitted to count any course with a grade below C toward their minors.

Residency Requirement

Undergraduate students must complete at least 30 semester credits of course work in a Grand Canyon University program to satisfy residency requirements.

Upper Division Credit Requirement

For a baccalaureate degree, a student must earn a minimum of 36 semester credits in upper division (300 or above) courses.

Writing Intensive Course Credit

As a graduation requirement for all baccalaureate programs of study, students must successfully complete a minimum of three courses that have been designated as Writing Intensive. These courses must include ENG-105 (or its equivalent) and two courses in the major, one of which must be upper-division. Writing-Intensive courses are designed to provide students with a structured format, within which to learn and to demonstrate mastery of content through effective, discipline-appropriate written assignments. A designated writing-intensive assignment involves multiple submissions that include the following essential elements:

- Research (appropriate source selection, integration, acknowledgment, and citation)

- Pre-writing and Review (may include brainstorming, outlining, annotated bibliographies, peer-review, faculty feedback)
- Revision and Final submission

To ensure a shared focus on content, as well as style, a minimum of 30% of the final writing-assignment grade is based upon mechanics and organization. In all cases, revision is required, and the culminating writing-intensive assignment(s) comprise a minimum of 30% of the course grade.

The University has always accepted comparable courses from other accredited, GCU-approved institutions that, in the judgment of the faculty, meet the intent of the requirements as specified. The faculty teaching a specific discipline will be consulted when the Office of Academic Records cannot establish whether or not a particular transferred course is substantially similar to the GE requirement.

Major/Core

Undergraduate students are required to select one subject area, a major, in which they must earn at least 36 semester hours of acceptable credit. At least 36 credits of the major must be upper division. Courses with a grade of D or below (2.0 GPA) are not permitted to count toward the major.

Double Major

Traditional campus student

Students wishing to pursue two majors under a single degree (e.g., Bachelor of Arts in Communications and Bachelor of Arts in History or Master of Science in Leadership and Master of Science in Psychology):

- Must meet the admission criteria for that degree.
- Must submit request form to their Student Services Counselor of the primary major and the desire to seek a secondary major.
- Must fulfill the General Education requirements (for undergraduate programs) and all degree requirements for each major sought.
- Will have a single GPA for the purpose of determining graduation honors (undergraduate programs only).
- 24 semester credits must be unduplicated within each major for the completion of both majors if pursuing a second major.
- Will use the catalog year of the primary major to determine the secondary major requirements.
- Must file a Graduation Application with the Office of Academic Records that notes each major sought.
- Will receive a single diploma with the degree, primary major and secondary major. The secondary major will also be indicated upon the transcript.

Dual Major

Traditional campus student

- Dual major programs are specifically designed sets of University curriculum and clearly outlined in the Academic Catalog as predetermined by the University (e.g., Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education and Special Education).
- Fulfill the General Education requirements, degree prerequisites and requirements, and all other University requirements for the dual-major program.
- Will have a single GPA for the purpose of determining graduation honors.
- Will receive a single diploma with the degree, primary major and secondary major. This will also be indicated upon the transcript.

Minors (Undergraduate Programs)

Traditional campus student

Students wishing to pursue an additional minor under a single degree:

- Minors are a minimum of 16 semester credits, with a minimum of 12 semester credits being unduplicated.
- Must complete at least 12 semester credits of course work at Grand Canyon University to satisfy residency requirement for minor.
- Must submit request form to their Student Services Counselor of their desire to seek a minor.
- Must fulfill the prerequisites and requirements for the minor sought.
- Will use the catalog year of the primary major to determine requirements.
- Will have the additional minors indicated upon their transcripts. Minors will not be listed on the diploma.

Double Degree

Traditional campus student

An undergraduate student wishing to pursue two degrees simultaneously from Grand Canyon University must meet the following requirements: (e.g.: Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Bachelor of Arts in Christian Studies)

- Must meet the admission criteria for each degree.
- Must submit request form to their Student Services Counselor of the primary degree and the desire to seek a second degree.
- Complete a minimum of 30 credit hours at Grand Canyon University beyond the requirements for the first degree (e.g., a minimum of 150 credit hours if the requirements, for the first degree were completed after 120 hours).
- Must fulfill the General Education requirements, all degree prerequisites and requirements, and all other University requirements for each degree sought.
- 24 semester credits must be unduplicated within each degree for the completion of both degrees if pursuing a second degree.
- Will use the catalog year of the primary degree to determine the secondary degree requirements.
- Must file a Graduation Application with the Office of Academic Records that notes each degree sought.
- Will receive a single diploma for each degree earned. The secondary degree will also be indicated upon the transcript.
- The student will have a single GPA for the purpose of determining graduation honors.

Second Degree

- A student who has earned a baccalaureate degree from an accredited, GCU-approved college, university, or program may be granted an additional baccalaureate degree from Grand Canyon University upon completion of the following:
- Meet the admission criteria for that degree.
- Select a major field not used as a major for the previous degree (see specific major for number of hours required).
- Complete a minimum of 30 additional credit hours in the major area at Grand Canyon University after the conferral of the previous baccalaureate degree(s). (Note: Second Degree students do not qualify for honors at graduation.)
- File a Graduation Application with the Office of Academic Records for the degree sought.

Baccalaureate Programmatic Graduation Requirements

Colangelo College of Business

Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management

Students are required to accumulate 600 hours of paid or unpaid experience in the hospitality industry throughout their program of study. Experience may be in any aspect of the hospitality industry, subject to the Colangelo College of Business approval.

Master Graduation Requirements

Students are considered complete once all degree requirements are fulfilled and grades have been posted. Students are eligible for graduation upon submission of the Graduation Application, graduation fee, and clearance of financial responsibilities. All degrees will be posted (formally placed on the student's transcript) approximately 30 days after degree requirements are fulfilled and grades are posted. Students wishing to participate in Commencement will have additional requirements to complete. Please refer to the Commencement section for further details.

- Graduate students must meet the degree requirements of the degree in which they graduate.
- Requirements include earning the total number of credits required by the program, meeting content requirements, and submitting any capstone activities. If students fail to meet any of the program requirements, a degree will not be conferred until the requirements are met.
- Graduate students must also have at least a cumulative 3.0 GPA, with no grade lower than a C.
- Students lacking the required minimum credits to graduate from their program, usually due to transfer credit may take one of the University's Service Learning courses. Students are required to meet the program graduation requirements of their degree including meeting the required coursework and any capstone requirements.

Dual-Degree Programs

Dual-degree programs are specifically designed sets of University curriculum that will convey two separate degrees (e.g., M.B.A. and M.S.) upon completion of a set of unified curriculum. Dual-degree programs are clearly outlined in the Academic Catalog and predetermined by the University.

A student wishing to pursue a dual degree:

- Must meet the admission criteria for that dual-degree program
- Must complete the requirements for both degrees before being granted either degree.
- Must file a Graduation Application with the Office of Academic Records that notes each degree sought.
- Will receive two separate diplomas, one for each degree in the dual-degree program.

Additional Emphases

Students wishing to pursue an additional emphasis under a single degree:

- An Additional Emphasis is a minimum of 8 semester credits, with a minimum of 8 semester credits being unduplicated. Graduate students have the option of completing up to two emphasis areas as part of their degree.
- Must submit request form to their Student Services Counselor of their desire to seek an additional emphasis.

- Must fulfill the prerequisites and requirements for the emphasis sought.
- Will use the catalog year of the primary major to determine requirements.
- Will have the additional emphasis indicated upon their transcripts.
- Will receive a single diploma with the degree, primary emphasis and secondary emphasis.

Doctoral Graduation Requirements

Students are considered complete once all degree requirements are fulfilled and grades have been posted. Students are eligible for graduation upon submission of the Graduation Application, graduation fee, and clearance of financial responsibilities. All degrees will be posted (formally placed on the student's transcript) approximately 30 days after degree requirements are fulfilled and grades are posted. Students wishing to participate in Commencement will have additional requirements to complete. Please refer to the Commencement section for further details.

- Doctoral learners must meet the degree requirements of the degree in which they graduate.
- Requirements include earning the total number of credits required by the program, meeting content requirements, and
- For CDS: Approval of a dissertation by the committee and the Dean as demonstrated by a signed D-80 document (See Appendix A)
- For CONHCP: A signed Direct Practice Improvement Project for DNP learners and a minimum of 1000 Practice Immersion Hours
- If learners fail to meet any of the program requirements, a degree will not be conferred until the requirements are met.
- Doctoral learners must also have at least a cumulative 3.0 GPA.

Posthumous Degrees

In the unfortunate event that a student passes away prior to earning his or her degree, GCU may, if the student qualifies, grant the student's degree posthumously. The qualifications include:

Baccalaureate Students

- Student was in good academic standing (as measured by GPA) at the time of his or her death.
- The student completed at least 90 credits toward a 120 credit degree; including completion of at least half the credits in the student's major
- A deceased student's cause of death was not due to any unlawful activity on the part of the student.

Master's/Post Master's Students

- Student was in good academic standing (as measured by GPA) at the time of his or her death.
- The student completed more than 75% of the program
- A deceased student's cause of death was not due to any unlawful activity on the part of the student.

Doctoral Students

- Student was in good academic standing (as measured by GPA) at the time of his or her death.
- The student completed more than 75% of the program
- Student's Dissertation or DPI Project Proposal had been approved by the University.

- A deceased student's cause of death was not due to any unlawful activity on the part of the student.

Commencement

Eligibility to Participate in Commencement

A candidate for graduation must meet the criteria listed below for one of the two commencement exercises.

Fall

Non Traditional Ceremonies

- Students expected to complete their degree by between 7/1 - 12/31
 - Degree posted or registered through completion with end date of final course ending on or before 12/31

*Note: The College of Doctoral Studies requires the Dean's signature on the completed committee-approved Dissertation with a signed GCU D-80 form by close of business 60 days prior to the date of the graduation ceremonies.

The College of Nursing and Health Care Professions requires the Dean's signature on the completed committee-approved Direct Practice Improvement Project with a signed project sheet by close of business 60 days prior to the date of the graduation ceremonies and have documented in Typhon a minimum of 1000 Practice Immersion Hours.

Winter

Traditional Ceremony

- Expected Fall graduates
 - Degree posted or registered through completion with end date of final course being on or before end of Fall Semester

Spring

Traditional Ceremony

- Expected Spring & Summer graduates
 - Degree posted or registered through completion with end date of final course being on or before end of Summer Semester

Non Traditional Ceremony

- Students expected to complete their degree between 1/1 - 6/30
 - Degree posted or registered through completion with end date of final course ending on or before 6/30

*Note: The College of Doctoral Studies requires the Dean's signature on the completed committee-approved Dissertation with a signed GCU D-80 form by close of business 60 days prior to the date of the graduation ceremonies.

The College of Nursing and Health Care Professions requires the Dean's signature on the completed committee-approved Direct Practice Improvement Project with a signed project sheet by close of business 60 days prior to the date of the graduation ceremonies and have documented in Typhon a minimum of 1000 Practice Immersion Hours.

Attendance at Commencement

Academic Regalia for Commencement

Candidates for graduation participating in the commencement exercises are required to wear the prescribed academic regalia, which consist of a black gown and hood. The gown has distinguished sleeves to indicate the level of academic achievement earned.

- Undergraduate students: pointed sleeves
- Graduate students: oblong sleeves
- Doctoral students: bell-shaped sleeves

The academic colleges are represented by the color of the tassels which hang from the cap. While not an exhaustive list, the following are some of the colors that may be seen on the graduates' hoods:

- Arts, Letters, Humanities - white
- Business - drab
- Education - light blue
- Math and Sciences - gold
- Music - pink
- Nursing - apricot
- Physical Education - sage green
- Public Health – salmon pink
- Religion – scarlet
- Science – golden yellow

Those who hold the Ph.D. degree may choose either the color of their discipline or Ph.D. blue, a royal blue. American Council on Education (2012). Academic Regalia. Retrieved from: <http://www.acenet.edu/AM/Template.cfm?Section=Search&template=/CM/HTMLDisplay.cfm&ContentID=39133#Costume>.

Graduation with Academic Recognition

Ray-Maben Scholars

This recognition represents the highest scholarship honor awarded by Grand Canyon University each year at graduation. Established by the faculty, the criteria consist of a cumulative and Grand Canyon University GPA of at least 3.9, with no more than 12 transferable semester credits.

Latin Honors

Undergraduate students who have earned at least 60 credits at Grand Canyon University may qualify for honors at graduation by maintaining one of the following GPAs:

- 3.40 to 3.59 may qualify for graduation cum laude;
- 3.60 to 3.79 may qualify for graduation magna cum laude;
- 3.80 to 4.00 may qualify for graduation summa cum laude.

Second bachelor degree and graduate students are not eligible for honors. In academe, being admitted and completing a graduate degree is considered an honor.

For walking purposes for commencement ceremonies or exercises, honor candidates will be decided by using the GPA at the time commencement registration closes for each scheduled commencement ceremonies or exercises. Walking honors does not guarantee actual honors will be granted and displayed on the student's transcript or diploma. True honors will be determined at the time of the posting of the degree and will be displayed on the student's transcript and diploma.

University Honors

Undergraduate students who have completed less than 60 semester credits at Grand Canyon University may be eligible for University Honors. Students, who complete their degree with a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher for credits earned at Grand Canyon University, will be awarded University Honors at Graduation. Honors will be displayed on the student's transcript.

Honors College

Students who complete the Honors program will be given special recognition, which will be determined at the time of the degree posting and will be displayed on the students' transcript.

Academic Services and Resources

The following section highlights some of the academic services and resources available to students, both traditional and nontraditional. The University strives to provide and introduce additional support for students to achieve their educational goals. As new services are introduced, they will be included in this section of the University Policy Handbook.

Career Services Department

Career exploration and career planning are available to any Grand Canyon University student or Alumni at the Career Services Center. Students can access the services and resources of Career Services during regular university hours.

Career Service Areas

Career services offer the following:

- College Major Exploration
- Free College Major Testing Tools
- Talk online or at our Career Services Center
- Career Services
- Career Fairs
- Career Resource Center
- Career Services Advising
- Employer Networking
- Employment Opportunities (on and off Campus)
- Informational interviews
- Internships
- Job Postings
- Job Search Assistance
- Mock Interviews
- Resource Boards
- Resume Review
- Small Discussions and Workshops
- Virtual Career Fair
- Walk-in Appointments

Career Advisement Appointments

Career advisement is available to assist students in self-assessment, college major exploration, career exploration, resume and cover letter writing, portfolio building, job searching, and interview preparation. Career advisement is available by walk-in, phone, or appointment. Call 602-639-6606; 877-610-5506, or careerservices@gcu.edu.

The Center for Learning & Advancement

The Center for Learning & Advancement (CLA) provides tutoring support services to all students at GCU. It offers several tutoring formats like face-to-face (one-on-one and small group), live online sessions, and content area clubs. Students are also welcome to use the CLA facilities for studying with their peers or alone. Additionally, the CLA supports student success through tutorials and workshops related to reading strategies, time management techniques, study skills, note-taking strategies, test-taking techniques, and APA. As an added resource, ThinkingStorm is an online tutoring service that Grand Canyon University makes available to all its students. ThinkingStorm provides tutoring in mathematics (basic math through Calculus, including Bilingual Math), Biology, Introduction to Human Anatomy and Physiology, Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, Physics, Economics, Statistics, Spanish, and Writing. Students are encouraged to contact the Center for Learning & Advancement for ways to help them become more academically successful or to connect with a tutor on-ground or online. The Center is open Monday-Friday, 8am-5pm (Arizona time), although there are several nights of extended hours which vary. Please contact the Center for Learning and Advancement by calling 602-639-8901, emailing them at centerforlearning@gcu.edu, or going to their website at Center for Learning and Advancement website.

GCU Library

The GCU Library serves as the foundation of academic support for all learning and research pursuits of GCU students, faculty, staff and administration, and serves the greater community by providing access to quality research materials. The GCU Library is proud to offer the following library services:

- Ask A Librarian: Ask the GCU Library staff directly for research assistance. Contact us via phone, email or chat. We can help with personalized assistance with creating effective search strategies for research topics, basic database navigation, using the resource tools, including RefWorks & EndNote Web, personalized database accounts, RSS feeds, search alerts, APA formatting, persistent links, and more!
- GCU Library Databases & Resources: Search for journal articles, eBooks and physical books, dissertations, streaming video and streaming music, using our extensive collection of databases and resources. Organize and manage your citations with bibliographic management software tools RefWorks or EndNote Web.
- Help & Tutorials: Find general library, database, and technical support tutorials on the GCU Library's web site: <http://library.gcu.edu>. Sign-up for the GCU Library: Introduction webinar, where you will receive a guided tour of how to access and use the GCU Library's resources:
- Interlibrary Loan (ILL): Need materials the GCU Library does not own? Request an ILL on the GCU Library's web site: <http://library.gcu.edu>. The GCU Library has many reciprocal sharing agreements with libraries throughout the country. As we contact them and make the borrowing arrangements, the process can take a few days up to a few weeks. Usually, there is no cost for this service. However, sometimes a lending library charges a fee. If there are fees involved, the GCU Library will inform you before continuing to order the item.

Contacting the GCU Library:

Chat live with a GCU Librarian at our web site, <http://library.gcu.edu>
Monday-Friday: 9:00 am-4:00 pm (Arizona Time)

GCU Library Hours (Arizona Time)*

Monday – Thursday: 7:00 am – 10:00 pm
Friday: 7:00 am – 5:00 pm
Saturday: 9:00 am – 6:00 pm
Sunday: 1:00pm – 10:00 pm

*Holidays, summer, and break hours vary. Check with the GCU Library for information.

Campus Computer Center

There are five computer labs on campus (GCU Library, College of Education Building, Fleming Building and College of Nursing and Health Care Professions Building). All labs are equipped with up-to-date computers and monitors. The computer labs offer Internet access and a host of applications for use outside of the classroom. In addition to the lab computer resources, wireless Internet access is available for students at various points on campus.

GCU Institutional Review Board

Grand Canyon University (GCU) is committed to quality research, scholarship, and service. All systematic research undertaken by GCU personnel or learners in which human subjects participate is subject to review under the Institutional Review Board (IRB) policy and procedures for protection of human subjects in research. The federal definition for research is “a systematic investigation, including research development, testing and evaluation, designed to develop and contribute to generalizable knowledge (Federal Regulations 45 CFR 46).” This definition includes any surveys, tests, observations of people, or experiments which involve systematic data collection that could result in knowledge reported in dissertations, publications and professional meetings.

The GCU Institutional Review Board operates under federal policies and procedures mandated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the Office for Human Research Protections www.hhs.gov/ohrp/. Policies governing academic scholarship and research activities conducted at GCU are available on the DC Research Center (<http://dc.gcu.edu/irb>) and the GCU website (<http://www.gcu.edu/College-of-Doctoral-Studies/Institutional-Review-Board.php>) apply to all research conducted at or sponsored by Grand Canyon University.

- All research projects directed by GCU faculty, staff, or learners must receive IRB approval prior to collecting data.
- GCU researchers must complete required training in research ethics CITI Training (<http://www.citiprogram.org>) and adhere to the principles of respect for persons, beneficence, and justice embodied in the Belmont Report.
- Individuals from external institutions who wish to conduct research using GCU data, learners or personnel as participants must submit an application for site authorization to the Office of Academic Research, provide proof of IRB approval from their home institution, and receive approval from the GCU IRB and the Provost.
- Classroom curriculum projects, workshop evaluations, and administrative projects do not need IRB approval if they are not research. If the results will not be distributed outside the classroom, institutional setting, or if they are used solely for program review or evaluation, IRB review is not required. However, if such projects lead to generalizable information, through publication or dissemination of results external to GCU, they must undergo review. Regardless of whether the project is subject to review, all GCU faculty, staff and learners must adhere to ethical guidelines when conducting class or institutional projects with human participants.

Research activities or exercises conducted as part of curriculum for coursework are considered exempt from IRB review when the following criteria are met:

- There is minimal risk, and
- The planned classroom exercise does not involve members of vulnerable populations, and

- Information obtained is recorded in such a manner that human subjects cannot be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to subjects, and
- The information will not be made public in the form of presentation or publication outside of the classroom or education setting.

International Students Office

The International Students Office, or ISO, is housed on campus in Building 18, Room 104 and houses the International Student Coordinator’s office. The ISO contains an international students’ lounge, which students may use as a meeting place, study space, or area to relax between classes.

The ISO is the storehouse and archive of F-1 student documents. The International Student Coordinator manages F-1 student documents and SEVIS records, issues I-20s, and is the advisor on matters related to maintaining F-1 status.

Maintaining F-1 Status

International F-1 students are responsible for knowing the rules to maintain their F-1 status. In order to learn the obligations and privileges of being an F-1 student, they may consult with the International Student Coordinator or acquire information from the Homeland Security’s website “Study in the States”.

Change of Address

Students are required to report a change of residence within 10 days of your move. Contact the staff of the International Students Office, so the University can officially update the SEVIS record.

Authorization to Work

See the International Student Employment section of the University Policy Handbook.

Maintain Full Course of Study

Per federal regulations, International (F-1) students are required to pursue a full course of study; the minimum for an undergraduate is 12 credits per semester and one online class may be taken to satisfy the 12 credit minimum. The minimum for a graduate student’s full course of study follows general campus policy noted above and is verified by the International Student Coordinator.

Securing a Validating Signature

Students, who need a validating signature for an I-20, should take it to the International Students Office for processing several days before the planned departure.

Immigration Documents

Students must keep immigration documents valid at all times.

Passport

Students must know passport expiration date. Do not allow the passport to expire. Students are required to have a valid passport with an expiration date that is no less than six months hence, except in those cases where the student’s home country has an agreement with the U.S. To find out how to extend the validity of your passport, contact your country’s consulate in the U.S. A list of foreign consular offices in the U.S. may be found at <http://www.state.gov/s/cpr/rls/dpl/32122.htm>.

F-1 Visa

The visa is a permit which allows individuals to apply for entry to the U.S. at the port of entry. It shows immigration status (should be F-1), the number of times an individual may enter the U.S. (shown as single, double, or multiple entry), and the last day on which he or she can enter the country. It does not show how long the student may stay in the U.S. While it is not illegal to be in the U.S. with an expired visa, a new visa will be required to leave and re-enter the US. (Exception: If a student travels to Canada, Mexico, or any of the islands in the Caribbean except Cuba and return within 30 days, and he or she has a valid passport, an unexpired I-20 and an I-94 card, the student may enter with an expired visa.) It is not possible to obtain a visa in the U.S. If a student will be traveling outside the US and wishes to re-enter after the visa has expired, he or she should plan to visit a U.S. consulate to apply for a new visa.

Form I-20

The I-20 authorizes individuals to attend Grand Canyon University (GCU). International students are required to read the I-20 and indicate acceptance of its terms by endorsing the document.

Form I-94 Arrival and Departure Record

The I-94 demonstrates that the students have been lawfully admitted to the US. The I-94 is distributed on the airplane prior to landing. When the student passes through the immigration check station at the port of entry, the border agent will make a notation of the date of entry and visa status, and will usually staple the form into your passport. In most cases a notation of "D/S" (duration of status) will be marked on the card, indicating that the student may stay in the U.S. until the student has finished the academic program, as long as the student maintains an acceptable status. If a specific date is noted on this form instead of D/S, notify the staff of the International Students Office because the student must either exit the country by that time or file an extension. Do not lose the I-94. Only one will be issued and replacements are expensive and take a long time to receive. When the student travels overseas, the student must surrender the card at the airport. Few exceptions exist to this requirement, including travel to Mexico, Canada, or the Caribbean Islands (verify this information with the International Students Office). When the student re-enters the U.S., the student will be issued a new I-94.

Safeguarding Immigration Documents

Do not lose or destroy any documents received from the U.S. government or school officials. Keep all issued documents in a safe and accessible place in the event it is necessary to show them to the authorities.

Travel in F-1 Status

Always consult with the Principal Designated School Official (PDSO) in the Center of International Education before planning travel abroad. Since the circumstances of each student will differ, the information in this section is meant to provide general guidelines for students. It may not be all inclusive of the things that the student needs to determine whether or not it is appropriate to travel or whether or not the student will be readmitted to the United States. Please remember that the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer at the Port of Entry (POE) decides whether or not a person is admissible to the United States. This decision is based upon the facts and circumstances presented at the time that the student applies to enter, therefore it is important to know the situation and carry the proper documentation.

Inside the U.S.

On and near campus

While students are on-campus or in the surrounding area, they do not need to have their passport or I-20 with them. Keep the documents safely stored, however, and know where to get them quickly, if necessary.

Away from the campus in the Phoenix area

Students should carry their passport, I-94 card and I-20 with them in case authorities ask for proof of identity.

Outside the U.S.

Students who travel abroad must show proper documentation to re-enter the U.S. They must not have been gone from the U.S. more than 5 months for the following guidelines. At the port of entry, present:

- Valid passport with expiration date at least six months from the date of entry. For exceptions, see the Passport agreement list below for countries with agreements with the US for shorter expiration dates.
- Valid F-1 visa stamp in passport
- I-20 that has been endorsed by the PDSO in the International Students Office within the last 6 months. (Technically, the signature is valid for one year, but many agents at the port of entry prefer to see the endorsement from the school more frequently.)
- Other recommended documents: Financial guarantee documents showing the student has funds to pay for your educational and living expenses while here, copy of recent transcripts, letter from CIE verifying student status at GCU.
- Exceptions to the travel documentation above apply to travel to Canada, Mexico or adjacent islands with the exception of Cuba. If the student plans to travel to one of these locations for fewer than 30 days, retain your I-94 card. Even if the visa is expired, a student may be readmitted based on an automatic revalidation of the visa.

Study Abroad and International Programs

Study Abroad programs may involve relationships with other colleges, universities, organizations, or countries. Students should contact the Study Abroad Office for more information by emailing StudyAbroad@gcu.edu. Weekly group information sessions as well as individual appointments are available. Study abroad students typically enroll at Grand Canyon University in a holding course such as UNV-300 to retain their enrollment and eligibility for financial aid. Upon successful completion of the semester, the specific credit for the experience replaces the holding course. Students are required to affirm with their Academic Advisor how study abroad courses will apply to Grand Canyon University's requirements.

Drug-Free Campus and Workplace Policy

Grand Canyon University is committed to providing a drug-free campus and workplace environment. As an institution of higher education, the University recognizes the need to establish a drug and alcohol awareness program to educate faculty, staff and students about the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse. This policy is established as required by the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 and the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989.

The sale, offer to sell, purchase, use, transfer, possession and/or manufacture of illegal drugs, including marijuana (medical or otherwise) and alcohol, are strictly prohibited on University premises including parking lots, cafeterias, and other non-work related areas. Employees may not unlawfully possess, consume or be under the influence of alcohol while working, participating in Grand Canyon University events, or present on University Premises (including parking lots, cafeterias, and other non-work related areas), unless pre-authorized by senior management.

Description of Health Risks

Drugs and/or alcohol use contribute to:

- 65% of all suicides
- 70% of all drowning deaths
- 83% of all fire deaths
- 50% of all motor vehicle accidents
- 70% of all homicides

The following are descriptions of dangerous drugs:

- Alcohol is a potentially addictive drug of significant physical and psychological consequence. Alcohol is a central nervous system depressant that affects all neurological functions. At relatively low levels it affects one's judgment and decision-making, and at higher levels it impairs the functioning of one's vital organs and can result in a coma or death. Alcohol is an irritant to the gastrointestinal tract and moderate over-indulgence ordinarily results in nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea. In addition to these significant physical consequences, there are a number of less obvious consequences to alcohol use. For example, the effects of alcohol on sleep have been well documented. Consuming several drinks before bedtime has been found to decrease the amount of REM (rapid eye movement) or dreaming sleep. The consequences of being deprived of REM sleep are impaired concentration and memory, as well as anxiety, tiredness, and irritability. Additionally, research has demonstrated that alcohol tends to decrease fear and increase the likelihood that an individual will accept risks. This lack of inhibition and judgment is a major contributor to the extraordinarily high percentage of serious accidents and accidental deaths related to alcohol use. Prolonged and excessive use of alcohol usually causes progressively more serious erosion of the gastrointestinal tract lining ranging from gastritis to ulcers and hemorrhage. Damage to the pancreas is frequent among those who have used alcohol. Interestingly, while 10% of the adult population is estimated to be addicted to beverage alcohol, (i.e., they are alcoholics), this 10% of the population comprises 35% of those hospital in-patients who receive major surgery in any given year. Alcoholism is the third major killer in the United States, second to heart disease and cancer, and acute alcohol intoxication is the second leading cause of death by poisoning.
- Marijuana (cannabis) (nicotina glauca) is an illegal drug that impairs memory, perception, judgment, and hand-eye coordination skills. The tar content in cannabis smoke is at least 50% higher than that of tobacco and thus smokers run the added risk of lung cancer, chronic bronchitis, and other lung diseases. Recently, the medical community has diagnosed the existence of an AA motivational syndrome that affects moderate to chronic users and includes symptoms of loss of energy, motivation, effectiveness, concentration, ability to carry out long-term plans, and performance in school and work.

- LSD (Lysergic Acid Diethylamide) is a semi-synthetic drug regarded as a hallucinogenic. Short-term effects of this drug are generally felt within an hour of consumption and may last from two to 12 hours. Physiologically the user experiences increased blood pressure, rise in body temperature, dilated pupils, rapid heartbeat, muscular weakness, trembling, nausea, chills, numbness, loss of interest in food, and hyperventilation. Fine motor skills and coordination are usually impaired, as are perception, thought, mood, and psychological processes. Long-term effects may include flashbacks, weeks and even months after taking the drug, mental illness, prolonged depression, anxiety, psychological dependence, and suicidal thoughts.
- PCP (Phencyclidine Hydrochloride) is a white crystalline powder that was originally used as a local anesthetic, but due to extreme side effects, was discontinued in 1967. In humans, PCP is a difficult drug to classify in that reactions may vary from stupor to euphoria and resemble the effects of a stimulant, depressant, anesthetic, or hallucinogen. Short-term effects include hyperventilation, increase in blood pressure and pulse rate, flushing and profuse sweating, general numbness of the extremities, and muscular in coordination. At higher doses it causes nausea, vomiting, blurred vision, loss of balance, and disorientation. It produces profound alteration of sensation, mood and consciousness, and can cause psychotic states in many ways indistinguishable from schizophrenia. Large doses have been known to cause convulsions, permanent brain damage, and coma.
- Psilocybin is a hallucinogenic drug occurring naturally in about 20 species of Mexican mushrooms and is also produced synthetically. It is a white powder made of fine crystals and distributed in tablet, capsule, or liquid form. Shortly after taking psilocybin, a user may experience increased blood pressure, rapid heartbeat, a rise in body temperature, dry mouth, dilated pupils, and some degree of agitation or excitement. This is followed by a decrease in the ability to concentrate or stay in touch with reality. (Hallucinations, as well as altered perceptions of time and space, may occur.) The effects are usually shorter lasting than those of LSD, yet the dangers are very similar.
- Cocaine is a naturally occurring stimulant drug which is extracted from the leaves of the cocoa plant. Cocaine is sold as a white translucent crystalline powder frequently cut to about half its strength by a variety of other ingredients including sugars and cleaning powders. It is one of the most powerfully addictive drugs in use today. Short-term effects of cocaine include constricted peripheral blood vessels, dilated pupils, increased heart rate and blood pressure. It also causes appetite suppression, pain indifference, possible vomiting, visual, auditory, and tactile hallucinations, and occasionally paranoia.

Long-term effects include nasal congestion, collapse of nasal septum, restlessness, irritability, anxiety, and depression. Overdoses or chronic use may result in toxicity which includes symptoms of seizures followed by respiratory arrest, coma, cardiac arrest, and/or death.

- Cocaine Free-Base or Crack is the result of converting street cocaine to a pure base by removing the hydrochloric salt in many of the “cutting” agents. The end result is not water soluble, and therefore, must be smoked. It is much more dangerous than cocaine because it reaches the brain in seconds, and the intensified dose results in a sudden and intense physical reaction. This response lasts a few minutes and is followed by deep depression, loss of appetite, difficulty in sleeping, feeling revulsion for self, and worries and obsessions about getting more crack. Consequently, users often increase the dose and frequency of use resulting in severe addiction that includes physical debilitation and financial ruin. Physiologically, seizures followed by respiratory arrest and coma or cardiac arrest and death may accompany long-term use.
- Amphetamines are central nervous system stimulants that were once used medically to treat a variety of symptoms including depression and obesity. They may be taken orally, sniffed, or injected into the veins. Short-term effects disappear within a few hours and include reduction of appetite, increased breathing and heart rate, raised blood pressure, dilation of pupils, dry mouth, fever, sweating, headache, blurred vision and dizziness. Higher doses may cause flushing, rapid and irregular heartbeat, tremor, loss of coordination, and collapse. Death has occurred from ruptured blood vessels in the brain, heart failure, and very high fever. Psychological effects include increased alertness, postponement of fatigue, a false feeling of well-being, restlessness, excitability, and a feeling of power. Long-term effects include drug dependence and the risk of drug induced psychosis. Withdrawal includes extreme fatigue, irritability, strong hunger, and deep depression that may lead to suicide.

Institutional Sanctions

The University will impose sanctions (consistent with local, State, and Federal law) upon all faculty, staff and students who violate the standards of conduct set forth in this policy. Such sanctions may include required completion (at the faculty, staff members, or students own expense) of an appropriate rehabilitation program chosen by the University, referral for prosecution, probation, suspension or expulsion of students and suspension or termination of faculty and staff members.

Living on Campus

The Living on Campus section is designed to help students settle into their new home at Grand Canyon University. It contains information regarding many aspects of Residential Life and Student Housing. The Academic Catalog, Housing Operations, Residence Life and Housing Operations, and Housing Contract provide a more complete understanding of GCU policies and guidelines.

Immunization Requirement

Immunization Requirement for GCU Residents

To ensure the health of the student population living on campus, Grand Canyon University requires students to submit documentation that they have received the Measles, Mumps and Rubella (MMR) vaccine or proof of immunity, and Meningococcal A vaccine prior to registering for student housing. Students can obtain additional information regarding this requirement on the Canyon Health and Wellness Center website

Immunization Requirement for Programs

Immunization requirements for the University may differ from the immunization requirements for certain programs of study and their associated placement and/or employment opportunities, (e.g., externships, internships, student teaching, clinical, practica, lab opportunities, school district positions). Students may be required to submit immunization documentation to various third-party agencies and are, therefore, responsible for ensuring they meet their respective requirements.

GCU requires students in the following programs to provide immunization records. Students can waive this requirement by following the guidelines published in the Undergraduate/Graduate Field Experience Manuals; however, students who live on campus are not eligible to waive this requirement unless a medical waiver is provided and signed by a medical provider.

Community Standards for Ground Campus

Grand Canyon University is first and foremost a Christian University and as such upholds a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere on campus that honors God. While students do not have to sign a Statement of Faith or be a Christian to attend GCU, they are expected to abide by the Community Standards. The Community Standards uphold certain University values that are believed to enhance the overall moral fabric of the community.

The Community Standards identify essential values that GCU students are expected to show mutual respect and courtesy to one another, faculty and staff. Our expectation is that students would reflect what is known as the “fruit of the Spirit” in their behavior. This includes demonstrating: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Our vision is that students would strive to treat others as they would want to be treated.

Our goal is to develop a community based on the Biblical principles of respect and honor. We as community members will strive to encourage one another, respect one another’s differences, speak truthfully, and create lasting relationships. We understand that these actions are most possible as a result of choosing to put others above ourselves and to look out for the interests of others. To help accomplish this, campus residents will be required to complete a Roommate Agreement, which is designed to proactively facilitate a conversation between roommates at the beginning of each semester. Students may contact their RA for more information.

Applicability of the University Policy Handbook as it applies to the Community Standards

- The University Policy Handbook as outlined in the Community Standards applies principally to conduct outside the classroom that occurs on University property or at University-related activities or facilities (in-class conduct is addressed in the University Policy Handbook).
- Likewise, conduct engaged through electronic communication systems, including but not limited to, social media, e-mail and text messaging, is subject to the University Policy Handbook as outlined in the Community Standards section.
- Off-campus behavior may also cause a student to go through the Student Conduct Process or other appropriate administrative action when it is reasonably perceived to pose an imminent threat of harm to the safety of the student or others, adversely affects the University Community and/or the pursuits of its objectives. The Dean of Students or his/her designee will decide whether the Community Standards will be applied to conduct occurring off campus, on a case by case scenario, in his/her sole discretion. This includes, but is not limited to, remote University Housing.
- Each student will be responsible for his/her conduct from the time of application for admission through the actual awarding of a degree and/or the end of the student’s housing contract, whichever comes last. Each student is responsible for their conduct even though conduct may occur before classes begin or after the classes end, as well as during the academic year and during periods between terms of actual enrollment.

- The University Policy Handbook as outlined in the Community Standards will apply to a student’s conduct even if the student withdraws from school while a conduct matter is pending.
- The University Policy Handbook as outlined in the Community Standards applies to commuter students as well. It is expected that they are aware of the University policies.
- Any violation of the University Policy Handbook as outlined in the Community Standards will remain on the student’s conduct record for the duration of his/her GCU academic career and will provide context for any future violations.

Community Standards

Students are held responsible to the following standards and if found in violation will go through the Student Conduct Process. See Sanctions for Conduct Violations for possible sanctions:

Alcohol

GCU maintains a dry campus and as such alcohol and/or alcohol paraphernalia are not permitted on GCU property, unless in university-designated areas permitted by state law and for patrons 21 years and older. GCU Dining Dollars/Lopes Cash may not be used to purchase alcohol. In any circumstance, students are not permitted to have alcohol outside these areas regardless of age.

Violations of the alcohol policy will be taken seriously and consequences include University-approved sanctions up to and including police involvement, suspension or expulsion from the university. Any alcohol-related offense could be grounds for expedited sanctions that could result in suspension or expulsion from the University. Violations of the alcohol policy include, but are not limited to:

- Consuming and/or possessing alcohol on campus. Alcohol bottles or containers will be treated as alcohol, opened or sealed, even if empty.
- Engaging in underage drinking.
- Providing alcohol to others underage.
- Public intoxication is the use of alcohol, even off-campus, that leads to public or obvious intoxication on campus that includes, but is not limited to, slurred speech, difficulty walking, needing medical assistance, violent behavior or any other behavior that is a disruption to the campus community.
- Refusal to take or successfully complete a breathalyzer test. When University personnel reasonably suspect a student of consuming or possessing alcohol on campus and/or when a student is believed to be publically intoxicated on campus, the student may be required to take a breathalyzer test.
- Students present where alcohol is actively being consumed will be in violation of the alcohol policy for not leaving the immediate area or reporting the violation to a University official.

- Students with knowledge of the presence of alcohol on campus may be considered in violation of the alcohol policy for not leaving the immediate area or reporting the violation to a University official.

Arizona revised statutes make it unlawful:

1. For a person under the age of twenty-one years, to buy, receive, have in possession or consume spirituous liquor. A.R.S. 4-241.
2. For a person to buy for resale, sell or deal in spirituous liquors in this state without first having procured a license duly issued by the Arizona State Liquor Board. A.R.S. 4-244(1).
3. To consume spirituous liquor in a public place, thoroughfare or gathering as set forth in A.R.S. 4-244(20).
4. For any person to serve or to furnish spirituous liquor to an intoxicated or disorderly person, or for any person to allow or to permit an intoxicated or disorderly person to come into or to remain at an event where spirituous liquor is being served or consumed. A.R.S. 4-244(14).
5. For a person to operate a motor vehicle on any highway while consuming spirituous liquor. A.R.S. 4-244(21).
6. To conduct drinking contests, or to sell or provide to a person an unlimited number of spirituous liquor beverages during any set period of time for a fixed price or to provide more than two spirituous liquor beverages to one person at one time for that person's consumption as set forth in A.R.S. 4-244(23).
7. To sell or give liquor to underage person; illegally obtaining liquor by underage person; violation; classification; definitions A.R.S. 4-241

Good Samaritan Policy

The overall health and safety of our students is of paramount concern to all members of Grand Canyon University. All community members are expected to act out of concern for themselves and others. Recognizing that there are times when students of the community find themselves in positions where medical assistance is needed to ensure the proper care of a person, the University has established this Good Samaritan Policy.

Grand Canyon University wishes to ensure that students at medical risk as a result of alcohol or drug use will receive prompt and appropriate medical attention. Members of the Grand Canyon University community, specifically students, have an ethical responsibility to contact a Residence Life staff member or the Office of Public Safety when they believe that assistance for an intoxicated student is needed.

Students who seek assistance from these sources and the individual(s) assisted, should not fear disciplinary action should they seek help for a friend or themselves who has had too much to drink or impaired. Instead, under the guidelines of this policy, these violations will be dealt with through health and safety education initiatives instead of disciplinary action with respect to the alcohol and drug policies. Students will be considered for a one-time acceptance under the guidelines of the policy through a review of the sequence of events that occurred during their incident.

The Office of Residence Life and Public Safety will record the name(s) of intoxicated or impaired student(s) and any other information that may enable any follow-up deemed necessary to ensure students' overall well-being. In order for this policy to apply, the intoxicated or impaired student(s) must agree to meet with a Student Conduct Officer to discuss the incident and understand the guidelines, process, and expectations. The student(s) will also agree to a timely completion of all the suggested educational and intervention recommendations.

Students who fail to complete any of the requirements assigned will be subject to action under the Community Standards for failure to complete those initiatives. Furthermore, community members who demonstrate a consistent and repeated pattern of behavior after appropriate intervention and education from the University will not be considered under this policy.

This policy does not preclude the University from taking disciplinary action regarding other violations of the Community Standards. Students should also be aware that this University policy does not prevent action by local, state and federal authorities.

The spirit of the Good Samaritan Policy is that there is an ethical responsibility to help people in need. This policy is designed to save lives. It is an expectation that our students will take active steps to protect the health and safety and well-being of the community and one another.

Alcohol Paraphernalia

Possession of alcohol paraphernalia is not permitted on campus. Alcohol paraphernalia is defined as any product whose primary function is for containing alcohol, drinking alcohol, or advertising or promoting alcohol (paraphernalia is not actual alcohol bottles or containers). This includes, but is not limited to, beer bong, funnels, decorative alcohol displays.

Civility and Respect

It is expected that all students demonstrate mutual respect and courtesy to one another, faculty and staff. Physical abuse, verbal abuse, bullying, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion, retaliation, including social media, and/or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person will not be tolerated. For the purposes of this section, "harassment" means conduct that is directed at a specific person and that would cause a reasonable person to be seriously alarmed, annoyed or harassed and the conduct in fact seriously alarms, annoys or harasses the person.

Arizona revised statutes states that a person commits harassment if, with intent to harass or with knowledge that the person is harassing another person, the person:

1. Anonymously or otherwise contacts, communicates or causes a communication with another person by verbal, electronic, mechanical, telegraphic, telephonic or written means in a manner that harasses.
2. Continues to follow another person in or about a public place for no legitimate purpose after being asked to desist.
3. Repeatedly commits an act or acts that harass another person.
4. Surveils or causes another person to surveil a person for no legitimate purpose.
5. On more than one occasion makes a false report to a law enforcement, credit or social service agency.
6. Interferes with the delivery of any public or regulated utility to a person.

For more information:

<http://www.azleg.state.az.us/ars/13/02921.htm>

Title IX regulations require non-discrimination on the basis of sex or gender. Prohibited sex discrimination includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, domestic/dating violence, stalking, and other misconduct offenses when sex or gender is the foundation. All reports of sex or gender-based discrimination are reviewed and resolved using the process outlined in the Gender-Based and Sexual Misconduct Policies and Grievance Procedures.

Grand Canyon University recognizes the rights of current students to dissent as long as it does not limit the freedom of others, damage University property, or delay the opportunity of the student body, faculty or staff to proceed regularly with their work, schooling or scheduled activities. When a rally or other such gathering requires building space or public areas, clearance must be obtained 48 hours in advanced from the Dean of Students.

Grand Canyon University reserves the right to make reasonable restrictions of location, time or format of such events, using the following guidelines in order to:

1. Alleviate potential problems with safety or potential disruption of University activities
2. Facilitate a free exchange of ideas consistent with the academic environment and the University mission.
3. Comply with federal, state, university, or local laws or ordinances.

Grand Canyon University reserves the right to review, cancel, alter or restrict events, demonstrations, speakers or groups whose nature or presentation is contrary to or inconsistent with the University mission or Christ-centered character. Off campus groups, individuals, churches, ministries, former students, or individuals not connected to the University as a current employee or student will not be permitted to use University owned or operated property for demonstrations and may not, at the University's discretion, participate in them.

Disorderly Conduct

Conduct that is disorderly, lewd or indecent will be considered a violation of the Community Standards. Disorderly conduct includes, but is not limited to, any unauthorized use of electronic or other devices to make an audio or video record of any person while on University premises without his/her prior knowledge or without his/her effective consent. This includes, but is not limited to, surreptitiously taking pictures of another person in a gym, locker room or restroom.

Drugs: Illegal and Unprescribed

Grand Canyon University is committed to maintain a drug-free community. Being under the influence of, using, possession of or distributing illegal drugs (including, but not limited to, the intent or ability to distribute), un-prescribed medications and/or corresponding paraphernalia on campus or at university-sanctioned events will not be tolerated. This includes distribution of one's own prescription drugs as well as prescriptions not prescribed to the student. Any drug-related offense could be grounds for expedited sanctions that could result in suspension or expulsion from the University. Failure to comply with these policies will result in the notification of Phoenix PD with the possibility of a felony charge(s).

Illegal drugs are defined as any controlled substance banned by the State of Arizona and/or the United States Federal Government. In addition to these banned controlled substances, GCU also prohibits the possession of synthetic marijuana products/ substitutes such as "Spice", "K2" or "Potpourri"; "Bath Salts", "Kertom"; prescription medication not prescribed to the possessor and synthetic substances categorized as a drug by law enforcement. Drug paraphernalia is described as any equipment, product, or material that is modified or used for making, consuming, using, or concealing drugs. This includes but it is not limited to the use or possession of a glass smoking pipe or items altered to assist in the making, using or concealing drugs including the scent of drugs.

Students with knowledge of the presence of illegal or unprescribed drugs on campus may be considered in violation of the drug policy for not leaving the immediate area or reporting the violation to a University official.

Medical Marijuana

Although the state of Arizona has medical marijuana statutes in place, the United States Federal Government does not currently recognize those statutes. The "Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1986 (20 U.S.C. 1145g)" prohibits illegal possession of controlled substances on the campus of institutions of higher education that receive Title IV funding. As Grand Canyon University is one such institution the possession and use of medical marijuana is prohibited in all campus areas.

Electronic and Other Smoking Devices

The possession of e-cigarettes, vapes and/or other legal smoking devices are allowed in designated areas on campus, but not in residential living areas. These items are not permitted in any living area.

Falsification of Information

Students will be held to a standard of honesty and are not permitted to falsify (verbal or written) information.

Failure to Comply

It is expected for students to promptly comply with a reasonable University directive.

Guest Privileges

Visitation Policy

Grand Canyon University strives to remain above reproach in all encounters with members of the opposite sex. For this reason, residential students of the opposite sex and/or significant others are allowed to visit during specified hours listed below and in the living room. Refer to the Guest Privileges section for guidelines related to off-campus guests and GCU-commuter student guests.

- In the residence halls, visitation hours for Sunday through Thursday are 12:00 PM (noon) to 11:00 PM.
- In the residence halls, visitation hours for Friday and Saturday are between 12:00 PM (noon) to 12:00 AM (midnight).
- In the apartments, visitation hours are 10:00 AM to 12:00 AM (midnight), seven days a week.
- In both apartments and residence halls, guests of the opposite sex and/or significant others are required to stay in the common living area of the apartment or dorm suite – they may not enter the bedroom (except for Studio Single Occupancy units in Papago 47).
- The door to the dorm suite must be propped open at 90 degrees for the entirety of the visit.
- Students may continue their visitation with the opposite sex in the main lobby on the first floor of the hall/dorm buildings, but not in the lobby, hall, stairwell, or study room of each floor.

Guest Policy

The Guest Privileges Policy applies to students hosting off-campus and/or GCU commuter students in the apartment/dorm during guest hours. For policy related to having GCU residential students as guests, please see the Visitation Privileges section.

Students in campus housing are allowed to have guests in their apartment or dorm. Students are expected to observe the following standards:

- Guests are the responsibility of the student who is hosting them, whether the guest is a GCU commuter student or an off-campus guest. The actions of the guests are the actions of the student hosting them. In other words, if a student's guest brings drugs into the apartment or dorm suite, the student host will assume all responsibility and sanctions for the violation.
- Guests are required to abide by all the policies and rules of the University.
- Residents are required to meet their guests at a University gate. Guests will not be permitted on campus without their student host present.
- Guests, whether off-campus guests or GCU commuter students, must sign in and out of the Guest Log found at the RA Desk in the lobby of the halls/apartments and the Hub of the North Rim Apartments.
- Guests must be at least 15-years old or accompanied by their parent or legal guardian.
- In all living areas, guests of the opposite sex and/or significant others are required to stay in the common living area of the apartment or residence hall suite – they may not enter the bedroom (except for the Studio Single Occupancy units in Papago 47). The door to the residence hall suite must be propped open at 90 degrees for the entirety of the visit.
- Guests must depart all living areas when guest/visitation hours end.

Overnight Guests in Campus Housing

Students living in campus housing are permitted to have guests (on or off-campus guests including GCU commuter students) spend the night with them on campus. Overnight guests must be of the same sex and not significant others. The same standards for Guest Privileges (see above) apply to the overnight guest plus these additional guidelines:

- All overnight guests are required to complete a Guest Registration Form found at the RA Desk in the lobby of the living areas and the Hub of the North Rim apartments.
- Overnight guests are only permitted to stay no more than six (6) nights per semester in campus housing, regardless of which student they stay with.
- Students are only permitted to have overnight guests no more than six (6) nights per semester in campus housing.

Hazing

Any and all forms of hazing and initiation are illegal whether voluntary or involuntary. The University takes very seriously any alleged forms of hazing and strictly prohibits this behavior. Hazing includes, but is not limited to:

- All forms of physical activity deemed dangerous or harmful.
- The application of foreign substances to the body.
- Scavenger hunts involving illegal activities, kidnapping, or ditching a member of the community.
- Depriving students of sleep.
- Not providing decent and edible foods.
- Depriving student's means of maintaining personal hygiene.
- Forcing, coercing, pressuring, or requiring a student to consume alcohol, or foreign or unusual amounts of substances.
- Nudity or forcing a student to dress in a degrading manner.

- Psychological hazing: any act which is likely to compromise the dignity of a student; cause embarrassment or shame to a student; cause a student to be the object of ridicule or malicious amusement; or inflict psychological or emotional harm.

Housing Guidelines

- Students, including GCU commuter students, who are found residing in other on-campus housing units other than is listed in their StarRez housing profile more than six nights, will be considered as a squatter and may be held liable for the pro-rated charge for semester housing.
- Students are not permitted to loan out their keys and passpoint, Student ID, or Parking Permit to another individual, even if it is a fellow GCU student.
- Students and/or their guests may not enter/exit a dorm room or apartment through a window.
- Students may not prop and/or use emergency exits during a non-emergency as defined by GCU.

Modesty

Modesty is showing the maturity to act and dress in a manner that reflects a person's maturity and faith, does not inhibit an atmosphere of learning and shows respect and professionalism. The University chooses not to define what constitutes modest dress but expects all student to dress appropriately for a learning and living community.

Fire Alarms

Students are not allowed to tamper with or adjust the fire alarm/smoke detector in any way. All students and their guests are expected to immediately evacuate any living space once a fire alarm is sounded.

Identifying Oneself

It is expected of students to identify him/herself when requested to do so by a University official, including resident assistants (RAs).

Inappropriate Language

Students are expected to avoid the use of inappropriate language (profanity and vulgarity).

Pets

Pets, other than fish or turtles in a small aquarium, are not allowed in residential facilities or on adjacent grounds. Aquariums may not be larger than 10 gallons and can be used only for fish or turtles.

Residents having pets for any length of time on campus will be subject to disciplinary action, a contract violation fine, and excessive cleaning fees.

Pets of visitors are not permitted on campus. The same rules apply regardless of pet ownership. It is the resident's responsibility to make sure guests are aware of the rules and policies of the University.

Students who need to have a service animal reside with them should contact the Student Disability Services Office to arrange for accommodations.

Students who need a service animal should contact the Student Disability Services Office to arrange for accommodations. Violating the pet policy may result in prolonging the approval of an emotional support animal on campus.

Pranks

Students who participate in any activity on or off campus that threatens and intimidates and/or endangers the health, physical, or emotional well-being of a community member; results in damage; malicious or non-malicious vandalism, or general disregard for University or private property; or involves a violation of University policy is strictly prohibited.

Quiet Hours

In all living areas, quiet hours are from 10:00 PM to 10:00 AM, seven days a week.

Smoking

Smoking is permitted in designated areas only. No smoking is permitted in any building, including all living areas including apartment balconies. Violators are subject to University sanction.

Theft and Vandalism

Attempted or actual theft of and/or damage to property of the University community or other personal or public property, on or off campus will be considered a violation of the Community Standards.

Weapons

Weapons as defined by GCU's Weapons-Free Campus Policy and hazardous materials are not allowed on campus. Banned weapons include, but are not limited to, firearms, live ammunition, BB guns, water-balloon launchers, paintball guns, airsoft guns, bows and arrow, blowguns and hunting or pocket knives longer than four inches when open.

Student Conduct Process

As a Christian university, GCU strives to offer loving accountability and to be redemptive in its approach to students who have violated the Community Standards.

Every situation is handled on a case-by-case basis.

The student will be referred to one of the following processes:

- Meet with a RD
- Meet with a Student-Led Community Conference
- Visitation Violation process
 - For the first three violations, the student will be emailed their sanctions.
 - The student may appeal the visitation sanction as outlined in the sanction letter or make an appointment with a Student Conduct Coordinator. This must be done within 5 calendar days after receiving the email.
 - If necessary, due to multiple infractions or the need to expedite the visitation violation process, the Student Conduct Coordinator will require a face to face meeting.
- Meet with a Student Conduct Coordinator.
 - If the student accepts responsibility that may be resolved informally with a hearing, the Student Conduct Coordinator will issue the student a letter defining the sanctions within seven calendar days.
 - If the student denies responsibility, the student will be referred to the Student Conduct Board.
 - If a student fails to attend the Student Conduct Coordinator meeting, it will be up to the discretion of the Student Conduct office to determine the next action which may include holds being placed on both the academic and housing accounts until the student attends the meeting.

- Meet with the Student Conduct Board
 - Student will be given the opportunity to further discuss the incident in order to determine involvement and possible sanctions. Sanctions can be enhanced all the way up to being banned from campus housing
- Meet with the Code of Conduct Committee
 - If the Student Conduct Board deems it appropriate based on the circumstances, a student can be referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.

The Student Conduct Manager will determine the composition of the Student Conduct Boards and determine which process is appropriate for the student. Any student serving on the Student Conduct Board is bound by a strict confidentiality agreement. The Student Conduct Manager will develop policies for the administration of the Student Conduct Board Hearings that are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Student Conduct Process. Decisions made by the Student Conduct Board or the Student Conduct office will be final, pending the normal appeal process. If a student fails to report to an assigned Conduct Coordinator and/or hearing, a fine may be assessed up to $50.00 for the first occurrence.

Serious offenses for which the Dean of Students may recommend suspension or expulsion from the University will be heard and decided by the University Code of Conduct Committee.

If a student is subject to State or Federal court fines and/or community service hours, a Student Conduct Officer will make the decision to whether or not to allow those fines and hours to replace that of the Student Conduct Board.

Any question of interpretation or application of the Community Standards and Student Conduct Process will be referred to the Dean of Students or his/her designee for final determination.

Student Conduct Board Hearing

At a Student Conduct Board Hearing, the technical rules of evidence, process and procedure used in a civil or criminal court will not apply.

Students who are subject to meet with the Student Conduct Board are notified by the Student Conduct Office. The student will be notified of the date, time and place of their hearing through text or email at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

If a student fails to appear before the Student Conduct Board, the Board will discuss the sanctions they feel are appropriate for the student. In most cases the absent student will be given the same sanction as other students who were involved in the same incident. If a student is the only person involved in the incident, the Board will base appropriate sanctions on the facts found in the RD or Public Safety report and as they appear in the guidelines for sanctions.

During the Student Conduct Board Hearing, students are not permitted to be accompanied by third parties or attorneys and may not document the hearing by the use of a recording device. The University will record the hearing and the recording will be University property. Students are introduced to the Board members and informed of the hearing's agenda. The students will then have chance to speak about the incident, give their account for the incident and accept or deny responsibility for the incident. Students then will be asked any pertinent questions that the Board may have and then the student will then be told the minimum sanctions, if any, for the corresponding incident. Before the student is dismissed, the student is informed of a timeline when they can expect to hear the Board’s decision and to pick up their sanction letter, if applicable.

After the student is dismissed from the hearing, the Student Conduct Board will decide whether to hold the student responsible or not for the incident. The determination of the Board is made on the basis of whether it is more likely than not that the student violated the Community Standards.

As a rule, the student will be informed of the Student Conduct Board’s decision in person and in writing. If a student fails to appear for the follow-up meeting with a Student Conduct Officer or is off-campus for a semester break, then any sanction letter and documentation will be mailed, emailed or placed on the student’s door, whichever is deemed appropriate by the University.

A student may be referred to a restorative justice process, where there will be dialogue between the responsible party and the harmed party/community.

Appeals of Student Conduct Sanctions

Appeals of sanctions given by the Student Conduct Board, a Student Conduct Officer or a Resident Director (RD) are only accepted within 72 hours of when the student is informed of the decision, either verbally or in writing, whichever is first (except for fines related to missed Hall Meetings, as noted below). Appeals are not accepted after this time. Appeals must include the student’s reason for the appeal, personal contact information, and the sanctions the student is disputing. Appeals not including all this information will not be accepted.

Appeals will only be accepted for the following reasons:

- There was a procedural error in the Student Conduct Process that unfairly and materially affected the outcome of the Student Conduct Board’s decision.
- Evidence has been discovered that was not reasonably available at the time of the hearing.
- The sanctions that were assigned were substantially disproportionate to similar violations.

If a student wishes to appeal sanctions imposed by the Student Conduct Board or a Student Conduct Officer, they can do so by completing the appeals form online at gcu.edu/studentconductappeals.

Reason for Appeal	Time to Appeal	1st Appeal Level	2nd Appeal Level
Visitation	5 days	Student Conduct Manager or designee	Director of Resident Life or designee
Community Conferences	72 hours	Student Conduct Coordinator	Student Conduct Manager
Student Conduct Board or Officer decision	72 hours	Director of Res. Life and Res. Life Mgr. or designee	Dean of Students or designee
Fine/Charges given by office of Residence Life	30 days	Residence Life Appeal Committee	Res. Life Mgr. or designee

Suspension or Expulsion from the University

It is always the goal of the Student Conduct Board to restore and redeem a student who violates a school policy. However, there may be times when a student’s suspension or expulsion from the University may be necessary for the health and safety of the entire community. In such cases, suspension or expulsion from the University will occur with a recommendation is made by the Student Conduct Board and the Dean of Students to the University Code of Conduct Committee.

Students Who Fail to Complete Sanctions

If a student fails to complete an assigned sanction by the given deadline as outlined in a sanction letter, a hold will be placed on the student’s academic and housing accounts. Making changes to a student’s schedule or their ability to choose housing will not be permitted until the sanctions have been completed.

Students Who Seek Retaliation after Receiving Sanctions

Students who seek retaliation after receiving their sanctions may be considered in violation and receive additional consequences.

Abuse of the Student Conduct Process

Abuse of the Student Conduct Process is strictly prohibited and includes, but is not limited to:

- Failure to obey the notice from the Student Conduct Board or a Student Conduct Officer to appear for a hearing or meeting as part of the Student Conduct Process.
- Falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information before a Student Conduct Board or Residence Life staff member.
- Disruption or interference with the orderly conduct of a Student Conduct Board meeting.
- Attempting to discourage an individual’s proper participating in, or use of, the Student Conduct Process.
- Harassment (verbal, physical, social media) and/or intimidation of a member of a Student Conduct Board prior to, during, and/or after a Student Conduct Board meeting.

Sanctions for Conduct Violations

Every conduct situation is handled on a case-by-case basis. Sanctions (consequences) can be enhanced all the way up through being banned from housing and, if the Student Conduct Board deems it appropriate based on the circumstances, being referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University. The following are examples of sample sanctions that may be given to the student found to have violated the Community Standards.

Alcohol

First Violation

In addition to legal consequences from the Phoenix PD if a minor is involved, sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Up to $75 fine to be charged to the student’s account.
- Community service to be determined by the Student Conduct Board, of which five hours must be completed in Chapel and/or the Gathering.
- If the student is under the age of 21, a parent or guardian will be required to call and speak with a Student Conduct Coordinator or his/her designee regarding the incident.
- Educational sanctions given by Student Conduct Coordinator

Second Violation

In addition to legal consequences from the Phoenix PD if a minor is involved, sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Up to $150 fine to be charged to the student's account.
- Community service to be determined by the Student Conduct Board.
- If the student is under the age of 21, a parent or guardian will be required to call and speak with a Student Conduct Coordinator or his/her designee regarding the incident.
- Educational sanctions given by Student Conduct Coordinator

Third Violation

In addition to legal consequences from the Phoenix PD if a minor is involved, sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- The student will lose campus housing privileges and will be banned from all residential areas on campus.
- Possible referral to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension from the University.
- Any additional offenses may result in being referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.
- Complete an Evaluation by a Licensed Independent Substance Abuse Counselor (LISAC) and allow the facility to freely communicate with the Student Conduct Office.

Providing to underage

In addition to being held to an alcohol violation, any student of legal age providing alcohol to underage students may receive loss of housing and/or referral to Code of Conduct.

Civility and Respect

Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Mediation with both parties involved.
- Written warning
- Possible community service hours.

- Community Service Hours
- Counseling
- Relocation
- Removal from Housing
- Possible recommendation to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.

Physical One-on-One Fight

Students involved in a one-on-one fight will be sent through the Student Conduct Process. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Fine
- Community Service Hours
- Counseling
- Relocation
- Ban from campus housing at the discretion of the Student Conduct Board
- Involvement of the Phoenix Police Department depending on severity of physical harm.

Extreme Physical Fight

Students involved in an extreme physical fight which includes, but is not limited to, multiple people vs. one person fight and hate crimes will be sent through the Student Conduct Process. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Fine
- Community Service Hours
- Counseling Assessment
- Housing suspension
- Referral to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University
- Involvement of the Phoenix Police Department

Drugs: Illegal and Un-prescribed

Any drug-related offense could be grounds for expedited sanctions that could result in suspension or expulsion from the University. Every situation involving illegal and/or un-prescribed drugs is handled on a case-by-case basis. Sanctions can be enhanced all the way up through being suspended from housing and, if the Student Conduct Board deems it appropriate based on the circumstances, being referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.

Selling/Distribution of Illegal and Un-prescribed Drugs

In addition to legal consequences which may result from the involvement of the Phoenix PD, sanctions are:

- Student will be immediately removed from campus housing.
- Student will be referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.

Illegal and Unprescribed Drugs Policy: First Violation

In addition to legal consequences which may result from the involvement of the Phoenix PD, sanctions may include but are not limited to:

- The student found violating the University drug policy will temporarily lose his/her student status for a specified period of time (usually a week), with resulting loss of all student rights and privileges. During the entire duration of a University Furlough, the student is not to attend class, University functions and/or to be on University property. The student must vacate the campus at the date and time noted in the sanction letter given to the student. The student will not be permitted to make up missed academic work prior to, during or after the stated period of furlough. If the University Furlough were to fall on the week of mid-terms or final exams, the student will be furloughed for the subsequent week the student is enrolled.
 - If seen or found on GCU property during the given furlough, the student will be referred to Code of Conduct for possible suspension or expulsion from the University
- Once the University Furlough has been completed and in certain situations, the student may also lose his/her campus housing privileges and be banned from all residential areas on campus for an extended duration. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis at the sole discretion of the Student Conduct Board.
- Up to $250 fine to be charged to the student's account.
- Community service to be determined by the Student Conduct Board, of which five hours must be completed in Chapel or the Gathering.
- Random drug tests at the time, location and in the manner of the University's choosing and at the student's expense until graduation or no longer a student at GCU.

- If the student is under 21, a parent or guardian will be required to call and speak with a Student Conduct Officer or his/her designee regarding the incident.
- The student may also be required to complete a drug assessment, at his or her expense, to determine the level of dependency or abuse plus any resulting treatment.
- Students with extended housing bans may be reinstated to housing if conditions are met, which may include, but are not limited to, drug testing, treatment, and counseling.
- Educational sanctions given by Student Conduct Coordinator

Illegal and Un-prescribed Drugs: Second Violation

In addition to legal consequences which may result from the involvement of the Phoenix PD, sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Student will lose on-campus housing privileges and be banned from all residential areas.
- Student will be referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.
- If the student is under the age of 21, a parent or guardian will be required to call and speak with a Student Conduct Officer or his/her designee regarding the incident.

Electronic and Other Smoking Devices

Students in possession of electronic or other smoking devices in living areas may be sent through the Student Conduct Process. Minimum sanctions include but are not limited to:

- Confiscation and destruction of devices by Public Safety.
- At the sole discretion of the Student Conduct Officers these items may be viewed as drug paraphernalia and treated as such. (See Illegal and Un-prescribed Drug section).

Failure to Comply

Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Up to $150 fine
- Community Service Hours
- Educational sanctions given by Student Conduct Coordinator
- Relocation
- Removal from Housing
- Possible recommendations to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University

- Possible involvement of the Phoenix Police Department depending on severity of physical harm
- Possible referral to the Code of Conduct Board for suspension from the University.
- Suspension from campus housing, possible involvement of the Phoenix PD and possible referral to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.

Housing Guidelines

Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- $50 Fine up to the pro-rated charge for semester housing

Fire Alarms

Any students and their guests who do not immediately evacuate any living space once a fire alarm is sounded will be fined $250.00. Any student and/or suitemates that activate the fire alarm, may be required to take an educational class on fire safety.

Any student or room that has tampered with the smoke detector/fire alarm (covering, disabling, etc.) will be charged a $250 fine. In addition, any student with non-approved items (including, but not limited to appliances and electronic smoking devices such as a vape) present in the room when the smoke detector is triggered, will be charged a $500 fine for the first offense, and $750 for the second offense. A third offense would be sent before the Student Conduct Board for possible removal from housing.

Pets

Sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Sent through the Student Conduct Process
- Fine up to $150 plus damages
- Community Service
- Possible delay in any pending SDS approval

Pranks

Sanctions may include but are not limited to:

- Sent through the Student Conduct Process.
- Fine
- Community Service
- Possible suspension from campus housing at the discretion of the Student Conduct Board.
- Possible involvement of the Phoenix Police Department depending on severity of the prank.
- Possible referral to the Code of Conduct Board for suspension or expulsion from the University.

Smoking

Smoking in undesignated areas may result in a verbal warning or a $50 fine. Student may also have to pay cleaning & damage fines if they have smoked in their room/apartment. Triggering a fire alarm due to smoking cigarettes in a living area will result in a $500.00 fine and $750.00 for the second offense

Theft and Vandalism

In addition to legal consequences which may result from the involvement of the Phoenix PD, the sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

- Repayment of stolen and/or damaged goods.
- Community service.
- If theft took place in his/her room, the student may be required to change rooms and live in and pay for a single room.
- Student may lose housing privileges and be banned from all residential areas on campus.
- The student may be referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension from the University.
- Any additional offenses may result in being referred to the Code of Conduct Committee for suspension or expulsion from the University.
- Educational sanctions given by Student Conduct Coordinator

Weapons

Students possessing weapons on campus in violation of GCU's Weapons-Free Campus Policy may face sanctions up to and including referral to the Code of Conduct Committee and/or the Threat Assessment Team for possible suspension or expulsion from the University. Students possessing a firearm on campus are subject to immediate expulsion from the University.

Violation of the Weapons Policy (Non-Firearm) may result in:

- Verbal Warning
- Fine
- Confiscation

- Educational sanctions given by Student Conduct Coordinator
- Community Service

Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT)

Mission Statement

The mission of the Grand Canyon University Behavioral Intervention Team (GCU BIT) is to implement timely interventions that protect the safety and well-being of the student and the University community at large. The GCU BIT was established to identify, assess, and monitor students displaying moderate to extreme levels of concern, disruption, and/or behavioral dysregulation, including homicidal, suicidal, or self-injurious threats. The primary goal of the GCU BIT is to provide risk assessments and early intervention in order to identify appropriate resources and referrals before a crisis arises.

Membership

The GCU BIT is composed of the following individuals from various university departments:

- Vice President of Student Affairs, Dean of Students
- Case Management
- Clinical Counseling
- Academic Compliance
- Residence Life
- Public Safety

As appropriate, depending on the student's various roles at the University, the GCU BIT may consult with other departments if necessary.

Reporting Procedures

The GCU BIT utilizes various reporting methods to gather information regarding concerning or disruptive behaviors, including but not limited to Wellness Checks, staff and faculty reporting, and incidents that are reported through GCU Residence Life and GCU Public Safety. These reports and the students' overall GCU experience are reviewed as needed by a delegation of the GCU BIT to determine an initial level of concern and appropriate responses as necessary.

Meeting Schedule and Protocol

During the academic semester, the GCU BIT meets weekly to review new incidents and to monitor student progress. When notified of an incident, the team will conduct an investigation, determine the level of concern, and recommend appropriate responsive action and is considered on a case by case basis. These actions may include connecting the student to campus resources, referrals to off campus resources, and contacting the Emergency Contact on file with the University to include them in the process.

Potential Outcomes

The GCU BIT may recommend any of the following outcomes, based on the cumulative level of concern and urgency to ensure the safety and well-being of the student of concern.

Mandated Referral Service

The team may recommend that a student of concern participate in mandated screening or assessment services through the GCU Office of Student Care. A screening will include an evaluation of the student's presenting concern and level of risk. A screening will provide referrals for applicable campus and community resources. An assessment will review the student's psychosocial information as well as the student's presenting concern and level of risk. This assessment will provide a clinical recommendation for a care plan.

EMPACT-SPC

The team may utilize the EMPACT-SPC Crisis Line to efficiently determine the student's current lethality and risk to self or others. These actions will include a clinical recommendation for the appropriate level of treatment for the student of concern.

Health Management Contract

The GCU BIT may implement a Health Management Contract for the student of concern. This contract will outline the student's care plan. This care plan may include academic accommodations through Student Disability Services, as well as a mental health care plan to include psychiatric and counseling parameters (frequency of visits, level care, medication management assistance, etc.). Students must adhere to the terms of the contract and failure to comply is seen as a failure to comply with a reasonable University directive and may result in a Code of Conduct violation. Please see the University's policies for Code of Conduct in the University Policy Handbook.

Emergency Contact

Upon determination of elevated level of risk, the GCU BIT will contact the student's listed emergency contact in compliance with FERPA and HIPAA laws. This contact will include a brief notification of the student's presenting concern as well as an overview of the GCU BIT process. The only exception to this responsive action will be when the emergency contact is contraindicated to create greater risk for the student of concern.

Interim Suspension

The GCU BIT may implement an interim suspension from campus life during the BIT decision-making process. This may include Emergency Contact notification, academic accommodations, or housing restrictions.

Emergency Mental Health Policy

The GCU BIT may enact the University Emergency Mental Health Policy found in the University Policy Handbook.

Appeal Process

In the event a student wants to appeal a BIT determination, the student may submit a written appeal using the University Appeal Procedures outlined in the University Policy Handbook.

Records

Each GCU BIT meeting will be documented and records are maintained to track students' progress and compliance. This documentation will include a summary of each student of concern discussed, including the initial incident, departmental interactions, level of concern, and departmental response actions, as well as the cumulative level of concern and cumulative recommended response. All records are confidential and access is limited to GCU BIT members.

Please also reference the University Emergency Mental Health Policy found in the University Policy Handbook.

Emergency Mental Health Policy

There are times when the University may require a student to seek a professional mental health evaluation and/or treatment if there is sufficient evidence that the student is engaging/likely to engage in behavior that represents a danger to her/himself or others, or substantially disrupts the learning environment and activities of the campus community. There are limits to the University's ability to care for students with serious psychological conditions and the University reserves the right to decide, in certain circumstances, when it cannot provide educational and/or other services to a particular student who creates an emergency situation.

In emergency situations, the University reserves the right to do any or all of the following:

- Consult with the student and refer her/him to a mental healthcare facility or provider (GCU Counseling Services, an area hospital, licensed mental health or healthcare professional, or Urgent Psychiatric Care Center)(hereinafter "GCU-Approved Mental Health Provider") for a mental health evaluation. The cost for any off-campus referral will be at the expense of the student.
- If a student refuses to voluntarily seek help, the Empact – SPC Crisis line (480-784-1500) and/or Urgent Psychiatric Care Center (602-416-7600) will be called. They will assess the student and determine if transportation to a facility is necessary.
- Remove the student from campus (including on-campus housing) until such time that a full mental health and/or medical evaluation is completed and the Dean of Students and/or Registrar approves the student's return to campus.
- Require the student to sign appropriate release forms allowing designated staff at Grand Canyon University to consult clinician(s) serving the student.
- Refer the student to the University Student Conduct Process if the student's behavior has violated any rules, policies or procedures.

Any of the foregoing emergency decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis, and in alignment with the recommendation(s) of the applicable GCU-Approved Mental Health Provider.

In a non-emergency situation, if a student experiences serious psychological difficulties that become chronic, dangerous, or excessively disruptive, the Dean of Students and/or Registrar (or their designees) may require the student to be assessed by a GCU-Approved Mental Health Provider. The purpose of this assessment is to determine:

- Whether the student is safe to remain on campus and does not pose a threat to him/herself or others and is able to adequately care for him/herself.
- Whether the student is able to function both socially and academically and will not cause any disruption to the community or normal functioning of the University.

After receiving the written assessment, the Dean of Students and/or Registrar (or their designees) will make a decision about the student's status, which may include any of the emergency actions detailed above.

In the event of a suicide attempt, the student will be immediately removed from campus. The determination whether a suicide attempt occurred will be made by a GCU-Approved Mental Health Provider.

If removal from campus is deemed necessary under the terms of this policy, GCU will contact the student's Emergency Contact, and the student will be remanded to that person's care. GCU will notify the student and the student's Emergency Contact that the student will not be permitted to return GCU's campus until the student receives approval from the Dean of Students and/or Registrar (or their designees) in accordance with this policy. The Emergency Contact will be responsible for making immediate housing arrangements for the student at this time (or upon release from emergency medical care, if applicable). Upon request, GCU will refund prorated housing costs for the time the student is not permitted to live in GCU's residential facilities. If, after a student has been notified that he or she has been removed from campus under this policy, he or she violates the prohibition by visiting campus, such violation may result in review with the University Code of Conduct Committee.

A student removed from campus pursuant to this policy may return to campus only after a follow-up assessment has been performed by a GCU-Approved Mental Health Provider. After receiving the follow-up assessment, the Dean of Students and/or Registrar (or their designees) will make a decision about the student's status, which may include the following options:

- Immediate return to the campus, provided the student signs and follows a Health Management Contract with the SDS Office, Office of Residence Life, and the GCU Counseling Services Office. Failure to follow the contract will result in review with the University Code of Conduct Committee.
- Student's return to campus limited to class attendance, with residence hall restriction remaining in place.

- Student's return to campus deferred until additional assessment or treatment can be obtained.
- Student's return to campus deferred indefinitely due to significant and specific concerns about continued danger to him/herself or others and/or disruption to the community

All decisions made pursuant to this policy will be on a case by case basis and aligned with recommendations made by a GCU-Approved Mental Health Provider.

In the best interest of a removed student, SDS will work with her/him and faculty to offer the student the ability to continue in his or her Traditional campus classes online, where available, at no additional cost. If the student is enrolled in classes which are not available online, the student will be dropped from the course(s) and the student may submit a grievance to receive a refund for the portion of the class(es) not completed.

In some circumstances, Grand Canyon University reserves the right to notify the parents of the student and appropriate University officials, including academic deans and faculty, due to the potentially serious nature of the situation, as permitted by law.

Glossary

The following is a glossary of commonly used terms:

Borrower-based Academic Year: A financial aid year based on each student's enrollment. The year for undergraduate programs is defined as a minimum of 24 earned credits and 30 instructional weeks. The academic year for graduate programs is defined as a minimum of 16 earned credits and 32 instructional weeks. The academic year for doctoral programs is defined as a minimum of 12 earned credits and 32 instructional weeks. All nontraditional students use this type of financial aid year.

Doctoral student: A learner who is currently taking courses that has not yet earned a doctoral degree, but already holds a master's degree.

Enrollment: A student's program of study

Enrollment Cumulative GPA: GPA earned on a program of study or enrollment

Masters student: A student who is currently taking courses that has not yet earned a master's degree, but already holds a baccalaureate degree.

Nontraditional Student: Any student who is not attending campus courses. This includes online and professional studies students.

Satisfactory Academic Progress: Students are required to maintain two measurements of satisfactory academic program, GPA and % progression as measured by attempted versus completed courses. If either of these are not maintained, a student is said to not be making satisfactory academic progress.

Semester-based Academic Year: A financial aid year based on terms, specifically the semester. All traditional campus students use this type of financial aid year.

Traditional Campus Student: Any student who is taking courses on GCU's traditional campus.

Undergraduate Student: A student who is currently taking courses that has not yet earned a baccalaureate degree.

Unencumbered license: A license that is in good standing. The formal rule definition is that " 'good standing' " means that the license or certificate is not presently subject to any disciplinary action, consent order, or settlement agreement". This means that the nurse is not under current discipline (does not include Decree of Censure as once the nurse signs, the decree is in the past). Would not include "under investigation" because there is no PRESENT disciplinary action--may be one in the future but not in the present.
